ASSISTANTSHIPS IN RESIDENCE LIFE

Join our talented, energetic Residence Life staff as a Graduate Apartment Coordinator or the Graduate Assistant Director of Cortina.

Be a part of our caring hall staff community where you will discover our professional staff members are committed to your personal and professional development.

Gain experience interacting with a variety of offices within the Division of Student Services, such as Student Activities, Multicultural Affairs, Career Services and Judicial Affairs.

Creighton’s Department of Residence Life houses approximately 2500 students throughout 6 Residence Halls and 3 Apartment Complexes. Our philosophy centers on class-year housing, in which students live with other students of their same year in school.

Graduate Apartment Coordinator (AC) are the main coordinators of the three apartment buildings, and are supervised by the Associate Director of Residence Life.

All AC positions in Residence Life involve building community in the halls, responding to student needs and conduct issues, advising the building’s council, working with the hall “Community Partner” to promote community service, supervising the front desk staff, serving on a rotating on-call duty schedule, and maintaining the administrative aspects of the building.

Graduate Assistant Director of Cortina (GADC) is a live-in member of the Cortina Community. Along with the Direct or Cortina/Resident Director of Deglman, the GADC oversees the successful development of the largest living-learning community at Creighton. The positions supports all aspects of the Cortina program.

The Graduate Assistantship in Residence Life are 12-month position, starting June 1. The positions require a minimum 20 office hours per week and full participation in building, department and divisional efforts. All Graduate Assistants must maintain a full time graduate status and a QPA of 3.0 in their graduate field of study while in the Graduate Assistantship role.
