

ALL THINGS IGNATIAN

Celebrating Mission at Creighton University

Department of Ignatian Formation and Ministry for Faculty and Staff

Collaborative Ministries and The Deglman Center for Ignatian Spirituality

What Our Department Offers:

Mission Formation,
Retreats,
Pastoral/Spiritual Outreach

We provide a place where faculty and staff can find a listening ear and an understanding heart when faced with crisis or challenge.

Susan Naatz, Senior Director, Fr. Andy Alexander, S.J., Fr. Larry Gillick, S.J., Julie Carlson, admin. asst., Fr. Greg Carlson, S.J.

Creighton Online Ministries

In one year, Creighton's Online Ministries website received more than:

70 million visits from 208 countries.

- Experience continuing spiritual support and development through the many offerings of Creighton's Online Ministries:
- Daily reflections on the Scriptures: creighton.edu/daily
- Online meditations on the Spiritual Exercises (with guided groups on campus) over a 30-week period each academic year beginning in late September
- Community prayer requests and notices for the Creighton community members

Email Fr. Alexander: andrewalexander@creighton.edu to be put on the email list or to request prayers

St. Ignatius Award

Each year, the Deglman Center for Ignatian Spirituality recognizes members of Creighton's faculty and staff who live the spirit of St. Ignatius.

Recent Recipients:

2019 Gerard Kuhlman

2018 Colleen Hendrick & David P. Weber

2017 Dr. Roger Bergman & Marianne Clark

Creighton Colleagues Program

Yearlong formation opportunity for staff to look more deeply at the implications of Ignatian leadership values in the workplace, and to learn more about the Jesuit and Catholic character of the mission of Creighton University. It is modeled after the national "Ignatian Colleagues Program."

MISSION WEEK