

Creighton University Presents

“Peacemaking in Madagascar”

With Reverend Hubert Rakotoarivony

Tuesday, October 9th ---- 11:30 am- 1:00 pm

Skutt 105 ---- Bring your lunch, tables will be provided.

The Rev. Hubert Rakotoarivony is a minister in the Church of Jesus Christ in Madagascar. He leads his denomination’s Commission on the Life of the Country and also works as a resource person at the Christian Council in Madagascar on the forgiveness, peace, justice, and reconciliation process. He formerly worked in the Presidency of the Republic as General Director of the National Leadership Institute of Madagascar from March 2007 until March 2009 (when the military deposed the democratically elected President). He has been involved in HIV/AIDS projects for 15 years.

Co-sponsors: African Studies Program, History Department, Justice & Peace Studies Program, Kripke Center for the Study of Religion & Society, Presbytery of Missouri River Valley, Werner Institute for Negotiation & Dispute Resolution.