

LAND	WATER	ENERGY	FOOD	MATERIAL	EDUCATION	PROMOTION	SOCIAL JUSTICE
Brendle Group identified Creighton’s carbon footprint (2011) Established annual Earth Day celebrations with emphasis on education and introduction of environmental savings technologies (2001 – 2011) Creighton was awarded $10,000 worth of trees through the Arbor Day Foundation and Toyota through Tree Campus USA. Students and other volunteers planted the trees along Wareham Parkway. (2010) The James R. Russell Child Development Center’s outdoor nature classroom earned the national designation of a certified Nature Explore Classroom from the Arbor Day Foundation and Dimensions Educational Research Foundation (2010) Sponsored Arbor Day celebration in conjunction with Earth Day (2009 – 2010) Received national award from Professional Grounds Management Society (2009) CU and HWS awarded Brownfield recognition for clean-up of the Moreco Plating (2007)	Watered Down, an art installation that addresses economic & environmental issues surrounding the global water crisis was held on campus (2010) Restoration of the natural pond adjacent to the campus green house (2010) Prominent national speakers on campus to discuss the global water crisis (2010) Implemented a new irrigation program for University landscaping (2007 – 2011)	Fr. Schlegel became first Nebraska President to sign ACUPCC, committing Creighton University to establish date and plan for carbon neutrality (2010) Wind turbines installation completed in (2011) Implementation of on campus bike storage (2011) The Energy Management department helped organize an energy-reduction contest in CU residence halls (2009-2011) Biking initiatives being formulated over the past three years (2008 -2011) Move towards on campus electric fleet (2008 - 2011) A Creighton Zipcar program has been initiated on campus (2010) Facilities Management and the Green Jays hosted a tire inflation event for campus constituents (2010) Creighton University has been selected by OPPD as a beta site for testing new technology that reduces the amount of electricity and air conditioning (2010) Solar panel installation completed across campus (2010)	Community sustainable closed loop garden to be rolled out in Spring (2011) Collaborated with Gifford Park in community gardening project (2008 – 2011) An organic community garden was installed in a vacant lot on 18th Street. (2010 - 2011) Contracted Filta cooking oil filtration and fry management company (2010 - 2011) Recycling program in place in campus kitchens. (2009) Implemented tray-less dining in the CU dining halls (2008) Sodexo purchasing more local, organic, and fair trade products in conjunction with their own “A Better Tomorrow” program (2011) Maintained Fair Trade Coffee through all retail outlets on campus through Green Mountain Coffee Roasters and Sodexo (2008 – 2011)	Implementation of a University wide printer initiative (2011) Participated in Recycle Mania, a competition between participating schools (2010 – 2011) Co-hosted, with LifeSpan, a free electronics recycling event in honor of “America Recycles Day.” (2010 – 2011) Single stream recycling in full conversion mode (2009 - 2011) Recycled Christmas decorating contest (2009 - 2011) Student dorm recycling end of semester managed by John Walker (2006 – 2011) Purchase of IT Technology, office supplies and furniture from green sources (2006 – 2011) Recycling of metals and other materials by Facilities Management (2005 – 2011) Implementation of battery and cell phone recycling program (2004 – 2011) CU implemented a new almost paperless credit card process campus wide (2010)	The new Energy Technology Major introduced at CU (2011) The Alternative Energy project will be a teaching facility for students (2010 – 2011) Numerous “Green Bag” Lunch and Learns (2009 - 2011) Presentations: <ol style="list-style-type: none"> 1. Element Distribution sustainable packaging 2. Omaha by Design 3. Johnson Control – CU energy reduction 4. CU and migratory bird death aversion Sustainability Council has participated in Purchasing’s Sourcing Expo (2007 – 2011) The Green Jays student group cosponsored a “10-10-10 Global Work Party” event (2010) Toured Morrissey Engineering Building, a completely green facility (2010) The Sustainability Council and Joslyn Institute for Sustainable Communities hosted the Conversations Conferences on Nebraska Environment and Sustainability (2010)	Creighton started the Midlands Educational Sustainability Forum meeting quarterly (2009 - 2011) Sustainability became a part of the University Strategic Plan (2009) Developed council website (2009) Creighton, partnering with Unisource, offered a Sustainability Forum for area businesses (2009) Received B+ rating on the “The College Sustainability Report Card” presented by the Sustainable Endowments Institute (2010) CU representative spoke at annual Omaha Earth day celebration (2010) Creighton is the only school in Nebraska chosen to be in The Princeton Review's Guide to 268 Green Colleges for (2010) Creighton was the subject of an article in the March/April 2010 issue of Green Business Quarterly (2010) A front page article in the edition of the Omaha World-Herald highlighted the alternative energy	CCSJ service trips now includes six annual trips dedicated to Sustainability (2008 – 2011) Member of 350.org (2010) CCSJ added “Sustainability” as one of their guiding Pillars to their service trips and office practices (2008) Established a “Fair Trade University” subcommittee of the Sustainability Committee with representation from students, staff, faculty, Harper/Skutt, Purchasing, CCSJ, and Sodexo (2011)

		Creighton became a partner with Metro Ride Share (2009) Full time employee hired to do nightly energy checks. Assignment ended. (2009-2010)		Green Jays recycle demonstration on the KFC lawn (2010) Green Jays recycled text books through Better World Books (2009 – 2010) Conducted a Habitat ReStore drive (2009 – 2010)	Sponsored National Global Warming teach-in (2009 - 2010) Attended a learning seminar at the College of St. Mary (2009) Green Jays sponsored the international day of climate action (2009) Green Jays student group began under the leadership of Jay Leighter PhD (2009) Attended a Sustainability forum at Offutt (2008) Johnson Control Navigator workshop (2008)	project May 12, (2010) Creighton was featured in the May 17 edition of the AASHE Bulletin (2010) The Solar Energy Industries Association featured Creighton’s solar array in one of its “Solar Generation USA” webisodes (2010) The Nebraska Solar Energy Society featured Creighton’s solar array and Energy Technology major as a part of its solar tour of the state in October (2010) Cover story article in Creighton Magazine fall/winter issue. (2010)
--	--	---	--	--	--	--	--