

AJCU HIGHER ED NEWS

AJCU Institutions Continue to Support Relief Efforts in Haiti

January 22, 2010

Creighton surgical team members departed for the Dominican Republic last Saturday (Photo from Creighton)

- A surgical team from Creighton University is in the Dominican Republic to assist victims from Haiti
- Fordham University will host panelists to discuss humanitarian responses to the earthquake
- Marquette University is sharing several prayers for the victims on its website
- To read about even more efforts, please visit the AJCU website

New Initiatives at AJCU Institutions

Loyola University Chicago to Debut Rent-A-Text Book Program in Fall 2010

New Loyola University Maryland Program to Examine Community Relations with Local Neighborhood

Saint Joseph's University Partners with Local Community College on New Transfer Program

Seattle University Announces New Journalism Program for Students and Professionals to Study Homelessness in Washington State

This spring, the nation's capital will also be home to an exhibit on women religious. We encourage you to learn more by clicking here!

Famed, Rare Jesuit Map on Display in DC

This spring, the Library of Congress will display the first eastern map to show the Americas, created in 1602 by Matteo Ricci, SJ. Click here to learn more!

Photo of map portion (above) from Wikipedia

Association of Jesuit Colleges and Universities

Website: www.ajcunet.edu

AJCU Higher Ed News is a weekly e-news alert that features the latest news and information from the 28 Jesuit campuses in the US. For more information, please contact Deanna Howes, Manager of Information Services.

To remove your name from our mailing list, please click here.

Questions or comments? E-mail us at dhowes@ajcunet.edu or call 202-862-9893.