

SUMMER 2012 SCHEDULE

REVISED APRIL 9, 2012

COURSE / PROFESSOR		ROOM
Electives Online	April 30 through June 17, 2012
Organizational Collaborative Practice and Conflict Resolution (NDR 797) (3) Instructor: John Ford	In today's competitive environment, organizations increasingly must cope with complexities, uncertainties, and conflict. The ability to build collaborative teams and to manage and learn from conflict effectively is critical. Students will learn techniques and approaches for organizational team building, conflict management, and process facilitation and consulting.
Collaboration and Conflict Resolution in Health Care (NDR 771) (3) Instructor: Laurie Miller-Patterson	Conflicts in health care can involve poor clinical outcomes that may result in lawsuits, licensure disputes, credentialing and employment claims, and a lack of trust in the system as a whole. There is a growing need for new approaches that address system complexity, consumer needs, clinician autonomy, and quality of care. With a focus on practical application of process tools and systems design strategies, students will learn effective techniques that can be integrated into clinical settings and for managing legal and ethical issues that arise.
International Negotiation and Conflict Resolution (NDR 773) (3) Instructor: Janice McRae	International conflicts can involve states, corporations, peoples, and political factions. With applications from a variety of disciplinary perspectives, including international law, business, anthropology, and political science, students will learn approaches to conflict in the context of globalization with a focus on the
