Living with Integrity in Your Daily Life

Center for Student Integrity

Integrity

Challenge yourself to shape a personal code of positive values, to live a healthy, balanced lifestyle, and to discover and embrace the responsibilities of your freedom, intelligence, and intrinsic worth.

“Don't bother just to be better than your contemporaries or predecessors. Try to be better than yourself.” ~William Faulkner

Dignity

Respect and promote the dignity of all persons.

“Every life deserves a certain amount of dignity, no matter how poor or damaged the shell that carries it.”

~Rick Bragg

We Develop, Create, Partner and Encourage

Sponsored by the Creighton University Jesuit Community, in association with the Deglman Center for Ignatian Spirituality.

Community

Choose to be a positive, productive, and committed part of our community.

“Students of all cultures are supposed to come together on campus to learn from each other and about each other.” ~Sandra Day O'Connor

Development

Welcome compassion and consider the needs and the well being of others. Encourage others to develop moral, spiritual, intellectual, emotional, personal, and vocational abilities.

“My life is part of a global life. I'd found myself becoming more mobile. A distant nation my community, a street person my responsibility. If I have a care in the world I have a gift to bring.” ~Indigo Girls
