Attend a Bollywood-Focused History Lesson on India's Independence

Funded by the Creighton Global Initiative

GLOBAL BOLLYWOOD

Translating the World for India and India for the World

By Dr. Rohit Chopra, Associate Professor Department of Communication
Santa Clara University

Using the theoretical lens of translation, Dr. Chopra will map the evolution of the 'globalness' of Bollywood from Indian independence in 1947 to the present, with reference to iconic films, like Amar Akbar Anthony, Kuch Kuch Hota Hai, and Omkaara.
His talk will locate key moments in the global story of Bollywood in the context of a wider apparatus of media in post-independence India.

Free to CU students, faculty, and staff!
Tuesday, October 2 at 7:00 pm

Invitation to Join the Interfaith Core Team in Campus Ministry

Hello, my name is Beth Samson and I work in Creighton's Campus Ministry office. I work with the Interfaith Core Team - a group of students who gather every week to build friendship across faith traditions, plan events on campus to increase awareness of the different faith/spiritual traditions on campus, plan trips to visit places of worship for different faith traditions around Omaha, and plan the annual university-wide Interfaith Prayer Service happening in February 2019.

We have students involved in the Interfaith Core Team who are Muslim, Buddhist, Sikh, and Catholic. We are hoping to have a group that more expansively reflects the faith and spiritual traditions present on our campus. If you are interested in learning more about this group, please click the links below:
