GENERAL INFORMATION

Creighton University is by far the most diverse educational institution of its size in the nation. The combination of relatively small size and unusual diversity is the key to appreciation of Creighton University’s excellence.

With an enrollment of 7,730 persons taught by 740 full-time faculty and 217 part-time faculty, Creighton has set as its goal the conduct of higher education in the context of Christian values.

Founded in 1878, Creighton is coeducational, independent, and has always been operated by the Jesuits in the traditions of that Catholic religious order. Creighton has a faculty and student body made up of individuals of many races and faiths from every geographical region of the United States and from numerous foreign nations.

Creighton is a university in the true sense. In addition to the College of Arts and Sciences, Creighton has a College of Business Administration, University College, Schools of Dentistry, Medicine, Law, Nursing, and Pharmacy and Health Professions, and a Graduate School offering master and doctorate degrees. Creighton has been active in the establishment of continuing education programs and of a Summer Session of modern design for the contemporary educational consumer. The University College offers undergraduate degree and certificate programs for part-time students and specializes in noncredit offerings for adults.

Thirty-five percent of the University’s students are enrolled in the College of Arts and Sciences, 34 percent in the health sciences professions, 8 percent in Business Administration, 5 percent in University College, 6 percent in Law, and 12 percent in the Graduate School.

LOCATION

Omaha, Nebraska’s largest population center, is located on the western bank of the Missouri River, which serves as the Nebraska-Iowa boundary. Originally settled by the Omaha Indian Tribe, Omaha was soon a favorite stop for early settlers traveling up the Missouri River. Omaha’s frontier traditions and values have remained largely intact as the city has progressed into the 21st century. Creighton’s 130-acre campus is located on the northwest edge of downtown Omaha, Nebraska.
A center for information technology, telecommunications, transportation and food processing, Omaha, Neb., is the heart of a metropolitan area of nearly 1 million. The city is the major urban area between Chicago and Denver and between Kansas City and Minneapolis. The metro Omaha area has seen steady growth over the past five decades and is now the 45th largest city and the 61st largest metro area in the nation.

Creighton University is perfectly situated to enjoy both the charm and beauty of the city and its cultural and recreational attractions. The campus is minutes from downtown theater, shopping, government and financial districts; Gene Leahy Mall and the Heartland of America Park, the jewels of downtown Omaha’s scenic riverfront development; Henry Doorly Zoo, which features the world’s largest indoor tropical rainforest and geodesic desert biodome, a 450,000 gallon walk-through salt water aquarium, and IMAX Theater; and Rosenblatt Stadium, home of the NCAA College World Series and the Omaha Royals.

Omaha, a cultural center of the Great Plains, boasts top-tier Joslyn Art Museum, the Holland Center, a world-class performing arts center and an excellent symphony and opera company. The Omaha Community Playhouse and Omaha Theater Company For Young People are among the top community theaters in the nation. One of the nation’s finest old-world style theaters, the Orpheum, is home to hundreds of outstanding entertainment events each year and the Durham Western Heritage Museum features some of the area’s largest historical offerings.

Omaha not only draws national acts for major concerts, but also hosts sporting events. Creighton, an NCAA Division I school which sponsors 14 men's and women’s intercollegiate sports and competes in the Missouri Valley Conference, will host the NCAA College World Series for the 63rd consecutive year in June 2012. In addition, the Olympic Swimming Trials, March Madness and NCAA Final Four Volleyball Tournament all have recently been here.

Omaha is also the site of a vital downtown area. Omaha’s Missouri Riverfront has undergone a massive redevelopment supported by private and public funds. Qwest Center Omaha is home to the Bluejay basketball team and numerous concerts and an impressive pedestrian bridge spans the Missouri River from Nebraska to Iowa. The Gallup organization and Union Pacific built their new headquarters here, as did First National Bank, which occupies the largest tower between Chicago and Denver.

Omaha is served by over 180 regularly scheduled daily flights by nine national air carriers and ten regional airlines. Two interstate highway systems serve the metropolitan area—I-80 going east and west and I-29 north and south.

Many students find inexpensive and charming apartments in renovated historic buildings close to both Creighton and the European allure of “The Old Market,” downtown Omaha’s shopping and dining quarter. Omaha is widely considered to be one of the safest cities in the U.S. with a low unemployment rate, thriving economy and lively downtown.

HISTORY

John and Edward Creighton, builders of the transcontinental telegraph that linked pioneer America, have given their name to the University.

Edward’s widow, Mary Lucretia Creighton, carrying out her husband’s wishes, left money and directions for establishing a college in his memory. Following her death on January 23, 1876, the present University site was purchased and the first Bishop of Omaha, the Right Reverend James O’Connor, D.D., invited the Jesuits to conduct the Creighton College.

One priest, three scholastics, a layman, and a woman formed the faculty when classes began September 2, 1878. On August 14, 1879, Bishop O’Connor surrendered his trust to a new corporation, “The Creighton University.”
Jesuits were exclusive managers of the corporation until, in October 1968, the Board of Directors was expanded to include laypersons. Today thirty-two laypersons and six Jesuits conduct the corporate affairs of Creighton University.

The early growth of Creighton University and the enlargement of its endowment were due mainly to the benefactions of John A. Creighton and his wife, Sara Emily Creighton.

Colleges of Arts and Sciences

The College of Arts and Sciences is the University’s oldest and largest division. Creighton College was founded in 1878 as a liberal arts college for men. For 40 years the College was conducted without charging tuition. Women began attending teachers’ courses in 1923 and University College, a parallel liberal arts division for the education of women, was formally established in 1931. These two liberal arts divisions merged as the College of Arts and Sciences in 1951. A Department of Journalism was part of the College of Commerce for 12 years until 1933 when a separate College of Journalism was established. In 1936 this status was changed to the School of Journalism and in 1948 to the Department of Journalism in the Creighton and University Colleges.

College of Business Administration

On September 20, 1920, Creighton opened the College of Commerce, Accounts and Finance in response to employment requirements of business, industry and government. Four years later the division was renamed the College of Commerce, Finance and Journalism to reflect the addition of that professional department. By 1933 a separate College of Journalism was established; the original division was renamed simply the College of Commerce. In June 1956 the present name, College of Business Administration, was adopted, and in 1960 the University completed the Eugene C. Eppley College of Business Administration building. During the summer of 1996, the building underwent a complete interior and exterior renovation. The classrooms were updated to accommodate the latest in instructional and computer technology.

School of Nursing

Nursing programs began at Creighton in 1928 but it was 1971 before separate divisional status was granted. The program was moved from its status as a department in the College of Arts and Sciences to facilitate a closer relationship between nursing and the other Creighton health professions schools. In 1978 the College of Nursing became the School of Nursing.

University College and Summer Sessions

University College opened in the 1983 Fall Semester. Designed for adult students, the College offers programs of study leading to baccalaureate degrees with majors in the College of Arts and Sciences and the College of Business Administration. Associate degrees can be earned in computer science, emergency medical services, mathematics, organizational communication, spirituality, and theology. Also offered are certificate programs in applied computer science, atmospheric sciences, business administration, communication studies, computer science, creative writing, health administration and policy, liturgy, mathematics, ministry, pre-health sciences, psychology, spirituality, theology. Courses are offered in the evenings and early mornings throughout the year, during the traditional fall and spring semesters and during the summer; and most are taught by Creighton’s regular faculty.

Creighton undergraduate students are eligible to register for correspondence courses in the University College Independent Study Program with permission of the Dean of their college. The Independent Study Program offers students the opportunity for access to undergraduate Core courses developed by Creighton University faculty members. Correspondence with course instructors is the key to receiving the personalized instruction that is ordinarily given in the traditional college classroom. The minimum course completion time is 12 weeks, and the maximum is six months from the date of enrollment. Normally, Creighton students register for Independent Study Program courses at the beginning of the summer; however, it is possible to register for Independent Study Program courses at any time. The Independent Study Program maintains the same high degree of instructional quality that is maintained in on-campus courses offered at Creighton.

University College also offers noncredit courses, workshops, conferences, and seminars for adults in the Midwest and beyond, continuing the tradition of quality programming of Creighton resources and affiliate instructors in the noncredit area. The focus is on continuing education opportunities including information and skills that are useful in career and professional development; personal growth opportunities; and programs for the contemporary church. Noncredit programs have many formats. Some meet all day; others for two or three hours per week. Courses are held on campus and at off-campus locations to provide easy accessibility for adults.

The Center for Professional Development, a division of University College, provides a variety of non-credit certificate training programs for the Omaha area. For more information call 1-800-637-4279 or at http://www.creighton.edu/cpd/.

Summer Sessions joined University College in Spring 1990. Graduate and undergraduate courses are offered during the 13 weeks of summer. Both day and evening classes are available in various formats. In addition to credit courses, a number of noncredit programs are offered. Scattered throughout the summer months are short institutes and workshops, both credit and noncredit.

Other Divisions
Creighton’s first master’s degree was conferred in 1893, but the Graduate School was made a separate division in 1926. Professional schools and their dates of establishment are the School of Medicine, 1892; School of Law, 1904; School of Dentistry and School of Pharmacy, 1905. In 1982, the Division of Health Professions (formerly attached to the School of Medicine as the Division of Allied Health Sciences) was attached to the School of Pharmacy.

THE JESUITE ORDER AND CREIGHTON UNIVERSITY
Creighton University, situated in the heart of America, is Jesuit education. Jesuit American education on the secondary level network is all-embracing. Forty-six Jesuit high schools dot our map; one was established in the 18th Century, twenty-four in the 19th Century, and twenty-one in the 20th Century, affecting over 36,500 young men and women of all denominations.

Twenty-eight Jesuit universities flourish from coast to coast, enrolling more than 190,000 collegiate and professional students. The educational opportunities they provide are diverse, but all the institutions share in the Jesuit character and tradition. Why? Because they are staffed by religious and lay colleagues who are imbued with, or attracted by, the educational ideals of St. Ignatius Loyola, founder of the Jesuit Order. Ignatius outlined his principles for broadly-educated and decent people marked by good judgment in his Ratio Studiorum, Plan of Studies,” written about 1540.

There seems to be an instant bond of camaraderie and identification among graduates of diverse American Jesuit universities and high schools before they have visited together for five minutes. Creighton graduates have commented on this again and again. It is a subtle but real bond that these graduates feel. They are part of a great and satisfying network calculated to prepare them for a full and rewarding life. This Jesuit education is shared with 1,000 other institutions conducted by the total number of 26,408 Jesuits across the world.

American Jesuit Priests and Brothers are active on every front. They are the largest missionary Order in the Catholic Church. Of their 6,000 American Jesuits, every fifth man is in the harvest field of foreign or American mission.
UNIVERSITY ASSESSMENT OF LEARNING OUTCOMES

The University Assessment Committee has articulated six university-level outcomes that are common to all undergraduate, graduate, and professional student experience.

All Creighton graduates will demonstrate:

1. disciplinary competence and/or professional proficiency,
2. critical thinking skills,
3. Ignation values, to include but not limited to a commitment to an exploration of faith and the promotion of justice,
4. the ability to communicate clearly and effectively,
5. deliberative reflection for personal and professional formation,
6. the ability to work effectively across race, ethnicity, culture, gender, religion, and sexual orientation.

Each undergraduate program defines its learning goals/graduate outcomes, and these outcomes should be in alignment with each school or college's goals as well as the broader university-wide goals. A variety of outcome measures are used within each of the graduate programs to provide evidence of student learning, and to assess how well the learning goals/graduate outcomes are being met.

GOALS AND OBJECTIVES

Creighton University exists to educate her students with a view to their intellectual expansion, social adequacy, physical development, aesthetic appreciation, and spiritual enrichment. Creighton serves her publics primarily through teaching and research. Employing the techniques of teaching and research offers numerous other opportunities to provide community services and leadership.

Creighton has behind it a pattern of more than four centuries of Jesuit teaching. The Order’s focus has always been on the total person, an approach that includes development of each student’s talents to assure that he or she can meet both material and spiritual needs.

Members of every denomination are enrolled in and welcome to all courses in the University. While Creighton fosters learning in a Christian-oriented setting and challenges students to reflect on transcendental truths, students are not required to participate in religious services or activities.

All educational programs of Creighton University are open to both men and women.

The University Assessment Plan has been established to help measure the success of Creighton’s academic programs. Each college and school has in place its own appropriate plan to determine student achievement in its programs and to implement changes for continuous improvement in Creighton’s assessment plans, and students participate with faculty and administration in striving for improvements in the teaching-learning process. In addition, the University Plan embraces Student Life, and the special areas of cultural diversity and service to others, values which are emphasized in Creighton’s Mission Statement.
NONDISCRIMINATION POLICY

Creighton admits qualified students and hires qualified employees without regard to race, color, religion, sex, national origin, age, disability, marital status, sexual orientation, or veteran status. Its education and employment policies, scholarship and loan programs, and other programs and activities, are administered without unlawful discrimination. The University is taking affirmative action to employ and advance in employment qualified disabled veterans and veterans of the Vietnam-era. The University Affirmative Action Director has been delegated the responsibility for coordination of the University’s equal rights efforts. It is also the policy of the University to make all programs and services available to individuals with disabilities. To obtain information on accessibility of buildings and programs or to report problems of accessibility, please contact the Office of the Director of Affirmative Action, Room 232, Administration Building or by telephone (402) 280-3084.

SERVICES FOR STUDENTS WITH DISABILITIES

Services for students with disabilities are provided to qualified students to ensure equal access to educational opportunities, programs, and activities in the most integrated setting possible. Students must make timely and appropriate disclosures and requests (at least five weeks in advance of a course, workshop, program, or activity for which accommodation is requested or such other reasonable time as the particular circumstance of a request for accommodation warrants). Requests for reasonable accommodations are encouraged to be made as soon as possible after acceptance. Each student may be required to submit medical or other diagnostic documentation of disability and limitations and may be required to participate in such additional evaluation of limitations as may appropriately be required by Creighton University or other agencies prior to receiving requested accommodations. The University reserves the right to provide services only to students who complete and provide written results of evaluations and service recommendations to appropriate University personnel. For more information, contact the Dean’s Office or the Office of Disability Accommodations at 280-2749.

USING CREIGHTON UNIVERSITY’S EMAIL AS THE OFFICIAL MEANS OF COMMUNICATION

The Creighton University assigned email account shall be the official means of communication with all students, faculty, and staff. All community members are responsible for all information sent to them via their University assigned email account. Members who choose to manually forward mail from their University email accounts are responsible for ensuring that all information, including attachments, is transmitted in its entirety to the preferred account.

All faculty, staff, and students are required to maintain an @creighton.edu computer account. This account provides both an online identification key and a University Official Email address. The University sends much of its correspondence solely through email. This includes, but is not limited to, policy announcements, emergency notices, meeting and event notifications, course syllabi and requirements, and correspondence between faculty, staff, and students. Such correspondence is mailed only to the University Official Email address.

Faculty, staff and students are expected to check their email on a frequent and consistent basis in order to stay current with University-related communications. Faculty, staff, and students have the responsibility to recognize that certain communications may be time-critical.
GRADUATION RATES

Creighton University is pleased to provide the following information regarding our institution’s graduation/completion rates. The information is provided in compliance with the Higher Education Act of 1965, as amended. The rates reflect the graduation/completion status of first-time, full-time students who enrolled in Fall 2005 and for whom 150% of the normal time-to-completion has elapsed.

During the fall semester of 2005, 972 first-time, full-time degree-seeking undergraduate students entered Creighton University. After six years (as of August 31, 2011) 77% of these students had graduated from our institution or completed their programs. Questions related to this report should be directed to: Patricia Grafelman Hall, University Registrar, (402) 280-2702.

While reviewing this information, please bear in mind:

• The graduation/completion rate is based on six years of attendance that equates to 150% of our longest program.

• We have elected not to report our transfer-out rate because our university’s mission does not include providing substantial preparation for students to enroll in other institutions.

• The graduation/completion rate does not include students who left the school to serve in the armed forces, on official church missions, or in the foreign service of the federal government. Students who died or were totally and permanently disabled are also excluded.

ACCREDITATION

Creighton University is fully accredited by The Higher Learning Commission of the North Central Association of Colleges and Schools, the accrediting agency for the region in which the University is situated.

The College of Business Administration is an accredited member of the Association to Advance Collegiate Schools of Business-AACSB International (graduate and undergraduate programs). The accounting program has been accredited (Type A - baccalaureate) by the Accounting Accreditation Committee of the Association.

The Emergency Medical Services Education Program is fully accredited by the committee on accreditation of Educational Programs for the Emergency Medical Services Professions. The program also is approved by the State of Nebraska.

The School of Nursing offers a baccalaureate program and a graduate program accredited by the Commission on Collegiate Nursing Education. The baccalaureate program also is approved by the State of Nebraska.

The Department of Social Work is an accredited Council on Social Work Education program preparing professional undergraduate social workers.

The teacher education programs of Creighton University are fully accredited by the National Council for Accreditation of Teacher Education for the preparation of elementary, secondary, and special education teachers at the undergraduate level, and for the graduate-level preparation of teachers, school principals and school counselors.

The Schools of Dentistry, Law, Medicine, and Pharmacy and Health Professions are accredited by their respective professional standardizing agencies: American Dental Association, American Bar Association and Association of American Law Schools, Liaison Committee on Medical Education, Accreditation Council on Pharmacy Education, the Accreditation Council for Occupational Therapy Education, and the Commission on Accreditation in Physical Therapy Education.

CAMPUS FACILITIES
Over 50 buildings make up Creighton’s campus providing excellent facilities for most of the University’s academic and extracurricular activities. Following two decades of phenomenal expansion and growth, emphasis now is placed on beautification of the central campus, particularly a pedestrian mall which has added green space to the heart of the undergraduate living area. In the last few years, Creighton has added some 20 acres to campus, east and west. Since 2000, the University has invested more than $285 million in on-campus improvements and planned expansion. The University campus is about a 15-minute walk from the business district of Omaha. The principal portion extends from Cass Street on the south to Cuming Street on the north and from 20th Street on the east to 30th Street on the west.

CAMPUS DEVELOPMENT
Creighton’s dramatic campus improvements are enhancing the learning and residential experience of our students. Impressive state-of-the-art "smart" classrooms, labs, spacious residential living, dynamic new recreational facilities, a great student life and learning center, as well as new parking structures are all adding to the vital Creighton experience.

The Mike and Josie Harper Center for Student Life and Learning is Creighton’s front door, warmly welcoming prospective students and their families, alumni and all campus visitors. The Harper Center is the nucleus of Creighton's dynamic eastward expansion and campus transformation, uniting academic and student-life services under one roof. Also on campus is the Wayne and Eileen Ryan Athletic Center and D.J. Sokol Arena. The 78,134 square-foot facility is the home for Creighton’s women's volleyball and basketball programs with a court arena seating of 2,950. The facility also includes coaches offices, locker rooms, ticket offices, athletic training, meeting rooms and a media workroom.

Health Sciences Facilities
The Doctor C. C. and Mabel L. Criss Health Sciences Center is made possible largely through the generosity of the late Mabel L. Criss, whose gift commemorates her late husband, Dr. C.C. Criss. The Criss Center provides teaching, medical laboratory space, and facilities for the research activities of the faculty of the School of Medicine. Two separate units (Criss II and III) provide classroom and laboratory facilities for instruction of the freshman and sophomore students in the preclinical medical sciences, as well as office and laboratory space for the members of the preclinical faculty.

The Hixson-Lied Science Building is connected to both Criss and Rigge and provides classrooms, common use areas, Arts and Sciences administrative functions, and offices and classrooms for undergraduate science departments.
Creighton University Medical Center, an ultramodern regional health-care facility with state-of-the-art technology, serves as the major affiliated teaching hospital for the Creighton University School of Medicine.

LIVING ACCOMMODATIONS

Creighton University offers on-campus housing for all full-time matriculated students. All unmarried undergraduate students from outside the immediate Omaha area (as defined by the University) are required to live in University residence halls during their first two years at the University. Students from the Omaha area may live in the residence halls. Otherwise, during their first two years at the University, students from the Omaha area must live with a parent or guardian. A request to be exempt from the residency requirement must be made in writing to the Office of the Associate Vice President for Student Life-Residence Life by July 15th for requests for the upcoming Fall Semester (April 1 for Opus Hall and Davis Square students) and December 1 for the Spring Semester. Only the Associate Vice President for Student Life will be able to permit these exemptions. A resident must be a full-time, matriculated student at the University. If space allows, the University may permit housing of part-time students in University residence halls.

The University operates nine residence halls. Deglman, Kiewit, and Gallagher Halls are traditional-style freshman residence halls with common bathroom facilities. Rooms are double occupancy. Space in Swanson Hall is available to freshman students as well. Swanson is a suite-style hall with four freshman or four sophomore students per suite. McGloin Hall is also a suite-style hall with four sophomore students per suite. Kenefick Hall is an apartment-style hall for sophomores with double-occupancy efficiency and one-bedroom apartments. Davis Square and Opus Hall, apartment complexes for junior and senior-level students, house students in two, three, or four-bedroom apartments. Heider Hall is an apartment-style residence with double-occupancy efficiency, one-bedroom, and two-bedroom apartments open to sophomore, junior, and senior undergraduates. A limited number of apartments is available to students with families and graduate/professional students. Residents of Davis Square and Opus Hall, as well as Heider residents who are graduate/professional students, married, or have families, sign a 12-month lease. All other students contract for the full academic year, beginning in August and continuing until the end of exams the following May.

The residence hall agreement is for room and board. All freshman and sophomore residents are required to have a meal plan. Students living in Deglman, Gallagher, Kiewit, Swanson, and McGloin Halls must choose from 12, 15, or 19 meals per week. Kenefick Hall residents and sophomores living in Heider must select from these three plans or the SuperFlex meal plan. Residents of Davis Square, Opus Hall, and Heider Hall (except sophomores) may purchase 12, 15, or 19 meals per week, the Super Flex meal plan or the Flex meal plan. A student requesting to be waived from the board plan for medical or other reasons must furnish documentation to the Associate Vice President for Student Life-Residence Life for review. Generally, the University Dining Services is able to meet most dietary needs. Board plans are also available to off campus and commuting students.
Meals are served in the Becker and Brandeis dining areas located adjacent to the campus residence halls. Students on the board plans may also have dinner in other campus retail locations as part of the meal exchange program. More information about dining opportunities is available from Sodexo food service located on the lower level of Brandeis Hall.

The annual room and board rates in University residence halls effective August 2011 are:

* Available to Kenefick, Heider, Davis, Opus, Off-Campus Only
 Available to Davis, Opus, Heider (except sophomores), Off-Campus Only

New students must apply to the Department of Residence Life for a residence hall reservation. All students pay a damage deposit of $100. Each semester’s tuition, fees, and room and board charges are payable at the time of registration. However, arrangements may be made to pay monthly installments by using the University’s Monthly Electronic Transfer (MET) plan.

Room and board rates are subject to change without notice. Any special needs as to age or physical condition requiring special housing arrangements will be given full consideration by the Associate Vice President for Student Life-Residence Life. Questions regarding housing services and facilities may be directed to the Department of Residence Life, Harper Center for Student Life and Learning; telephone (402) 280-3900.
FAMILY HOUSING

Creighton University has limited space in the apartment-style Heider residence hall for families. A twelve-month lease is required on all apartments except for those graduating at the end of the current lease. Available for families are the large one-bedroom apartments (655 sq. ft.) and two-bedroom apartments (1215 sq. ft.). There are only four two-bedroom apartments in Heider Hall. Family housing is available on a first-come, first-served basis.

OFF CAMPUS HOUSING

The Department of Residence Life lists information on rentals in the area of campus. The actual arrangements for housing are left to the individual students. The University is not responsible for the rental agreements between students and their landlords. It is suggested that students set aside several days before registering to search, inspect, and contract for suitable housing.

CHILD DEVELOPMENT CENTER

Students with children may wish to take advantage of the James R. Russell Child Development Center, which is conveniently located at 2222 Burt Street. The Center has reasonable rates, and can accommodate children ranging in age from six weeks through five years. Call (402) 280-2460 or access www.creighton.edu/childdevelopmentcenter for information.

UNIVERSITY PUBLICATIONS

AlumWire, an e-newsletter published monthly for Creighton alumni.

Creighton Today is updated Monday–Friday and is available at http://today.creighton.edu/. Given priority for inclusion in this employee online newsletter are: campus and Creighton community news, human resources information, professional development opportunities, research and scholarship, and faith and spirituality. Please submit items via the website or fax to ext. 2549.

The Creighton University Bulletin is published four times annually and is edited by the Registrar’s Office. Its purpose is to give the usual catalog information concerning the various colleges and schools of the University and their academic offerings.

The Creighton University Viewbook is published annually by undergraduate Admissions to acquaint prospective students with Creighton.

The Creightonian, the University’s weekly student-edited newspaper, serves as an important medium for the university community while at the same time affording students an opportunity for practical journalism experience. A member of the Department of Journalism, Media and Computing faculty serves as advisor to the student staff.

The Creighton Law Review publishes quarterly. In accord with law review tradition, this student-edited publication affords additional opportunity for intensive legal research. While publishing the work of mature scholars as the lead articles of each edition, the Review is primarily devoted to the presentation of material produced solely by students of the Creighton University School of Law.

The Creighton Lawyer is a magazine with law-related stories, law school news, and alumni information published by the School of Law for alumni, students, faculty and friends.

The Medical Dean’s Newsletter, an e-newsletter published four times a year for Medical School alumni.

The Dental Dean’s Newsletter, published twice a year for School of Dentistry alumni, including an e-newsletter format.
The President’s Update is an electronic newsletter from the President that is published about twice a month.

Creighton Parent, an e-newsletter for parents of Creighton students distributed five times a year.

The Student Handbook sets forth University services, rules and regulations pertaining to nonacademic areas of student life. (Available online only)

Student and Faculty Directory is compiled and distributed annually in the fall by the Creighton Students Union. It contains the names, telephone numbers and addresses of the administrative personnel, the faculty, and students of the University. One copy of the Directory is available to all students with a valid I.D.

Student Organization Directory is the official directory for Creighton’s registered student organizations. It is available on the Student Activities website at www.creighton.edu/StudentActivities.

Creighton University Magazine is a quarterly magazine produced by the Marketing and Public Relations Office for alumni, parents and friends of Creighton University. The magazine supports the University’s mission of education, while serving as a vital link between the University and its constituents.

STUDENT ACTIVITIES

It is the goal of Creighton University to develop an individual who not only has mastered the content of his or her academic courses, but who also has broad interests and who has developed skills in interpersonal relations. To aid in this process, the University promotes a wide range of student organizations and activities. Students are encouraged to take an active interest in one of more than 200 clubs and organizations, including sports, fraternities and sororities, honor societies, cultural, religious, political, publications, government, professional, academic and service organizations.

For more information and a description of each organization or if interested in starting a new organization, please contact the Student Activities Office in the Skutt Student Center or online at http://www.creighton.edu/studentactivities.

Academic/Interest

Academic/Interest organizations serve as a forum to explore issues in a particular academic field or area of interest; students do not have to be enrolled in that line of coursework in order to be members of these organizations.

CAMPUS RECREATION
The Kiewit Fitness Center is located at the heart of campus with access from four residence halls and the Skutt Student Center.

The Fitness Center has a main activity area which comprises five separate multi-use courts designed for basketball, volleyball, tennis, indoor soccer, and badminton. Court space must be reserved at least 24 hours in advance, space permitting, for special events. The running track (1/7 to a mile) permits jogging while the five courts are in use. The court and track area may be viewed from the pedestrian walk through.

Other areas in the Center include a 6,200 sq. ft. Fitness and Weight Training room, four racquetball courts and a multipurpose room. Campus Recreation offers many fitness classes and services including Personal Training, for students, faculty staff, and alumni members. The department provides many student employment opportunities.

Creighton’s Intramural Sports program offers on campus competition based on the varying abilities of the participants. Activities such as flag football, soccer, volleyball, softball, and basketball are offered for both competitive and recreational teams in Men’s, Women’s and Co-Rec leagues. Intramural activities are played in the Kiewit Fitness Center, and CU Sports Complex. For more information on IM Sports check out the web site: http://www.creighton.edu/campusrecreation/im/

Sports Clubs are also a popular outlet for students. Sports Clubs provide multiple opportunities for students to become involved with competition with other colleges in non-varsity activities such as dance, ice hockey, lacrosse, soccer, rowing, rugby, volleyball, ultimate frisbee, and mixed martial arts.

The FitNest located in the Harper Center for Student Life and Learning is a 7,000 sq. ft. fitness area is a popular work out place. The FitNest has locker rooms, free weights, cardio machines, stretching mats and a massage chair.

For more information on Campus Recreation please stop by the main office in Room 211 of the Kiewit Fitness Center (402-280-2848) or check the web site at: http://www.creighton.edu/studentlife/campusrecreationintramurals/.
RELIGIOUS

Campus Ministry is central to our University’s mission: Creighton exists for students and for learning. Inasmuch as intellectual formation profoundly affects students’ faith formation, Campus Ministry exists to accompany students in their journeys of faith, and to help them integrate their knowledge and love of God with their lives of service to others. As Catholic, Creighton is dedicated to the pursuit of truth in all its forms and is guided by the living tradition of the Church. As Jesuit, Creighton University participates in the tradition of the Society of Jesus, a religious order founded by St. Ignatius of Loyola, whose companions gave witness to their love of Jesus Christ through service to others in many acts of Christian charity. In terms of the Jesuits’ educational apostolate, formation of students to become “agents of change” in the world is paramount. Students learn to promote a “faith that does justice,” to be “women and men for others,” and to bring “Good News for the poor,” i.e., the mission of Jesus, into their daily lives. As comprehensive, Creighton’s education is directed to the intellectual, social, spiritual, and physical aspects of students' lives as they continue their vocations after graduation.

The Campus Ministry staff consists of professional lay ministers assisted by Jesuit priests, and occasionally student interns who desire the opportunity to explore professional ministry as their life calling. Our offices are located in Lower Swanson Hall.

Campus Ministry offers a comprehensive retreat program, individual spiritual direction, faith-sharing communities called Christian Life Communities (CLC), featured faith and social events, discussion groups, and sacramental preparation through St. John’s parish, including the Right of Christian Initiation for Adults (RCIA) and marriage preparation.

St. John’s is the symbolic center of the Creighton community in the heart of our campus. Catholic Christians are most welcome to join the parish community as active members. There are many opportunities for students to participate fully as lectors, musicians, or Eucharistic ministers in our regular parish and University liturgies.

Campus Ministry is not just for Catholic students. Campus Ministry provides links for students to religious communities representing their own faith tradition, so they can “grow where they are planted.” We believe that one of our most important services is to provide opportunities for our students to become involved or to continue their involvement with a faith tradition and community that worships God in service of the larger community. This includes providing ways for students of diverse faith traditions to come together for inter-faith dialogue, prayer, and retreat and service experiences, while exploring their own faith in greater depth.

Campus Ministry collaborates with Creighton’s Center for Service and Justice (CCSJ), and the Institute for Latin American Concern (ILAC), helping students experience a special care for the poor, in the context of a faith that does justice, through direct service opportunities. Students are welcome to visit the Campus Ministry offices located on the ground floor of Swanson Hall.

STUDENT GOVERNMENT

All full-time students registering in the undergraduate colleges and in the professional schools become voting members of The Creighton Student Union. The affairs of this corporation are managed by members elected from the schools and colleges of the University. This group of student leaders controls the use of the Student Activity Fund, plans the major social events of the year, and operates through standing committees to further the best interests of the University and of her students.

THE ALUMNI ASSOCIATION

Creighton University seeks to maintain lifelong relationships with former students of the University. The Creighton University Alumni Association, formed in 1892, assists the University in keeping alumni engaged with the institution. Its mission is to “advance the interests of the Creighton family through a commitment to academic excellence, Judeo/Christian ethics and a lifelong relationship between Creighton alumni and their University that enriches both.”

The Alumni Association is governed by the National Alumni Board. This board represents the alumni community in matters affecting the University; supports and assists the University in fulfilling its strategic goals; and provides services, programs and support consistent with the Alumni Association’s mission.

Alumni programs vary widely and include all-University events, class reunion activities, spiritual direction, community service projects, college/school specific activities, young alumni activities, regional events, career networking and social networking. A Student Alumni Association also exists to introduce students to the activities of the Alumni Association while attending the University. Program plans, along with information on the Alumni Association, can be found on the web at http://www.creighton.edu/alumni.
INTERNATIONAL EDUCATION

Creighton University seeks to provide its students an integrating vision of the world. Through the curriculum, experiences abroad, and on-campus interactions with students, scholars, and staff from around the world, Creighton students have the opportunity to gain the international perspectives and intercultural communication skills necessary for leadership and service in the global community.

THE OFFICE OF INTERNATIONAL PROGRAMS (OIP)

As the focal point and information center for Creighton’s international activity, the Office of International Programs supports the University's mission by providing learning opportunities and services that foster cross-cultural awareness, facilitate intercultural communications, and enhance knowledge about world cultures and societies.

The OIP carries out its mission through the administration of programs and services that support international students and scholars, learners of English as a second language, study abroad, linkages with international organizations and institutions, and the faculty in their efforts to internationalize the curriculum.

Moreover, the OIP is Creighton's link to the U.S. Departments of State and Homeland Security. The authorized OIP staff processes all documentation that facilitates the entry and the maintenance of status of international students and scholars at Creighton University.

International Students and Scholars Services

The Coordinator of International Student and Scholar Services assists students and scholars from around the world prior to their arrival, throughout their stay at Creighton and beyond. Specifically, these are the services the OIP provides international students and scholars:

- F-1 and J-1 student advising on visa, personal, academic and employment matters
- J-1 Exchange Visitor Program administration
- New student and scholar orientation
- Cultural, cross-cultural and social activities

Programs

Homestay Program: The OIP coordinates academic-term, holiday, and short-term homestays for international students who want to experience family life in the United States.

Multinational Ambassador Program: MAP brings U.S. and international students together for cross-cultural exchange and social interaction.
The Intensive English Language Institute (IELI)

Creighton University has been providing instruction in English as a second language since 1979. The Intensive English Language Institute (IELI) offers five eight-week terms of instruction each year across seven levels of language skills. Guided by a team of excellent instructors, students develop the speaking, writing, reading and listening skills necessary for academic success while gaining insights into various aspects of U.S. culture. The IELI mission is to help students from different language backgrounds to communicate effectively in English, deepen their understanding of U.S. culture and prepare for the rigors of undergraduate and graduate studies.

Program Description: The IELI curriculum consists of courses in listening/speaking, reading, writing, and grammar taught on seven levels of proficiency, from high beginning to advanced. Courses on special topics are also offered to advanced students. Small classes of no more than 15 students each allow for a great deal of individual attention. During the first three days of the term, new students participate in an orientation program that includes tests to determine their most appropriate IELI level and activities that introduce them to life on campus and in Omaha. At the end of each eight-week term, students are evaluated by their instructors and promoted to the next level if they have made satisfactory progress. Certificates of attendance and completion are awarded.

Full-time enrollment in IELI is 21 or more hours of instruction a week. On the recommendation of the IELI instructors, exceptional advanced students may take 1-2 credit courses at Creighton University while enrolled in IELI.

Entrance Requirements: IELI applicants must be at least 17 years of age and have completed high school.

The complete IELI application includes:

1. IELI Application Form.
2. Certification of Available Finances indicating funding from all sources.
3. Bank statements showing the most recent three months of activity.
4. Copy of the personal page of the applicant’s passport.
5. A $50 Application Fee payable to Creighton University. This is a one-time, non-refundable application fee. Payment may be made by sending a cashier's check or money order.
6. Certified transcripts of high school and university (if applicable) showing courses taken, including courses in English as a foreign language and grades earned.

Mail application documents and Application Fee payment to the Intensive English Language Institute, Creighton University, 2500 California Plaza, Omaha, NE, 68178, USA.

Acceptance to IELI: Once accepted into IELI, students will receive an acceptance letter and an I-20 with instructions to apply for an entry visa at their nearest U.S. Embassy or Consulate. Students must enter the U.S. on an F-1 visa, not a tourist visa.

Admission to Creighton: Admission to Creighton’s IELI does not include admission to a degree program at Creighton University. Students who plan to enter Creighton University should apply for admission to the University.
Study Abroad Programs

Creighton University offers a variety of study abroad opportunities. Programs abroad vary in content, format, length, and cost. The Study Abroad Coordinator works closely with each student to select a program that meets his or her educational, professional, and personal needs. All students planning to study abroad must obtain approval from the OIP by submitting a Proposal to Study Abroad. Students should start planning their study abroad one year in advance of their term abroad. For additional information about study abroad, visit the OIP website: (www2.creighton.edu/internationalprograms) or contact studyabroadadvisor@creighton.edu

Services

Study Abroad services include:

- The Study Abroad Fair each fall
- Info sessions
- Pre-Departure Orientation and re-entry programming
- One-on-one advising
- Processing the enrollment of students, faculty and staff in supplemental insurance for travel abroad.

Programs

Creighton’s Service-Learning Program Abroad-Encuentro Dominicano: Encuentro Dominicano is an academic, living-learning program integrating community based learning in a cross-cultural context. Visit the Encuentro Dominicano website (www2.creighton.edu/encuentro/) to learn more.

Faculty-Led Programs Abroad: Faculty-led summer courses are typically taught in China, England, France, Germany, Ireland, Italy, Spain, and Uganda. Most faculty-led summer programs are 2-4 weeks in duration and award 3 or 6 hours of credit.

Affiliate Programs:

Through an agreement with the University of Limerick in Ireland, Creighton students can participate in a Fall or Spring semester program there. Students are fully integrated into the Irish culture, taking courses alongside Irish students. Students who are part of the Creighton Honors Program may choose to participate in the affiliate program at the University of Glasgow (Scotland) in the Fall or Spring Semester. Participants will take an Honors Course with other international students and enroll in additional courses with Scottish students.

Bilateral Exchange Programs: Sophia University is a Jesuit institution located in the heart of Tokyo, Japan. Courses in anthropology, art history, theology, history, political science, sociology, international business are taught in English; Japanese as a foreign language is available as well. Also Jesuit, Sogang University is a prestigious university in Seoul, Korea. Courses are offered in English and Korean. Creighton students may opt for a Fall or Spring enrollment. The University of Mannheim (Germany) accepts students for Fall, Spring or academic year enrollment. Courses are taught in German and subject areas include accounting, finance, management, and marketing.

Multilateral Exchange Programs: The International Student Exchange Program (ISEP) offers full-immersion study abroad opportunities in over 35 countries. Students may take courses in English or in the language of the host country while fully integrated in the host institution. Course offerings and the language of instruction vary by site. For additional information about ISEP programs, visit www.isep.org/.

Partner Program: Through AMIDEAST, Creighton students have the opportunity to study in Egypt, Jordan, Morocco, and Tunisia for a summer, semester, or year. Study areas include Arabic, French, Egyptology, and Middle Eastern studies.

Associate Programs: Creighton University students may participate in study abroad programs administered by other institutions or organizations, with approval from the OIP. These programs vary in quality; therefore, students must consult with the Study Abroad Coordinator and obtain study abroad approval from the OIP before selecting or applying to any particular program.
Exchange Agreements
The OIP coordinates international agreements with universities abroad for exchange and enrollment. It also reviews and approves agreements with embassies, ministries and organizations overseas.

Cross-Cultural Communication
Central to an education for global citizenship is the acquisition of knowledge and empathy in preparation for work among those who have different values, beliefs, and needs. The OIP staff regularly leads cross-cultural sessions as part of:

- Study Abroad Pre-Departure Orientation
- Project CURA Orientation (Medical School)
- IELI co-curricular activities

Departments can request special sessions of cross-cultural communication for specific groups.

The Office of International Programs is located on the 4th floor of the Harper Center. For information, call 402-280-2221 or visit www.creighton.edu/internationalprograms.

THE INTERNATIONAL CURRICULUM
Creighton's academic departments administer curricula that include many courses with international content as well as majors and minors that cover studies of various areas of the world, such as:

- African Studies
- Asian Studies
- Classical and Near Eastern Studies
- European Studies
- International Business
- International Relations
- International Studies
- Latin American Studies
- Russian Studies

Creighton students may also choose to study one (or more) of these modern languages:

- Arabic
- Chinese
- French
- German
- Italian
- Japanese
- Russian
- Spanish
ADMISSION

It is the admission policy of Creighton University to accept qualified students within the limits of its resources and facilities. See also the University’s Nondiscrimination Policy on page 18.

FRESHMAN APPLICANTS

1. Applications can be requested from the Office of Undergraduate Admissions or electronically at http://admissions.creighton.edu or on the Common Application at www.commonapp.org.

2. Application may be made any time after completion of the junior year in high school, but not later than one month prior to the opening of a term, although the earlier the better. The University reserves the right to return applications for admission prior to the deadline if space for additional students is not available.

3. A non-refundable $40.00 fee is required for filing a paper application. There is no fee for the online application.

4. An official high school transcript should be sent directly to the Director of Undergraduate Admissions. A Creighton recommendation form must also be completed by your high school guidance counselor. Upon submission, these credentials become the property of Creighton University and will not be returned.

5. Applicants must submit a personal statement. Suggested topics for this are listed on the application.

6. A resume of activities is required if an applicant wishes to be considered for Supplemental Scholarships.

7. Admission into one of Creighton’s undergraduate colleges is a highly individualized process that utilizes national standardized test scores in addition to a comprehensive review of high school performance, extracurricular activities and recommendations.

   Toward this purpose we will consider as one factor either the American College Testing Program (ACT) Assessment or the Scholastic Aptitude Test (SAT) Assessment in the review process. Students may apply for admission as soon as they complete their junior year in high school and may apply before the submission of either the ACT or the SAT report.

   The ACT or SAT Assessment is used for admission, scholarship, placement, counseling, and for statistical purposes.

   When all credentials required through the admissions application have been received, they will be reviewed by the Committee on Admissions. As soon as action has been taken, the applicant will be informed of the decision in writing along with information pertinent to residence hall facilities, registration procedures, and other requirements.
ADMISSION REQUIREMENTS

Admission to undergraduate standing in Creighton as a freshman or as a transfer student may be achieved as indicated below:

1. As a freshman on the basis of:
   A. Completed application for admission.
   B. Certificate of graduation from an accredited high school including:
      (a) Record of subjects and grades indicating academic potential for college success; (b) Personal recommendation from high school counselor. Note: Home schooled students are encouraged to apply for admission and must provide documentation that required high school coursework has been satisfactorily completed.
   C. Satisfactory ACT or SAT scores.
   D. Personal statement.

2. As a transfer student on the basis of both the high school transcript and a transcript of a satisfactory record from a regionally accredited college or university. See regulations under Admission of Transfer Students on page 41. (ACT or SAT scores are ordinarily not required of transfer students who have completed one year of college or 24 semester hours of credit).

An accredited high school is a school accredited by the North Central Association of Colleges and Schools, or the equivalent regional standardizing body, or any school approved by the recognized accrediting agency in its state.

SUBJECT REQUIREMENTS

The high school graduate applying for admission to college is expected:

1. To be able to write and speak correct, grammatical English.

2. To have completed in an approved high school, the recommended subject requirements shown below.

Strict adherence to the pattern of subject requirements may be waived at the discretion of the Committee on Admissions if the other criteria qualify the applicant.

*A unit represents a year’s study in any secondary school subject, covering an academic year of at least 36 weeks.
REQUIREMENTS FOR ADMISSION TO SCHOOL OF NURSING

High school graduates who are first-time freshmen as well as transfer students wishing to pursue the traditional program of study leading to the degree of Bachelor of Science in Nursing apply to the Undergraduate Admissions Office of the University. Besides the Subject Requirements listed previously, freshman applicants to the School of Nursing must have completed one unit of Chemistry.

Graduates of diploma or associate degree programs in nursing or students already holding a bachelor’s degree in another field refer to the admission requirements on page 262. Additional information may be obtained from the office of the Dean, School of Nursing.

ACT/SAT ASSESSMENT PROGRAMS

Students planning to enter Creighton University as freshmen are required to take the ACT Assessment provided by the American College Testing Program or the SAT Assessment provided by the College Board.

The ACT Assessment, designed for college-bound students, consists of a Student Profile Section, an Interest Inventory, and four academic tests covering the subject areas of English, mathematics, reading, and science reasoning and a test of writing skills. The tests assess general educational development and the ability to perform college-level work. Results of the ACT Assessment are used at Creighton for course placement, advising and counseling, scholarship awards, and admissions and research purposes.

The ACT Assessment is administered annually on up to five national testing dates at test centers throughout the country and overseas. Students planning to enter Creighton University should arrange to take the ACT Assessment and direct that their ACT score report be sent to Creighton. The SAT Assessment is administered annually on up to six national test dates.

Following is the schedule of the regular Saturday test dates for the ACT:
2011-12 — October 22, December 10, February 11, April 14, June 9.

Following is the schedule of test dates for the SAT:
2011-12 — October 1, November 5, December 3, January 28, March 10, May 5, June 2.

High-school students may obtain full information from their counselor about the ACT or SAT Assessment, the location of test centers, and how to register for either test.
ADVANCED PLACEMENT

Creighton University encourages prospective applicants to take courses in high school that lead to the Advanced Placement tests administered by the College Board. Regardless of the college or school at Creighton to which students are applying, they should ask the College Board to forward their scores to the College of Arts and Sciences (code 6121). Once the scores have been received, they will be evaluated. Depending on the score attained and the specific AP test taken, Creighton may award credit hours towards graduation either as elective credit or as satisfying course requirements. For details of the most current policies regarding the scores necessary to earn credit in various subjects, please visit the following webpage: http://puffin.creighton.edu/ccas/policies/ceeb.html.

Other CEEB Advanced Placement and Credit

Further advanced placement credit may be awarded for successful completion of the CEEB Advanced Placement Examination in Art History, Biology, Chemistry, Computer Science, Economics, Environmental Science, History, Physics, Political Science, and Psychology. However, such awards are not automatic and may involve further departmental testing or evaluation. Credit may or may not be eligible for fulfilling the Core Curriculum requirements. Students who have completed one or more CEEB Examinations and have had the scores sent to Creighton should receive an awarded credit evaluation a few weeks after Creighton receives the score report. If the outcome of these examinations determines the course(s) for which the students are currently registering, they should contact their dean’s office for further information.

College Level Examination Program (CLEP)

Students accepted into a degree program may earn college credit through successful completion of CLEP Subject Examinations. CLEP examinations are administered at testing centers (Creighton University is NOT a testing center) on a regular schedule. Details concerning the award of credit for CLEP examinations are available in the Arts and Sciences Dean’s Office.

International Baccalaureate

Creighton University acknowledges the quality of the IB Diploma Program and welcomes applications for admission from students who have excelled in IB courses. Scores of 5 and higher on the higher level examinations will result in the granting of college credit equivalent to lower-division courses at Creighton University (no standard level tests are accepted). Depending upon grades, Diploma recipients may receive up to 30 hours of college course credit. A score of 4 may allow the student consideration for advanced placement in a given subject, but will not necessarily warrant the granting of college credit. This can be reviewed on a case-by-case basis.

Credit for Experience

The undergraduate colleges may award academic credit for knowledge acquired in a non-traditional manner in areas where Creighton offers instruction. Creighton degree students who believe they qualify for such credit may petition the appropriate academic department through the Dean’s office detailing the experience in question and submitting appropriate supporting evidence. In evaluating the experience, departments may find it desirable to utilize standardized tests, department-prepared tests, portfolios, interviews, etc. The petition and departmental recommendation will be reviewed by the appropriate college committee and a recommendation made to the Dean, who makes the final decision as to the award of credit.

Students who petition for credit for experience that has not been supervised by a department must purchase a special examination/evaluation ticket ($15). Examination/evaluation fee tickets must be purchased from the University Cashier in advance and presented to the department concerned. In addition to the examination fees, there is a recording fee of $10.00 per credit hour awarded, which must be paid to the University Cashier before the credit will be recorded. (A total of $50 is charged for taking and recording each credit hour of challenge examinations).
ADMISSION OF TRANSFER STUDENTS

Students who are in good standing at another accredited college and entitled to honorable dismissal may be admitted to Creighton University without examination if they present evidence of satisfactory scholarship. An accredited college or university means one that has been fully accredited by a Regional Accrediting Association. Transcripts from schools that are not regionally accredited will be judged on an individual basis.

The regular application form must be filed with the Director of Undergraduate Admissions. The applicant is responsible for having the appropriate office of each institution previously attended send an official academic transcript and testimony of honorable standing directly to the Director of Admissions, even if attendance was only during a summer session or for part of a term. These official transcripts are required even if the transcript of the institution most recently attended lists the record of the student at the other institutions, and regardless of whether or not credit was received or advanced standing credit is desired. A high school transcript must also be submitted.

Specific program requirements of each School and College must be fulfilled for graduation. Students must earn at least 48 hours in residence to qualify for a degree. Based on this requirement, to qualify for a Creighton degree, transfer students should plan to spend the last two years of college at Creighton. No more than 80 transfer credit hours will count toward a degree. More hours may be required depending upon the program of study and the way in which the transfer hours fulfill University requirements. The minimum number of hours in a student’s major which must be taken at Creighton are: 15 in the College of Arts and Sciences; 15-21 in the College of Business Administration; 20 in the School of Nursing.

Conditions for Transfer of Credit

The University will evaluate all hours submitted by the transfer applicant and reserves the right to accept or deny any of the credits offered for transfer. Credit hours earned with grades of “C-” or better at an accredited institution of higher education prior to admission to Creighton University may be transferred at the discretion of the respective College. Transcripts will be officially evaluated by the College after a transfer student has been formally accepted for admission. In some instances, the College may require that the transfer student complete successfully at least one semester at Creighton consisting of not less than 12 semester hours before the exact amount of credit to be transferred will be permanently determined.

Credit hours are transferred, but not grade points or grades. The grade point average of the transfer student will be determined only by work done at Creighton. Credit is normally not granted for correspondence or television courses.

TRANSIENT STUDY

Creighton students may be permitted to enroll in courses in other accredited institutions near their homes during the summer months. Prior approval of the Dean must be obtained for each course (application forms are available in the Dean’s Office). Courses not so approved by the Dean in advance may not be accepted in transfer. Normally students will not be able to transfer more than a total of 12 hours of approved transient study during the entire degree program at Creighton. Students should consult the undergraduate college in which they are enrolled for additional transient study restrictions.
ADMISSION OF VETERANS

Courses in all schools and colleges of the University are approved for veterans’ education and training. Veterans’ Service is provided by the Registrar’s Office. Veterans and others eligible for educational benefits administered by the Veterans Administration are given assistance to assure proper and advantageous use of their benefits and to simplify and expedite transactions with the government. Students who have completed service in the Armed Forces of the United States may petition for credit for certain experiences of an educational nature. Creighton University will use the recommendations of the American Council on Education Commission on Educational Credit to evaluate such experiences. Petitions should be submitted to the Registrar, who will make recommendations to the appropriate Dean.

ADMISSION OF INTERNATIONAL STUDENTS

Required Documents

A complete application consists of the following documents:

1. The Common Application and supplement
2. $40 nonrefundable application fee (waived if submitted online)
3. Counselor evaluation
4. Original TOEFL score (required if English was not the high school language of instruction).
5. Official high school transcripts
6. Certified translation of all high school transcripts (if in a language other than English)
7. Official university transcripts
8. Certified translation of all university transcripts (if in a language other than English)
9. Certification of Available Finances, including official bank letters, statements of support, and bank statements (Please follow all directions included in the Certification of Available Finances)
10. Teacher recommendation
11. Students may be required to present SAT or ACT scores
12. Certificates, diplomas, or examination results marking completion of secondary education or preparation for higher education (e.g., IB or national exam results)

English Language Proficiency

TOEFL scores must be submitted if the applicant’s native language is not English or if the applicant has not graduated from a high school where English was the language of instruction. A minimum TOEFL score of 80 on the iBT is required. Students must ask the testing agency to send original TOEFL scores to Creighton University. The Institutional Code for Creighton University is 6121. Official results of other standardized English tests may be considered.

Conditional Admission

Eligible students who have not attained English proficiency may be conditionally admitted provided that they enroll in Creighton’s Intensive English Language Institute (IELI) until they obtain the required English proficiency level.

Certification of Available Finances

All applicants are required by the U.S. Government to certify that they can provide adequate funding to cover the cost of a U.S. education. Final admission to Creighton University cannot be authorized and an I-20 issued until the Office of International Programs verifies the applicant’s complete Undergraduate Student Certification of Available Finances Form.
Matteo Ricci Scholarships for International Students

Creighton University offers eligible international students Matteo Ricci academic scholarships. Criteria for the awards include excellent academic records and F-1 visa status. Returning students and permanent residents are not eligible to receive the Ricci scholarships. To have their scholarships renewed after their first year, recipients should maintain a pre-determined grade point average and maintain their F-1 visa classification. Applicants interested in competing for these scholarships must submit their complete application for admission on or before March 1st, the priority deadline for Fall Semester admission or before September 1st, the priority deadline for Spring Semester admission.

ADMISSION OF SPECIAL STUDENTS

Students who wish to take courses but do not expect to receive a degree from Creighton University may register as special students. Prerequisites for specific courses must be met and students are expected to fulfill the same course requirements as degree-seeking students. Most special students taking undergraduate courses register in University College. Tuition and fees charged will be on a per-credit-hour basis for students taking from 1-11 semester hours; special students attending on a full-time basis (12-18 semester hours) are charged full tuition and fees. Students who have been accepted into certificate programs and carry a minimum of six hours per semester are eligible to apply for federal financial aid. Persons who have registered as special students and subsequently decide to enter a degree program must apply for acceptance as degree-seeking students.

A student who has been dismissed from another educational institution within the previous calendar year will normally not be allowed to register at Creighton as either a special or a degree-seeking student.

INTRA-UNIVERSITY TRANSFER

Students wishing to transfer from one undergraduate college to another within the University must file a special application, which is available in their current academic dean’s office.

LEAVE OF ABSENCE PROGRAM (LOAP)

Creighton’s Leave of Absence Program is a planned interruption in a student’s formal education. It is designed for full-time undergraduate students in good standing (cumulative GPA of 2.00 or above). In this program the student voluntarily steps out of college for a specified period of time for one or two semesters. A student who elects this program may do so to re-evaluate their educational goals, earn additional money for their educational expenses, travel, receive medical procedures that would debilitate them from completing a full academic semester, and/or gain other practical experiences not available on campus. The program is not intended for students who wish to temporarily attend another college or university.

The principal advantage of LOAP is that it offers a student the opportunity to leave college temporarily with the assurance that he/she will be able to return and resume his/her studies with a minimum of administrative difficulty. Because the leave is initially approved by the College and officially recognized as a leave of absence, the student is able to be away from the College and still maintain a close tie with it.

Students in this program are considered “on leave” by the University and will not be classified as enrolled students; however, they will be eligible for services of the Career Planning and Placement Center and limited use of library facilities.
READMISSION OF FORMER STUDENTS

Students previously enrolled in the College of Arts and Sciences, College of Business Administration, or the School of Nursing who have been out of school for at least one full semester must make formal application for readmission to the school or college previously attended. Students must submit a new application form and send all official transcripts of any schools attended after leaving Creighton. The $40 application fee is waived. A student involved in the Leave of Absence Program (LOAP) is exempt from this requirement unless the student failed to return as expected after the end of the specified period of leave, or unless the student enrolled elsewhere in the meantime.

Former full-time students who have continued on a part-time basis need not reapply if they wish to resume a full-time schedule.

ENROLLMENT RESERVATION DEPOSIT

Each applicant for admission will be informed in writing by the Director of Admissions of the outcome of his or her application.

An applicant accepted for admission is asked to make a non-refundable $350 enrollment deposit ($250 class reservation and $100 housing fee) by May 1 for the Fall Semester and December 15 for the Spring Semester. The class reservation is credited to the first semester’s tuition.

If the reservation is canceled or the student fails to register, or withdraws after registering, the deposit is forfeited to the University.

SUMMER PREVIEW PROGRAM

The Summer Preview Program has been organized to give new students an opportunity during the summer to consult with administrators, faculty advisors, and student leaders about curricular regulations, course details, registration procedures, or any other questions the student might have. Several dates are specified during the summer, and students are invited to visit the campus at one of those times.

REGISTRATION

Registration for continuing students is conducted in March-April for the Summer Sessions and the Fall Semester and in October-November for the Spring Semester. Registration is conducted through the web. Registration is conducted continuously until the end of the late registration period.

Students in Arts and Sciences, Business Administration, Nursing, Pharmacy and Health Professions, University College and Graduate School receive related registration materials, including a specific appointment time for completing Registration. Each student completing Registration is able to view their schedule at any time through the web.

By enrolling in Creighton University, a student agrees to comply with all rules, regulations, directives, and procedures of the University, and understands that his or her failure to do so will be grounds for dismissal or other disciplinary action at the University’s discretion. The University reserves the right to dismiss at any time a student who in its judgment is undesirable and whose continuation in the University is detrimental to himself, herself, fellow students, or the interests of the University, and such dismissal may be made without specific charge.
WELCOME WEEK

All new students are required to be on the campus a few days before classes begin to participate in “Welcome Week” activities in August. New students move into their housing, consult with their advisors, learn about the University and its many services and opportunities, and become acquainted with the school, the faculty members, and the other members of their class. Approximately 120 upper-class students serve as leaders during Welcome Week and work with small groups of new students offering individual attention and special help. For the exact dates of registration and other events for both freshmen and upper-class students see the University calendar, pages 4-8.

Late Registration

All official admission records must be received and approved by the Committee on Admissions at least two weeks before registration.

Full-Time Students

Students who take 12 or more semester hours of credit during a semester are considered full-time students.

Part-Time Students

Students who carry less than 12 semester hours of credit are considered part-time students. Such students pay tuition according to the current semester-hour charge and all other fees to which they might be subject. Part-time students are required to follow the prescribed course of studies.

Auditing Courses

Students will be permitted to register as auditors only for exceptional reasons and with the explicit authorization of the Dean. Not all courses are open to auditors. Auditors are not held responsible for the work expected of regular students, are not admitted to examinations, and receive no grade or credit for the course. Regular attendance at class is expected, however, and auditors are subject the same as regular students to being dropped from the course for excessive absences (in this event auditors receive a W). Changes of registration from credit to audit or audit to credit will not be permitted after the deadline, four weeks after the first day of classes.

A student who has previously enrolled as an auditor may not take the course for credit during any succeeding semester.

Charges for courses audited are one-half (50 percent) of the regular per-credit-hour tuition rate when the per-credit-hour rate is applicable, for example, when a student registers for less than 12 semester hours, including the credit for the course(s) audited. For Summer Session courses, the 50 percent reduction for auditors applies to the regular rate only, not to the Summer Session discounted rate. Also, special courses, workshops, and institutes offered at a special flat-rate tuition charge are excluded from the auditor discount.

Students seeking to change from credit to audit status will be eligible for a tuition adjustment (if otherwise applicable) only if the change is made with the dean’s approval within the period for late registration.
ADJUSTMENTS AND WITHDRAWALS AFTER REGISTRATION

Changes in Registration
Changes in registration are permitted until the end of the first week of classes.

Dropping Courses
Withdrawal from any course after the first week requires sufficient cause and may be made only with the approval of the Dean. After the first week of classes (the period for late registration) any petition to drop a course or to change status from credit to audit must include the recommendation of the teacher(s) involved and the student’s college or major advisor before the petition will be acted on by the Dean. Course withdrawals with a “W” may not be made later than the date posted each semester, which is approximately a week after midsemester grades are available. A student who drops a course without approval of the Dean receives “WF” for the course (failure because of unauthorized withdrawal).

Withdrawal from the University
A student is considered in attendance until he or she has formally notified the University in person or in writing of their withdrawal.

Permission to withdraw from the University is granted by the Dean of the School/College in which the student is registered. This is required as a condition of honorable dismissal.

A student will be considered as having withdrawn from the University after two consecutive weeks of unexplained absence. However, this policy is not to be considered as revoking the regulation that requires a student to notify the Dean in person or in writing of his/her withdrawal. Refunds are made to the student on the basis of the date he/she has formally notified the Dean in person or in writing of their withdrawal.

A student withdrawing from the University during any semester or summer session before the final examinations forfeits credit for work done in that term. Students who withdraw with permission of the Dean receive “W” on their official record; those who withdraw without permission of the Dean receive “WF” for all courses (failure because of unauthorized withdrawal).

Students who have decided to withdraw from school and plan to return within the following year may wish to consider the Leave of Absence Program (LOAP). For further information about LOAP see page 43.
TUITION AND FEES

Ordinarily tuition and fees and board and room charges are payable in advance for an entire semester or summer session.\(^1\) (see Financial Arrangements). All rates are subject to change without notice.

\(^1\) Registration is not complete until financial arrangements have been made.

\(^2\) University College students may be eligible for a remission of 33 percent of the regular assessed rate. Remission is limited to six credit hours. For further details contact University College.

\(^3\) Students deemed to be “in good standing” in the Honors Program may have tuition for credit hours in excess of 18 waived at the recommendation of the Honors Director.

\(^4\) This charge for each full-time student may be waived if the student presents evidence that he or she carries insurance that provides coverage at least comparable to the student insurance offered by the University.
The tuition charges for courses audited are one-half (50 percent) of the regular per-credit-hour rate when the per-credit-hour rate is applicable.

Loss or damage to University property and equipment and excessive use of laboratory materials are charged to the student or students responsible.

Property and equipment, including library books, military uniforms, laboratory apparatus, etc., loaned to a student for use during a period of instruction must be returned by the time specified. In case of delinquency, grade reports, transcripts, and diplomas shall not be released until proper return or restitution is made.

Special Tuition Rates for Teachers and School Administrators

Teachers and school administrators who are employed full time in public or private elementary or secondary schools and enroll as part-time students at Creighton may receive a tuition discount of 50 percent for three semester hours of course work each semester (fall and/or spring) in one of the following divisions: College of Arts and Sciences, College of Business Administration, School of Nursing, University College, or Graduate School. This discount does not apply to students in University College who receive a University College tuition remission. Students must complete an “Application for Teacher Improvement Remission” form verifying full-time employment status. These forms are available on the Business Office website.

The university also reserves the right to exclude certain programs from this special discount. Currently the Graduate Business and MS, NDR programs are excluded. In the future, other programs may be added or deleted without notice.

ESTIMATING BASIC COSTS

The basic costs for a Freshman year (two semesters) in the College of Arts and Sciences or College of Business Administration are:

- Tuition (full-time program at rate effective August 2011) .................. $30,484.00
- University Fee .................................................................................. 988.00
- University Technology Fee .............................................................. 422.00
- Board and double room ................................................................... 9,238.00
- Total for academic year (two semesters) ........................................ 41,132.00

The basic costs payable each semester would be approximately one-half of these totals. In estimating the overall costs one should include allowances for personal expenses, including such items as clothes, laundry and dry cleaning, recreation and entertainment, transportation, etc. These costs will vary greatly among students. Books and school supplies average about $900 per year.

1 Transcripts, diplomas, and grade reports are released only when all outstanding balances have been paid.
FINANCIAL ARRANGEMENTS

Tuition and fees and board and room charges are payable at the time of registration for a semester. However, arrangements may be made to pay monthly installments by using the University’s Monthly Electronic Transfer (MET) plan. Participation in this plan will be limited to the unpaid balance after all financial aid credits have been applied. Folders describing the payment plans and services of MET are mailed in late April to accepted incoming students who have paid a deposit. Current students are sent an email reminder in late April.

Books and supplies may be purchased at the Campus Bookstore. These items must be paid for when they are obtained.

Students are encouraged to pay tuition and other expenses online via the NEST. The University will cash checks for students with a $200 limit per day in the Business Office. Checks returned for insufficient funds will be assessed a $25 fee. However, the University reserves the right to revoke or to deny this privilege to any individual at any time.

Late Payment Policy

A late payment fee will be added to charges assessed at registration that remain unpaid after the period for late registration. This fee is $151 for the first month and an additional $78 for each subsequent month that the account remains unpaid. Accounts with unpaid balances under $500 will be subject to a $151 fee the first month and $63 each month thereafter.

Students with questions regarding their financial responsibilities are invited to contact the Business Office to set up an appointment for individual counseling.
WITHDRAWALS AND REFUNDS

Students withdrawing before the end of a semester will be charged tuition and recurring fees on the following basis:

<thead>
<tr>
<th>Period of attendance from start of term</th>

</tbody>

Refunds of room rent due to withdrawal from the University will be prorated on a weekly basis.

Nonrecurring fees, the application fee, the University fee, the University technology fee, and penalty fees will be charged in full, regardless of the period of attendance.¹

Full time students who drop courses after the last day for late registration but remain full-time (12 or more credit hours) receive no refund. If a full-time student drops to part-time status, refund of the difference between the full-time tuition charge and the per-credit-hour charge for the courses being continued will be made in accordance with the schedule applicable in the event of total withdrawal. Students assessed tuition per credit hour, including part-time students, graduate students and students in a summer session, will be charged for courses dropped in accordance with the schedule applicable in the event of total withdrawal.

A student will be considered as having withdrawn from the University after two consecutive weeks of unexplained absence. However, this policy is not to be considered as revoking the regulation that requires a student to notify the Dean in person or in writing of his/her withdrawal. Refunds are made to the student on the basis of the date he/she has formally notified the Dean in person or in writing of their withdrawal.

¹ Class day is any day of the term when any class is in session, regardless of whether or not a specific course is scheduled to be held on that day.

² The nonrecurring, penalty, and special service fees include deferred payment, University fee, University technology fee, late payment, special examination/evaluation, challenge examination, recording, tuition remission administrative fee, orientation fee, and locker.
STUDENT FINANCIAL AID

ELIGIBILITY CRITERIA

To be eligible for Federal and University financial aid programs at Creighton University, you must be (1) a citizen, a national or permanent resident of the United States, (2) in good academic standing, (3) in financial need as determined by the U.S. Department of Education, and (4) a high-school graduate or equivalent pursuing a degree on at least a half-time basis (six hours). Students from a foreign country may qualify for consideration of a limited number of Creighton funded scholarships.

NOTE: With the exception of the Pell Grant, Stafford Student Loan, and Parent Loan to Undergraduate Students (PLUS), eligibility for Federal and University aid will not normally extend beyond the prescribed course length, normally four to five years (eight to ten semesters) depending on the curriculum. First award priority will be to students enrolled on a full-time basis (at least 12 hours per term).

Students who have a previous baccalaureate degree and are pursuing a second baccalaureate degree are only eligible to apply for loan or employment assistance. Normally, University and Federal grants and scholarships are not extended to students seeking a second baccalaureate degree.

APPLICATION PROCEDURES

Freshmen, Transfer and Returning Students:

1. Complete the “Application for undergraduate Admission.” Forward all parts of the application to the Admissions Office. Creighton cannot make a financial aid commitment until you have been granted acceptance by the University.

2. Complete a Free Application for Federal Student Aid (FAFSA) found at www.FAFSA. ED.gov. This is the fastest way to apply for need-based aid. Once you complete the form, submit it directly to the processing address listed on the application. Do not submit until after January 1. All processed FAFSA’s should be on file at Creighton by April 1 for priority consideration. Applications received after April 1 will be considered as funding allows. Creighton’s FAFSA code number is 002542.

3. Submit the Creighton Financial Aid Application with a signed and dated copy of the parents’ and applicant’s 2011 Federal tax return to the Student Financial Aid Office by May 1, 2012. If a tax return will not be filed, a statement of nonfiling must be submitted to the Student Financial Aid Office.

AWARD NOTIFICATION PROCEDURES

You need to access your N.E.S.T. account at least weekly to see; what forms are needed and/or have been received, if there are special documents needed, to see if your aid application file is complete, and accept your aid award.

Many Creighton forms are available for download from our Office’s general website found at www.creighton.edu/finaid under "How Do I Apply/Commonly Used Forms."

New undergraduate students will receive a preliminary award notification prior to our Office receiving tax returns and the CU Aid Application/Verification Form. This is a hardcopy award letter and will be sent to the student’s permanent home address. It will also be viewable on your N.E.S.T. account. Instructions on how to accept your award will be provided with your paper award letter.

Once the requested documents have been received, your FAFSA data will again be reviewed for accuracy. If a modification to your original award is needed, you will be notified by an e-mail sent to your Creighton e-mail address. Revisions will only be seen on your N.E.S.T. account. Be sure to check both your Creighton e-mail and N.E.S.T. frequently for updates.

Returning undergraduate students are notified of their award by an e-mail to your Creighton e-mail address. Awards are ready only once all requested documents have been received and reviewed. Awards will only be displayed on your Self Service account, no paper award notification is sent. Be sure to check your N.E.S.T. account often to see the status of your aid application.
DISBURSEMENT AND USE OF AWARDS

All financial aid advanced by Creighton University must be used to pay tuition, fees, and University room and board charges before any other direct or indirect educational costs. With the exception of Federal Work-Study, all financial aid awards will be deducted from University tuition, fees, room and board charges in the fall and spring semesters. One-half of the aid award will be deducted in the fall, and the remaining half in the spring. Changes in enrollment status from fulltime (12 hours or more) to less than fulltime may impact the type and amount of aid disbursed in a semester. Federal Work-Study will not be deducted since the student must earn his/her award. Students on Federal Work-Study will receive bimonthly paychecks and may use them to meet their personal or institutional expenses.

SCHOLARSHIPS

Normally, to receive and retain a scholarship, you must be enrolled in a program of study leading to a degree in the College of Arts and Sciences, College of Business Administration, or School of Nursing. In addition to the qualifying material listed for each scholarship, you must be accepted and enrolled full-time at Creighton to retain scholarship(s) for a maximum of four academic years or eight consecutive fall/spring semesters (exclusive of summer terms) or attaining the requirements to apply for graduation, whichever comes first. As new scholarships, not listed in the catalog, become available, selections are made in conjunction with the wishes of the donor. Most scholarships are renewable for additional years and continued eligibility is based on maintaining the specified cumulative grade point average for each scholarship and showing normal progression toward a degree. Unless otherwise specified, all University controlled scholarships, individually or in combination, may not exceed the value of tuition, and may only be applied toward tuition charges.

If you have submitted all required credentials necessary for admission by January 15 of your senior year, you will automatically be given priority consideration for all competitive academic and service/leadership scholarships. Individuals who complete their admission requirements after January 15 are eligible for academic and service/leadership scholarships based on the availability of funds. Most merit scholarships are awarded at the time of admission to the University and honored for eight semesters for incoming freshman. Most scholarships do not require a separate application, your admission credentials serve this purpose. The Admission Office will contact you if additional forms or information is needed.

The four year/eight semester limitation begins upon your matriculation at Creighton and is accumulated consecutively. If you leave Creighton any time during this period, you automatically forfeit all future scholarship eligibility previously granted, unless you receive an approved Leave Of Absence (LOA) from your school. It is your responsibility to notify the Financial Aid Office of this action prior to your temporary separation from the University. Semesters absent under an LOA do not count against the eight semester limitation.

Scholarships awarded to entering undergraduates can be continued if you are admitted to one of Creighton’s post-baccalaureate programs before the end of the eight semester limit. If you enter a program of study leading to a D.D.S., D.P.T., O.T.D., J.D., M.D., M.A., M.B.A., M.S., M.Ed., M.S.A.P.M., Pharm.D., D.N.P., Ed.D., or Ph.D. degree, your scholarship is continued until eight consecutive semesters have expired. Scholarship values based on a percentage of tuition will be calculated on the prevailing undergraduate tuition rate in effect during the time you are in a post-baccalaureate program of study.

Outside, Private Scholarships
A scholarship(s) you have secured from an outside source must be reported to the Financial Aid Office and may comprise all or a portion of your aid award. Receipt of an outside award may result in a revision of the financial award offered by Creighton. Normally, any revision occurs first in loan or employment programs.

Receipt of a full-tuition outside scholarship will exclude a student from receiving the monetary value of his/her Creighton University scholarship. However, students will be accorded the recognition of a University award, and should an outside scholarship be forfeited, the University would review its offer subject to the stipulation of the program.

GRANTS
Creighton University uses the Free Application for Federal Student Aid to determine eligibility for all grants. Each year a new application must be filed to qualify for grants for the following academic year. A grant does not have to be repaid.

Federal Pell Grant
This Federal program provides grants to those students who meet the eligibility criteria established by the U.S. Congress. The exact amount of a Pell Grant will depend on your eligibility, the money appropriated by Congress to fund the program in any given year and your enrollment status.

Federal Supplemental Educational Opportunity Grant (FSEOG)
The FSEOG is awarded to undergraduate students demonstrating exceptional financial need. These grants vary annually depending upon the amount allocated by the government and the student’s need. Pell grant recipients receive first priority.

Nebraska Opportunity Grant Program
Funding from the federal government and the State of Nebraska provides Nebraska residents with support through this program. The Financial Aid Office matches applicants to the criteria set forth by the Nebraska Coordinating Commission for Postsecondary Education and selects eligible recipients. Funding is limited and variable each year.

Creighton University Grants
Creighton awards grants that are based on documented financial need. The amount of the grant will vary depending upon your need. Full-time enrollment status is required.

Tuition Remission Benefit
Tuition remission is available to children of University employees who meet eligibility requirements based on specific program criteria. Receipt of full tuition remission will preclude a student from receiving the monetary value of any Creighton University scholarship, and/or institutionally funded grant. Eligible employees must submit a Tuition Remission Application available from Human Resources.

ATHLETIC SCHOLARSHIPS
Creighton University is a member of the National Collegiate Athletic Association (NCAA) and participates at the Division I level in several men’s and women’s intercollegiate sports. Athletic grants-in-aid are available and administered in accordance with NCAA rules and coordinated with other University, federal, state and private third-party student financial assistance programs. Specific information on athletic scholarships can be obtained from the Director of Athletics.
LOANS

RECENTLY ENACTED CHANGES TO THE HIGHER EDUCATION ACT OF 1965, AS AMENDED, MAY ALTER THE TERMS, AWARD AMOUNTS, ELIGIBILITY REQUIREMENTS, DEFERMENTS AND OTHER ASPECTS OF THE FEDERAL LOAN PROGRAMS SHOWN UNDER THIS SECTION. INFORMATION UNDER EACH FEDERAL LOAN PROGRAM IS SUBJECT TO CHANGE WITHOUT NOTICE.

A loan is a type of financial aid that is repaid per the terms of the promissory note. Loan applications requiring a separate application must be received by the Financial Aid Office no later than one week prior to the end of the semester so the application can be certified prior to the last day of the semester.

Federal Perkins Loan

This loan, which is funded by the Federal government, has an interest rate of five percent per year. No payment on the loan is due and no interest accrues while the student is enrolled in school at least half-time. Interest begins to accrue and repayment begins nine months after the student is no longer enrolled in school at least half-time.

Students may receive up to $27,000 during their total undergraduate careers and up to $60,000 during both their undergraduate and graduate/professional careers. The student must complete an exit interview online prior to leaving Creighton University.

Partial loan cancellation privileges are available for borrowers who enter certain fields of teaching, or who teach in designated schools. In addition, there are various conditions for which payment and interest are deferred. Deferment and cancellation provisions are listed on the promissory note.

Repayment of the loan is made to the Creighton University Student Loan Accounts Office. During repayment, the student will be billed on a monthly basis and must make a minimum monthly payment of $40; students have a maximum repayment period of 10 years.

Students must complete the online entrance interview and promissory note to receive Perkins Loan funds. The Business Office will provide information to recipients.

Federal Nursing Loan (FNL)

The Health Manpower Act of 1958 set up a loan fund for students seeking a degree in nursing. These loans are interest free as long as the student is enrolled as at least a half-time student in the School of Nursing. Simple interest at the rate of five percent and repayment of principal begin nine months after the student leaves the University or the School of Nursing; at that time he/she also enters the repayment period which extends for a maximum of 10 years. Repayment is deferred if the student reenters the same or another such school within the nine-month grace period, during periods of active service in the military or Peace Corps, and during periods spent as a full-time student pursuing advanced professional training in Nursing. Interest does not accrue during periods of deferment.

The student must complete an exit interview online prior to leaving Creighton University. Repayment is made to the Creighton University Student Loan Accounts Office. During repayment, students will be billed monthly and must make a minimum $15 monthly payment. Students must complete the online entrance interview and promissory note to receive Federal Nursing Loan funds. The Business Office will provide information to recipients.
Federal Direct Subsidized Student Loan

Creighton University participates in the Federal Direct Loan Program, which means students are borrowing directly from the federal government. All students must demonstrate financial need to be eligible for the subsidized loan. The amount a student may borrow depends on the student’s financial need but may not exceed the yearly limits. Students may keep the up-front rebate fee as long as they make the first 12 payments on-time. The Federal government pays interest on the loan while the student is in school. Please refer to our webpage at www.creighton.edu/finaid for the most recent terms, interest rates, conditions and annual amounts of this loan program.

Federal Direct Unsubsidized Loan

An unsubsidized loan is available to students not qualifying for a subsidized loan. Basic terms of the loan are identical except the borrower is responsible for interest while in school. The Federal government does not make interest payments. The sum of both subsidized and unsubsidized Stafford loans may not exceed the annual or aggregate dollar limits listed above for dependent students. For independent students, the maximum yearly limits are $4,000 or $5,000, depending on grade level.

Deferments are available for a variety of situations and are listed on the promissory note. It is the borrower’s responsibility to secure, complete and submit deferment requests in a timely manner.

Information on how to apply for a Federal Direct Loan will be included with the award letter sent from Creighton’s Financial Aid Office. The Master Promissory Note (MPN) is completed only by first-time borrowers at Creighton. Applications should be submitted by July 1 to ensure that funds are available at fall registration.

Federal Direct Parent Loan (PLUS)

A parent of an undergraduate student may borrow the total cost of education less other aid and has no aggregate maximum. Proceeds will be disbursed in two installments and will be applied direct to the student’s account at the Business Office. Repayment of principal and interest begin 60 days following the date of the second disbursement of loan proceeds or a parent borrower may request the loan payments be deferred while the student is enrolled at least half-time (up to four years).

Your enrollment status during any term or the length of the academic program may limit your eligibility for Federal loans.

SHORT-TERM LOANS

Students may make application on-line by going to the Business Office website and clicking on the Student Loan Info tab. Additional information regarding the terms and conditions related to short-term loans can be obtained by contacting the Business Office directly.

Note: Transcripts of credits are released only when short-term loans have been repaid in full.

Summer School Financial Aid

Financial aid during any summer term is normally limited to Pell Grant or Stafford Loan eligibility. University scholarships and other aid programs are not available. The Financial Aid Office has an institutional Summer Aid application which must be secured from and returned to the Financial Aid Office no later than May 1. Funding received during summer terms may affect aid funding for ensuing fall/spring terms.
Satisfactory Academic Progress

For all students in an undergraduate program, Creighton University administers a time frame for checking satisfactory progress of not more than one academic year which includes Summer, Fall, and Spring terms regardless of the semester in which the student entered.

Creighton University’s minimum academic progress requirements are as follows:

At the end of each spring semester, students must have a cumulative pass rate of at least 75 percent for all hours completed versus attempted and have a cumulative grade point average at least equal to the grade level requirement. The minimum GPA requirement is 1.75 for freshmen status and 2.0 for all other grade classifications. Failure to meet these standards will cause immediate termination from all Federal aid programs and University need-based aid programs.

Satisfactory progress will be monitored on a cumulative basis each year at the end of the Spring Semester. Grades of “AF”, “F”, “NP”, “UN”, “WF”, “X”, incompletes and withdrawals will not count as credits earned, but will count as credits attempted.

Baccalaureate Degree seeking students in Arts and Sciences, Business Administration, Nursing, or University College may receive financial aid for a total of 170 credit hours attempted or until the degree is acquired, whichever comes first. Students in University College seeking an Associate Degree may receive financial aid for a total of 85 credit hours attempted or until the Associate Degree is obtained, whichever comes first. Eligible students in University College seeking a certificate may receive financial aid for a total of 50 credit hours attempted or the course work required to complete the academic program, whichever comes first.

Transfer Students

All transfer hours will be counted as part of the satisfactory academic progress requirements. Students must maintain the required GPA and the 75 percent completion rate of hours attempted versus hours completed.
Termination

Financial aid termination will occur if the student fails to meet either the required GPA or 75 percent of the cumulative hours attempted. No federal or other need-based aid will be awarded to a student in termination status.

Reinstatement of aid eligibility will occur when the student meets the minimum GPA and 75 percent of the cumulative hours attempted. It is the student’s responsibility to notify the Financial Aid Office of possible reinstatement of eligibility.

Appeal

If extenuating circumstances have affected a student’s progress, a written appeal must be received by the Financial Aid Office within 30 days of the date of the termination notification.

The following circumstances may qualify for a legitimate appeal:

a. Student illness requiring physician’s care.

b. Major illness or death in the student’s immediate family (spouse, mother, father, sister, brother, child, grandparent).

The appeal may be submitted by the student and/or parent along with appropriate documentation. Appeals will be reviewed and a written response sent to the student within 10 days of the decision. Creighton University reserves the right, at any time, to review any individual case should the situation warrant.

STUDENT EMPLOYMENT

Federal Work-Study

If you wish to earn a portion of your educational expenses and can demonstrate financial need through the FAFSA, you may qualify for the Federal Work-Study program. Earnings under Federal Work-Study are not credited to your account. You will receive a paycheck every two weeks based on the number of hours you have worked.

Eligible students are paid competitive hourly pay rates, starting at least Federal minimum wage for freshman students, with regular pay increases as the students progress. Students work at jobs on campus assigned to them through the Student Employment Office. A number of off-campus community service jobs are also available through summer programs. The Financial Aid Office determines the number of hours you may work, based on your award value. Your exact work schedule should be designed flexibly so it won’t interfere with classes.

A Federal Work-Study award normally requires approximately 10 hours per week during the academic year. You must assume a normal employer-employee relationship under the program. If you fail to assume this relationship, you may lose your Federal Work-Study award.

Student Employment Services

Departments and offices on campus hire a number of students each year in such areas as Academic and Administrative offices, Campus Recreation, Campus Libraries, the annual Phon-a-thon, Admissions, the Student Center and SODEXHO Dining services. Current listings can be viewed at http://www.creighton.edu/studentemp. All off-campus jobs, including part-time, internships and full-time jobs, are posted through the Creighton Career Center (http://www2.creighton.edu/careercenter). At the time of hire, all U.S. students employed on campus must be prepared to complete a Federal I-9 Employment Eligibility Form. Be prepared to show a valid ID and a document that proves your eligibility to work in the United States. The most commonly acceptable documentation is an original Social Security card or Birth Certificate or U.S. Passport. International students must show U.S. Visa with I-94 and I-20.
STUDENT LIFE

When admitting a student, Creighton does so with a sincere concern for the student’s well-being. With this in mind, the following services, in addition to those described elsewhere in this Bulletin, are designed to assist each student to attain fulfillment in the college environment.

CREIGHTON CAREER CENTER

Career and Academic Exploration

The Creighton Career Center is designed to assist students from the beginning of academic pursuit straight through to graduation. Career and academic counselors are available for appointments to meet with students on an individual basis in one convenient location. Students are strongly urged to take advantage of services early in their academic careers, and can obtain assistance with clarifying career goals and options, assessments, choosing and changing majors/minors, and course selection.

Programs

The Career Center sponsors a number of workshops and seminars on resume writing, interviewing techniques, job/internship strategies, and graduate/professional school preparation. Career Fairs are offered in the fall and spring that provide students the opportunity to network with more than 200 representatives from business, industry, government and graduate/professional schools.

Internships

The Career Center maintains information and listings for local, regional, and national internships. Sophomores are encouraged to contact the office prior to their junior year regarding the application process and specific qualifications. All internships are listed online through Jobs4Jays.

Employment

The Career Center provides information about local, regional, and national employment opportunities, industry profiles and trends, information about specific companies, as well as access to Jobs4Jays, a comprehensive database of jobs and internships. The various functions run through Jobs4Jays also include the On-Campus Recruiting Program and the Resume Referral System. For more information, please call or visit the Creighton Career Center in Harper Center, Suite 2015 and visit our website at www.creighton.edu/careercenter.

OTHER SERVICES

Campus Ministry—Members of the Campus Ministry team are ready at any time to discuss in a respectful and confidential manner the spiritual journey of students of any faith tradition. All students of Creighton’s community are welcome to “come to the quiet” of St. John’s to reflect and pray for guidance as they live out their vocation as students in the Ignatian tradition, and to talk with one of our qualified ministers with any questions or challenges they may experience in their lives of faith. Please visit the Campus Ministry offices located in lower Swanson Hall to visit with any of our ministers.

Veterans’ Service—is provided by the Registrar’s Office. Veterans and others eligible for educational benefits administered by the Veterans Administration are given assistance concerning proper and advantageous use of their benefits and to simplify and expedite transactions with the government. Information and application forms for VA educational benefits are available at the Registrar’s Office.
STUDENT ORIENTATION

Summer Preview and Welcome Week are the foundations of Creighton’s Orientation Program. Summer Preview is held in the summer and is an opportunity to familiarize parents and students with the University and its services. Students meet with a faculty advisor and can review their class schedules at this time. Welcome Week is held several days before classes begin in August. All new students, including freshmen and transfer students, are involved in activities designed to acquaint them with the many aspects of University life and help them begin to feel comfortable in their new surroundings. They also meet other students, go through registration procedures, and meet with faculty advisors.

STUDENT SUCCESS AND RETENTION

The Center for Student Success and Retention provides services and opportunities that enhance the personal development, academic success, and retention of Creighton University students. Located on the 4th floor of the Harper Center, the Center houses the Office of Student Success, the Office of Retention, and the Ratio Studiorum Program. Students are encouraged to visit the Center to take advantage of tutoring programs, academic coaching, academic counseling, and for assistance with any other issue that is impacting his or her ability to be successful at Creighton. Call 402-280-5566 or visit success.creighton.edu for more information.

STUDENT SUPPORT SERVICES PROGRAM

The Student Support Services Program at Creighton seeks to provide academic, emotional, cultural, and financial support for students who meet established Federal and program guidelines. In order to be eligible for program services, students must demonstrate academic need for program services and meet one or more of the following criteria: first-generation student status (neither parent has graduated from a four-year college with a baccalaureate degree); meet income guidelines established by the U.S. Department of Education; or has a disability and needs academic accommodation.

Enrolled participants receive academic advising, personal and career counseling, tutorial assistance, and assistance in applying for financial aid. A limited number of scholarships are available to program participants based on unmet financial need.

The Student Support Services offices are located on the fourth floor of the Harper Center for Student Life and Learning. Call (402) 280-2749 for more information.
CENTER FOR HEALTH AND COUNSELING

The Center for Health and Counseling houses both Health Services and Counseling Services. Together these Services are dedicated to promoting healthy life choices as well as serving the health and counseling needs of Creighton students. The two Services cooperate in the care of Creighton students. Located in Suite 1034 of the Harper Center. During the academic year, hours are 8:00 a.m. – 4:30 p.m. Monday, Thursday, and Friday; 8:30 a.m. – 6:30 p.m. Wednesday; and 10:00 a.m. – 6:30 p.m. Tuesday. Summer and academic break hours are 8:00 a.m. – 4:30 p.m. Monday-Friday.

Student Counseling Services

Counseling services are available to all full-time Creighton Students. The counseling services are intended to assist all students in their growth, their adjustment to academic and life challenges, and their development of healthy strategies for living. Our services encourage positive health and wellness practices. The staff is sensitive to the cultural and life-style uniqueness of all students. We offer a variety of services to assist with the choices in college life:

- Individual counseling
- Psychological assessment to address academic problems
- Group counseling with groups focusing on women’s issues, depression, grief, and transition to college
- Workshops for test anxiety and stress reduction
- Couples counseling
- Psychiatric Consultation

Counseling Services staff (full and part time) consists of four licensed psychologists, three licensed counselors, two pre-doctoral psychology interns, and a Board Certified Psychiatrist.

Call the Center at 402-280-2735 for an appointment, or drop in. All counseling services are confidential. The Center is accredited by the International Association of Counseling Services. Counseling services are offered at no cost to Creighton students. There is a fee for some psychological assessment services.

Student Health Services

Student Health Services provides a variety of services that will meet the health care needs of most students. Every effort is made to help students obtain appropriate consultation or referral when additional or specialized services are required. A physician, physician assistant, or nurse practitioner provides services. Services are available to all currently enrolled Creighton University students.

Services Available:

- Allergy Injections
- Laboratory/Radiology
- Health and Wellness Promotion
- Sick Care
- Immunizations and Flu Shots
- Travel Health
- Physical Exams (including Pap Smears)
- Physical Exams (including Pap Smears)

Services are supported by student fees, personal insurance, and/or self pay. Immunizations, laboratory tests, x-rays, splints, specialist referrals, etc. not covered by personal/family health insurance will be the financial responsibility of the student.

It is essential that a current insurance card be presented at each visit.
How to obtain Student Health Services

Call 402-280-2735, Monday through Friday. Appointments should be made for all health needs other than emergencies. It is important that you keep scheduled appointments and that you arrive on time. If you will be late or must cancel, please call as soon as possible. Your courtesy will result in the best use of our available appointment times.

Who Provides the Services?

Physicians, nationally-certified Physician Assistants and Nurse Practitioners are the core provider staff. They are supported by Registered Nurses, Licensed Practical Nurses, Certified Medical Assistants and clerical personnel. Medical specialty and dental care is provided by referral to physicians and dentists who are faculty members of the Schools of Medicine and Dentistry at Creighton University Medical Center. Mental health services are provided by referral to Counseling Services, the Department of Psychiatry in the School of Medicine, psychiatrists, and/or therapists within the community.

Participating Providers

Our providers participate with most insurance plans. All claims are automatically submitted to the insurance carrier indicated by the student at the time services are provided. It is important to check with your insurance plan to verify the benefit level for services obtained away from home. Some plans require a referral for out-of-network services. The student will be responsible for initiating the referral process required by their insurance company.

After Hours Care

Urgent care services are available at local urgent care centers. Many of these centers have laboratory and x-ray services and can treat most acute illness and injury. Creighton University Medical Center’s Emergency Department is conveniently located adjacent to campus. Any after hours care received will be the financial responsibility of the student. Campus Health Aides are available to students living in the residence halls and can be reached by calling 402-280-2104.

Services Available During the Summer

Services provided during the summer are the same as those offered during the academic year. These services are provided through personal health insurance and/or self-pay.

We offer two online resources for all students:

Student Health 101 Newsletter: This is an interactive, informative monthly newsletter available to all students. Learn more about specific issues facing college students and watch videos from other students regarding campus life, healthy eating on a limited budget, roommate issues, exercise, and so much more. Visit our website for the link. http://www.creighton.edu/chc.

Online Student Health: Please enroll at http://medicatweb.creighton.edu to receive secure messages from the Center for Health and Counseling. Currently, this secure messaging is used to inform you of laboratory results. In the future you will be able to make appointments 24/7 using this secure portal.
The Center for Health and Counseling is responsible for maintaining the records that relate to the following University requirements. Please contact us if you have any questions.

University Immunization Requirement

All Creighton University Students are required to comply with the University’s Immunization requirements. Failure to meet these requirements will result in denial of registration privileges and exclusion from clinical activities. Vaccination requirements follow CDC guidelines and are reviewed annually.

All Students

MMR Vaccine Requirement For students born after January 1, 1957, 2 MMR vaccines given after the 1st birthday and at least 30 days apart are required.

Positive blood titers for measles, mumps and rubella will meet the MMR requirement if vaccination dates are not available. History of illness does not meet this requirement.

A complete listing of all immunization requirements can be found at the following address: http://www.creighton.edu/chc

University Health Insurance Requirements

It is Creighton University policy that all full time students be covered by a comprehensive health insurance plan* for the entire academic year.

NOTE: The premium for the University-endorsed Student Medical Insurance Plan will remain on the student’s account unless the waiver process is properly completed before the deadline. This information is required on an annual basis.

* A comprehensive health insurance plan fulfills the following requirements:

- Coverage for inpatient and outpatient medical care within the Omaha area. (Emergency only coverage does not satisfy this requirement.)
- Coverage for inpatient and outpatient mental health care within the Omaha area. (Emergency only coverage does not satisfy this requirement.)
- Coverage is currently active and maintained for the entire academic year.
- Offers a lifetime maximum of at least $250,000 in coverage per accident or illness.

* Automatic enrollment in the University-endorsed Plan will occur and the tuition statement will reflect a charge for the entire premium when the Center for Health and Counseling becomes aware of a lapse in the student’s health coverage.

Creighton University Student Medical Insurance Plan

As a service to students, the University endorses a comprehensive health insurance plan. This plan is available at a reasonable group rate and provides year-round coverage, wherever the student may be, as long as the semi-annual premium is paid.

Contact the Center for Health and Counseling for complete details at the Harper Center, Room 1034, Phone: (402) 280-2735, Fax: (402) 280-1859; http://www.creighton.edu/chc.
ADMINISTRATION AND SUPERVISION

ACADEMIC ADMINISTRATION

Student Responsibility

Students are personally responsible for completing all requirements established for their degree by the University, the student’s College or School, and Department. It is the student’s responsibility to inform himself or herself of these requirements. A student’s advisor may not assume these responsibilities and may not substitute, waive, or exempt the student from any established requirement or academic standard. The University reserves the right to modify requirements at any time.

Although the University encourages the widest amount of student responsibility, with a minimum of administrative regulation, it expects each student to maintain appropriate standards in his or her academic and personal life. The University reserves the right to terminate the registration of any student who does not meet the standards acceptable to the University.

The Academic Year

The academic year is divided into two semesters. The first begins in late August and ends before the Christmas holidays; the second begins in mid-January and ends in May. There is a one week midsemester holiday in the fall, a short Thanksgiving recess, a vacation of approximately a month between semesters, and a week in the spring.

The Summer Session

The annual Summer Session includes a three-week pre-session and two five-week terms. These offer significant opportunities to entering freshmen, to students who wish to accelerate their studies and to satisfy degree requirements, to teachers wishing to obtain credit for state certificates and/or for professional improvement, etc. A variety of short workshops and institutes on topics of current interest is part of each summer’s offerings. Students may register in one, two, or all three of the basic components of the Summer Session: The May Session, Term 1, and Term 2. The student may earn three credits in the May Session and up to six semester hours of credit in each of the two five-week terms.

Unit of Instruction

The semester hour is the unit of instruction used for computing the amount of work required for graduation. One semester hour is equivalent to one fifty-minute period of recitation or lecture per week for one semester. Two or three 50-minute periods of laboratory are equal to one period of recitation or lecture.

Course Levels

The arrangement and numbering of course offerings according to levels, from introductory and fundamental to advanced, are explained on page 304. Lower-division courses are numbered from 100 to 299; upper-division from 300 to 499; advanced upper-division courses in which graduate students may enroll and receive graduate credit from 500-599; and graduate from 600 to 999.
Student Classification

Students in the Colleges of Arts and Sciences and Business Administration are classified according to the total number of semester hours and quality points they have earned:

- Freshmen—those having up to 23 sem. hrs.
- Sophomores—those having at least 24 sem. hrs. and a GPA of at least 2.00.
- Juniors—those having at least 60 sem. hrs. and a GPA of at least 2.00.
- Seniors—those having at least 96 sem. hrs. and a GPA of at least 2.00.

Students in the School of Nursing are classified according to the completion of specific curricular requirements and not merely on the basis of total semester hours.

Class Attendance

Creighton University’s primary obligation is the total education of students. Implicit in the achievement of this goal will be the student’s conscientious attendance of classes and laboratory sessions. Freshmen in particular will be held accountable for regular attendance.

Instructors in the undergraduate colleges will, at the start of the semester, announce their specific procedures concerning class attendance, verification of excused absences, etc., preferably in written form. It is the student’s responsibility to note these procedures and to follow them carefully. (No teacher will drop, the last class before or the first class after, a University recess).

Officially excused absences for University-sponsored affairs must be cleared with the Academic Dean by the responsible faculty moderator.

A student who has been unavoidably absent but cannot make up the work of the course will be permitted to withdraw without penalty. The student receives a “W” and no credit. A student who is dropped from a course for unexcused absences will receive the grade of “AF” (absence failure). Once a grade of “AF” has been assigned, the student is not eligible to receive a “W” (withdrawal).

Pass/No Pass Option

Beginning with their Sophomore year, students in good standing (cumulative GPA of 2.00 or above) may register for courses on a Pass/No Pass (P/NP) grading basis. A limit of twelve Pass/No Pass hours will be permitted the eligible student. Courses to be taken on a “P/NP” basis must be selected from those outside the student’s major and its requisite courses, and from outside educational courses leading to teacher certification.

Up to four credit hours of courses in the minor may be taken on a “P/NP” basis. No Core courses may be taken as “P/NP.” Course prerequisites must be met. Hours passed will be counted toward graduation but will not be included in the grade-point average. Likewise, a “NP” does not affect the GPA. The grade of “C” will be the lowest pass grade. The “P/ NP” status of a student is not made known to the instructor, who grades the student in the traditional manner. The final grade is converted to “P” or “NP” when the student’s end-of-term grade report is processed. For College of Business Administration students, “P/NP” will only be accepted for non-restricted electives.

Approval to take a course on a Pass/No Pass basis must be obtained from the Dean after registration. The deadline for signing up for Pass/No Pass is the same as for changing from credit to audit, i.e., four weeks following the first day of classes. No change in status from Pass/No Pass to regular grading or vice versa will be allowed after the first four weeks of the semester.
Examinations and Grading

Final examinations in all courses are held at the close of each term (semester or summer session). Written tests and quizzes are held from time to time during the term, with or without previous notice to the students, at the discretion of the instructor. A student’s scholarship rating in each of his or her courses is determined by the combined results of examination and class (and laboratory) work. This rating is reported by the instructor in accordance with the following grading system.

A  outstanding achievement and an unusual degree of intellectual initiative
B+ high level of intellectual achievement
B  noteworthy level of performance
C+ performance beyond basic expectations of the course
C  satisfactory work
D  work of inferior quality, but passing
F  failure—no credit
AF failure for excessive absences
WF failure because of unauthorized withdrawal
I  work incomplete
X  absence from final examination
AU audited course only—no credit
P  pass—credit
NP not pass—no credit
SA satisfactory work
UN unsatisfactory work (failure)—no credit
W  official withdrawal from a course—no credit

“SA” and “UN” are used to report student performance in a course that does not permit regular grading. It is not an individual grading option as is P/NP, but applies to all students in the course. Credit earned with “SA” (Satisfactory) may be counted toward graduation but is not included in the grade-point average; however, “UN” (Unsatisfactory) functions as a failure in computing the grade-point average.

Incomplete and Absence from Final Examination

The “I” and “X” are marks used, as explained below, to reflect a student’s irregular status at the time final grade reports are due.

An “I” (incomplete) is given to a student who has failed to fulfill all requirements of a course. The student may petition the instructor before the close of the term to assign an end-of-term mark of “I” indicating incomplete performance. The instructor may agree to this mark when, as a result of serious illness or other justifiable cause, the work cannot be completed by the end of the term. An “I” (incomplete) will not be granted to a student who has been excessively absent during the term or who has simply failed to complete the work of the course before the close of the term without an exceptionally good reason. Students must submit a Completion of Course Agreement form for an incomplete to be assigned. This form indicates the work to be completed and the deadline for completion. Both the student and professor must endorse the form.
The responsibility for completing all course work rests with the student. While the instructor sets the deadline for completion of the course, this deadline must not exceed the maximum time limit for clearing an incomplete which is one year from the end of the course. After the deadline has passed, the student must reregister for and satisfactorily complete the course if credit is desired. The Incomplete carries no penalty and does not affect the grade-point average. Student records will be audited periodically and students who show a consistent pattern of Incompletes may be placed on academic probation.

An “X” is given to a student who missed the regularly scheduled final examination, and the “X” functions as a failure until it is cleared. If the reason for absence is acceptable to the Dean, an examination must be taken as soon as possible but not later than one month from the date of the regular final examination. A permanent grade is recorded after the final examination is taken.

A student who is both incomplete and absent from the final examination will receive both an “I” and “X” (IX), which will function as a failure until cleared as specified above.

When an “I” or “X” (original entry) is cleared and a final grade, either passing or failing, is assigned, the final grade is entered on the student’s permanent academic record in place of the “I” or “X.”

Graduating Senior Examinations

Graduating seniors with a “B” or better average in a particular course, with the approval of the instructor, may be released from the final examination in that course. This option would, of course, be open only in those courses where adequate testing has been accomplished to satisfy the teacher in his or her determination of the grade. This decision will normally be made after the last regular class meeting of the semester. This policy in no way precludes a senior with a “B” or better from taking the final exam, should he or she choose to do so.

Grade Reports

Grade reports are made available to students each midsemester and at the end of each term (semester or summer) via the web. Access to the system may be gained by accessing Banner N.E.S.T. (Registrar’s home page) and entering the student's ID number (typically the student's NetID) and the student’s password.

Grade Appeals

The instructor has jurisdiction in determining grades; however, the student has the right to appeal a grade that the student believes to be in error. The appeal process may involve the following steps (the issue may be resolved at any level):

1. The student confers with the instructor involved.
2. The student and instructor (preferably together) confer with the chairperson of the department.
3. The student and instructor (preferably together) confer with the Dean of the College or School to which the department is attached.
4. In rare cases, when the foregoing steps do not resolve the issue, the student may initiate a formal written appeal to the Dean. Normally, the Dean will forward such appeal to the appropriate committee for its review and recommendation. A formal appeal should not be entered upon lightly by a student, nor lightly dismissed by an instructor. A formal written grade appeal may be made no later than the sixth week of the following semester.

Note: Nursing students should consult the School of Nursing Handbook for that school’s appeal procedure.
Policy on Academic Honesty

In keeping with its mission, the university seeks to prepare its students to be knowledgeable, forthright, and honest. It expects and requires academic honesty from all members of the University community. Academic honesty includes adherence to guidelines established by the University, its Colleges and Schools and their faculties, its libraries, and the computer center.

“Academic or academic-related misconduct” includes, but is not limited to, unauthorized collaboration or use of external information during examinations; plagiarizing or representing another’s ideas as one’s own; furnishing false academic information to the University; falsely obtaining, distributing, using or receiving test materials; falsifying academic records; falsifying clinical reports or otherwise endangering the well-being of patients involved in the teaching process; misusing academic resources; defacing or tampering with library materials; obtaining or gaining unauthorized access to examinations or academic research material; soliciting or offering unauthorized academic information or materials; improperly altering or inducing another to improperly alter any academic record; or engaging in any conduct which is intended or reasonably likely to confer upon one’s self or another an unfair advantage or unfair benefit respecting an academic matter.

Further information regarding academic or academic-related misconduct, and disciplinary procedures and sanctions regarding such misconduct, may be obtained by consulting the current edition of the Creighton university Handbook for Students. However, students are advised that expulsion from the University is one of the sanctions which may be imposed for academic or academic-related misconduct.

Good Academic Standing—Grade Point Requirements

To remain in good academic standing and to qualify for advancement and graduation, students, besides needing a given quantity of credit hours, must also achieve a certain quality of excellence determined on the basis of grade points.

Grade points are obtained by multiplying the number of semester hours assigned to a course by the grade point value of the grade received in the course:

- A yields 4 points for each hour
- B+ yields 3.5 points for each hour
- B yields 3 points for each hour
- C+ yields 2.5 points for each hour
- C yields 2 points for each hour
- D yields 1 point for each hour
- F, AF, and WF yield no points

One’s grade-point average (GPA) is based only on work taken at Creighton and is computed by dividing the total grade points earned by the total number of semester hours of credit attempted including hours for courses failed (unless repeated and passed) and excluding credit hours for courses graded “AU, P, NP, SA, or I”. Thus 16 hours at straight “C” grades would give 32 grade points. Plainly, this GPA would be 2.00 (32 grade points earned divided by 16 semester hours attempted).

The terms “quality point” and “grade point” are synonymous, as are “quality point average” and “grade point average.” The latter is abbreviated GPA.

Grade Point Average Requirements

A cumulative grade point average of at least 2.00 is required for graduation. The average shall be computed only on the basis of all work attempted at Creighton.

Any student whose cumulative grade point average is below 2.00 at the end of any semester will be placed on academic probation. Removal of academic probation requires achievement of a cumulative grade point average of 2.00.
Whenever a student’s grade point average falls below 2.00, the student may not be permitted to carry a full schedule of studies. The student may also be advised to drop all extracurricular activities.

Any freshman whose cumulative grade point average is not at least 1.75 at the end of the freshman year may be dropped for poor scholarship. In some cases if a Freshman student’s GPA is exceptionally low at the end of the first term of the first year, the student may be dismissed for poor scholarship.

Any student whose cumulative GPA is not at least 2.00 at the end of the sophomore year or at the end of any subsequent semester may be dropped for poor scholarship.

Any student who has been dropped for poor scholarship may not apply for readmission to the University until a full year has elapsed. If readmitted, the student is placed on final academic probation.

Satisfactory Progress Toward a Degree

A student meeting the foregoing minimum grade point requirements will be considered making satisfactory progress if:

1. The student has acquired a minimum of 24 credit hours after one academic year, 48 credit hours after two academic years, and 72 credit hours after three academic years.

2. The student by the start of the third academic year, has declared in writing a specific degree in a major program of study, and successfully completes a reasonable number of courses in that program each semester thereafter.

Repeating Courses

An undergraduate student may not repeat a course for which a final grade of “C” or better (including “P” and “SA”) has been earned. This includes credit awarded through Advanced Placement Exams, International Baccalaureate, and transfer credit.

A student who has received a final grade of “D” or “F” (including “NP” or “UN”) in a course may repeat the course. The course to be repeated must be repeated at Creighton. The student must register for this course like any other course. The credit and quality points for the highest grade earned (one grade only) will be used to calculate the student’s GPA. As with all other coursework attempted, the original course entry and grade remain on the student’s permanent record and will appear on any transcript issued. Similarly courses with marks of “AF”, “WF”, “AU”, or “W” also remain permanently on the student’s record. If such a course is repeated, a new course entry and a grade are entered in the term in which the course is repeated. Also see the policy on auditing courses on page 45.

Undergraduate Request to Decline Credit

An undergraduate student may not repeat a course for which a final grade of “C” or better (including “P” and “SA”) has been earned. This includes credit awarded through AP Exams, International Baccalaureate, and transfer credit. However, University Undergraduate Policy allows a student to decline credit previously awarded by Creighton for Advanced Placement Examinations, International Baccalaureate, and transfer credit. This credit must have been earned prior to attending Creighton. Students may repeat courses for which credit has been declined. Under no circumstance may credit earned at Creighton be declined. Dual credit courses offered by Creighton may be repeated regardless of the original grade received. Only the repeated grade will be included in the grade point average. However, both grades will remain permanently on the student record.
Graduation Honors
Graduation honors are based only on a student’s work at Creighton. To be eligible for honors, the student must have completed at least half of the prescribed hours for the degree in the undergraduate college at Creighton. Honors are applicable to the baccalaureate degree only. The diploma of a student who qualifies for honors is inscribed as follows:

- Summa cum laude — for a GPA of 3.850-4.000
- Magna cum laude — for a GPA of 3.700-3.849
- Cum laude — for a GPA of 3.500-3.699

Dean’s Honor Roll
Full-time undergraduate students who have completed a semester with a grade point average of 3.5 or higher and with no grades of “I”, “IX”, or “X” are placed on the Honor Roll for that semester in their respective college or school. Full-time students with a grade of “SA” (Satisfactory) or “P” (Pass) in a given semester qualify for the Dean’s Honor Roll if a 3.5 quality point average is earned in the graded courses. Honor Roll names of the students are posted on bulletin boards in the Deans’ offices.

College of Business Administration Dean’s Honor Roll for Social Responsibility
The College of Business Administration recognizes that business should be a positive force in society. Hence, business education must include an appreciation of the relationship between business and social responsibility. Toward this end, the College of Business Administration’s Honor Roll for Social Responsibility honors undergraduate students who take the opportunity to serve their community.

Full-time undergraduate students in the College of Business Administration who have performed 24 hours of confirmed community service between the first and last class days in a semester (excluding finals week) and have attended one of the Synthesis Sessions during that semester are placed on the Dean’s Honor Roll for Social Responsibility for that semester. Honor Roll designation appears on the students’ transcripts; Certificates of Achievement are mailed to the students’ home addresses; and names of the students are publicly posted.

Further Degree Requirements
A minimum of 128 semester hours is required for graduation, and students should check with their advisors and deans to be sure they have taken all the appropriate courses and fulfilled all necessary requirements. In addition, a cumulative quality point average of at least 2.00 is required. The Senior year consisting of the final 32 semester hours must be completed in attendance at Creighton University.

Before graduation, transfer students must secure credits in all prescribed courses pertaining to the degree sought. A minimum number of hours of a student’s major must be taken at Creighton as follows: in the College of Arts and Sciences, at least 15; in the College of Business Administration, 15-18; in the School of Nursing, 20. Students must earn at least 48 semester hours at Creighton to qualify for a degree.

Each candidate must file with the Registrar a formal application for the degree. Candidates must complete the application online (N.E.S.T.) by the deadline to be considered for a degree. (February 13, 2012 for graduation at end of second semester, by June 7, 2012 for graduation at the end of Summer Session, and by October 11, 2012 for graduation at end of first semester). Late applicants will be charged a late fee.

Those applicants who do not complete all degree requirements or who are not approved must complete another application by the following deadline to be conferred at the end of the first semester or second semester or Summer Session. More information at http://www.creighton.edu/publicrelations/events/commencement.
COMMENCEMENT

Annual University Commencement Ceremonies are held in May and December. Students who complete their degree programs in the Spring Semester are required to be present at the Annual Commencement Exercises in May to receive their degrees. Students who complete their degree programs in the Fall Semester may attend Commencement ceremonies in December. Diplomas will be mailed upon confirmation of the completion of all degree requirements by the respective Dean. Students who complete their degree programs during the summer receive their degrees at the end of the Summer Sessions, but no ceremony is held; these students may participate in the preceding May Commencement. All candidates who receive degrees at the end of a Fall Semester or Summer Session are listed in the next Annual Commencement Program.

NOTE: A student may participate in only one Commencement ceremony for each degree granted.

To participate in the May Commencement, a candidate must have successfully completed all degree requirements and must be approved for graduation, or be able to and plan to complete all requirements by the date for conferral of degrees in the following August. The respective deans of the Schools and Colleges of the University shall have the responsibility for clearing all participants in the Commencement. Those participants in the May ceremony who have not completed all degree requirements shall be so designated in the Commencement Program.

DISCIPLINE

The primary purpose of discipline is educational in nature and is aimed at the development of responsible student conduct.

The University has the right and the duty to protect its educational purpose through setting and maintaining standards and regulations considered essential to its purpose. The Student Handbook describes disciplinary procedures and penalties, which may include suspension or expulsion from the University.

CONFIDENTIALITY OF STUDENT RECORDS

Creighton’s policy relating to the confidentiality of student records is in keeping with the “Family Educational Rights and Privacy Act” (FERPA). Information about students or former students will not be released without the consent of the student other than in the exceptions stated in the Federal Act. FERPA affords students certain rights with respect to their educational records. They are:

1. The right to inspect and review the student’s educational records within 45 days of the day the University receives a request for access.

   Students should submit to the Registrar, Dean, Department Chair, or other appropriate official, a written request that identifies the record(s) they wish to inspect. The University official will make arrangements for access and notify the student of the time and place where the records may be inspected. If the records are not maintained by the official to whom the request was submitted, that official shall advise the student of the correct official to whom the request shall be addressed.

2. The right to request the amendment of the student’s educational records that the student believes are inaccurate or misleading.

   Students may ask the University to amend a record that they believe is inaccurate or misleading. They should write the University official responsible for the record, clearly identifying the part of the record they want changed, and specify why it is inaccurate or misleading.
If the University decides not to amend the record as requested by the student, the University will notify the student of the decision and advise the student of his or her right to a hearing regarding the request for amendment. Additional information regarding the hearing procedures will be provided to the student when notified of the right to a hearing.

3. The right to consent to disclosures of personally identifiable information contained in the student’s educational records, except to the extent that FERPA authorizes disclosures without consent.

One exception which permits disclosure without consent is disclosure to school officials with legitimate educational interests. A school official is a person employed by the University in an administrative, supervisory, academic or research, or support staff position (including Public Safety personnel and Student Health staff); a person or company with whom the University has contracted (such as an attorney, auditor, collection agency, or the National Student Clearinghouse); a person serving on the Board of Directors; or a student serving on an official committee, such as a disciplinary or grievance committee, or assisting another school official in performing his or her tasks.

A school official has a legitimate educational interest if the official needs to review an educational record in order to fulfill their professional responsibility. Upon request, the University discloses educational records without consent to officials of another school in which the student seeks or intends to enroll.

FERPA also allows the University to disclose directory information without the written consent of the student. Directory information is information contained in an educational record of a student which generally would not be considered harmful or an invasion of privacy if disclosed. Directory information includes the student’s full name, the fact that the student is or has been enrolled, full-time/part-time status, local and permanent address(es), e-mail address, telephone number(s), date and place of birth, dates of attendance, division (school or college), class, major field(s) of study and/or curriculum, degrees and awards received, participation in officially recognized activities and sports, weight and height of members of athletic teams, photograph, and previous educational agency or institution attended by the student.

A currently enrolled student may request any or all directory information not be released by completing and filing with the Registrar’s Office a statement entitled “Student Request To Restrict Directory Information.” Such filing of this request shall be honored for the remainder of the term in which the request is filed, except that such restriction shall not apply to directory information already published or in the process of being published.

4. The right to file a complaint with the U.S. Department of Education concerning alleged failures by Creighton University to comply with requirements of FERPA. The name and address of the office that administers FERPA are:

Family Policy Compliance Office
U.S. Department of Education
600 Independence Avenue, SW
Washington, DC 20202-4605

TRANSCRIPTS

A copy of a student’s academic record is called a transcript and is issued by the University Registrar upon written request of the student. A special Request For Transcript form is available at the Registrar’s Office, A226 or on the Registrar’s website http://www.creighton.edu/Registrar/transcript.html. Copies are not made of transcripts of records on file from other institutions. Any additional copy of these must be requested by the student direct from the original issuing institution.
SPECIAL PROGRAMS

Skills Development Program

The Skills Development Program for Freshmen assures that all students acquire necessary skills in major areas: writing, mathematics, and study skills. Participation may be required by the Dean’s Office for those whose test scores indicate a need for further work in a skills area. Courses in this program are not applicable to CORE requirements (with the exception of CHM 105) but earn college credit.

Courses in the Skills Development Program include the following:

ENG 100  Introduction to Composition
MTH 103  Intermediate Algebra
CHM 105  Introductory Chemistry
RSP 120  Strategies for Academic Success

MILITARY SCIENCE

The Reserve Officers’ Training Corps was authorized by the War Department and established at Creighton University in 1919. The program is a cooperative effort contractually agreed to by the Army and Creighton University to commission officers into the United States Army. The program builds leaders of character to serve the common defense. Upon completion of the program, graduates are commissioned as Second Lieutenants.

Creighton’s Military Science Program is an elective two-year or four-year program taken as any other elective course. Up to 24 credit hours may be earned through the Army ROTC Program. The four-year program includes a Basic Course, taken during the Freshman and Sophomore years, and an Advanced Course, normally taken during the Junior and Senior years. There is no service obligation connected with enrollment in the Basic Course. An academic minor is also available in Military Science.

Program Objectives

The program provides training designed to prepare students for a Commission in the U.S. Army. The student may earn a commission while earning an academic degree in a discipline of his or her choice. Creighton’s four-year nursing program and the accelerated nursing program are just two examples of degree programs available. The curriculum is interdisciplinary and encourages reflective thinking, assessment, goal setting and problem solving. The books, uniforms and equipment needed by students for ROTC courses are furnished.

Leadership training is the core of the Military Science program and is required each semester. It is accomplished, in part, through a leadership laboratory conducted each week and field exercises held each semester. The Basic Course develops an understanding of teamwork and leadership techniques. Leadership is enhanced through practical application in drill, leader reaction exercises and tactical exercises in field situations. Additionally, there are opportunities for optional adventure training in Air Assault, Airborne and Mountain Survival Training. Advanced Course students plan, organize and conduct the Basic Course leadership program, thereby enhancing their management, supervisory and leadership skills. Further growth is achieved through field exercises and enrichment activities, Ranger Training, Physical Training, and Cadet Troop Leadership Training.

Advanced Course

Although Military Science courses may be taken for credit by any student, only those students formally enrolling in and successfully completing the Advanced Course will receive a commission. If selected for and enrolled in the Advanced Course, the student must agree to complete the remaining two years of ROTC and to accept a commission, if offered, upon completion of the course.

Each Advanced Course student must attend a 32-day Leader Development and Assessment Course, normally during the summer between their junior and senior year. The course consists of the practical application of the instruction and skills learned at Creighton, with emphasis on leadership and physical fitness. Students are paid travel expenses to and from camp as well as a daily working salary. All accommodations, clothing, equipment, and food are provided.

A two-year program is available for students at or transferring to Creighton. Students enrolling in the two-year program must attend and successfully complete a four-week Leader Training Course prior to entering the Advanced Course unless they have prior military service. Upon entering the Advanced Course, the two-year students follow the same curriculum as all other Advanced Course students. All students enrolled in the Advanced Course receive monthly subsistence payments of $450-500 during the school year.

Army Reserve/Army National Guard Simultaneous Membership Program (SMP)

The ROTC Program is normally a four-year program; however, under the Simultaneous Membership Program (SMP), qualified juniors (those who are veterans or those who have successfully completed three years of Junior ROTC or Basic Training with a reserve or national guard unit) may upon the approval of the PMS enter the Advanced Course and earn a commission. The student may apply for Active Duty with the U.S. Army upon graduation.

Qualified SMP students may apply for scholarships under the Guaranteed Reserve Forces Duty Scholarship program. This is a two- or three-year scholarship that could be worth up to $108,000. In addition to the $450 per month and the Reserve unit pay, SMP students are still eligible for selected Montgomery GI Bill college assistance programs and bonuses. Total monetary entitlements for a nonscholarship SMP student wanting to use the Montgomery GI Bill instead of a scholarship could exceed $36,000.

Special Opportunities

Students who have completed 12 months of service in one of the U.S. Armed Services and have achieved junior standing may upon approval of the PMS be granted credit for the Basic Course and enrolled in the Advanced Course. ROTC credit earned at other universities is transferable to Creighton.

Numerous associated and allied programs and extracurricular activities are available to ROTC students. CTLT (Cadet Troop Leadership Training), NSTP (Nurse Summer Training Program), Airborne, Air Assault, Northern Warfare, and Cultural Immersion Study Abroad are great examples of opportunities available to ROTC students. Students are allowed to attend these optional courses in the summer between their Freshman and Junior years. These courses are designed to broaden their knowledge and understanding of the military profession and allow them to acquire and develop new skills. Travel expenses and a stipend are included for each of these courses.

ROTC Scholarships

Four 3.5, 3, 2.5, and 2-year scholarships are available to all high school seniors who apply and are selected to receive these scholarships while they attend an institution offering a four-year Army ROTC program. Those students receiving a ROTC scholarship may also receive a full room and board award from the University. The value of this University award is equal to actual room and board charges as contracted with the University. Changes in room and/or board plans within a term will constitute an equivalent adjustment to the award. This award is activated when the ROTC scholarship becomes effective. To receive the room/board supplement, a student must enter Creighton as a first time college student with an ROTC scholarship commitment. Army ROTC scholarships pay full tuition and fees per year for books and fees, and $300-500 per month during the school year. Nursing scholarships are also available to qualified nursing students. Nurses receive the same benefits as regular students plus the Army pays for the NCLEX exam, NCLEX prep course, a PDA for use during clinicals, and a stethoscope. Following Advanced Camp, nursing students may elect to attend a three-week nurse summer training program at one of many U.S. Army medical centers around the country for an intensive nurse preceptor program.

ROTC students who gain acceptance to a professional school in the medical field are eligible to apply for the Uniformed Services Health Professions Scholarship Program, which pays the recipient a monthly stipend plus tuition and all academic expenses. These scholarships are offered in medicine, osteopathy, and psychology (Ph.D., clinical or counseling) and dentistry. Scholarships are also available to students going on to Physical Therapy, Occupational Therapy, and Pharmacy. Two-year graduate scholarships are also available. Students desiring graduate and professional education are permitted to apply for deferment of service obligation resulting from their ROTC enrollment until the completion of such additional studies. This educational delay is open to those pursuing advanced medical, legal, and seminary professions. Feel free to call if there are any questions at (402) 280-1155/2828.

AIR FORCE ROTC (Aerospace Studies)

Air Force Reserve Officer Training Corps (AFROTC) training leading to a commission as a second lieutenant in the United States Air Force is available to qualified Creighton students through the AFROTC Program at the University of Nebraska at Omaha (UNO). Creighton students register for the courses at Creighton but attend Aerospace Studies Classes at UNO while pursuing their degree at Creighton. This opportunity results from an agreement between Creighton and UNO that permits Creighton students to participate in the Air Force ROTC Program at the University of Nebraska at Omaha.

High school seniors may compete for three and four-year AFROTC scholarships. Winners of these scholarships may also receive a full residence hall room and board supplement upon activation of their scholarship at Creighton University. The value of this University award is equal to actual room and board charges as contracted with the University. Changes in room and/or board plans within a term will constitute an equivalent adjustment to the award. This award is activated when the ROTC scholarship becomes effective. To receive the room/board supplement, a student must enter Creighton as a first time college student with an ROTC scholarship commitment. The two kinds of Air Force ROTC scholarships that can be applied at Creighton are the Type I and Type II. A Type I scholarship is an uncapped scholarship. Any and all tuition and fees are paid by the Air Force. A Type II scholarship is capped at $15,000 yearly for tuition and fees. The student covers anything above that amount. In both cases $900 a year is paid to offset the cost of books and each student receives $300-$500 per month for 9 or 12 months in the year. This is a non-taxable allowance designed to offset the other costs associated with being a student. The Aerospace Studies courses are listed on page 310.

Students who did not apply or receive an AFROTC scholarship during high school are eligible to compete for two- and three-year scholarships during their freshman and/or sophomore year in college. To be eligible, students should enroll in AFROTC classes.

Sophomore cadets may compete for a pre-health slot. After graduation, AFROTC cadets may apply for entrance into the Armed Forces Health Professions Scholarship Program. Upon acceptance into medical school, the scholarship covers tuition, books, and lab fees. Up to four years of graduate-level health professions schooling is authorized.

If interested in any of these programs please contact AFROTC Detachment 470, University of Nebraska at Omaha, to obtain further information (phone 402-554-2318).

82  CREIGHTON UNIVERSITY UNDERGRADUATE BULLETIN
NATIONAL SCHOLARSHIP COMPETITIONS

Every year Creighton students apply for a range of highly prestigious national scholarships. These competitive awards recognize the nation’s best students. They offer considerable support either for undergraduate studies, continued education at the graduate level or for other significant post-graduate work, such as service to the nation or the community. For more information contact Dr. Bridget Keegan, Director of Scholarships and Fellowships or consult Creighton’s Scholarships website, http://www.creighton.edu/soar. The website contains full details on all available scholarships, including the following:

The Davies-Jackson Scholarship presents a unique opportunity for students with exceptional academic records, who are among the first in their families to graduate college, to participate in a course of study at St. John’s College at the University of Cambridge. http://www.cic.edu/projects_services/grants/daviesjackson/.

Fulbright Grants allow scholars, professionals and artists to travel to other countries to research and study. http://us.fulbrightonline.org/home.html.

The Gates Cambridge Scholarships are full-cost awards for graduate study and research in any subject available at the University of Cambridge. The scholarships are highly competitive and are awarded to citizens of any country outside of the United Kingdom on the basis of the candidate’s academic excellence, a good fit between the Scholar and the University of Cambridge, evidence of leadership potential and a commitment to improving the lives of others. http://www.gatesscholar.org/.

The Clare Boothe Luce Foundation provides support to women in the sciences, mathematics, and engineering. http://www.creighton.edu/luce.

Marshall Scholarships finance young Americans to study for a degree in the United Kingdom. Up to forty Scholars are selected each year to study either at graduate or occasionally undergraduate level in any field. One and two year scholarship are available. http://www.marshallscholarship.org.

The George J. Mitchell Postgraduate Scholarships are sponsored by the US-Ireland Alliance and is designed to introduce and connect generations of future American leaders to the island of Ireland, while recognizing and fostering intellectual achievement, leadership, and a commitment to public service and community. Mitchell Scholars pursue one year of postgraduate study in any discipline offered by institutions of higher learning in Ireland and Northern Ireland. Applicants are judged on three criteria: academic excellence, leadership, and a sustained commitment to service and community. http://www.us-irelandalliance.org/wmspage.cfm?parm1=34.

The National Science Foundation awards fellowships for graduate study leading to research-based master’s or doctoral degrees in the fields of science, mathematics, engineering, women in engineering, mathematics and computer and information science. http://www.nsf.gov/.

National Security Education Program David L. Boren Fellowships are intended to support U.S. graduate students who will pursue the study of languages and cultures deemed critical to U.S. national security, and who are highly motivated by the opportunity to work in the federal government. http://www.borenawards.org.
Rhodes Scholarships, the oldest international fellowships, bring outstanding students from many countries around the world to the University of Oxford (U.K.). Applicants will have demonstrated intellectual distinction as well as promise of future "effective service to the world." http://rhodesscholar.org.

The Harry S. Truman Scholarship Foundation recognizes college juniors with exceptional leadership potential who are committed to careers in government or other public service, and provides them with financial support for graduate study. http://www.truman.gov.

The Morris K. Udall Undergraduate Scholarship is awarded to highly qualified sophomore or junior students who are Native American and interested in tribal public policy or Native health care, or students of any ethnicity interested in environmental issues. http://www.udall.gov/

RATIO STUDIORUM PROGRAM

The name “Ratio Studiorum” emanates from a Jesuit “plan of studies” bearing the name “Ratio atque Institutio Studiorum Societatis Jesu” and adopted in 1599 as a formal program for study at the university level. In an analogous manner, Creighton’s Ratio Studiorum Program is designed to help students understand how the Academy works, how the curriculum functions to form them as young women and men, and how they can expect to grow and develop in the university setting. The Program focuses on the need for students to plan their curriculum, their career, and a way of life that concentrates on ethical living, service to others, a search for truth and justice in public and personal life, and a search for the relationship with the Almighty. Informed choice is the goal, freedom and knowledge are the tools in this discernment, and faculty and professional staff are the guides.

First year students begin the program through a Ratio Studiorum 100 level class. This is a one credit, graded course designed to facilitate a smooth transition from high school by examining key elements of collegiate life, such as the meaning and value of a liberal arts education; the Jesuit, Catholic history and values; and the vocational aspirations and challenges common to all freshmen. The class meets weekly during the first semester in groups of about 20 students and is taught by a Faculty Preceptor who serves as the academic advisor throughout the first year. A Decurion or peer academic leader (a junior or senior invited by the Faculty Preceptor) joins him/her in this venture.

The 100 level courses are as follows:
- RSP 101 – College of Arts and Sciences
- RSP 102 - School of Nursing
- RSP 103 – College of Business Administration
- RSP 104 – Honors Students in CCAS
- RSP 105 – Transfer Students (CCAS/COBA) with less than 38 credit hours

The program continues sophomore year through RSP 200. Students in the College of Arts and Sciences can choose to declare a major if prerequisites are met or select a Pre-Major Advisor. The Pre-Major Advisor will serve as the student’s academic advisor until a student is accepted into a major department or program. In addition, a variety of discernment activities and events designed to assist sophomores with selection of a major and/or career are open to students from all three undergraduate colleges.
PRE-MEDICAL EDUCATION PROGRAM (PMED)

Creighton University offers a non-credit, Pre-Med Educational Seminar (PMED) series to students planning to apply to medical school during their undergraduate careers. The co-curricular program and its activities are designed to complement the student’s academic and scholarly achievements.

• A five-semester series of weekly seminars and other activities designed to strengthen the candidacy of Creighton students as they prepare for the medical school application process.

• The series begins in the second semester of the freshman year and concludes after the second semester of the junior year.

• Seminar activities include workshops that address interviewing, preparing an AMCAS application, writing personal statements and developing solid shadowing experiences, among other important topics.

• PMED will allow students to develop and maintain quality relationships with advisors, and those providing input to the university-level letter, to include in their applications to medical school.
PROGRAMES OF STUDY
CREIGHTON COLLEGE OF ARTS AND SCIENCES

GOALS OF LIBERAL EDUCATION
Creighton University’s College of Arts and Sciences offers a liberal education whose primary goal is encouraging each student to become a free and responsible person. To further this goal, a liberal education delimits the natural and human boundaries within which free choice occurs, urges its students to see the need for such choice, and provides them with the means for making that choice responsibly. Creighton’s students are encouraged to be free and responsible through systematic encounter with the various traditional liberal arts and empirical sciences. The College understands this encounter—and freedom’s ultimate goal—in an explicitly Christian context, one defined by the Catholic Church, vivified by the contributions of the Jesuit community, and shared by the many other religious and lay faculty and administrators serving the University.

Creighton’s liberal education is and must be eminently practical as an education for life. A liberal education grows with its possessors and helps guide them through a lifetime of free and responsible choices. The student must be a willing, active, and earnest partner in this educational process. The reward of this partnership is a deepened appreciation for life and a strengthened ability to respond to its demands with critical intelligence. Thus, Creighton’s liberal education demands responsible involvement from its students and promises, in return, personal and academic enrichment.

LEARNING OUTCOMES
Creighton College of Arts and Sciences recognizes a set of specific abilities that distinguish those individuals who have been educated in the liberal arts within the Jesuit tradition. It believes that such individuals will have learned to integrate academic study into a broader commitment to the life of the mind, heart, imagination, and spirit. The College’s faculty, staff, and administrators have therefore set as their goals that all students graduating from the College will have learned to:

Communicate clearly and effectively in written, spoken, mathematical, and artistic languages;

Think critically about information, assumptions, and arguments found in multiple forms of academic and cultural discourse;

Integrate broad and diverse learning with at least one individually chosen academic discipline or professional field;

Appreciate the Christian, Catholic, and Jesuit intellectual traditions in the context of historical, cultural and spiritual concerns;

Apply a reasoned approach to effective decision-making according to sound and coherent ethical principles; and

Demonstrate an active engagement with [and enduring commitment to] Jesuit values of service and social justice;

Demonstrate a historical or contemporary understanding of diverse human identities and cultures in the United States and around the world.
GENERAL REQUIREMENTS FOR A BACHELOR’S DEGREE

As the means for achieving these goals, the Creighton College of Arts and Sciences requires each student to select a program of courses that combines three elements. The Core Curriculum assures broad exposure to academic and cultural discourse, the acquisition of communicative and reasoning skills, and the exploration of ethical values within the Christian, Catholic, and Jesuit traditions. Academic majors serve the same broad goals but in the context of bringing added depth and facility in a particular academic discipline or professional field. Academic minors and elective courses foster students’ intellectual curiosity and adaptability and encourage in them an enthusiasm for lifelong learning.

More specifically, a bachelor’s degree requires:

• a minimum of 128 credit hours, including at least 48 credit hours in courses numbered 300 or above
• an overall cumulative grade point average (GPA) of at least 2.00, based on all courses at Creighton University
• completion of all applicable requirements of the Core curriculum
• completion of at least one major in one of the departments of the College
• a GPA of at least 2.00 in the minimum requirements of their major
• the final 32 semester hours must be completed in residence at Creighton University

Elective courses should be chosen in consultation with the student’s academic advisor.

Normally, students register for not less than 12 nor more than 18 credit hours in each semester. The privilege of carrying more than 18 hours is contingent upon the student’s quality-point average and requires the written approval of the Dean. Additional tuition may be charged.

Majors and Minors for Business Administration and Nursing Students

Students in the School of Nursing and the College of Business Administration may complete an additional major or minor in the College of Arts and Sciences. The second major or minor is in addition to the BSN or BSBA degree earned; students do not receive a second degree from Arts and Sciences. Nursing students should contact the Associate Dean of Student Affairs in the School of Nursing and business students should contact the Dean of the College of Business Administration for advising and for referral for the application.
CORE CURRICULUM REQUIREMENTS
The Core Curriculum is organized into five categories. Students must complete the designated number of credits for each category in approved courses from the lists on the pages that follow. In some cases one course may meet more than one Core requirement.

CATEGORY A — Theology, Philosophy and Ethics — 18 credits
Christianity in Context (Theology) — 3 credits
Scripture (Theology) — 3 credits
Christian Theology (Theology) — 3 credits
God and Persons: Philosophical Reflections (Philosophy) — 3 credits
Foundations for Ethical Understanding (Philosophy/Theology) — 3 credits
Senior Perspective (Interdisciplinary) — 3 credits

CATEGORY B — Cultures, Ideas, and Civilizations — 18 credits
Critical and Historical Introduction to Philosophy (Philosophy) — 3 credits
The Modern Western World (History) — 3 credits
Non-Western History (History) — 3 credits

World Literature II: Post-1600 (English) — 3 credits
International/Global Studies (Choice) — 3 credits

CATEGORY C — Natural Science — 7 credits
The list of approved courses can be found on page 93. At least one course must have a significant laboratory component.

CATEGORY D — Social and Behavioral Sciences — 6 credits
Must be taken from two different fields. The approved courses can be found on page 93.

CATEGORY E — Skills — 12-15 credits
The requirements in any of the Skills areas may be met through tests or portfolios. The 128 credit hour graduation requirement is not reduced through these tests and portfolios.
Rhetoric and Composition (ENG 150) — 3 credits
Mathematics (MTH 201 or 245) — 3 or 4 credits
Speech (COM 152) or Studio/Performing Arts — 3 credits
Language (Classic or Modern) — A minimum of six credits in one language at 100 level if learning it for the first time or 3 credits of language 201 with previous knowledge of that language.

CERTIFIED WRITING COURSES
Four approved writing intensive courses.
CORE CURRICULUM COURSES
The Core Curriculum courses listed below are approved at the time of this Bulletin printing. Please check with the Dean’s Office, with future Bulletins, or with the Registrar’s website at http://www.creighton.edu/Registrar for additional courses. NOTE: Courses taken on a Pass/No Pass basis may not be used to fulfill Core Requirements.

 Degrees
The College of Arts and Sciences awards 10 different bachelor’s degrees. While the majority of students in each graduating class receive Bachelor of Arts (B.A.) or Bachelor of Science (B.S.) degrees, the College also offers the following programs of study that either provide greater concentration in a specific academic field or serve as a professional credential:

- Bachelor of Fine Arts (B.F.A.)
- Bachelor of Science in Atmospheric Sciences (B.S. Ats.)
- Bachelor of Science in Chemistry (B.S.Chm.)
- Bachelor of Science in Environmental Science (B.S.Evs.)
- Bachelor of Science in Mathematics (B.S.Mth.)
- Bachelor of Science in Physics (B.S.Phy.)
- Bachelor of Social Work (B.S.W.)

 Majors
Students complete most of their advanced work within their majors. Students must achieve a cumulative grade point average of at least 2.00 in the minimum requirements of their majors to qualify for graduation.

To maintain satisfactory progress toward their degrees, students must apply and be accepted by a major program. Ordinarily, students apply for their major programs during their Sophomore year. Some students may apply for the major earlier, and may do so after completing their first semester at Creighton.

In order to apply, students must have an overall GPA of 2.00 and have satisfied any specific requirements as indicated by the major department in this bulletin. Application for major programs is found online through the link found at http://www2.creighton.edu/ccas/formsandlinks.

Department chairs and program directors may defer or decline students who do not meet the designated criteria. However, at the time of graduation, any student who meets all the published criteria of the University may request the College to award the degree and major regardless of the prior actions of the department. Such requests should be directed to the Associate Dean.

 Structure of Majors
The majors offered in the College of Arts and Sciences differ in the ways in which they structure their requirements, as they must if they are to meet the diverse needs of Creighton students and reflect the widely varying natures of their respective academic disciplines.

Some majors focus on a single sequence of courses. Other programs offer two or more tracks - course sequences, one of which a student must select in order to complete the major. Still others list specializations - optional, alternative or additional sequences of coursework that students may elect in order to focus their major program more narrowly.
Degrees, Majors, Tracks and Specializations Offered in the College

The following list shows all the subjects offered as majors in the College by degree together with the tracks and specializations that each allows. Specific requirements for each program appear in the listing for the relevant department or program in the Courses of Instruction section of this bulletin.

Double Majors

Students in the College of Arts and Sciences may complete more than one major. Students completing more than one major are responsible for all the normal requirements, including specified requisite courses, for those programs. Students must choose a primary major. Students in the College of Arts and Sciences do not receive dual degrees. All major programs of study completed are indicated on students’ official transcripts.

Minors

Minors offer students the opportunity to develop substantial knowledge in areas outside their majors and achieve the second and third College learning outcomes:

To think critically about information, assumptions, and arguments found in multiple forms of academic and cultural discourse; and

To integrate broad and diverse learning with at least one individually chosen academic discipline or professional field.

A student may not declare a minor until he or she has been accepted into a Major.

Eighteen credits of coursework are required to complete a minor. Students must achieve a cumulative GPA of 2.00 in courses toward the minor. Students declare minors online. The Minor Declaration Form can be found at http://www.creighton.edu/ccas/formsandlinks.

ACADEMIC DEPARTMENTS AND INTERDISCIPLINARY PROGRAMS

AFRICAN STUDIES

Program Director: James S. Wunsch
Program Office: Creighton Hall, Room 430A

Program Description: African Studies is an interdisciplinary program drawing from faculty in the departments of History, English, Sociology and Anthropology, Political Science and International Relations and Theology. It attempts to provide students with factual and theoretical material necessary to understand the issues facing contemporary Africa through courses approaching Africa from humanistic, ethnographic, historical, institutional, and policy-oriented perspectives. The program also offers films, social events, symposia and visiting lecturers to go beyond course offerings.

Web Contact/Information: Additional information about this program may be found at http://puffin.creighton.edu/afs. However, for definitive details, students are strongly encouraged to check the University’s website for Bulletin changes at http://www.creighton.edu/Registrar.

PROGRAM IN AFRICAN STUDIES

AFRICAN STUDIES MINOR

Program Description: The African Studies minor offers students an overview of historical, literary, political and ethnographic material about Africa. The African Studies minor empowers all students to be better citizens and members of increasingly global social and professional communities. Students with this background will be able to understand the African continent and its people and will, hence, become more culturally aware medical practitioners, immigration lawyers, and international business negotiators.

AMERICAN STUDIES
Program Directors: Heather E. Fryer, Tracy N. Leavelle
Program Office: Creighton Hall, Room 329D

Program Description: The American Studies Program seeks to prepare graduates with the knowledge and skills to bring critical insights to the study of the American experience in all its diversity, past and present. Faculty members aim to stimulate critical and creative thinking through interdisciplinary and comparative study with attention to transnational issues and current theoretical frameworks.

Web Contact/Information: Additional information about this department may be found at http://www2.creighton.edu/ccas/americanstudies. However, for definitive details, students are strongly encouraged to check the University’s website for Bulletin changes: http://www.creighton.edu/Registrar.

American Studies Minor

Program Description: The American Studies minor complements single-disciplinary studies in American politics, society, and culture through interdisciplinary approaches that are comparative, theoretical, and transnational in scope.

Contact: Director, American Studies Program

(All of the following:)

AMS 307  Introduction to American Studies  3 credits
AMS 308  Theories and Methods in American Studies  3 credits

(Two courses from two of the following groups:)

American Fine and Performing Arts
(Same list from page 102)

American History
(Same list from page 102)

American Philosophy

ASIAN STUDIES

Program Director: Jinmei Yuan; Maorong Jiang
Program Office: Creighton Hall, Room 341

Program Description: Asian Studies is an interdisciplinary program designed to provide undergraduate students with a broad understanding of Asian cultures and an awareness of the important historical and international events happening in the Asian world. This program is designed to build a solid foundation of philosophy, religion, history and political science for further study in this field.

Web Contact/Information: For definitive details, students are strongly encouraged to check the University’s website for Bulletin changes at http://www.creighton.edu/Registrar.

ATMOSPHERIC SCIENCES
Chair: Joseph A. Zehnder
Department Office: Hixson-Lied Science Building, Room 504

Professor: J. Zehnder;
Professor Emeritus: A. Douglas;
Associate Professor: J. Schrage;
Assistant Professor: T. Wagner.

Department Description: The Atmospheric Sciences Major introduces students to a wide range of scientific inquiry relative to the earth’s atmosphere. A broad set of courses are offered in weather analysis, forecasting, atmospheric dynamics and numerical weather forecasting. The major is available through two degree options. The first option, the Bachelor of Science in Atmospheric Sciences degree (B.S.Arts.) prepares students for graduate studies and research fields within the Atmospheric Sciences as well as fulfilling requirements of the American Meteorological Society and requirements for employment with the National Weather Service and other branches of the National Oceanic and Atmospheric Administration. The second option, the Bachelor of Science (B.S.) degree, will prepare students with a general background in Atmospheric Sciences.

Web Contact/Information: Additional information about this department may be found at http://ats.creighton.edu. However, for definitive details, students are strongly encouraged to check the University’s website for Bulletin changes at http://www.creighton.edu/Registrar.

PROGRAMS IN ATMOSPHERIC SCIENCES
Specific Requirements for Admission to the Atmospheric Sciences Major: Successful completion of ATS 113, ATS 114, and MTH 245.

B.S. Arts., Major in Atmospheric Sciences: 44 Credits

Course Requirements
(All of the following):
ATS 113  Introduction to Atmospheric Sciences  3 credits
ATS 114  Introduction to Atmospheric Sciences Laboratory  1 credit
ATS 211  Weather Analysis and Forecasting  3 credits
ATS 315  Computer Applications in Meteorology  3 credits
ATS 510  Introduction to Physical Meteorology  3 credits
ATS 555  Meteorological Remote Sensing  3 credits
ATS 561  Synoptic Meteorology I  3 credits
ATS 562  Synoptic Meteorology II  4 credits
ATS 570  Quantitative Methods in the Atmospheric Sciences  3 credits
ATS 571  Dynamic Meteorology I  3 credits
ATS 572  Dynamic Meteorology II  3 credits
At least 12 elective credits from ATS courses 400-level or above.  12 credits Requisite Courses: MTH 245 and MTH 246 and MTH 545; PHY 211 and PHY 212.

B. S., Major in Atmospheric Sciences: 26 Credits

Course Requirements
(All of the following):
ATS 113 Introduction to Atmospheric Sciences 3 credits
ATS 114 Introduction to Atmospheric Sciences Laboratory 1 credit
ATS 542 Radar Remote Sensing 3 credits
ATS 555 Meteorological Remote Sensing 3 credits
ATS 561 Synoptic Meteorology I 3 credits
ATS 562 Synoptic Meteorology II 4 credits
ATS 571 Dynamic Meteorology I 3 credits
ATS 572 Dynamic Meteorology II 3 credits
One additional course chosen in consultation with the department chair. 3 credits

ATS 497 Directed Independent Research is highly recommended and is normally taken for a total of 3 credits during the student’s Senior year, during which the student will develop a written report.

Requisite Courses: MTH 245 and MTH 246, PHY 211 and PHY 212 are required. Additional courses in one or more of the following fields are highly recommended: Computer Science, Chemistry, Mathematics, Statistics or Environmental Sciences.

Atmospheric Sciences Minor
Program Description: The Atmospheric Sciences minor explores a wide range of investigation within synoptic meteorology, forecasting, global climatology and climate change. The course work in the minor is designed to give the student a grasp of the various subdisciplines associated with the Atmospheric Sciences and allied Physical Sciences. Students may select either a set of courses emphasizing a specific area of interest (e.g. the meteorology of severe weather, global climate change, or analysis and forecasting) or a broad spectrum of courses representing diverse areas of inquiry within the atmospheric and earth sciences.

Contact: Chair, Department of Atmospheric Sciences

(All of the following):
ATS 113 Introduction to Atmospheric Sciences 3 credits

(Fifteen credits from the following):
ATS 114 Introduction to Atmospheric Sciences Laboratory 1 credit
ATS 211 Weather Analysis and Forecasting 3 credits
ATS 443 Environmental Geology 4 credits
ATS 533 Physical Climatology and Climate Change 3 credits
ATS 541 Ats. Diffusion, Air Poll. Env. Impact Analysis 3 credits
ATS 542 Radar Remote Sensing 3 credits
ATS 544 Hydrology 3 credits
ATS 545 Mesoscale Analysis 3 credits
ATS 553 Tropical Meteorology 3 credits
ATS 555 Meteorological Remote Sensing 3 credits
ATS 556 Introduction to Physical Oceanography 3 credits
ATS 561 Synoptic Meteorology I 3 credits
ATS 562 Synoptic Meteorology II 4 credits
ATS 571 Dynamic Meteorology I 3 credits
ATS 572 Dynamic Meteorology II 3 credits

Certificate Program in University College
This department offers one certificate program in Atmospheric Sciences to students in University College. See the description for this certificate on page 271 in the University College section of the Bulletin.

For all ATS courses, please refer to page 306.

(Twenty-five additional upper-division BIO credits from the list below):

This upper-division coursework must include the following:

Seven lecture courses (3 credits or 4 credits)

A minimum of four lecture courses from the 300 and/or 400 levels, and two lecture courses from the 500 level. At least one of these seven lecture courses must come from each of three areas: 1. Cellular/Molecular, 2. Organismal, 3. Population/Ecology/Evolution. These areas are designated as "Cell," "Org," and "Pop," respectively, in the third column of the course list below.

Four laboratory courses

This requirement may be satisfied by any combination of 4 credit lecture+laboratory or 1 or 2 credit laboratory-only courses. These courses are designated by "Lab" in the course list below. Lecture+laboratory courses may apply simultaneously to both the lecture and laboratory requirements.

Biology Minor

Program Description: The Biology minor introduces students to foundational and advanced courses across the major subdisciplines of modern biology. Lecture and lab experiences are grounded on fundamental principles. In addition to the General Biology courses, a diversity of life science topics are available in upper division courses at the cellular and molecular, organismal, and ecological and evolutionary biology levels. Students can design a study plan which allows an in-depth exploration of one area or a broader survey of several subdisciplinary areas of biology.

Contact: Chair, Department of Biology

(All of the following:)

- BIO 211  General Biology: Molecular and Cellular  4 credits
- BIO 212  General Biology: Organismal and Population  4 credits

Ten additional credits in BIO courses numbered 300 and above. 10 credits

The ten additional credits must include at least one lecture+lab or laboratory-only course. Courses in departments other than Biology may not be applied towards this minor BIO 490, BIO 493, BIO 495, and BIO 497 cannot be applied towards this minor.

Teacher Certification

Students who plan to teach Biology in secondary schools should consult with the Education Department, the Biology Department, and the appropriate agency in the state in which they intend to teach. PHY 187 and either ATS 113 and 114, EVS 443 or PHY 107 and 108 should be substituted for PHY 211 and 212 as supporting courses.

Certificate Programs in University College

This department does not offer a certificate program to students in University College.

For all BIO courses, please refer to page 311.
BLACK STUDIES

Program Office: Creighton Hall, Room 130B

Program Description: The Black Studies Program offers a program to undergraduate students in all disciplines who are especially interested in Africa and the African Diaspora, especially in the United States. The Program is designed to allow students to investigate more widely areas in the Humanities and Social Sciences connected to their major or track or to further their special interest. Independent studies and independent research are available to advanced students.

Web Contact/Information: For definitive details, students are strongly encouraged to check the University’s website for Bulletin changes at http://www.creighton.edu/Registrar.

PROGRAM IN BLACK STUDIES

BLACK STUDIES MINOR

Program Description: The Black Studies minor offers students the opportunity to examine developments and ideas in Africa and in the African diaspora from an interdisciplinary and multidisciplinary perspective. As such, it provides opportunities to explore social, political, intellectual and artistic currents in Africa, the Americas, and Europe with relevance to Africans or to Blacks of the diaspora as well as their arts, culture, and literature.

CLASSICAL AND NEAR EASTERN STUDIES

Department Office: Humanities Center, Room 216
Professors: L. Greenspoon, R. Simkins (secondary appointment), W. Stephens; Associate Professors: C. Clark, G. Bucher, M. Habash, J. Hause.

Department Description: The Department of Classical and Near Eastern Studies develops diverse perspectives and understandings through the study of ancient languages (Greek, Latin, Arabic, and Hebrew), literatures, and cultures. This study yields analytical, critical and creative insights as students encounter and respond to written works and material culture of Greece, Rome, and the Near East.

Web Contact/Information: Additional information about this department may be found at http://canes.creighton.edu. However, for definitive details, students are strongly encouraged to check the University’s website for Bulletin changes at http://www.creighton.edu/Registrar.

Programs in Classical and Near Eastern Civilizations

COMMUNICATION STUDIES
Chair: Erika Kirby
Department Office: Hitchcock Communication Arts Building, Room 307

Professors: M. Danielson, E. Kirby;
Associate Professors: M. Birkholt, M. C. McBride, D. Pawlowski, S. Shuler; Assistant Professors: K. Hatfield, J. Leighter, S. Senda-Cook.

Department Description: As a discipline, Communication Studies seeks to further communication competencies through theoretical grounding and practical applications of that knowledge. Communication is examined in a variety of contexts, including interpersonal relationships, families, small groups, organizations, media and popular culture, between cultures and in the public sphere. Communication is examined through many perspectives, including quantitative, qualitative, and rhetorical studies.

Web Contact/Information: Additional information about this department may be found at http://www.creighton.edu/CommunicationStudies. However, for definitive details, students are strongly encouraged to check University’s website for Bulletin changes at http://www.creighton.edu/Registrar.

COMMUNICATION STUDIES MINOR
Program Description: The minor in Communication Studies provides students an opportunity to develop communication competencies, at both theoretical and applied levels. Communication is examined through a variety of contexts, including in interpersonal relationships, organizations, and public culture. The minor is designed to allow students to explore Communication Studies by providing structure and flexibility to give them a way to supplement their major/career goals.

ECONOMICS

Chair: John Wingender
Department Office: Eppley College of Business Administration 450

Professors: Goss, Murthy and Wingender; Emeritus: Nitsch; Assistant Professors: Briggs, Deskins and Knudsen;

Department Description: The Department of Economics, supervised by the Department of Economics and Finance in the College of Business, provides a program of study for students in the College of Arts and Sciences who wish to obtain the degree of Bachelor of Arts with economics as the field of concentration. This program is designed to acquaint the student with the tools and techniques of economic analysis and the contribution of economic analysis to decision-making in the business firm and to society. The program is designed to prepare those interested in careers as economists or economic analysts in business, government, and non-government organizations and for graduate study in economics. Alternatively, students can receive the degree of Bachelor of Science in Business Administration with Economics as the field of concentration. Please refer to the department’s listing under the College of Business for further information about this degree.

Web Contact/Information: Additional information about this department may be found at http://www.creighton.edu/business/undergraduate/majors/economics/index.php. EDUCATION AND COUNSELOR EDUCATION

Chair: Debra L. Ponec
Associate Chair: Thomas A. Simonds, S.J.
Director of Secondary Education: Lynne E. Houtz
Director of Elementary Education: Lynn E. Olson
Director of Counselor Education: Timothy Dickel
Director of Educational Leadership: Barbara Brock Coordinator of Special Education: Beverly Doyle

Department Office: Hitchcock Center for Communication Arts, Room 106

Professors: B. Brock, T. Cook, T. Dickel, L. Houtz; Professor Emeritus: E. O’Connor; Associate Professors: B. Doyle, S. Ishii-Jordan, D. Ponec, J. Smith;
Assistant Professors: P. Durow, L. Olson, T. Simonds, S.J.

Department Description: The Education Department develops “Effective Leaders in the Jesuit Tradition” who will work toward the optimal learning of every student. The programs integrate Jesuit charisms, technology, cultural issues, and authentic assessments. There are two undergraduate programs: elementary education (major) and secondary education (co-major); four graduate programs: M.Ed. (majors: elementary, secondary); M.S. in educational leadership (elementary or secondary), school counseling (elementary or secondary), and special populations; and undergraduate/graduate endorsements in ESL and special education. Students in the Magis Catholic Teacher Corps are enrolled in one of the graduate programs. Many courses include field experience at an elementary or secondary school, and students must arrange their own transportation. Prior to any education program coursework or field experience, the student must sign and have notarized two affidavits assuring that a) the student does not have a felony or misdemeanor conviction involving abuse, neglect, or sexual misconduct and b) the student is in sound mental capacity. The student must maintain this status throughout the program. Prior to the first field experience and again prior to student teaching, the student must have a satisfactory background check through the Education Department.

The Department of Education is accredited by the National Council for Accreditation of Teacher Education (NCATE) and approved by the State of Nebraska.

Web Contact/Information: Additional information about this department may be found at http://www.creighton.edu/ccas/education. However, for definitive details, students are strongly encouraged to check the University’s website for Bulletin changes at http://www.creighton.edu/Registrar.

PROGRAMS IN EDUCATION FOR THE UNDERGRADUATE

Specific Requirements for Admission to Education Programs: Students will be allowed to register for 300 level and above courses only after receiving formal admission to the Education Department. In order to be considered for admission, students must obtain and maintain a minimum GPA of 2.5, achieve acceptable scores on the Pre-Professional Skills Test (PPST), receive acceptable grades in EDU 103, EDU 208, and EDU 210, and complete department application procedures, including letters of recommendation and a satisfactory background check through the Education Department. In addition, an interview, and portfolio review may be requested by the Selection and Retention Committee.

* See Student Teaching on page 126.

In order to obtain Nebraska Certification in Elementary Education, a student must complete a minimum of 30 credit hours in the following content areas, with at least six credits in each area:

- Communication, including literature, composition and speech
- Mathematics
- Science
- Social Science

By completing the Creighton Core Curriculum, the requirements for the Elementary Education major, and one additional mathematics course, a student will have met all of those requirements.
Special Education for Students with Mild/Moderate Disabilities
P-6 Specialization: 21-32 Credits
Students who are completing the Elementary Education major may also prepare to teach students with mild/moderate disabilities. In addition to Elementary Education requirements, students may specialize in this area by completing the following sequence:

(All of the following:)
- EDU 501 Psychology of Exceptional Children 3 credits
- EDU 515 An Introduction to Special Education: Field Experience 3 credits
- EDU 526 Multicategorical Methods for the Mildly Handicapped 3 credits
- EDU 527 Diagnostic/Prescriptive Teaching of the Mildly and Moderately Handicapped Child 3 credits
- EDU 528 Speech and Language Development for the Exceptional Child 3 credits
- EDU 529 Seminar in Consultation and Collaboration Strategies 3 credits
- EDU 530* Elementary School Observation and Student Teaching the Mildly/Moderately Handicapped 3-14 credits

* See Student Teaching on page 126.

English as a Second Language (P-12) Teaching Endorsement
Specialization: 15 Credits
Students who are enrolled in the elementary or secondary teaching certification programs, or already possess the elementary or secondary teaching certificates may add a teaching endorsement in English as a Second Language (ESL) by completing the following sequence:

(All of the following:)
- EDU 541 Curriculum Design for English as a Second Language 3 credits
- EDU 542 Methods in English Language Learning 3 credits
- EDU 543 Practicum in English Language Learning 3 credits
- EDU 544 Framework of World Languages and Cultures 3 credits
- ENG 421 History of the English Language 3 credits

Students must also present evidence of competence in a foreign language equivalent to two years of a high school level or two semesters of a college level foreign language.

Co-Major: Secondary School Teaching Endorsement (7-12): 29-40 Credits
Students planning to teach in a middle, junior, or senior high school must complete a major in an approved academic subject and a co-major in secondary education. An academic subject of at least 30 credits is required for Nebraska certification. The subjects available are Biology, Chemistry, English, French, History, Journalism, Latin, Physics, Religious Education, and Spanish. The department also provides field endorsements in Art, Language Arts, Mathematics, Natural Science, and Social Science.

Course Requirements
(All of the following:)
- EDU 103 American Education and the Interactive Process 3 credits
- EDU 208 Understanding & Serving Diverse Populations in Education (concurrent with EDU 210) 3 credits
- EDU 210 Child and Adolescent Development 3 credits
- EDU 341 General Methods in Secondary Teaching 3 credits
- EDU 342 Technology Laboratory in Secondary Education 1 credit
- EDU 525 Procedures for Including Students with Mild/Moderate Disabilities in the Regular Classroom 3 credits
- EDU 548 Teaching Reading in Middle and Secondary Schools 3 credits
- EDU 575 Action Research in Your Content Area 3 credits
- EDU 583 Management Practices for Classroom Teachers 3 credits
- EDU 591* Student Teaching 3-14 credits
- EDU 593* Student Teaching Seminar 1 credit

* See Student Teaching on page 126.
Special Education for Students with the Mild/Moderate Disabilities
7-12 Specialization: 24-35 Credits

This program is fully accredited by the National Council for Accreditation of Teacher Education (NCATE) and incorporates the standards of the Council for Exceptional Children (CEC).

Students who are completing the Secondary School Teaching Endorsement (7-12) may also prepare to teach students with mild/moderate disabilities. In addition to Secondary Education co-major and content major requirements, students may specialize in this area by completing the following sequence:

(All of the following):
- EDU 500 Remedial Reading 3 credits
- EDU 501 Psychology of Exceptional Children 3 credits
- EDU 515 An Introduction to Special Education: Field Experience 3 credits
- EDU 526 Multicultural Methods for the Mildly Handicapped 3 credits
- EDU 527 Diagnostic and Prescriptive Teaching of the Mildly and Moderately Handicapped Child 3 credits
- EDU 528 Speech and Language Development of the Exceptional Child 3 credits
- EDU 529 Seminar in Consultation and Collaboration Strategies 3 credits
- EDU 540* Secondary School Observation and Student Teaching the Mildly/Moderately Disabled 3-14 credits

* See Student Teaching below.

English as a Second Language (P-12) Teaching Endorsement Specialization: 15 Credits

Students who are enrolled in the elementary or secondary teaching certification programs, or already possess the elementary or secondary teaching certificates may add a teaching endorsement in English as a Second Language (ESL) by completing the following sequence:

(All of the following):
- EDU 541 Curriculum design for English as a Second Language 3 credits
- EDU 542 Methods in English Language Learning 3 credits
- EDU 543 Practicum in English Language Learning 3 credits
- EDU 544 Framework of World Languages and Cultures 3 credits
- ENG 421 History of the English Language 3 credits

Students must also present evidence of competence in a foreign language equivalent to two years of a high school level or two semesters of a college level foreign language.

*Student Teaching/Clinical Experience

Student teaching is a one-semester (16 weeks), full-day teaching experience. All professional education coursework and the designated minimum 100 hours of pre-student teaching field experiences must be completed prior to the Student Teaching/Clinical Experience semester. All students must participate in the Student Teaching Seminar. Students must reserve the entire teaching day for participation in a P-12 school’s student teaching experience. Students follow the calendar of the P-12 school rather than the Creighton University calendar during the student teaching semester. Any deviation from the program must be approved in writing by the Education Department’s Selection and Retention Committee. If student teaching in special education is taken during the same semester as student teaching in elementary or secondary education, then each field experience will be 10 weeks for a total of 20 weeks.

Teacher Certification

In addition to completing all requirements of the chosen programs in the Education and Counselor Education Department, students must consult with the Education Department and with the appropriate agency in the state in which they intend to teach.

Program in University College

This department does not offer a certificate program in Education to students in University College.

ENCUENTRO DOMINICANO

Academic Director: Mary Bean
Campus Coordinators: Eugene Selk, Department of Philosophy; Jill Brown, Department of Philosophy

Program Description: Encuentro Dominicano is a semester-long academic living-learning program that integrates community-based learning with traditional coursework in a cross-cultural immersion context. Encuentro Dominicano reflects the Mission of the University, especially its call for participation in the tradition of the Society of Jesus and its integrating vision of the world. As such, it fosters commitment to a faith that promotes justice, service to others, appreciation of ethnic and cultural diversity, stimulation of creative and critical thinking, and provision of ethical perspectives for dealing with an increasingly complex world.

The program is housed in the CESI Center, a self-contained facility that provides health services and pastoral care in and around Santiago, a city of over 850,000 inhabitants in the north of the Dominican Republic. Students take 15 to 18 credits in coursework, including: EDP 361, a 6-credit course in the history, sociology, politics, economics and faith traditions of the Dominican Republic and the Caribbean and six credits in Spanish at a level commensurate with their prior language training. EDP 361 employs service-learning pedagogy, the possibility for internships and cultural immersion in local communities. Ample opportunity is provided for guided reflection on all that students experience during their time in the Dominican Republic.

Encuentro Dominicano students may also enroll in additional courses offered by Creighton faculty visiting the program.

Web Contact/Information: Additional information about this program may be found at http://www2.creighton.edu/encuentro/.

For the EDP 361 course description, please refer to page 352.
ENERGY TECHNOLOGY PROGRAM

Program Director: Michael Cherney
Program Office: Pittman 128

Program Description: The Energy Technology Program addresses energy issues from an interdisciplinary perspective. The program emphasizes the use of projects and case studies to develop problem-solving skills. The Bachelor of Arts with a major in Sustainable Energy is intended for students who wish to pursue a career in sustainability, energy policy or law. The Bachelor of Science with a major in Energy Science serves students interested in a science, math and/or engineering career.

Web Contact/Information: Additional information about this program may be found at http://energy.creighton.edu/

Chair: Robert Whipple, Jr.
Department Office: Creighton Hall, 134A

Professors: N. Chiwengo, B. Keegan, B. Spencer, R. Whipple; G. Zacharias; Professor Emeriti: R. Garcia, J. Karabatsos;
Associate Professors: S. Aizenberg, R. Dornsife, F. Fajardo-Acosta, M.H. Stefaniak;
Associate Professor Emeriti: N. Fogarty, T. Kuhlman, C. Stein, M. Sundermeier;
Assistant Professors: R. Churchill, L. Cooper, N. Ha, D. Mullins, K. Rettig, B. Stafford.

Department Description: In accordance with the character and goals of Creighton University, the Department of English and the programs it offers promote the intellectual, spiritual, and professional growth of Creighton students through the study of the English language; American, British, and Irish literature; World, Ethnic, Women’s and Minority literature; Creative Writing and the Language Arts. English major programs provide graduates with a solid knowledge of their field, critical thinking and writing skills, and the values and ethical background necessary for becoming active, productive, and successful members of society. A training in English at Creighton endows a graduate with a well-rounded education, a broad perspective on human issues, a tolerant and respectful attitude toward diversity, and an approach to work and human interactions based on love, kindness, and commitment to service to the human community.

Web Contact/Information: Additional information about this department may be found at http://creightonenglish.org. However, for definitive details, students are strongly encouraged to check the University’s website for Bulletin changes at http://www.creighton.edu/Registrar.

Teacher Certification
Students who think they may teach English in the secondary schools must consult with the Education Department, with the English Department, and with the appropriate agency in the state in which they intend to teach.

Certificate Programs in University College
This department offers a Creative Writing Certificate program to students in University College. See the descriptions for these certificates on page 271-275 in the University College section of the Bulletin.

For all ENG courses, please refer to page 354.
ENVIRONMENTAL SCIENCES
Program Director: John Schalles
Program Office: Hixson-Lied Science Building, Room 448

Professor Emeritus: A. Douglas;

Department Description: The Environmental Sciences Major introduces students to a wide range of integrated coursework within the natural and physical sciences. The major is aimed at providing career opportunities related to environmental issues and in providing a broad background for graduate work within the natural and physical sciences. The major offers three distinct tracks: (1) Global Environmental Systems which explores ecological and climatological aspects of the integrated earth system, (2) Organismal/Population Ecology which emphasizes biological aspects of the environment and, (3) Environmental Policy and Society which addresses historical political and sociological aspects of environmental issues.

Web Contact/Information: Additional information about this department may be found at http://evs.creighton.edu/. However, for definitive details, students are strongly encouraged to check the University’s website for Bulletin changes at http://www.creighton.edu/Registrar.

PROGRAMS IN ENVIRONMENTAL SCIENCE
Specific Requirements for Admission to the Environmental Science Major: Successful completion of ATS 113 or BIO 211 or CHM 203 and CHM 204.

ENVIRONMENTAL SCIENCE MINOR

Program Description: The Environmental Science minor explores a wide range of scientific inquiry associated with the physical and social sciences. Students may choose to construct a broad-based minor with course work from a number of participating departments or from a set of courses that emphasize a specific field (e.g. Global Change Issues). The minor is designed for students interested in pursuing careers within environmental education, environmental law or environmental monitoring and regulation. The minor is suited to journalism students who desire a broad background in environmental issues covered by the mass media.

Environmental Policy Minor

Program Description: The Environmental Policy minor focuses on the ethical, cultural, political, economic, and scientific factors that facilitate or impede environmental problem-solving. The minor provides students with a grasp of national and international environmental laws and policies designed to address current environmental concerns. Students will study the political and cultural contexts that shape the relationship between human interests and environmental concerns, including the roles played by science, government, business, and civil society.

Contact: Director, Environmental Science Program

Environmental Policy Minor Requirements:

- (All of the following):
  - EVS 333 Environmental Politics and Policy 3 credits
  - EVS 354 Environmental Ethics 3 credits

EXERCISE SCIENCE

Chair: Thomas Baechle
Department Office: Kiewit Fitness Center, Room 225

Professors: T. Baechle, J. Eckerson;
Associate Professors: A. Bull, G. Lambert.

Department Description: The Department of Exercise Science offers a Bachelor of Science degree in Exercise Science. The Exercise Science major prepares students for careers in several health-fitness fields such as corporate/community/commercial fitness, personal training, and strength training and conditioning. This major is also an attractive option for students seeking an advanced degree in exercise science/exercise physiology or who intend to pursue careers in physical or occupational therapy, nursing, cardiopulmonary rehabilitation, medicine, dentistry, and pharmacy or physician assistant. Coursework provided in the Exercise Science major prepares students for national certifications offered by the American College of Sports Medicine and the National Strength and Conditioning Association Certification Commission.

Teacher Certification

Students who think they may teach Studio Art in secondary schools must consult with the Education Department, with the Fine and Performing Arts Department, and with the appropriate agency in the state in which they intend to teach.
Studio Art Minor

Program Description: The minor in Studio Art provides the student with hands-on experience and a basic understanding of the practice of Fine Art. The two-dimensional and three-dimensional worlds are explored through the study of the elements of art: line, shape, value, color, texture, form, space, and design. In addition, social context and purpose are examined. The student creates objects of art based on these principles, self-expression, and theories of aesthetics.

One additional course chosen from the lists above. 3 credits

*As pre-approved by Department Chair.

History Minor

Program Description: The History minor provides students with historical perspective and insight into the issues, events, ideas, and values that constitute the human experience. Students will demonstrate an understanding of the discipline of History, its methods and purposes. Students will learn the necessary analytic and communication skills to think critically about a variety of societies and cultures. Students will have the tools to integrate their understanding of the human experience across the academic community and their community at large.

Contact: Chair, Department of History

HONORS PROGRAM

Interim Program Director: Jeffrey P. Hause;
Interim Assistant Director: Erika Moreno
Program Office: Brandeis 101

Program Description: Rooted in the university’s Christian, Catholic, and Jesuit traditions, the Honors Program relies on the belief, articulated by Pope John Paul II, that “the united endeavor of intelligence and faith will enable people to come to the full measure of their humanity.” Its goal is to foster a community committed to the ongoing education of students and faculty members as fellow seekers for truth. The program seeks individuals of all faiths and backgrounds who are intelligent, well prepared academically, highly motivated, and academically adventurous. The curriculum then immerses these students in an academically rigorous but flexible program of study guided by a faculty mentor who is charged with paying special attention to the personal dimension of learning. The program ultimately understands itself as a fellowship of inquiry whose individual members have dedicated themselves without reserve to love of learning.

The curriculum involves the following key elements:

Foundational Sequence. Honors students take three courses (9 credits) in their first three semesters that introduce them to the Christian, Catholic, and Jesuit intellectual traditions that lie at the heart of a Creighton education within the context of Western civilization and of the pluralistic world we inhabit.

Sources and Methods Courses. Honors students take five courses (15-20 credits) that induce them to think critically about information, assumptions, and arguments found in multiple forms of academic and cultural discourse. Several such courses are offered each semester in a range of academic disciplines.

Honors Senior Perspectives Course. Honors students are required to take a Senior Perspectives (SRP) course, and may select any such course offered in the College.

Senior Independent Research Project. Honors students are required to demonstrate their capacity for advanced, self-directed, individual work by completing an approved project within their major(s). They undertake these projects under the guidance of assigned faculty mentors and present their findings during a campus-wide “Honors Day.”

Mentoring and Learning Plan. All of the above elements are incorporated into Learning Plans, developed individually by Honors students in close consultation with assigned faculty mentors. The mentoring process shapes Honors students into confident, independent learners who take active roles in their own education, and expect the most of themselves. Through their individualized Learning Plans, Honors students integrate their backgrounds and interests with the strengths and Mission of the University and the College. As a general principle, these four-year Learning Plans include courses distributed among the areas of fine arts, foreign languages, history, literature, mathematics, natural science, philosophy, social science, and theology. Students’ Learning Plans are reviewed and approved by their faculty mentors and by the Program Director. While Honors students are expected, therefore, to excel in all areas that characterize a Creighton undergraduate education, fulfillment of these goals is determined on an individual basis rather than by the more structured curricular requirements that apply to other students.

Admission to the Honors Program is by invitation from the Honors Program Advisory Board (or the Honors Program Director or the Dean). Invitations to the Honors Program are sent to those students whose applications to the Creighton College of Arts and Sciences suggest that they would be strong candidates for admission to the Honors Program.
Good Standing. Once admitted to the Honors Program, students must continue to meet the following standards in order to remain in good standing in the program:

1. They must make acceptable progress towards fulfilling the requirements of the Honors Program. Ordinarily, this means that they should have completed at least six (6) credit hours of Honors courses by the end of their freshman year, 12 by the end of their sophomore year, and 18 by the end of their junior year.

2. They must maintain a GPA of at least 3.3 for all courses taken at Creighton.

3. They must maintain a GPA of at least 3.0 for all Honors courses taken at Creighton. (This Honors-specific GPA will not be computed until a student has completed at least two Honors courses.)

Honors students found not to be in good standing will be notified and given one semester to remedy the situation. Failure to do so may result in their dismissal from the Honors Program.

Limited Tuition Waiver. Honors students in good standing are not charged tuition beyond the standard full-time tuition for a given semester, for up to 20 credit hours, subject to Dean’s Office Approval.

For all HRS courses, please refer to page 392.
JOURNALISM, MEDIA AND COMPUTING
Chair: Eileen M. Wirth
Department Office: Hitchcock Communication Arts Building, Room 209

Associate Professors: J. Davies, T. Guthrie, J. Maciejewski, D. Reed, M. Wierman, C. Zuegner;
Assistant Professors: K. Boyle.

Department Description: The Department of Journalism, Media and Computing prepares students for professional careers and/or graduate study in a wide range of mass media and computing fields including, news, public relations, advertising, photography, graphic design, and software development.
Courses emphasize development of strong writing, critical thinking, visual communication and multimedia skills. Students gain experience through internships, The Creightonian newspaper both in print and online, and student professional organizations.

JUSTICE AND PEACE STUDIES

Program Director: Roger Bergman
Program Office: Creighton Hall, Room 425A

Program Description: The Justice and Peace Studies Program offers a JPS minor and, with the Department of Sociology and Anthropology, a major in Justice and Society (see the following section). Both minor and major consist of a multidisciplinary series of courses integrating community service, analysis, and reflection in the context of a faith that does justice and seeks a more peaceful world.

Web Contact/Information: Additional information about this program may be found at http://www.creighton.edu/ccas/socant/programs/justice/. However, for definitive details, students are strongly encouraged to check the University’s website for Bulletin changes at http://www.creighton.edu/Registrar.

Program in Justice and Peace Studies

Justice and Peace Studies Minor

Program Description: The minor in Justice & Peace Studies consists of a multidisciplinary series of courses integrating community service learning, social analysis, and ethical knowledge and reflection in the context of a faith that does justice and seeks a more peaceful world. It is a response to the challenge of Fr. Peter-Hans Kolvenbach, S.J., Superior General of the Society of Jesus, to "educate the whole person of solidarity for the real world." It is premised on Fr. Kolvenbach’s insight that “personal involvement with innocent suffering, with the injustices others suffer, is the catalyst for solidarity which then gives rise to intellectual inquiry and moral reflection.”

PROGRAMS IN MATHEMATICS

Specific Requirements for Admission to the Mathematics Major: Students desiring to major in mathematics should apply to the department and be assigned a major advisor after completing MTH 245 or MTH 246 or its equivalent.

B.S., Major in Mathematics: 21 Credits

Course Requirements (All of the following):

- MTH 310 Fundamentals of Mathematics 3 credits
- MTH 347 Calculus III 3 credits
- MTH 529 Linear Algebra 3 credits
- MTH 545 Differential Equations 3 credits
- MTH 581 Modern Algebra I 3 credits
- MTH 591 Analysis I 3 credits

Three additional 500-level credits arranged with department approval. 3 credits

Requisite Courses: Twelve 300-500-level credits (approved by the major advisor) in one or more departments (which could include mathematics).
B.S. Mth., Major in Mathematics: 21-33 Credits

The B.S. Mth. degree is recommended to students wishing to pursue graduate study in mathematics.

Pure Mathematics Track

(All of the following:)

- MTH 310 Fundamentals of Mathematics 3 credits
- MTH 347 Calculus III 3 credits
- MTH 529 Linear Algebra 3 credits
- MTH 545 Differential Equations 3 credits
- MTH 581 Modern Algebra I 3 credits
- MTH 591 Analysis I 3 credits
- Fifteen additional 400-500-level credits in mathematics. 15 credits

Up to six 300-500-level computer science or statistics credits may be substituted for 500-level mathematics courses.

Medical Mathematics Track

(All of the following:)

- MTH 310 Fundamentals of Mathematics 3 credits
- MTH 347 Calculus III 3 credits
- MTH 513 Probability and Statistics in the Health Sciences 3 credits
- MTH 529 Linear Algebra 3 credits
- MTH 545 Differential Equations 3 credits
- MTH 547 Mathematics in Medicine and the Life Sciences 3 credits
- MTH 571 Operations Research 3 credits

Requisite Courses: MTH 581 or MTH 591 and Nine 300-500-level credits (approved by the major advisor) in one or more departments (which could include mathematics). The following courses are highly recommended: BIO 317, CHM 341, CHM 443, MTH 583.

MATHEMATICS MINOR

Program Description: Mathematicians study concepts and theories used to solve problems involving quantitative relationships. Opportunities for mathematically-oriented graduates exist in such areas as physics, engineering, space technology, economics, business management, statistics, actuarial sciences, operations research, medical research, environmental sciences, and teaching. The Mathematics minor prepares graduates for positions in industry and teaching or to continue their education in graduate programs.

Contact: Chair, Department of Mathematics

(All of the following:)

- MTH 245 Calculus I 4 credits
- MTH 246 Calculus II 4 credits
- MTH 529 Linear Algebra 3 credits
- MTH 545 Differential Equations 3 credits
- Two additional MTH courses numbered 300 or above. 4 credits
MATHEMATICAL LOGIC MINOR

Program Description: Mathematical logic is the study of the processes used in mathematical deduction. It has origins in philosophy. This is because the usual rules for inference and deduction can only be shown by nonmathematical argument. The program of study will examine the nature of formal systems including first-order and second-order logic. Methods of proof will be studied. Much of mathematical logic is based on the assumption that the notion of a set is unambiguous. This assumption was noticed not to be true over a century ago. Fuzzy set theory replaces the yes/no statement of set membership with a qualitative predicate. Related fields will be open to study, e.g., Algebraic Logic. Applications to Law will be featured.

MILITARY SCIENCE

Chair: Michael Vick
Department Office: Military Science Building, Room 110

Professor: M. Vick;
Assistant Professors: E. Adams, T. Holub, M. Marvin, C. Whitehurst.

Department Description: The Army Reserve Officers’ Training Corps (ROTC), as it exists today, began with President Wilson signing the National Defense Act of 1916. Army ROTC at Creighton University was authorized by the War Department in 1919. The program is a cooperative effort contractually agreed to by the Army and Creighton University as a means of providing officer leadership for the United States Army. As one of the premier Army ROTC programs in the country, the department’s mission is to educate, train, develop, and inspire students to become officers and leaders of character for the U.S. Army and the nation. The program does this through a combination of classroom instruction, leadership laboratories, and experiential learning opportunities focused on developing the mind, body, and spirit of students. These opportunities are designed specifically to enhance character and leadership ability in the students/Cadets and to allow them to practice the essential components of leadership: influencing, acting, and improving. Students become members of the Blackwolves Battalion and complete a planned and managed sequence of classroom courses and practical exercises intended to develop each into what an officer must be; a leader of character, a leader with presence, and a leader of intelligence to enable them to reach their full potential as individuals and as effective leaders of groups. The program affords students an excellent opportunity to serve and focuses on the role of Army officers in the preservation of peace and national security, with particular emphasis placed on ethical conduct and the officer’s responsibility to society to lead, develop themselves and others, and achieve success. The experience culminates with Cadets earning commissions as Second Lieutenants in the Active Army, United States Army Reserve, or United States Army National Guard. As an organization committed to lifelong learning, participants may elect to pursue one of the Army’s numerous opportunities for follow-on postgraduate study as well. Creighton’s Military Science Program is an elective two-year or four-year program.

French and Francophone Studies Minor

Program Description: The French and Francophone Studies Minor offers students the opportunity to explore the broad interdisciplinary field of the language and cultures of the French-speaking world. The Minor, designed to complement the students’ areas of specialization, will allow them to develop the linguistic and cultural proficiency necessary to function in regions where French is spoken. In addition to obtaining a greater mastery of all language skills (reading, writing, comprehension, speaking), students will acquire and apply terminology specific to their field. Moreover, this program will help students understand the geopolitical significance of the Francophone world. Thus, the Minor will not only develop students’ analytical skills, but also teach them to recognize, negotiate, and appreciate cultural difference.

GERMAN STUDIES MINOR

Program Description:
The German Studies Minor offers students the opportunity to explore the broad interdisciplinary field of German and German-speaking Europe. The Minor, which will complement students’ areas of specialization, will allow them to attain proficiency in all language skills (reading, writing, speaking, and listening). It will also give students an optimal framework for attaining a solid foundation of knowledge, experience, and skills that will help them understand the culture, literature, and history of the German-speaking countries. Moreover, the Minor will help students understand the transatlantic relationship and prepare them to approach productively the challenges facing our increasingly global world. The Minor not only develops students’ analytic skills but also teaches them to recognize, negotiate, and appreciate cultural difference.

SPANISH AND HISPANIC STUDIES MINOR

Program Description: The Spanish and Hispanic Studies Minor offers students the opportunity to explore the broad interdisciplinary field of the language and cultures of the Spanish-speaking world. The Minor, designed to complement the students’ areas of specialization, will allow them to develop the linguistic and cultural proficiency necessary to work professionally in the United States and in all Spanish-speaking countries while making significant contributions to their communities. In addition to obtaining a greater mastery of all language skills (reading, writing, comprehension, speaking), students will acquire and apply terminology specific to their field. Finally, the Minor, in introducing students to diverse Hispanic literatures and cultures, will not only develop their analytical skills, but also teach them to recognize, negotiate, and appreciate cultural difference.

Department Description: The Department of Philosophy at Creighton University is concerned to arouse and sustain a sense of wonder in students, to acquaint them with the main problems and historical periods in philosophy, to help them form the habit of rigorous and clear thinking, and to prepare them to make philosophically mature decisions during the course of a lifetime.

Web Contact/Information: Additional information about this department including a tentative schedule of course offerings, may be found at http://www2.creighton.edu/ccas/philosophy/. However, for definitive details, students are strongly encouraged to check the University’s website for Bulletin changes at http://www2.creighton.edu/registrar.

Programs in Philosophy

Specific Requirements for Admission to the Philosophy Major: At least a “C” in the prerequisite course: PHL 107. A GPA of 2.00 or better in philosophy courses completed at the time of application.
B.A., Major in Philosophy: 36 Credits

Course Requirements

(All of the following:)

- PHL 107 Critical and Historical Introduction to Philosophy 3 credits
- PHL 250 Philosophical Foundations for Ethical Understanding 3 credits
- PHL 320 God and Persons: Philosophical Reflections 3 credits
- PHL 492 Senior Seminar for Majors 3 credits

(One of the following:)

- PHL 201 Introduction to Logic 3 credits
- PHL 312 Symbolic Logic 3 credits

(Six credits from the following:)

History of Philosophy

- PHL 351 Introduction to Chinese Philosophy 3 credits
- PHL 367 American Philosophy 3 credits
- PHL 370 History of Classical Greek Philosophy 3 credits
- PHL 372 History of Medieval Philosophy 3 credits
- PHL 373 History of Modern Philosophy 3 credits
- PHL 374 History of 19th-Century Philosophy 3 credits

(Six credits from the following:)

Problems of Philosophy

- PHL 321 Epistemology 3 credits
- PHL 331 Moral Philosophy 3 credits
- PHL 334 Philosophy of the Natural Sciences 3 credits
- PHL 342 Metaphysics 3 credits
- PHL 358 Social and Political Philosophy 3 credits
- PHL 422 Aesthetics 3 credits

Nine additional credits of PHL courses numbered 300 or above, no more than three credits of which may be crosslisted as SRP.

B.A., Major in Philosophy, Specialization in Ethics: 36 Credits

Course Requirements

Applied Ethics Minor

Program Description: An interdisciplinary program of studies designed to provide students with an understanding of applied ethics from two perspectives, philosophy and theology. The minor introduces students to the differences and similarities in philosophical and theological approaches to applied ethics, different theories of ethics in these two disciplines, and how to relate the two.

PHYSICS

Chair: Janet Seger
Department Office: Hixson-Lied Science Building, Room G81

Professors: M. Cherney, J. Seger; Professor Emeriti: S. Cipolla, T. Zepf;
Associate Professors: G. Duda, M. Nichols, D. Sidebottom;
Associate Professor Emeritus: R. Kennedy;
Assistant Professors: J. Gabel, T. McShane, S.J., P. Soto.

Department Description: This degree program provides a strong foundation for careers in the rapidly developing high-tech industries. For students who complete a degree in physics, the rewards are a deep understanding of nature, unusual flexibility in the choice of a career, and exceptional strength and stability in the job market.

Web Contact/Information: Additional information about this department may be found at http://physicsweb.creighton.edu. However, for definitive details, students are strongly encouraged to check the University’s website for Bulletin changes at http://www.creighton.edu/Registrar.

Programs in Physics

Specific Requirements for Admission to the Physics Major: PHY 211* and PHY 212* or an “A” or “B” grade in PHY 211.

B.S., Major in Physics: 36 Credits

Course Requirements

(All of the following:)

PHY 211  General Physics I*  4 credits
PHY 212  General Physics II*  4 credits
PHY 301  Modern Physics  3 credits
PHY 302  Modern Physics Laboratory  1 credit
PHY 303  Electronics Laboratory  1 credit

B.S. Phy., Major in Physics: 48-50 Credits

Course Requirements

Students must complete the physics courses listed for the B.S., Major in Physics. In addition, they must complete the following courses:

(All of the following):

Six additional credits of Advanced Lecture Elective courses 6 credits

(Six credits from the following):*

- MTH 529 Linear Algebra 3 credits
- MTH 543 Numerical Analysis 3 credits
- MTH 545 Differential Equations 3 credits
- MTH 561 Mathematical Statistics I 3 credits

* Students can satisfy this requirement by instead choosing CHM 203/204 and CHM 205/206. Additional coursework in mathematics, computer science, chemistry, or other sciences is recommended. Courses selected will depend on specific career goals.

Biological Physics Minor

Program Description: The Biological Physics minor provides an opportunity to apply the concepts and methods of the physicist to advance our understanding of the life sciences. Students pursuing careers in medicine or the life sciences can use this minor to improve their preparation for the interdisciplinary nature of modern science.

Contact: Chair, Department of Physics

*PHY 221/223 and PHY 222/224 can be substituted for the PHY 211/212 requirement.
Physics Minor

Program Description: The Physics minor offers students the opportunity to obtain a thorough introduction to the theoretical and experimental methods extensively used by physical scientists and engineers. In addition to exploring the historical and philosophical development of physics from the Greeks to the modern era, the Physics minor emphasizes the development of practical quantitative problem-solving skills which are valuable for all students regardless of major.

POLITICAL SCIENCE AND INTERNATIONAL RELATIONS

Chair: Graham P. Ramsden
Department Office: Creighton Hall, Room 430A

Professors: T. Clark, S. Crawford, J. Wunsch;
Professor Emeritus: B. Evans;
Associate Professors: P. Meeks, G. Ramsden, R. Witmer;
Associate Professor Emeritus: K. Wise;
Assistant Professors: E. Moreno, M. Jiang, S. Hendrickson.

Department Description: Political Science and International Relations examine how humans organize their societies and make collective choices. They focus on the behavior of individuals (both ordinary people and leaders) and groups, and on the institutions that humans use to make and implement public policy decisions. International Relations focuses in particular on the interactions among states and on international governance. Both examine not just “governments,” but the whole process of governing.

Web Contact/Information: Additional information about this department may be found at http://www2.creighton.edu/ccas/politicalscience. However, for definitive details, students are strongly encouraged to check the University’s website for Bulletin changes at http://www.creighton.edu/Registrar.

LEGAL STUDIES MINOR

Program Description: The Legal Studies minor explores the role of the law in society. This includes a close look at legal history and philosophy as well as legal institutions at all levels of government. This minor focuses on one of the most important institutions of Western Civilization, and on particular contributions of American institutions, and, as such, its study makes an important contribution to the study of the liberal arts. Moreover, this minor is intended to help students reflect on and prepare for making career choices in fields such as law, court administration, law enforcement, and dispute resolution.

Teacher Certification

Students who think they may teach Social Science in secondary schools must consult with the Education Department, with the Psychology Department, and with the appropriate agency in the state in which they intend to teach.

Certificate Programs in University College

This department offers one certificate program to students in University College. See the description for this certificate on page 274 in the University College section of the Bulletin.

For all PSY courses, please refer to page 448.

Senior Perspective

Program Description: Senior Perspective courses are a group of courses from which students may choose to fulfill a core requirement in Category A of the College of Arts and Sciences’ Core Curriculum. The goal of this core requirement is to provide an integrative and interdisciplinary experience near the end of a student’s college career. All courses in this category (1) focus on a major area of human and social concern, (2) are interdisciplinary, (3) address ethical and value questions, and (4) emphasize personal reflection.

Contact Information: Additional information about SRP courses may be found at http://puffin.creighton.edu/srp/srp.htm or by contacting Jerold J. Abrams, Humanities Center, Room 303. SOCIAL WORK

Program Director: G.H. Grandbois
Program Office: Creighton Hall, Room 436

Associate Professor: G.H. Grandbois;
Assistant Professor: B. Harris.

Department Description: The Social Work Program's mission is "Informed by Ignatian ideals, a global perspective, social work knowledge, values, skills, ethics, history and purpose, the Social Work Program is dedicated to the formation of competent, effective entry level generalist social work practitioners, as social change agents committed to the well-being of self and others, engaging in the pursuit of social and economic justice, empowerment of vulnerable populations, human rights, and the advancement of social work knowledge including the mutual influence of research and social work practice."

The goals of the Social Work Program are: 1). Prepare entry-level generalist practitioners who apply ethical decision-making based on the National Association of Social Work Code of Ethics, and the Ignatian charisms integrating personal and professional ideals through mature self-evaluation and self-reflection, 2). Prepare undergraduate generalist social work practitioners grounded in evidence-informed practice, to work with individual, families, groups, organizations and communities including an understanding and applicability of the global perspective for practice and 3). Prepare social work leaders committed to advancing social and economic justice and human rights along with reducing social and economic inequities in society.

The Social Work program is accredited by the Council on Social Work Education.

Web Contact/Information: Additional information about this program may be found at http://www.creighton.edu/ccas/social-work/. However, for definitive details, students are strongly encouraged to check the University's website for Bulletin changes at http://www.creighton.edu/Registrar.

Sociology and Anthropology

Chair: Raymond Bucko, S.J.
Department Office: Creighton Hall, Room 437

Professors: R. Bucko, S.J., C. Harper; Professor Emeritus: J. Angus;
Associate Professors: J. Ault, R. Bergman, B. Dilly, G.H. Grandbois, R. Murray;
Associate Professor Emeritus: J. Clark;
Assistant Professors: B. Harris, L. Heinemann, D. Irlbeck, A. Rodlach.

Department Description: Sociology and Anthropology study social life, social change, and the social causes and consequences of human behavior. Sociologists and anthropologists investigate the structure of groups, organizations, societies, and cultures, and how people interact within these contexts. Since all human behavior is social, the subject matter of sociology and anthropology ranges from the intimate family to the hostile mob; from organized crime to religious cults; from the divisions of race, gender and social class to the shared beliefs of a common culture; and from the sociology of work to the anthropology of sports.

Web Contact/Information: Additional information about this department may be found at http://puffin.creighton.edu/soc/soc.htm. However, for definitive details, students are strongly encouraged to check the University’s website for Bulletin changes at http://www.creighton.edu/Registrar.

B.A., Major in Justice and Society

See the description for this interdisciplinary major, offered through the Department of Sociology and Anthropology on page 165.
Medical Anthropology Minor

Program Description: The medical anthropology minor provides a holistic perspective utilizing both cultural and biological approaches to investigate human experiences of illness, suffering and healing and familiarizes students with anthropological research methods essential to medical anthropology. The minor explores how culture shapes healing systems; examines the relationships between healing and other social institutions; and investigates the political and economic influences on disease patterns and health outcomes. This minor will enhance the student's ability to provide health care to the culturally diverse populations that characterize contemporary America as well as providing health care in the global community.

Globalization: Social and Cultural Issues Minor

Program Description: The Globalization minor introduces students to the social, cultural, technological and environmental issues surrounding globalization. New information technologies and emerging world markets have accelerated global flows of money, people, and ideas, so that people around the world are increasingly in contact through integrated but highly volatile world networks. The resulting globalization presents people and nations with a startling array of possibilities and problems, and most human enterprises and problems now have significant global dimensions.

HISTORICAL AND SYSTEMATIC THEOLOGY MINOR

Program Description: The minor in Historical and Systematic Theology offers students an opportunity to explore the development of the Christian theological tradition in its historical complexity. The minor focuses on doctrinal themes such as Trinitarian thought, Christology, and Ecclesiology, but these themes are always treated in the context of their historical development. The minor in Historical and Systematic Theology focuses intensely on the conceptual coherence of the core beliefs about the nature of God, God’s involvement in the world, and the mission of the Church in the world.

One additional course from the 300- and 500-level courses listed above. 3 credits
Christian Life Studies Minor

Program Description: The minor in Christian Life Studies offers students an opportunity to explore the practical ways in which Christians “grow in the image and likeness of God,” as that question has been addressed within the disciplines of Christian ethics and/or Christian spirituality. In Christian Ethics, students investigate the basic principles, values, and practices that ground an authentic moral life. In Christian Spirituality, students study how the tradition has addressed the human response to God in its personal and ecclesial contexts. The intentional breadth and flexibility of this minor give the opportunity to bridge the disciplines of Christian Ethics and Christian Spirituality and encourage students to follow and deepen personal interests.

Teacher Certification

Students who think they may teach Religious Education in secondary schools must consult with the Education Department, with the Theology Department, and with the appropriate agency in the state in which they intend to teach.

Certificate Programs in University College

This department offers four certificate programs to students in University College: Liturgy, Ministry, Spirituality, and Theology. See the descriptions for these certificates on page 273-275 in the University College section of the Bulletin.

WOMEN’S AND GENDER STUDIES
Program Director: Susan Calef
Program Office: Dowling Hall-Humanities Center, Room 125

Program Description: Women’s and Gender Studies is an interdisciplinary program focused upon women, men and gender. As Women’s Studies, the program highlights experiences and contributions of women, both historically and in contemporary society. As Gender Studies, the program explores constructions and experiences of diverse gender roles and orientations.

Web Contact/Information: Additional information about this program may be found at http://puffin.creighton.edu/wgs/wgsNew/. However, for definitive details, students are strongly encouraged to check the University’s website for Bulletin changes at http://www.creighton.edu/Registrar.

PROGRAM IN WOMEN’S AND GENDER STUDIES

WOMEN’S AND GENDER STUDIES MINOR

Program Description: The Women's and Gender Studies minor is an interdisciplinary program that introduces students to the rapidly expanding areas of scholarship focused upon gender, women, and men. The program explores social constructions and experiences of gender roles of masculinity and femininity and diverse sexual orientations. While men are an expanding focus of Gender Studies, this program embraces foundations in Women’s Studies and as such highlights the experiences and contributions of women, both historically and in contemporary society. In combination, students discover new, more inclusive ways of thinking and relating in contemporary society.

OTHER ACADEMIC PROGRAMS

Arts-Engineering Program

Detroit Mercy Cooperative Engineering Program. The program consists of two years of pre-engineering at Creighton University followed by two years of cooperative engineering at the University of Detroit Mercy. After completing the academic requirements at the University of Detroit Mercy, the student will be awarded a Bachelor of Civil, Electrical, Manufacturing, or Mechanical Engineering. Students who successfully complete the following program (see grid), or an alternate approved program, will be unconditionally recommended for transfer to the Junior Class of the College of Engineering and Science at the University of Detroit Mercy; they will be certified as being qualified for cooperative industrial training in the Electrical and Computer, Mechanical, or Civil and Environmental departments.

Coordination with Engineering Programs of Other Institutions

The first-year program outlined above is the standard first-year program for most engineering schools with slight variations. A study of the first-year program at the engineering college of your choice will reveal those variations which can be accommodated in the students schedule. Students wishing to spend a second year at Creighton before making application to an engineering school are advised to contact that school directly for explicit approval of a second-year schedule.
Certificate in Business for Arts and Sciences Students

In cooperation with Creighton’s College of Business Administration, students in the College of Arts and Sciences can earn a Certificate in Business Administration. Students wishing to complete this program must file an application with the Undergraduate Coordinator of the College of Business Administration no later than the beginning of their Junior year.

At least 19 of the 31 credits of courses required to complete this program must be taken in residence at Creighton.* In addition, students must achieve a cumulative GPA of 2.00. Arts and Sciences students are limited to no more than 31 credits of College of Business Administration courses.

* Upon matriculation, a maximum of six credits may be taken as transient study.

PRE-PROFESSIONAL STUDY

Courses required as preparation for specialized professional study are organized into programs one to four years in length. Ordinarily they can be completed within the standard program leading to a Bachelor’s degree.

In addition to the pre-professional courses of study outlined in this bulletin, a student in the College of Arts and Sciences may satisfy some of the pre-professional course requirements for professional education in architecture, dietetics, library science, mortuary science, optometry, osteopathy, veterinary medicine, etc. Students should consult the catalogs of the professional schools in which they are interested to identify the entrance requirements.
Pre-Law Study

Schools of Law consider all applicants who hold a bachelor’s degree or its equivalent from an accredited college or university. Additional standards and conditions for admission may be imposed in some states. Similarly, Creighton’s School of Law requires proof of a bachelor’s degree prior to beginning legal studies. However, students enrolled in Creighton’s 3/3 program will be considered for admission prior to receipt of their degree.

No single major or set of courses is required or recommended to those who wish to prepare for legal study. However, students should select courses which contribute to their skill in comprehension and expression in language, a thorough understanding of human institutions and values, and a capacity for clear, logical and creative thought.

Individualized advice on courses and programs is available from members of the Pre-Law Advising Committee, College of Arts and Sciences, or Pre-Law Advisor, College of Business Administration.

Pre-Health Sciences

Science in service to humanity in medicine, dentistry, and other health professions is a tradition at Creighton. The scientific and social challenges of today and tomorrow demand not only excellent professional training but also intellectual versatility, firmness of values, and commitment to lifelong learning, which lie at the heart of Creighton’s undergraduate liberal education. For reasons such as these, health professions schools prefer applicants who have completed an undergraduate degree with a broad general education before entering professional school.

Advising of Pre-Health Sciences Students

Pre-health students at Creighton can benefit from a rich array of advising resources. The College of Arts and Sciences maintains an Advising Resources Center (ARC) in which students may consult materials both in print and online at http://www.creighton.edu/health/prehealth/. The College also sponsors regular group presentations on the curricular and procedural aspects of preparing to pursue a career in the health professions. Individual counseling is provided by members of a committee of Arts and Sciences faculty familiar with the most recent developments in the pre-health field. For freshman and sophomores, these advisors focus on selecting courses and majors; for juniors and seniors, on the process of selecting and applying to professional school. Designated members of the staff and faculty in each of Creighton’s own professional schools serve as a third source of valuable advice and offer interested students the opportunity to “shadow” professionals in their field of greatest interest.

To access all of these resources, students interested in careers in the health sciences should go online at http://www.creighton.edu/health/prehealth/ or contact the Advising Resources Center (ARC) in the Hixson-Lied Science Building, Room G06, at the earliest opportunity.
Pre-Dental General Requirements

In general, schools of dentistry require applicants to have completed course work in the basic sciences, but not in areas that duplicate dental school courses, and they seriously encourage study in the social sciences, the humanities, and mathematics. At Creighton, pre-dental students carry out these studies in a variety of programs leading to the baccalaureate degree. Although most students major in biology, chemistry, or psychology, others have majored in such fields as physics, mathematics, English, philosophy, and theology. Each student’s program is designed so that by the end of the junior year he or she will have completed the basic requirements for application to professional school. The minimum requirements are as follows:

At least 90 semester hours (three years) of college work in an accredited institution, excluding physical education, and one-hour “drill-type” ROTC courses, but including 6 hours of English and one-year courses with laboratory in general biology, general chemistry, organic chemistry, and general physics.

Ordinarily in the summer following the junior year, students take the national admission examination, the DAT (Dental Admission Test). During the senior year, professional school admission committees review the students’ applications. The first round of acceptances are announced on December 1 of the senior year.

Pre-Medical General Requirements

The Creighton University School of Medicine requires applicants to have completed specific courses in the basic sciences, and strongly urges students to consider advanced coursework particularly in biochemistry, but also in cell biology, genetics, anatomy, or physiology. The School also places considerable value on broad study of the social sciences, humanities, and mathematics, in addition to substantial experience in service to others. Extracurricular shadowing or work experiences related to the delivery of health care and scientific research are also highly valued by the Committee on Medical Admissions.

At Creighton, pre-medical students typically earn the baccalaureate degree with majors in the scientific fields of biology and chemistry, but a great many also major in other areas such as English, philosophy, psychology, and theology. Each pre-medical student’s program should be designed so that by the end of the junior year these specific course requirements (listed with the number of credits each offers) for medical study will have been completed:

- Biology, General with lab, 2/3 courses (211 and 212) 8
- Chemistry, General I with laboratory (203/204) 4
- Chemistry, General II with laboratory (205/206 or 285/286) 4-5
- Chemistry, Organic I with laboratory (321/322) 4
- Chemistry, Organic II with laboratory (323/324) 4
- English, two courses, one of which must be English 150 or ENG 251 6
- Physics, General with laboratory, two courses (211 and 212) 8

The Creighton pre-medical student should present a record of at least 90 semester hours of study, exclusive of credit in military science, physical education, or similar courses.

Ordinarily during the spring of the junior year through the beginning of the senior year (September), pre-medical students take the MCAT (Medical College Admissions Test). Applications should be submitted through AMCAS (American Medical College Application Service) as early as possible during the summer between the junior and senior years. A supplemental application to CUSOM is also required. During the senior year, the Committee on Medical Admissions reviews applications and invites the most promising applicants for interviews. Admission to medical school at Creighton is on a ‘rolling’ basis, thus early application is strongly advised. The Creighton University School of Medicine website is http://medicine.creighton.edu.
Pre-Pharmacy General Requirements

Pre-pharmacy preparation consists of at least 63 semester hours. Creighton undergraduates preparing for Creighton's pharmacy program must include the following courses and credits:

General Biology I and II with labs (BIO 211, BIO 212)  8
General Chemistry I and II with labs (CHM 203, 204, 205, 206)  8
Organic Chemistry I and II with labs (CHM 321, 322, 323, 324)  8
Human Anatomy (PHA 213)     3
Calculus (MTH 141 or MTH 245)  3
English (including Composition, e.g., ENG 150 or ENG 251)  6
Speech (COM 151 or 152)     3
Psychology (PSY 111 or higher level course)   3
Microeconomics (ECO 203)     3
Theology                    6
Electives*                   12

* At least nine of the elective hours must be taken in areas other than natural sciences and mathematics.

General Chemistry courses should be taken in the first pre-professional year. It is suggested that students take a maximum of 16 hours during the first semester of their pre-professional program. Creighton undergraduate students who complete the majority of their undergraduate coursework, including all science and math prerequisites, at Creighton are not required to take the PCAT.

Creighton Preference

The Pharmacy Admission Committee has a strong preference for Creighton undergraduate students who complete the majority of their undergraduate coursework at Creighton, including all prerequisites. All Creighton undergraduate students who have achieved a minimum overall grade point average (GPA) of 3.25 at the end of the semester in which the student applies will be guaranteed an interview.
Pre-Occupational Therapy General Requirements

Occupational Therapy is the art and science of facilitating well-being through occupation. The term “occupation” represents the flow of activities that fill a person’s life and that have an effect on his or her health. The profession is particularly concerned with how people construct meaningful lives individually and in community. Occupational Therapy views people as multidimensional beings, blending knowledge from the biological and social sciences into a unique, distinct and holistic profession.

Creighton University offers a unique opportunity for doctoral level study in Occupational Therapy. Creighton’s program is the first entry-level occupational therapy professional doctorate in the country. Since 1999, the Doctor of Occupational Therapy (OTD) has been the sole professional occupational therapy degree offered to students matriculating into the School of Pharmacy and Health Professions.

Beginning Fall 2010, admission to the Creighton University School of Pharmacy and Health Professions Doctor of Occupational Therapy Program will require a baccalaureate degree.

Prerequisites

In addition to or in combination with a baccalaureate degree, the courses listed below should be taken by pre-occupational therapy students. Together, the prerequisite courses and the OTD curriculum contribute to a broad understanding of human culture and prepare students to respond to the needs of society through professional practice. Questions regarding prerequisites may be directed to the School of Pharmacy and Health Professions Admission Office.

The School of Pharmacy and Health Professions will make the final determination regarding courses satisfying pre-occupational therapy requirements.

Creighton Preference

The Occupational Therapy Admission Committee has a strong preference for Creighton undergraduate students who complete the majority of their undergraduate coursework at Creighton, including all prerequisites. All Creighton undergraduate students who have achieved a minimum overall grade point average (GPA) of 3.25 at the end of the semester in which the student applies will be guaranteed an interview.
Pre-Physical Therapy General Requirements

Preparation for the study of physical therapy consists of at least 90 semester hours. Creighton undergraduates planning to apply to Creighton's Physical Therapy program must complete the following specified courses and credits:

- General Biology I and II with labs (BIO 211, BIO 212) 8
- General Chemistry I and II with labs (CHM 203, 204, 205, 206) 8
- General Physics I and II with labs (PHY 211, PHY 212)
- Human or Mammalian Physiology 8
- (BIO 449, BMS 303, or EXS 320) 3
- English (including Composition, e.g., ENG 150 or ENG 251) 6
- Theology 6
- Electives 51

Students applying to the program who do not hold a bachelor degree must identify their major emphasis of study and satisfactorily complete 3 upper-level courses (300-level and above) that total 9 semester hours, toward that major prior to matriculation.

Graduate Record Examination (GRE) scores must be submitted at the time of application to the Physical Therapy program. Sixteen of the 27 required science semester hours must be completed by the application deadline. It is recommended that students select elective courses from psychology, mathematics, anatomy, histology, physiology, exercise physiology, organic chemistry, biochemistry, statistics, and medical terminology. Students with alternative backgrounds, such as sociology, humanities, business, or biomedical engineering, are also encouraged to apply, as strong academic performance, rather than the area of academic emphasis, is the paramount consideration for admission.

Students should pursue a course of study leading to an Arts and Sciences degree. It is suggested that students take a maximum of 16 hours during the first semester of their pre-professional program.

Applicants must demonstrate an understanding of the profession gained through work, personal experiences, or other methods. The Admission Committee will specifically look for evidence of such understanding, along with academic ability, performance on standardized tests, and professionalism as demonstrated through required personal interviews.

Creighton Preference

The Physical Therapy Admission Committee has a strong preference for Creighton undergraduate students who complete the majority of their undergraduate coursework at Creighton, including science prerequisites. All Creighton undergraduate students who have achieved a minimum overall grade point average (GPA) of 3.25 at the end of the semester in which the student applies will be guaranteed an interview.

PROGRAMS OF STUDY
COLLEGE OF BUSINESS ADMINISTRATION

The undergraduate program of the College of Business Administration is fully accredited by the Association to Advance Collegiate Schools of Business (AACSB International). This association is recognized by the National Commission on Accrediting as the highest official accrediting agency in collegiate education for business at the undergraduate and master’s levels. Membership in the Association is open only to schools and colleges whose intellectual climate ensures the offering of programs of high academic quality and whose teaching and administrative staff possess the qualifications, experience, professional interests, and scholarly productivity essential for the successful conduct of a broad and liberal, rather than unduly specialized, baccalaureate curriculum in business administration.

CURRICULUM GOALS
The Creighton University College of Business Administration is a Catholic and Jesuit business school committed to excellence in its educational programs. As Catholic, we are dedicated to the pursuit of truth in all its forms and are guided by the living tradition of the Catholic Church. As Jesuit, we participate in the tradition of the Society of Jesus, which provides an integrating vision of the world that arises out of a knowledge and love of Jesus Christ. As a business school, we educate our students for business leadership in a dynamic, transformational and value centered learning environment. Members of the Creighton community are challenged to reflect on transcendent values, including their relationship with God, in an atmosphere of freedom of inquiry, belief and religious worship. Service to others, the importance of family life, the inalienable worth of each individual, and appreciation of ethnic and cultural diversity are core values of Creighton. From this tradition, we prepare students who:

- Apply knowledge, skills, and technologies essential for business as a whole and in their chosen concentration.
- Integrate a broad and diverse liberal arts education with their business education.
- Communicate effectively, clearly, and persuasively through appropriate mediums.
- Think critically and creatively about information, assumptions, and arguments in order to develop innovative solutions to business and societal problems.
- Apply sound and coherent ethical principles to decision making in their personal and professional lives.
- Appreciate the responsibility of business to be an agent of change in society for the common good.

REQUIREMENTS FOR GRADUATION
The University will confer the degree of Bachelor of Science in Business Administration (B.S.B.A.) on regular students who successfully complete all prescribed courses and fulfill the graduation requirements.

A candidate for a degree must have earned 128 semester hours of credit with a grade point average (GPA) of 2.00 or above for all courses attempted at this University, and a 2.00 average or above for all required courses in the field of concentration.

Normally, students must register for not less than 12 hours nor more than 18 hours in each semester. The privilege of carrying more than 18 hours is contingent upon the student’s grade point average and requires special approval of the Dean.

Approval of the faculty advisor and the Dean is required for semester study programs, including electives to be counted toward graduation. College policy states that 48 hours must be completed at Creighton with a minimum of 32 hours of business coursework completed at Creighton. All Business Administration students must complete the course in Strategic Management (BUS 471) with a grade of “C” or better.
PROGRAMS OF STUDY

The four-year undergraduate program in business administration comprises two natural divisions, the first including the freshman and sophomore years, and the second the junior and senior years. The work of the first, or lower division, consists largely of required courses and has a two-fold purpose: to provide a broad cultural background, and to furnish necessary training in the fundamental principles of business and economics.

During the student’s junior and senior years, provision is made for a group of required and elective courses intended to provide a familiarity with the basic areas of business administration. In addition, the following major fields of study are offered: Accounting, Economics, Finance, Management, Management Information Systems, Marketing, and International Business. In each field instructional emphasis is not directed toward the development of routine skills or to particular industries. Instead, every effort is made to stimulate students to think logically, to process and evaluate information, and to make sound decisions from the overall management point of view.

It is recommended that students select a field of concentration by the end of the second semester of their sophomore year or by the beginning of the first semester of their junior year. A major must be officially declared prior to the student’s final semester. Some majors require departmental approval and have acceptance requirements that differ from general graduation requirements.

Students may earn multiple majors by satisfying the requirements for each as shown in the Bulletin. If a specific course satisfies the requirements of more than one major, that course may be counted toward fulfillment of each set of major requirements.

In addition to the basic fields of study, the College of Business Administration, in conjunction with the School of Law, offers a combined Business Administration-Law program—requiring a total of six years—which leads to both the B.S.B.A. with the Prelaw Business Major and the Juris Doctor degrees (see page 259).

Majors and Minors for Business Administration Students

Students in the College of Business Administration may complete an additional field of concentration or minor. Departments in the College of Arts and Sciences may, at their discretion, allow a student to complete a major. The second major is in addition to the B.S.B.A degree; students do not receive a B.A. or B.S. degree from the College of Arts and Sciences. Requirements of the field of concentration, major or minor are listed in each department’s entry in the catalog. To apply for an additional field of concentration, major, or minor the student should contact the Dean's Office for appropriate advising and referral.

GENERAL BSBA CURRICULUM

The General Curriculum requirements, as stated in Categories I-VII below, apply to all College of Business Administration students and to all fields of concentration. A required course which is failed should be retaken the following semester. Unless indicated otherwise, each course is a three-hour course.

ENCUENTRO DOMINICANO

The College of Business Administration participates in the Encuentro Dominicano Program. Generally, one of the College’s faculty members participates each semester. Interested students should contact the Associate Dean for Undergraduate Programs. For more about the Encuentro Dominicano Program, please refer to page 127.

TYPICAL FOUR-YEAR DEGREE PROGRAM IN BUSINESS ADMINISTRATION

Outlined on this is a sample of a program that a typical student will follow during the freshman and sophomore years. The program for the junior and senior years will depend on the field of concentration selected.

The College of Business Administration Dean’s Office has available four-year plans of study handouts for all Business Administration fields of concentration. Junior and senior year course planning requires an understanding of degree requirements and attention to the Schedule of Courses and Bulletin.

Academic advising is performed by faculty members and department chairs in the College of Business Administration. Faculty advisors are assigned to freshmen and then students are reassigned to advisors within the respective discipline when a major field of concentration has been declared. Advisors serve as facilitators of communication, assist students in career planning, and perform academic progress reviews. Frequent advisor contact will help ensure students have current academic information and are making adequate progress toward educational goals.

* Refer to General Curriculum
ACCOUNTING
Supervised by the Department of Accounting

Mission Statement
The Department of Accounting of the College of Business Administration exists to support the mission of the college in providing students with a value-centered, quality accounting education. To accomplish this mission, the department supports its faculty in their efforts to excel in teaching, research, and service, and encourages its faculty and staff to continue their personal and professional development.

Program for Business Administration Students
For the degree of Bachelor of Science in Business Administration with Accounting as the field of concentration. The curriculum is concerned with conceptual understanding of accounting and accounting competence. The objective is to enable the student to comprehend the functions of accounting and the underlying concepts of accounting theory, and apply accounting knowledge to business problems. The program is designed to prepare students for leadership in the community and careers in governmental, managerial or public accounting; teaching positions; one of the sub-fields of accounting, such as tax, accounting systems, and others; and for further graduate professional training.

Accounting Major
2. A three-hour elective from the following: Accounting 493, 516, 521, 544, and 579.

Note: Admission to the Accounting Program requires junior standing, a cumulative overall grade point average of 2.5 or better, no grade lower than “C” in 200-level Accounting courses, and/or permission of the Department Chair. A student whose performance has been marginal or who has not completed enough courses at Creighton to provide a basis for judgment, may be accepted with probationary status or deferred until the probability of successfully completing the Program can be determined. Retention in the Program is conditional upon demonstrating competence in upper division accounting courses.

PRELEGAL EDUCATION AND COMBINED BUSINESS ADMINISTRATION - LAW PROGRAM

A knowledge of business is highly desirable as a foundation for the study of law. Thorough knowledge of the principles and processes of an economic organization is essential to the proper understanding and application of legal principles. A knowledge of accounting is also helpful in connection with tax work.

General Prelegal Requirements

The Creighton University School of Law will consider for admission applicants who have completed at least three-fourths of the college work required for the bachelor’s degree in the College of Business Administration. Ninety-six semester hours are three-fourths of the total required for a degree from the College of Business Administration.

There are no specifically required prelegal subjects; but not more than 10 percent of the college credits presented may be in non-theory courses such as basic military science, hygiene, domestic arts, physical education, or similar courses.

In considering applicants for admission, consideration is given to the results of the Law School Admission Test, the applicant’s college record, and other pertinent information.
Combined Business Administration-Law (3-3) Program

Business administration students may receive both the degree of Bachelor of Science in Business Administration with the Prelaw Business major and the degree of Juris Doctor at the end of the fourth and sixth years respectively, subject to the following requirements:

Students following the B.S.B.A./J.D. program will be considered candidates for the B.S.B.A. degree following the completion of the first year in law; i.e., the fourth year of the program. Such candidates for the B.S.B.A. must file an application for degree with the University Registrar by February 14 for the degree to be conferred in May.

The student must complete 32 credit hours, with at least a “C” average, in the first full year of the Creighton University School of Law, and the student must have completed at least 48 undergraduate hours at Creighton University.

B.S.B.A., J.D., M.B.A.—Seven-Year Program

Qualified students who want to earn three degrees (B.S.B.A., J.D., and M.B.A.) within a seven-year period can do it by following the 3-3 program described above and in the seventh year enrolling in the M.B.A. program. These programs provide an excellent preparation for employment in either the private or public sector of the economy.

Certificate in Business Administration (31 Credits)

A student enrolled outside the College of Business Administration who does not plan to earn a bachelor’s or master’s degree from the College of Business, may earn a Certificate of Business Administration. Students wishing to complete this program must file an application with the Undergraduate Coordinator in the College of Business.

A certificate in Business Administration prepares a non-business student for graduate work in a Master of Business Administration Program. The certificate courses are the majority of the foundation courses, which along with a bachelor’s degree in any discipline, are required for a student seeking admission to the M.B.A. and M.S.-I.T.M. programs.

A Certificate of Business Administration will be awarded to students who successfully complete the following requirements, a total of 31 semester hours:* *

*Please Note: The 31 required certificate hours is the maximum number of credits in which a non-business administration student may enroll in the College of Business.

While no specific mathematics courses are required for the certificate, successful completion of BUS 229 will necessitate mathematical proficiency equivalent to MTH 201 (Applied Mathematics) and either MTH 141 (Applied Calculus) or MTH 245 (Calculus I).

Of the 31 required hours, at most 12 hours of transfer credits can be applied toward the Business Certificate. Once a student has matriculated to Creighton, only 6 of the 12 transfer hours allowed may be taken as transient study. In addition, the student must attain a cumulative GPA of 2.0 or better in all business administration courses.

Degree seeking students who have completed the requirements of the certificate will be awarded the Certificate of Business Administration at the time of graduation. Non-degree seeking students will be awarded the certificate upon completion of the requirements of the certificate.

GRADUATE STUDY

Master of Business Administration

The College of Business offers, through the Graduate School, an evening program designed to provide a general management education that focuses on developing values-based leaders. The M.B.A. curriculum allows graduate students to customize their classes to best fit their skills, competencies, and career goals. The M.B.A. program features:

- Tailored programs of study developed for students’ particular academic strengths and business experiences—designed to prepare them for intended career paths;
- Advanced courses for students with extensive business backgrounds;
- Concentrations in key business areas such as investments, information technology management, accounting, and leadership;
- Professional classes in cutting-edge business skills taught by leading business practitioners.

The M.B.A. Curriculum consists of 33 credit hours. Applicants with an undergraduate degree in any discipline can pursue the M.B.A. degree.

The College of Business, the Graduate School, the School of Medicine, the School of Pharmacy and Health Professions, and the School of Law offer combined Doctor of Medicine/M.B.A., M.B.A./Doctor of Pharmacy, M.B.A./Juris Doctor, M.B.A./Master of Science in Bioscience Management, MBA/Master of Science in Negotiation and Dispute Resolution, and M.B.A./Master of Arts in International Relations degree programs. Candidates for these combined programs must make separate application to, and be independently accepted by the College of Business, the School of Medicine, the Graduate School, the School of Pharmacy and Health Professions, the Werner Institute, and the School of Law.

Master of Science in Information Technology Management

The College of Business offers, through the Graduate School, a Master of Science in Information Technology Management degree. The M.S.-I.T.M. degree provides a creative synergy between technology and management and is designed to meet the demands of a constantly evolving business. The M.S.-I.T.M. curriculum consists of 33 credit hours beyond the prerequisite courses and is available both on campus in the evenings and online. Applicants with an undergraduate degree in any discipline can pursue the M.S.-I.T.M. degree.

The College of Business offers a combined Master of Business Administration/Master of Science in Information Technology Management dual degree program. This combined evening program enables students to earn both the M.B.A. and M.S.-I.T.M. degrees in a streamlined 48-credit-hour program in considerably less time than if the two degrees were earned separately. A joint Master of Science in Information Technology Management/Juris Doctor degree with an emphasis in Digital Business is offered by the College of Business and School of Law. Candidates for the combined programs must make separate application to, and be independently accepted by the School of Law and the College of Business.
Master of Security and Portfolio Management

The College of Business offers, through the Graduate School, both an evening and online program leading to a degree Master of Security Analysis and Portfolio Management. The M.S.A.P.M. degree is designed to prepare students for advanced security analysis and portfolio management guided by a Code of Ethics and Standards of Professional Conduct. This degree program uses as its foundation the curriculum of the Chartered Financial Analyst (CFA)® program*. The CFA program is grounded in the practice of the investment profession. According to the CFA Institute, the program of study for the CFA charter is based on “a job analysis survey involving CFA charterholders around the world to determine those elements of the body of investment knowledge and skills that are important to the professional practice of investment management.” The program of study has a significant foundation in theory as well as practical applications of the theory and tools provided. Students who complete the M.S.A.P.M. program will have the knowledge base to sit for each of the three levels of CFA exams but are not required to do so. More information on the CFA program is available at www.cfainstitute.org. The M.S.A.P.M. curriculum consists of 30 credit hours beyond the prerequisite courses in accounting, economics, finance, and statistics. A combined Master of Business Administration/M.S.A.P.M. evening program consisting of 48 credit hours is also available.

Applicants with an undergraduate degree in any discipline can pursue the M.B.A./M.S.A.P.M. degree. Individuals with strong analytical skills are especially encouraged to apply.

PROGRAMES OF STUDY
SCHOOL OF NURSING

The School of Nursing offers two tracks for undergraduate study leading to a Bachelor of Science in Nursing (BSN) degree: the Traditional Curriculum for qualified high school graduates and college transfer students and the Accelerated Nursing Curriculum (ANC) for qualified persons with non-nursing baccalaureate or higher degrees. The Traditional and the ANC curriculums are also offered on the satellite campus in Hastings, Nebraska. Selected courses in both tracks are delivered through distance learning between Omaha and Hastings.

The baccalaureate program in nursing is designed to prepare qualified graduates for generalist practice in multiple settings with diverse populations. Upon completion of degree requirements in the Traditional and ANC curriculums, students are eligible to take the Registered Nurse (RN) licensure examination (NCLEX-RN).

Complete information for all programs can be obtained by contacting the School of Nursing's Office of Student Affairs at 402.280.2067.

STATEMENT OF GOALS

The School of Nursing provides opportunities and guidance for students to master the knowledge and skill sets necessary to become competent professional nurses and to develop their individual intellectual, spiritual, and physical potential. Qualities considered highly desirable for nursing are critical thinking skills; clinical reasoning and clinical judgment skills; sensitivity to the feelings, responses, and needs of others; professional communication skills; integrity; and a developed sense of values. The School believes that understanding and managing the care of clients can only be achieved by balancing the knowledge, skills, and values gained in the humanities, basic sciences, and nursing.

The Goals of the School of Nursing are to:

1. Support development of caring professionals who are culturally sensitive and who respect the uniqueness and dignity of the client;
2. Provide a value-centered educational environment conducive to meeting learning needs of diverse student populations;
3. Promote critical thinking, professional competence, and accountability for the management of care to improve health outcomes;
4. Foster a professional commitment for life-long learning and scientifically based practice.
5. Promote a disposition toward service to others and engaged civic responsibility.
6. Support the ability to communicate professionally and therapeutically using diverse modalities.

STATEMENT OF OBJECTIVES

Nursing is an applied discipline devoted to achieving the outcomes of health promotion, protection, maintenance, and restoration for diverse populations in various settings. Nursing uses theory and research from the health sciences, physical and social sciences and arts and humanities as the basis for managing the care of individuals, families, groups, and communities and populations from diverse cultures. Collaboration among health disciplines in conjunction with clients enhances the delivery of safe health care as well as achievement of quality, cost effective outcomes. Students are prepared to practice as generalists in a variety of settings with diverse populations. Because of the School’s belief that learning is a lifelong endeavor, completion of any of the three curricula provides a foundation for advanced study at the graduate level.

244 CREIGHTON UNIVERSITY UNDERGRADUATE BULLETIN
Completion of any of the two undergraduate curricula prepares students to:

1. Incorporate into professional practice respect for each person's dignity, worth and spiritual uniqueness;
2. Synthesize knowledge from nursing and other health disciplines in using evidence-based practice to manage health care of diverse clients;
3. Demonstrate critical thinking skills in reasoning, analysis, research or decision-making relevant to the discipline of nursing;
4. Integrate therapeutic and professional communication strategies to improve outcomes;
5. Manage resources to achieve optimal clinical, quality and cost outcomes for diverse clients;
6. Incorporate self-awareness and values consciousness into a process of personal and professional development;
7. Integrate professional, legal and ethical standards into nursing practice. (Revised 4/25/08)

TRADITIONAL NURSING

The well-prepared high school graduate ordinarily spends four academic years completing the requirements for the degree of Bachelor of Science in Nursing. This four-year curriculum leading to the degree is referred to as the Traditional curriculum in Nursing. During the freshman year, a student in the Traditional curriculum is enrolled in the Ratio Studiorum Program (RSP) course, a nursing seminar course, as well as liberal arts and sciences courses. During the sophomore year, students are offered nursing courses in health assessment, pathophysiology, lifespan development, and nutrition as well as basic science and humanities courses. These courses are the foundation for the practicum courses at the junior and senior levels. During their junior and senior years, traditional students are enrolled in nursing practicum courses focusing on outcomes-oriented, evidence-based nursing practice. Emphasis is placed on using the care management process as a framework for achieving optimal outcomes through health promotion, protection, maintenance, and restoration of altered health states. The senior year culminates in a preceptored practicum designed to provide a concentrated experience in complex collaborative nursing care management under the supervision of a nurse preceptor. The practicum experiences occur in a variety of hospital and community-based agencies to enrich the learning opportunities. The School of Nursing provides the instruction for the practicum experiences in collaboration with cooperating agencies.

Admission

High School graduates who are first time freshman wishing to pursue the Traditional program of study leading to the degree of Bachelor of Science in Nursing (BSN) apply to Creighton University's Office of Undergraduate Admissions. General admission requirements for freshman and transfer students are listed in the Creighton University Undergraduate Bulletin under the heading "Admissions." The School of Nursing recommends that these students pursue a strong college preparation course of study in high school, which would include courses in biology and math. An ACT composite score of at least 22 or SAT Verbal score of 500 is recommended. High school chemistry or its equivalent is required for admission into the School of Nursing. Students with Math ACT less than 20 (or Math SAT less than 450) may be required to enroll in MTH 139 Precalculus or MTH 201 Applied Mathematics and complete it with a "C" grade or better. Demonstrated academic competencies in high school or college-level math courses will be taken into consideration.
Transfer students from non-nursing and nursing majors may be admitted providing the School of Nursing can accommodate them. If transferring from another program of nursing, a letter of recommendation from the dean or chair of the program of nursing in which the student was previously enrolled, must be submitted. Course descriptions or course syllabi of any previous nursing courses must be submitted for evaluation at the request of the School of Nursing’s Undergraduate Admissions and Promotions Committee and/or Assistant Dean for Student Affairs.

Admission to the School of Nursing is a two-tiered process. Acceptance is conditional until both separate steps are successfully completed.

1. Academic acceptance is based on academic credentials and applications materials.
2. Validation of the applicant’s ability to meet the cognitive, affective, and psychomotor requirements of the challenging nursing curriculum, with or without reasonable accommodations, consistent with the American Disabilities Act is required. Students must complete the “Safety and Technical Standards” form attesting to their ability to meet these requirements.

Advanced Placement and Credit

The policies of the College of Arts & Sciences governing the granting of advanced placement and/or credit apply to students in the School of Nursing except for selected nursing courses.

Other Requirements

Certain conditions of enrollment must be met insuring access to placement in clinical settings.

1. Completion of immunizations required of all Creighton University Health Sciences students
2. Background investigations of all current and fully accepted students.
3. Drug testing consistent with clinical agency contracts.
4. Completion of physical examination to provide evidence that the student is free from contagious disease and not a health hazard to patients in various settings.
5. Current certification in Basic Life Support (BLS). Either Red Cross “Basic Life Support for Professional Rescuer” or American Heart Association “Health Care Provider” are accepted. Courses should be labeled “professional level” and include instruction of the Automated External Defibrillator (AED).

Minor in Arts and Sciences

Students in the School of Nursing may pursue a minor in the College of Arts and Sciences. The second field is in addition to the BSN degree; students do not receive a BA or BS degree from Arts and Sciences. Requirements of the minor are listed in each department’s entry in the Bulletin and websites. To apply for a minor, the student should contact the Assistant Dean of Student Affairs in the School of Nursing for appropriate consultation and referral.
Requirements for Graduation

A candidate for a BSN degree must have earned a minimum of 128 semester hours of credit with a grade point average (GPA) of 2.00 or above. A 2.00 GPA or above is required for all courses in the field of concentration, all support courses to nursing, and all required natural and social/behavioral sciences. A grade of "C" must be earned in all required nursing courses and nursing support courses.

CURRICULAR REQUIREMENTS

The nursing curriculum offers a prescribed sequence of courses and learning experiences that provide for the progressive development of knowledge and skills necessary for practice as a nurse generalist. Courses are sequential in nature and must be taken in the order identified. The program also establishes the foundation for graduate study in nursing. Nursing courses for all curricula may be transmitted from either the Omaha or Hastings campus.

Traditional Curriculum

The traditional baccalaureate curriculum is designed for recent high school graduates or transfer students and requires eight (8) semesters of full-time study at either the Omaha or Hastings campus.

A. General Information

1. Omaha campus freshman nursing students who receive an ACT Composite score of 21 or below are required to take RSP 120 “Strategies for Academic Success” during their first semester. A similar course is available on the Hastings College campus (STS 100 "Transition Seminar"). These students may also be encouraged to follow a 5-year plan of studies.

2. Freshman nursing students on either campus who earn a fall semester midterm Grade Point Average (GPA) below 2.2 are required to seek assistance from the School of Nursing’s Academic Success Coordinator, Counseling Center, and/or Student Support Services during the remainder of the fall semester.

3. Freshman students who do not attain a 2.2 GPA at midterm in the fall semester are required to register for RSP 130 during the spring semester. If the final fall semester GPA is 2.2 or higher, the scheduled RSP 130 may be dropped. The student is still encouraged to seek academic assistance from the Academic Success Coordinator, Counseling Center, or Student Support Services.

4. Any freshman whose cumulative GPA is not at least 1.75 at the end of the freshman year may be dropped for poor scholarship.

5. Any student whose cumulative GPA is not at least 2.00 at the end of the sophomore year or at the end of any subsequent semester may be dropped for poor scholarship.

B. Traditional Baccalaureate Curriculum Plan- Omaha and Hastings Campuses

1. Core Curriculum Categories Total = 57 semester hours. General Education courses fall into six categories. Acceptable courses are identified for each category. The School of Nursing follows a modified version of the University's Core Curriculum established by the College of Arts and Sciences.

2. Entering freshman students to the Creighton University on the Hastings campus follow a modified version of the Core Curriculum and take all core courses at Hastings College.

3. Transfer students may enter the traditional curriculum at various points, based on individual evaluations of past academic history. Descriptions of past courses will be compared to Creighton University courses for equivalency and granting of transfer courses.

4. Transfer students on the Hastings campus follow the traditional baccalaureate curriculum for transfer students rather than the curriculum for Hastings freshman taking all core classes at Hastings College.

Students on the Hastings Campus are required to meet the same program requirements. The School of Nursing has collaborated with Hastings College to meet the general education requirements required for graduation. The Plan of Study is available through the School of Nursing’s Office of Student Affairs.

Special Curricula are available for students wishing to pursue their academic studies over five years, as a preparation for medical school or as a member of the Army or Air Force ROTC. Creighton School of Nursing is a Center of Excellence for the Army ROTC and designates a specified number of class reservations to scholarship winners.
ACCELERATED NURSING CURRICULUM (ANC)

The Accelerated Curriculum in Nursing was initiated at Creighton University in May of 1975. It is a one-calendar-year curriculum for individuals who hold non-nursing baccalaureate or higher degrees. Before admission to the Accelerated curriculum, an individual must have completed the courses in the social/behavioral and natural sciences (or acceptable substitutes) required in the traditional curriculum. A Bachelor of Science in Nursing (BSN) degree is awarded at graduation.

Admission

Admission to the School of Nursing is a two-tiered process. Acceptance is conditional until both separate steps are successfully completed.

1. Academic acceptance is based on academic credentials and application materials.
   a. A baccalaureate or higher degree in another discipline from an accredited college or university.
   b. Evidence of academic achievement of at least 3.0 grade point average or higher on a 4.0 scale.
   c. Completion of prerequisite courses with a minimum of “C” grade or above.
   d. Evidence of potential and motivation for nursing.
   e. Evidence of prior work success and/or ability to handle a rigorous academic schedule. This includes providing to the School of Nursing transcripts from all colleges attended.
   f. Three recommendations addressing academic and personal attributes; two from a college/university instructor and one from an employer.

2. Validation of the applicant’s ability to meet the cognitive, affective, and psychomotor requirements of the challenging nursing curriculum, with or without reasonable accommodations, consistent with the American Disabilities Act is required. Students must complete the Safety and Technical Standards form attesting to their ability to meet these requirements.

Prerequisite Requirements

The following courses and other requirements must be completed prior to beginning the Accelerated (Nursing) Curriculum. Applicants may be conditionally accepted prior to completion of designated prerequisites if their plan of study indicates that all courses will be completed prior to entry. However, a file will not be considered until two chemistry courses and either anatomy or anatomy and physiology are completed. All students must provide evidence of completion via official transcripts prior to starting the program. All courses must carry a grade of “C” or above to be accepted for transfer to Creighton.

1. General Education (36 semester hours). These will be allocated from the liberal arts and sciences completed in previous baccalaureate degree.
   2. Behavioral Sciences (12 semester hours)
      A. General Psychology (3 semester hours)
      B. General Sociology or Cultural Anthropology (3 semester hours)
      C. Developmental Psychology (3 semester hours). This course should cover the lifespan (from infancy through old age).
      D. Bioethics or Ethics (3 semester hours). The application of ethical theories to contemporary problems of human life; emphasizes the process of making ethical/moral judgments. (Courses usually offered from the Philosophy Department.)
3. Nutrition (2-3 semester hours)
4. Physical and Biological Sciences (19-20 semester hours)
   A. Microbiology (4 semester hours)
   B. Inorganic/General Chemistry (4 semester hours)
   C. Organic/Biological Chemistry (4 semester hours)
   D. Anatomy and Physiology (8 semester hours - this may be two combined courses or a human anatomy course and a mammalian or vertebrate physiology course.)
   E. If previous science courses are on the quarter system (quarter hr. = 2/3 semester hr.) all the equivalent prerequisite courses must be completed and the total semester credits must be at least 18 (equivalent to 27 quarter hrs). If physical and biological science credits do not total 18, it will be necessary to take additional science credits.
5. Science credits earned over 10 years ago will be individually evaluated.

Other Requirements

1. Certain conditions of enrollment must be met to insure access to placement in clinical settings.
   a. Completion of immunizations required of all Creighton University Health Sciences students
   b. Background investigations of all current and fully accepted students.
   c. Drug testing consistent with clinical agency contracts.
   d. Completion of physical examination to provide evidence that the student is free from contagious disease and not a health hazard to patients in various settings.
   e. Completion of certification in Basic Life Support (BLS). Either Red Cross-"Basic Life Support for Professional Rescuer" or American Heart Association "Health Care Provider" are accepted. Courses should be labeled "professional level" and include instruction of the Automated External Defibrillator (AED).
2. Computer Literacy is not required as a prerequisite course to the program. However, students should be computer proficient since some assignments require this skill.
3. This school is authorized under Federal law to enroll nonimmigrant alien students. The ability to speak and write correct grammatical English is imperative. All international applicants whose first language is not English or who have obtained a high school diploma or degree outside of the United States must present a TOEFL (Test of English as a Foreign Language) score of 600 on the Paper-Based Test (PBT) or 100 on the Internet-Based (IBT). Scores over 2 years old will not be accepted. The School of Nursing reserves the right to require students to re-take the exam. It is also at the discretion of the School of Nursing as to whether a TOEFL score is required of applicants who have earned a college degree from a United States university. Foreign students may enroll in Creighton University’s English Language Program on a full- or part-time basis in order to improve their English skills.

PROGRAMS OF STUDY
UNIVERSITY COLLEGE

Creighton’s University College (http://adultdegrees.creighton.edu/) is an undergraduate college for non-traditional students wishing to pursue a degree or certificate program or who want to take classes for personal enrichment or professional advancement.

The Mission
In order to provide a value-centered education for its students in an atmosphere of concern for the individual, University College participates in the Catholic and Jesuit mission of Creighton, extending the commitments and resources of the University beyond traditional academic boundaries.

Admission
The normal minimum age for admission to University College is 23. Students may attend daytime or evening classes on a full- or part-time basis. Students will need to complete an application for admission. Students who have been accepted as degree- or certificate-seeking students are eligible to apply for financial aid. Special students taking courses not leading to a degree or certificate are not eligible for most financial aid. Persons who have been dismissed from any educational institution in the previous year are not eligible to enroll in University College.

THE PROGRAMS
Bachelor’s Degree Programs
University College degree-seeking students may follow bachelor’s degree programs from the College of Arts and Sciences or the College of Business Administration. Students may earn degrees in any of the major areas of study in either college. See page 98 for Arts and Sciences majors, and page 227 for Business Administration majors. While not all of these majors can be completed solely through evening offerings, there are many majors that lend themselves to the schedule of working adults. University College students may also follow a degree program offered in cooperation with the School of Pharmacy and Health Professions and leading to a Bachelor of Science in Emergency Medical Services (B.S.E.M.S.). Students may also follow a degree completion program offered in cooperation with the School of Dentistry and leading to a Bachelor of Science in Dental Hygiene (B.S.D.H.).

Degree Requirements for Bachelor of Arts, Bachelor of Science and Bachelor of Science in Business Administration Specific degree requirements can be found on pages 87 and 223 for the Colleges of Arts and Sciences and Business Administration programs respectively.
ACCELERATED CREIGHTON

University College offers an accelerated Bachelor of Arts degree leading to majors in Communication Studies (Organizational Communication track) and English with a specialization in Creative Writing and a Bachelor of Science degree leading to a major in Health Administration and Policy. All required core and major courses that normally take a full semester to complete, are offered on an intense eight-week schedule, meeting one evening per week. This allows the student to complete 12 hours (four courses) in a semester. This schedule permits a student to complete a degree in four years or less while continuing to work full-time. The curriculum includes the College of Arts and Sciences core curriculum along with major requirements and electives. Students can use transfer courses when applicable to speed degree completion. Candidates for the baccalaureate degree must complete a minimum of 128 credit hours.

Accelerated Creighton also offers an Associate in Arts degree with a major in Organizational Communication and Certificates in Communication Studies, Creative Writing and Health Administration and Policy which can be completed in the accelerated format. For a listing of the major requirements for the Associate in Arts Degree please consult page 268.

Bachelor of Science, Dental Hygiene (B.S.D.H.)

Creighton University School of Dentistry, through University College, offers a degree completion program in Dental Hygiene. This Bachelor of Science Degree in dental hygiene is designed to prepare the graduate to assume broader positions of responsibility in a variety of health care, research, business, community, and educational settings, and to adapt to new roles necessitated by the changing health care environment. It does so by offering a curriculum that encompasses the arts, humanities, basic and behavioral sciences, and advanced professional studies. Emphasis is placed on the basic principles of problem-solving and decision making, critical thinking, communication skills, and ethical behavior with a particular focus on life-long learning skills that can be applied to a multiplicity of roles and career settings.

The applicant for admission to this baccalaureate degree-completion program must show evidence of:
1. graduation with a minimum 2.5 GPA from an accredited dental hygiene program recognized by the American Dental Association (ADA) Commission on Dental Accreditation,
2. successful completion of the Dental Hygiene National Board Examination,
3. current licensure as a dental hygienist in any state in the United States or Canada, in good standing, and
4. satisfactory academic and professional references.

Candidates for the baccalaureate degree must complete a minimum of 128 credit hours: 64 dental hygiene transfer credits; 48 general study hours (English, Sociology, Theology, History, World Literature, Philosophy, Psychology, Anatomy and Physiology, Biochemistry, Microbiology, Speech, Ethics, etc.); and 18 dental science hours. Students who have completed the associate’s degree in dental hygiene at Iowa Western Community College, which is affiliated with the Creighton University School of Dentistry, will be required to complete a minimum of 36 additional hours at Creighton University. Students who have met the above requirements from other institutions must complete a minimum of 48 hours at Creighton University. A cumulative grade point average of 2.0 is required for graduation with a Bachelor of Science degree in dental hygiene from the School of Dentistry. This average shall be computed only on the basis of all courses attempted while enrolled in University College in the program leading to a Bachelor of Science degree in dental hygiene.
Students will have a maximum of four years from the time of enrollment at Creighton University to complete their bachelor’s degree requirements.

Degree requirements are listed below. Areas marked with (*) must be taken at Creighton.

Students who have successfully completed the major courses are eligible for national registry or state certification as paramedics.

It is recommended that pre-med students take additional upper-division science electives including BIO 317 Genetics; CHM 318 Fundamentals or Biochemistry or BMS 301 Biochemistry. They should consult with a pre-med advisor to ensure timely and appropriate preparation for the MCAT.
PARAMEDIC CERTIFICATE CONVERSION TO ACADEMIC CREDIT

Creighton University recognizes that a number of vocational-technical training programs offer health care courses that are substantially equivalent to accredited academic degree program courses. As some practicing paramedics want to obtain an academic degree at later stages of their lives and careers, a transitional program has been developed by Creighton University EMS Education that recognizes a student’s prior education and clinical experience and offers transitional academic courses that are designed to complement prior technical courses with the rigorous academic coursework that is consistent with baccalaureate studies in the sciences.

Eligibility Requirements

1. A minimum of three continuous years of fulltime active experience as a practicing clinical paramedic with an active, moderately busy, or busy service, (i.e., a service with a minimum of 1,000 responses per year per paramedic fulltime unit staffing) immediately prior to application to the course.
2. National Registry Certification as a paramedic
3. No loss of licensure or certification for disciplinary or punitive reasons at any time; no inactive status of lapses in certifications for more than 6 months for any cause
4. Excellent scholastic record in primary paramedic course
5. Academic excellence in lower division credit courses (minimum 2.50 GPA, including algebra, biology, chemistry, English composition, and psychology)
6. Excellent letters of recommendation from two EMS supervisors one from an EMS medical director.

Program Requirements:

1. A comprehensive assessment of cognitive, psychomotor and affective skills conducted by written, oral and practical evaluation methods.
2. Completion of a clinical bridge course involving 3-9 credit hours to complement gaps in knowledge and skills that were identified in the comprehensive assessment.
3. Identical summative performance testing at the current paramedic class performance standards.
4. Successful completion of a transitional independent study bridge course of 3-9 credit hours that is designed to complement prior vocational-technical training with academic standards of performance.
5. Successful completion of 9 credit hours of 400-level academic EMS courses.

Transferability

Standard Creighton University policies on acceptance and transfer of academic credits from other accredited institutions will be applied.

Tuition

Charges for academic paramedic credits that are being converted in the transition program will be at 70% of the full tuition rate at the time of acceptance and enrollment in the program. Additional credits taken at Creighton University toward degree completion will be charged at the prevailing rate at the time the courses are taken.

AWARDING OF DEGREES

Most degrees are awarded by the college in which the program originates. Bachelor of Arts, Bachelor of Science, Associate in Arts and Associate in Science degrees are awarded by the College of Arts and Sciences; the Bachelor of Science in Business Administration is awarded by the College of Business Administration. The Associate in Science in Emergency Medical Services and the Bachelor of Science in Emergency Medical Services are awarded by the School of Pharmacy and Health Professions. The Bachelor of Science in Dental Hygiene is awarded by the School of Dentistry.

University College students complete the degree requirements established by the school awarding the degree. See pages 223-228 for the general and major requirements for a Bachelor of Science in Business Administration. General requirements for College of Arts and Sciences degrees can be found on pages 89-99. Specific Arts and Sciences major requirements are given under each department’s listing in the Courses of Instruction section. General and major requirements for the Bachelor of Science in Emergency Medical Services and the Bachelor of Sciences in Dental Hygiene are above and on the preceding pages.

ASSOCIATE DEGREES

Associate degrees are available to students enrolled in University College only. A candidate for an Associate in Arts or Associate in Science degree must have earned 64 semester hours of credit with a grade point average (GPA) of 2.00 or above for all courses attempted at Creighton University and 2.00 or above for all courses in the field of concentration. The ASEMS degree requires a total of 73 semester hours. Students who earn an associate degree may continue on for a bachelor’s degree. All work completed in an associate degree program can be applied toward a bachelor’s degree.

At least half (32) of the hours for the Associate in Science or Associate in Arts must be completed in residence at Creighton University. At least 15 semester hours in the major field must be completed at Creighton.

Associate in Arts degrees are offered in three major fields: Organizational Communication, Spirituality, and Theology. The Associate in Arts, major in Organizational Communication degree program is available in an accelerated format. The Associate in Science degree is offered with majors in Computer Science, Mathematics, and Emergency Medical Services. Associate Degree requirements follow.

CERTIFICATE PROGRAMS

Persons who may not initially want to follow a bachelor’s degree program may enroll in one of the 13 certificate programs offered by University College (http://adultdegrees.creighton.edu). Those without prior college work may elect to complete a certificate program first and have the option of continuing with the complete degree program. Others who have previously completed a Bachelor’s degree may want to enroll in a certificate program for personal enrichment or in order to show a concentration in another area of study.

Courses required in most of the certificate programs meet some of the major requirements in the degree programs. (The Certificate in Business Administration includes the introductory courses in Accounting, Business, Business Intelligence and Analytics, Economics, Finance, Management, Marketing.) The certificate programs are:

- Atmospheric Sciences
- Business Administration
- Computer Science
- Communication Studies
- Creative Writing
- Health Administration and Policy
- Liturgy
- Mathematics
- Ministry
- Pre-Health Sciences
- Psychology
- Spirituality
- Theology

To be eligible for a certificate, students must complete all required courses with grades of “C” or better. Courses completed with grades below “C” must be repeated. Unless otherwise stated, at least half of the course work must be completed at Creighton. Students who complete courses required for a certificate may also use these courses to meet degree requirements.

Individuals who want to follow a certificate program should complete the Application for Admission available in the Dean’s Office or at http://adultdegrees.creighton.edu.
Certificate Program in Atmospheric Sciences (38 credits)

Atmospheric Sciences 113 is a prerequisite for most upper division courses in Atmospheric Sciences.

Advanced placement is available to students who qualify, particularly for those with meteorological training with the aviation industry, the National Weather Service, or branches of the military. For information contact the Atmospheric Sciences Chair.

A Certificate of Atmospheric Sciences will be awarded to students who complete the following courses:

- ATS 113 Introduction to Atmospheric Sciences 3 credits
- ATS 553 Tropical Meteorology 3 credits
- ATS 555 Meteorological Remote Sensing 3 credits
- ATS 561 Synoptic Meteorology 4 credits
- ATS 562 Synoptic Meteorology II 3 credits
- ATS 571 Dynamic Meteorology I 3 credits
- ATS 572 Dynamic Meteorology II 3 credits
- MTH 245 Calculus I 4 credits
- MTH 246 Calculus II 4 credits
- PHY 211 General Physics I and Lab 4 credits
- PHY 212 General Physics II and Lab 4 credits

Certificate Program in Business Administration (31 credits)

A student enrolled outside the College of Business Administration who does not plan to earn a bachelor’s or master’s degree from the College of Business Administration, may earn a Certificate of Business Administration.

A certificate in Business Administration prepares a non-business student for graduate work in a Master of Business Administration Program. The certificate courses are the majority of the foundation courses, which along with a bachelor’s degree in any discipline, are required for a student seeking admission to the M.B.A. and M.S.-I.T.M. programs.

A Certificate of Business Administration will be awarded to students who successfully complete the following requirements, a total of 31 semester hours:*

- ACC 201 Introduction to Financial Accounting 3 credits
- ACC 202 Introduction to Managerial Accounting 3 credits
- BIA 253 Management Information Systems 3 credits
- BUS 201 Legal Environment of Business 3 credits
- BUS 229 Statistical Analysis 4 credits
- ECO 203 Introductory Microeconomics 3 credits
- ECO 205 Introductory Macroeconomics 3 credits
- FIN 301 Managerial Finance 3 credits
- MGT 301 Managerial Process and Org. Behavior 3 credits
- MKT 319 Principles of Marketing 3 credits

Please Note: The 31 required certificate hours is the maximum number of credits in which a non-business administration student may enroll in the College of Business Administration.

While no specific mathematics courses are required for the certificate, successful completion of BUS 229 will necessitate mathematical proficiency equivalent to MTH 201 (Applied Mathematics) and either MTH 141 (Applied Calculus) or MTH 245 (Calculus I).

Of the 31 required hours, at most 12 hours of transfer credits can be applied toward the Business Certificate. Once a student has matriculated to Creighton, only 6 of the 12 transfer hours allowed may be taken as transient study. In addition, the student must attain a cumulative GPA of 2.0 or better in all business administration courses.

Degree seeking students who have completed the requirements of the certificate will be awarded the Certificate of Business Administration at the time of graduation. Non-degree seeking students will be awarded the certificate upon completion of the requirements of the certificate.
Certificate Program in Computer Science (24 credits)

INDEPENDENT STUDY PROGRAM

Director—Dean Jensen

All students are eligible to register for correspondence courses in Creighton’s Independent Study Program (http://www.creighton.edu/isp). The Independent Study Program offers students the opportunity for access to undergraduate core courses developed by Creighton faculty members. Communication is the key to receiving the personalized instruction that is ordinarily given in the traditional college classroom. The Independent Study Program maintains the same high degree of instructional quality that is maintained in on-campus courses at Creighton.

The minimum course completion time is 12 weeks, and the maximum is six months from the date of enrollment. Tuition is $963 per course, except for NUR 223 (2 credits), which is $642. Textbook and supplementary course material costs are in addition to tuition. Independent Study Program information is online at http://www.creighton.edu/isp or available from the University College Office, B-11, College of Business Administration, (402) 280-1253 or 1-800-637-4279. Students may register for an Independent Study Program course any time during the year.

NONCREDIT OFFERINGS (CPD)

The Center for Professional Development, a division of University College, provides a variety of non-credit certificate training programs for the Omaha area. For more information call 1-800-637-4279 or at http://cpd.creighton.edu

Certificate in Supervision – a non-credit certificate program designed for newly appointed supervisors. Supervision is designed to introduce the most current and successful leadership practices and information. Each session focuses on the unique challenges supervisors face on a daily basis and offers ideas to help participants achieve their goal of being a successful supervisor.

Human Resource Generalist – a non-credit program that has been distinctively created to provide a working knowledge of the theories, requirements, and practices currently being used in the exciting field of human resources. This professional program provides an in-depth study of specific topics and practices critical to enhance participant skills and to keep participants current in the rapidly changing human resource field.

LSAT Test Preparation Program - offered three times a year. This comprehensive program provides 28 hours of instructor-led training and review. Each section of the LSAT (essay writing, reading comprehension, logical reasoning, and analytical reasoning) is covered in depth.

ACT Test Preparation Program - offered twice a year. Junior and senior high school students eager to attend competitive colleges and universities will want to do their best on the ACT exam. A 16-hour instructor-led program by content area: science, math, reading comprehension and English are covered. A “best strategies” program on the college search and application process is also included as part of the program.

Institute for Reading Development - Creighton University/CPD sponsors the Institute for Reading Development to provide reading improvement courses in Omaha, Lincoln, and Sioux City for preschoolers through adults. Learning to read, phonetics, reading comprehension and speed-reading are taught at age-appropriate reading levels each summer.

CERTIFICATES FOR MINISTRY

Credit Ministry Programs

Certificate/Diploma Program in Liturgy, Ministry, Spirituality, or Theology, in Omaha and Des Moines, Iowa. These 25-credit programs which may also be taken for audit, were co-developed in 1985 with the Offices of the Archdiocese of Omaha. They are open to persons of all denominations who desire a curriculum with a solid theological base and practical application in ministry.

Certificate/Diploma Program in Youth Ministry in Omaha, Nebraska, affiliated with the Youth Ministry Certificate of the Office of Religious Formation, Archdiocese of Omaha, in 1988 and the Center for Ministry Development in Connecticut. The Youth Ministry Certificate can be taken for graduate or undergraduate credit. The courses are presented especially for persons working with youth and young adults. Contact the Office of Religious Formation (554-8493) or University College (280-2424) for further information.

TUITION FOR FALL AND SPRING EVENING CLASSES

Part-time University College students are assessed a special tuition rate that is two-thirds of the regular rate for the academic year for up to six hours of night classes per semester.

Tuition for undergraduate classes that are not under the sponsorship of University College (i.e., day classes), or for more than six and less than 12 hours of classes, is assessed at the regular per credit-hour rate. Students who enroll in 12-18 hours of classes are assessed full-time tuition.

Tuition in the AcceleratedCreighton program is one-half of the regular per credit hour University College rate.
SPECIAL TUITION RATES FOR TEACHERS, SCHOOL ADMINISTRATORS, PERSONS IN MINISTRY, PARENTS, VETERANS, AND HIGH SCHOOL STUDENTS

Special Tuition Rate for Teachers and School Administrators

Teachers and school administrators who are employed full time in public or private elementary or secondary schools and enroll as part-time students at Creighton may receive a tuition discount of 50 percent for three semester hours of course work each semester (fall and/or spring) and unlimited hours in summer. This discount may not be taken in addition to the regular University College discount. Students must complete an “Application for Teacher Improvement Remission” form verifying full-time employment status each term. These forms are available in the Business Office (280-2707) or University College (280-2424).

Special Tuition for Post-Baccalaureate Elementary Education Majors

Persons who hold a bachelors degree with at least a 2.50 GPA who are interested in becoming elementary teachers, are eligible for a 50 percent tuition discount for all major requirements. This discount may not be taken in addition to the regular university College discount. Students must be accepted into the major as well as accepted as certificate-seeking students to the University. Contact University College for an information packet (800-637-4279 or 402-280-2424 or the Education Department at Creighton University for more information about major requirements 402-280-2820).

Special Tuition Rate for Persons in Ministry

Persons who work on a consistent basis in certain ministries may receive a tuition discount of 50 percent off the regular rate for up to nine semester hours of Theology courses each semester. This discount may not be taken in addition to the regular University College discount. An application for remission must be completed each semester. Contact University College for information on specific criteria. Contact the Graduate School, (402) 280-2870, for information on the special rates for graduate courses.

Special Tuition Rate for Parents of Creighton Undergraduate Students

Parents of full-time Creighton University students in the College of Arts & Sciences, College of Business Administration, and School of Nursing are eligible to take one day or evening undergraduate course on a space-available basis each semester for $150 plus fees. Books and supplies are extra. Contact University College at (402) 280-2424 or 800-637-4279 or http://www.creighton.edu/Parents/UCParentProgram.html for more information.

Special Tuition Rate for High School Students (Next Step Program)

Academically eligible high school juniors and seniors may take a Creighton University undergraduate course at the special rate of $75 per credit hour. There is an additional cost for the University fee and textbooks. Students must submit a letter of recommendation from a high school guidance counselor, or teacher in the academic area in which they want to study. More information can be obtained by calling (402) 280-2424 or 800-637-4279 or http://www.creighton.edu/nextstep.

Full-Time, Part-Time Status

Undergraduate students are considered part time when registered for 11 or fewer semester hours. Students registering for 12 or more credit hours in a semester are full-time students and are subject to regular full-time tuition and fee rates. Full- or part-time status is determined by the total semester hours of credit assigned to the courses for which a student registers in a given term, including courses being audited, but excluding Independent Study Program courses.

Yellow Ribbon Program

Creighton University is proud to participate in the Yellow Ribbon Program, Post 9/11 GI Bill. Our commitment, combined with the matching funds provided by the Department of Veterans Affairs, will allow 150 veterans to pursue undergraduate higher education through University College at little or no cost.
FINANCIAL AID

University College students who have been accepted into degree or certificate programs and register for six or more semester hours each semester may be eligible for Federal grant and loan programs. Financial Aid information can be found on pages 51-83 of this Bulletin.

Veteran’s Benefits

Courses for college credit in all schools and colleges of the University are approved for veterans’ education and training for degree-seeking students. Veterans’ service is provided by the Registrar’s Office. Veterans and others eligible for educational benefits administered by the Veterans Administration are given assistance to assure proper and advantageous use of their benefits and to simplify and expedite transactions with the government. A student who intends to apply for veterans’ benefits must also apply for admission to University College as a degree-seeking student and have official transcripts sent to University College from all prior colleges or universities attended. (Application for Admission forms are available in the Dean’s Office). Questions regarding veterans benefits should be directed to (402) 280-2425.

Vocational Rehabilitation

Vocational rehabilitation provides handicapped and disabled persons financial assistance to attend college to improve their skills and assist them in obtaining employment. In most states, vocational rehabilitation clients must first apply for Federal assistance prior to receiving assistance through vocational rehabilitation. In Nebraska, contact the state office in Lincoln, 301 Centennial Mall South, Lincoln, NE 68509. (402) 471-2961.

Employee Benefits

Many employers offer tuition assistance plans for employees who are enrolled in credit courses. Persons who are employed should contact their Human Resource office to determine if such plans are available.

Tuition Deferment Loan Program

Creighton Federal Credit Union offers the Tuition Deferment Loan Program to University College students who are eligible for their employer’s tuition reimbursement program. A tuition deferment loan allows a student to borrow the amount of tuition and postpone repayment of the loan until three weeks after the last day of class. Loan applications are available in the University College office, or by calling the Credit Union at (402) 341-2121. Applications can also be made via the credit union’s web site at www.creightonfederal.org.
OTHER AWARDS AND SCHOLARSHIPS

Dean’s Merit Awards

Realizing that many academically strong, working adults with the desire to attend University College—even those with some partial assistance from other sources—may find the tuition cost-prohibitive, the college provides Dean’s Merit Awards. In addition to financial need, other considerations for these awards are the applicant’s (1) academic potential, (2) work-related experience, and (3) desire to develop new career skills. Awards vary in value from $100 to $700 per term. Dean’s Merit Awards are renewable. Other requirements are that applicants be enrolled in a degree or certificate program and complete the special application by May 1 for the summer sessions, August 1 for the fall semester and by December 1 for the spring semester.

Osher Reentry Scholarship

Osher Reentry Scholarships are awarded on a competitive basis to a limited number of nontraditional undergraduate students who have demonstrated the promise of achieving academic success. Applicants must have a 5-year interruption from their college studies and demonstrate the potential for academic career success. This annual award is applied equally to the fall and spring semesters. For a complete list of criteria and an application, visit http://www2.creighton.edu/adultdegrees/tuitionfeesfinancialaid/scholarshipsgrants/index.php.

Richard Pearlman Memorial Scholarship

This award is given to certificate students enrolled in the Emergency Medical Services paramedic education program who demonstrate a passion for emergency medical services work and who have financial need. Special consideration will be given to students who have overcome socio-economic hardships to pursue their education.

EMS Alumni Scholarship

This award is given to ASEM and BSEM degree-seeking students during the year in which they are enrolled in the paramedic program. Students must demonstrate financial need based on the information supplied on the FAFSA, have a minimum 2.50 GPA and be a US citizen or permanent resident. This award is applied equally to the fall and spring semesters.

School of Pharmacy and Health Professions Scholarship

This award is given to ASEM and BSEM degree-seeking students during the year in which they are enrolled in the paramedic program. Students must demonstrate financial need based on the information supplied on the FAFSA, have a minimum 2.50 GPA and be a US citizen or permanent resident. This award is applied equally to the fall and spring semesters.

Other Scholarships

In addition to the grants, loans and scholarships listed here, there are several scholarships funded by various organizations and other private and University endowed scholarships.
PREPARING FOR GRADUATE STUDY

Many Creighton students continue their education on the graduate level. Students considering graduate study at the master’s or doctoral levels should consider the following points. (Also see Pre-Professional Study.) Graduate programs often require foreign language proficiency; the traditional requirement is one language at the master’s level and two at the doctoral level. The choice of a particular language should relate to the research interests of the student’s graduate program. Graduate departments in some fields allow students to substitute statistics and computer programming for foreign language skills. Graduate study requires that students master the tools and techniques of research in a field. Graduate admissions committees look for evidence that applicants have demonstrated creativity and skill in independent study.

Admissions and financial aid decisions are usually based on three main pieces of information: the student’s undergraduate record, particularly in the major field of interest; scores on standardized examinations (the Graduate Record Examination or Graduate Management Admissions Test); and recommendations from the student’s faculty members. Advice about graduate study in particular fields and the choice of an appropriate graduate school should be obtained from a student’s major advisor.

UNDERGRADUATE PREPARATION FOR M.B.A. PROGRAMS

Foundation Courses for Graduate Study in Business

Graduate programs leading to the degree of Master of Business Administration (M.B.A.) are designed to give a broad overview of the executive world of business. An undergraduate degree in business is not a prerequisite to an M.B.A. program; in fact, many M.B.A. students hold degrees in the arts and sciences and technical fields.

Although a degree in business is not a prerequisite for admittance, a minimum number of foundation courses in business are necessary. Successful completion of the courses listed below introduces a student to the fundamentals of the functional areas of business: accounting, economics, finance, marketing, and statistics. The following courses or their equivalents are required for students seeking admission into M.B.A. programs:

- ACC 201 Introduction to Financial Accounting 3 credits
- BUS 229 Statistical Analysis (requires Calculus) 3 credits
- FIN 301 Managerial Finance 3 credits
- MKT 319 Principles of Marketing 3 credits
- ECO 203 Introductory Microeconomics 3 credits
- ECO 205 Introductory Macroeconomics 3 credits

The M.B.A. foundation courses provide an excellent background in business administration for students in Arts and Sciences without compromising the liberal arts content of a curriculum. (Also see Certificate in Business for Arts and Sciences students.) Questions concerning the M.B.A. program at Creighton should be directed to the Coordinator, Graduate Business Programs, College of Business Administration, Creighton University, Omaha, NE 68178. Telephone: (402) 280-2829.
COURSES OF INSTRUCTION

INTRODUCTION

The courses of instruction are listed here by department (subject) or program in alphabetical order. Hence the offerings of the College of Arts and Sciences, the College of Business Administration, and the School of Nursing are intermingled. Courses offered by the College of Business Administration are listed under Accounting, Business, Economics, Finance, Management, Business Intelligence and Analytics, and Marketing. Courses offered by the Division of Health Professions are listed in the School of Pharmacy and Health Professions Bulletin. With the exception of Nursing courses and a few courses indicated as being offered by the School of Medicine, all other courses listed in this issue of the Bulletin are offered by the College of Arts and Sciences.

Three-letter symbols are used to designate the different departments (subjects) or programs, for example, ACC for Accounting, CHM for Chemistry, ENG for English, etc. These symbols are used to identify the subject area of course offerings in schedules, grade reports, transcripts of records, etc.

The courses listed in this Bulletin are a statement of the plans of the various departments covering the period from the 2012 Summer Semester to the Second Semester of 2013. Also included, as a matter of record, are courses that were given during the period covered by the last issue of the Bulletin for the College of Arts and Sciences, College of Business Administration, and School of Nursing but did not appear in that issue. A special bulletin for the courses offered in the Summer Session is published early each year. The University reserves the right to modify or to cancel any of the courses listed.

COURSE NUMBERING SYSTEM

Courses appearing in this Bulletin are numbered according to the following system:

- 001 - 099 Pre-college level courses (not applicable to a degree).
- 100 - 299 Lower-division courses (when applicable, 100-199 freshmen; 200-299 sophomores) undergraduate credit only. 300-499 Upper-division courses (when applicable, 300-399 junior; 400-499 senior) undergraduate credit only.
- 500 - 599 Advanced upper-division courses in which graduate students may enroll and receive graduate credit. (It is assumed that graduate students will perform more requirements and be graded more strictly than undergraduates in these courses.)
- 600 - 799 Graduate courses. (master’s and doctoral level.)
- 800 - 899 Graduate courses. (Limited to doctoral candidates.)
- 900 - 999 Post-doctoral (or post-terminal) degree courses only.

The credit value of each course is included with its description. Unless indicated otherwise, the class meetings per week normally equal the number of semester hours of credit shown for the course. For example, for a three-semester-hour course there are three 50-minute class periods or their equivalent held each week of the semester. During summer sessions, class periods are held five days a week and the class periods are lengthened; hence, an equivalent amount of class time is devoted to a course whenever it is given.
KEY TO SYMBOLS

The standard course description includes a variety of symbols or abbreviations indicating essential information. The following is a sample course description with the individual symbols explained in the order in which they appear in that description.

BIO 523  Environmental Toxicology  (3) II 2011-12

Principles of environmental tolerance, bioenergetics and nutrition, homeostasis, and toxicology and disease will be developed and related to the organismal and population levels and to comparative responses to environmental disturbance. The course uses a reading/discussion format. 3R. P: BIO 211 and 212.

BIO  Department (subject or discipline) abbreviation. Standard three-letter symbols are used throughout the University to identify the subject fields.

523  Course number. If a course has been renumbered, the old course number appears in parentheses following the new number.

Environmental Toxicology — Course Title

(3)  Credit value of the course in terms of number of semester hours of credit.

II  Term offered. I indicates fall semester; II indicates spring semester; S indicates summer session.

W  Indicates winter interterm; M indicates mini-semester.

2010-11  Year in which course offered. If no year designation is given, course is offered each year during the term(s) indicated, unless the symbol OD (on demand) appears indicating that the course is offered only when there is sufficient demand.

AY  Alternate year, indicating that the course will be offered every other year after the term and year shown.

S (OD)  Indicates the course is also offered in the summer session on demand. No symbol infers the course is offered on demand.

ENY, ONY  Indicate that course is offered in term shown of even-numbered years (ENY) or odd-numbered years (ONY).

3R, 3L  Class structure. R, L, S, C, D, Q indicate recitation lecture, laboratory, studio, conference, discussion, quiz. Hence, 3R, 3L indicates three hours of lecture-recitation and three hours of laboratory per week. For courses consisting of lecture-recitation periods only, the number of class hours per week, unless indicated otherwise, is the same as the credit value of the course and is not specified in the course description.

P  Prerequisite: the preliminary requirement that must be met before the course can be taken. When prerequisites are set forth in the introductory departmental statements preceding the course listings, they apply as indicated even though not repeated with the individual course descriptions.

CO  Corequisite: a requirement, usually another course, that must be completed in the same term.

DC, IC  DC, department consent, and IC, instructor consent, signify that a student must have the permission of the department or instructor in addition to or in lieu of other course prerequisites.

NOTE: Not all of the foregoing information may be noted in any individual course.
ACCOUNTING

Professors Krogstad, Purcell, Raval; Associate Professors Flinn, Lewis, Shimerda (Chair), Instructor Eibes.

Requirements for Accounting as the Field of Concentration – see page 230.

ACC 201 Introduction to Financial Accounting (3) I, II, S
The course includes a thorough discussion of the fundamental principles of financial accounting with an emphasis on the corporate form of a business entity. These principles are studied in connection with financial accounting systems, and are taught with the use of assigned problems and questions. Information technology and various other means are used for problem solving and to study the applications of the basic principles as they relate to financial statement preparation and understanding. P: Open to all students who have completed a minimum of 15 semester hours of college credit.

ACC 202 Introduction to Managerial Accounting (3) I, II, S
The course includes a thorough discussion of the fundamental principles of managerial accounting with an emphasis on traditional and modern cost measurement, recording, and reporting systems to support managerial decision making. Specific managerial accounting topics covered include cost and revenue classification approaches; planning and control techniques, including operational budgeting; cost behavior analysis; cost-volume-profit analysis; and product costing, including activity-based costing. Also included in the course is coverage of the statement of cash flows, financial statement analysis, and individual and corporate income taxes. Information technology and various other means are used for managerial problem solving. P: ACC 201; So. stdg.

ACC 301 Fundamentals of Income Taxation (3) OD
This course provides an overview of the federal income tax system. It includes an analysis of the individual and corporate tax systems including recognition of tax issues, tax return preparation, and basic tax planning. Coverage includes general concepts of gross income, deductions and credits, property transactions, capital cost recovery provisions, tax impact of choice of business entity with particular emphasis on small businesses and methods of tax accounting. This course is not open to accounting majors. P: Jr. stdg.

ACC 313 External Financial Reporting Issues (3) I, S
The course involves an intermediate study of contemporary accounting theory and practice. Emphasis is placed on understanding the four financial statements presented in an audited set of financial reports, including an in-depth examination of earnings per share and the statement of cash flows. Financial accounting standards and practices related to cash, receivables, and inventory are examined in detail. The functions, nature, and limitations of accounting as expressed in professional literature are analyzed. Skills for assessing and solving problems in unstructured business settings are introduced in the course. P: ACC 202 with a grade of C or better; Jr. stdg.

ACC 315 Managerial Accounting for Decision Making (3) I, II
The course includes a study of cost and managerial accounting issues, including costing systems, cost-volume-profit analysis, operational budgeting, and cost allocation. The course highlights the importance and significance of cost data for management decision making. Current topics and cost accounting techniques used in industry and the private business sector are presented. P: ACC 202.

ACC 319 Financial Accounting and Reporting Standards (3) II, OD
The course involves an in-depth study of the theory and concepts of accounting with the emphasis placed on corporations. Financial accounting standards and practices related to fixed assets, current liabilities, investments in securities, stockholders’ equity, and leases are examined in detail. Financial accounting standards and practices for governmental entities are also studied in depth. The interpretation and application of relevant professional literature, including accounting pronouncements, to specific business situations are stressed. The means of analyzing and interpreting accounting data, including financial reports, is also presented in the course. P: ACC 313; Jr. stdg.
ACC 343  Principles of Taxation (3) II
This is an introductory course in federal income taxation. The emphasis is placed on technical rules, underlying theory, and applications, with primary coverage of the concepts of income, deductions, tax entities, and property transactions. Greater emphasis is placed on income taxes for individuals than for corporate entities. A tax planning approach is integrated throughout the course, and tax research methodology is introduced. P: ACC 313.

ACC 366  Internships in Accounting (3) I, II, S
The course is designed to provide students with practical accounting experience by applying accounting concepts and technical skills learned in the classroom. It requires 150 hours with an employer, designated class meetings, written assignments, and oral presentations. Although the department will try to help a student obtain an accounting internship, the responsibility for finding the internship lies with the student. The course is graded satisfactory/unsatisfactory and only 3 hours of internship credit may be used to satisfy graduation requirements. Enrollment is limited. P: Second semester Jr. or higher stdg; I.C.

ACC 377  Accounting Information Systems (3) I, II
An introduction to the design and use of computer-based information systems in accounting. Topics addressed include computer-based accounting systems, systems development, accounting cycles, and internal controls in and auditing of computer-based systems. P: ACC 202, BIA 253; Jr. stdg.

ACC 423  Auditing (3) I
This course provides an introduction to the auditing profession, an overview of the auditing process, and an orientation to the tasks and procedures involved in an audit. Emphasis is placed on analytical thinking, the exercise of judgment, the evaluation of risks and controls, and how to add value to clients. Ethical issues and the expanding role of assurance services are considered. P: ACC 313; Sr. stdg.

ACC 491  The Financial and Accounting World: A Campus and Travel Course (3) W
A course designed to provide students with on-site understanding of accounting and financial processes to complement campus-based study of the same topics. The course includes up to 20 hours of on-campus study prior to the travel portion of the course that will comprise of up to 30 hours of study with experts in the field. The travel portion of the course may involve various destinations. P: Sr. stdg; six hours of upper-level accounting courses.

ACC 493  Directed Independent Readings (1-3) OD
This is a directed readings course that investigates current developments in accounting theory and/or practice. The course permits individual students to pursue areas of interest within the field of accounting in greater depth than is covered in the normal curriculum. It also permits a student to do independent research on a specialized topic not ordinarily treated in regular course offerings. P: Sr. stdg; DC and Dean’s approval.

ACC 497  Directed Independent Research (1-3) OD
Supervised independent research on topics beyond the regular course coverage. Course is limited to students who have a GPA or 3.0 or better. P: Sr. stdg; DC and Dean’s approval.

ACC 516  Special Managerial Accounting Issues (3) S, OD
The course covers advanced managerial accounting topics, such as capital budgeting, management control systems, and activity-based costing and activity-based management. It deals with the need to adapt traditional management accounting methods as changes take place in the new business environment. The sources of change include the continued movement away from manufacturing and into the service industry, the globalization of business, information technology, and the need for more nonfinancial measures of evaluation. P: ACC 315; Jr. stdg.

ACC 521  Advanced Accounting (3) II
The course involves the study and application of financial reporting concepts to specialized accounting problems and cases, including accounting for business combinations, consolidated financial statements, nonprofit entities, and entities operating in the international environment. The course also includes the in-depth study of specific corporate financial accounting standards and practices related to accounting for income taxes, long-term liabilities, dilutive securities, long-term investment in bonds, and accounting changes. P: ACC 315, 319; Sr. stdg.

COURSE DESCRIPTIONS  285

Individualized program of reading in an area of special interest under the direction of a faculty member.  P: AFS coordinator consent.
AIR FORCE ROTC
AEROSPACE STUDIES

Air Force Reserve Officers Training Corps (AFROTC) training leading to a commission as a second lieutenant in the United States Air Force is available to qualified Creighton students (male or female) through the AFROTC Program at the University of Nebraska at Omaha (UNO). Creighton students register for the courses at Creighton but attend Aerospace Studies Classes at UNO while pursuing their degree at Creighton. This opportunity results from an agreement between Creighton and UNO that permits Creighton students to participate in the AFROTC Program at the University of Nebraska at Omaha. Creighton students interested in the program should contact the AFROTC Detachment 470, Room 260, Arts and Science (ASH) Building, telephone 402-554-2318, at the University of Nebraska at Omaha to obtain further information.

Following are the Aerospace Studies courses of the four-year program:

AES 001 Leadership Laboratory (0) I, II
The AS 100 and AS 200 Leadership Laboratory courses (LLABs) include a study of Air Force customs and courtesies, drill and ceremonies, and military commands. The LLAB also includes studying the environment of an Air Force officer and learning about areas of opportunity available to commissioned officers. The AS 300 and AS 400 LLABs consist of activities classified as leadership and management experiences. They involve the planning and controlling of military activities of the cadet corps, and the preparation and presentation of briefings and other oral and written communications. LLABs also include interviews, guidance, and information that will increase the understanding, motivation, and performance of other cadets.

AES 131-132 The Foundations of the United States Air Force, I and II (1)
Survey courses designed to introduce students to the United States Air Force and Air Force Reserve Officer Training Corps. Featured topics include: mission and organization of the Air Force, officer ethics, military customs and courtesies, Air Force officer opportunities, and an introduction to communication skills. Leadership Laboratory is mandatory for AFROTC cadets and complements this course by providing cadets with followership experiences.

AES 231-232 The Evolution of USAF Air and Space Power, I and II (1)
The courses are designed to examine general aspects of air and space power through a historical perspective. Utilizing this perspective, the course covers a time period from the first balloons and dirigibles to the space-age global positioning systems of the Persian Gulf War. Historical examples are provided to extrapolate the development of Air Force capabilities (competencies), and missions (functions) to demonstrate the evolution of what has become today’s USAF air and space power. Furthermore, the course examines several fundamental truths associated with war in the third dimension: e.g., Principles of War and Tenets of Air and Space Power. As a whole, this course provides the students with a knowledge level understanding for the general element and employment of air and space power, from an institutional doctrinal and historical perspective. In addition, the students will continue to discuss the importance of the Air Force Core Values with the use of operational examples and historical Air Force leaders and will continue to develop their communication skills. Leadership Laboratory is mandatory for AFROTC cadets and complements this course by providing cadets with followership experience.

AES 311-312 Air Force Leadership Studies, I and II (3)
A study of leadership, management fundamentals, professional knowledge, Air Force personnel and evaluation systems, leadership ethics, and communication skills required of an Air Force junior officer. Case studies are used to examine Air Force leadership and management situations as a means of demonstrating and exercising practical application of the concepts being studied. A mandatory Leadership Laboratory complements this course by providing advanced leadership experiences in officer-type activities, giving students the opportunity to apply the leadership and management principles of this course.

AES 411-412 National Security Affairs/Preparation for Active Duty, I and II (3)
These courses examine the national security process, regional studies, advanced leadership ethics, and Air Force doctrine. Special topics of interest focus on the military as a profession, officer status, military justice, civilian control of the military, preparation for active duty, and current issues affecting military professionalism. Within this structure, continued emphasis is given to refining communication skills. A mandatory Leadership Laboratory complements this course by providing advanced leadership experiences, giving students the opportunity to apply the leadership and management principles of this course.

An introduction to the design, development, and application of geographic information systems (GIS) and related technologies to conduct spatial analysis in applied research settings that require the integration of data from diverse sources. Students will complete individual projects focusing on a topical area of their choice in order to develop an understanding of the basic technologies, and to demonstrate their skill in using these technologies to analyze a research topic. Research topics may be drawn from any subject field for which data sets with geographic variables are available. P: SOC 312 or IC.

AMS 585  American Studies Internship (1-3) I, II, S
A supervised on-the-job experience at governmental or private agencies in applying American Studies knowledge and skills to cultural resources management; museum, library, and/or archival work; historic preservation; and other areas. P: AMS major; Jr. stdg.; DC.

The remainder of the American Studies courses may be taken from the United States oriented classes offered by the cooperating departments of Anthropology, Art, Communication Studies, Economics, English, History, Journalism, Media and Computing, Philosophy, Political Science, Sociology, Theology, and Theatre. See the AMS Coordinator for a list of certified classes.
ANTHROPOLOGY

For the Anthropology Program of Study, please refer to page 199.

ANT 101  Introduction to Native American Studies: Anthropological Approaches (3) I, II
(Same as NAS 101)
This course introduces students to the fundamental paradigms and methods of social science, particularly anthropology, sociology and history through a study of contemporary and historical Native American Studies. Through a series of lectures, discussions, and field trips to local sites, students will become familiar with the variety of historical and contemporary Native societies and the manner in which social scientists have and continue to dialogue with Native peoples in the present.

ANT 108  The Native American World (3) I, II (Same as HIS 108, NAS 108)
This course is a survey of the development of Native American societies and cultures from their appearance on the continent to the present emphasizing the evolution of cultural, political, and social systems and the imprint of contact with Euro-American cultures. P: HIS 101.

ANT 111  Introduction to Anthropology: Human and Cultural Diversity (3) I, II
Anthropology is the study of the unity and diversity of human beings. This introductory course takes a holist approach, focusing on our physical, social and cultural past and present by including all four fields of the discipline: Archaeology, Physical Anthropology, Linguistics, and Cultural Anthropology. While Archaeology and Physical anthropology focus on physical remains and our common biological makeup, Linguistics, and Cultural Anthropology explore the study of human communication and our richly diverse patterns of social behavior and beliefs.

ANT 112  Introduction to Anthropology: Culture, Energy and Sustainability (3)
This course examines cultural variation in the use of energy. It looks at human kind as creative biological, spiritual, and social beings who engage in adaptation strategies to exploit energy forms. These adaptations are explored in terms of their successes and how they can contribute to sustainability.

ANT 244  Cross-Cultural Communication (3) II, ENY (Same as COM 244)
Course combines attention to sociolinguistic theory and analysis with practical strategies for maximizing communication between people from varying national, ethnic, professional, religious, and regional backgrounds. P: So. stdg.

ANT 301  Social and Cultural Theory (3) I (Same as AMS 301, SOC 301)
An exploration of the ideas central to sociology and anthropology from the perspective of their historical and contemporary theories. Special attention is given to the implications of these ideas for understanding human social values. P: So. stdg.

ANT 307  Demography: World Population Issues (3) I (Same as AFS 307, EVS 307, SOC 307)
This course will provide a sociological examination of the development and evolution of different models of population dynamics from several contemporary cultures. It will place particular emphasis on the assumptions and logical consequences of each of these models. Includes a survey of historical and contemporary trends in population growth, as well as a review of competing perspectives about natural limits to that growth. P: So. stdg.

ANT 312(212) Quantitative Methods in the Social Sciences (3) I, II (Same as HAP 312, SOC 312)
Introduction to quantitative research within the social sciences. Attention is directed to the basic logic and research techniques involved in studying the social world scientifically. Specific topics considered include research design, measurement, alternative data collection procedures, and ethical concerns involved in studying social life.

ANT 314(214) Statistics for the Social Sciences (4) I, II (Same as HAP 314, SOC 314)
Broad introduction to the statistical techniques used by social scientists to analyze their data, including computer usage. Attention is directed to the basic procedures for organizing and describing data, for assessing relationships among social variables, and for using that information to make inferences about the population. 3R, 1L. CO: SOC 312.

ANT 315 (215) Healthcare, Society and Culture (3) I (Same as HAP 315, SOC 315)
Study of the relationship between society and healthcare systems. The sociology of healthcare organization, including patient-practitioner relationships, concepts of health and disease, healthcare personnel, and systems of delivery. P: So. stdg.
ANT 316 (209) Qualitative Methods in the Social Sciences (3) II (Same as AMS 316, SOC 316, NAS 316)
Introduction to qualitative research methods within the social sciences. Includes research design, strategies for collecting ethnographic data with a particular focus on participant observation and field work, comparative research, theory building, and ethical issues involved with human research.

ANT 317 Global Health Issues (3) II, ONY (Same as AFS 317, HAP 317, SOC 317)
This course will examine the social production of health and disease from a global perspective. Related is the topic of health and well-being in developing countries. P: So. stdg.

ANT 324 Native American World View, Culture and Values (3) II, ONY (Same as NAS 324, PHL 324)
This course takes a multidisciplinary approach to formulating the varieties of worldviews among Native groups with an emphasis on commonalities and uniqueness among different groups during different historical eras. The course begins by critically looking at reconstructions of Native worldviews in the pre-European contact era as constructed by later Natives, anthropologists and ethno historians based on a variety of sources. The course focus on the many media through which Native cosmologies are expressed as well as the historical circumstances that have continued to transform Native cosmologies. P: PHL 107, and one of the following: (a) PHL 201, (b) PHL 250, (c) PHL 312, or (d) PHL 320.

ANT 331 Indians of the Great Plains (3) II, ONY (Same as AMS 331, NAS 331)
This course provides a comprehensive interdisciplinary approach to the study of Native cultures on the Great Plains. We will examine ecology, geography, geology, natural resources, archaeology, history, art, linguistics, cultures, as well as the human habitation of the area from first records (which are both archaeological and oral historical) to the present. The course will be run seminar style. Each student (or group depending on the size of the class) will choose a specific cultural group for study. If a student is a member of a plains Indian group the student is required to study a linguistically and culturally different group. The professor will act as a resource for methodology and research strategies. Each student will bring to the seminar a summary of relevant data for the group she/he is studying and present it to the class. Students will also build a portfolio of short papers on each seminar topic that will be assembled into a major paper at the end of the semester. P: So. Stdg.

ANT 335 Technology and Human Values (3) II, ONY (Same as SOC 335)
We often fail to recognize how the unanticipated (and often unintended) consequences of technologies change our social systems, including the way we relate to each other. This course will examine how different social systems attempt to control and manage the development of technology, the differential impact of emerging technologies on identifiable segments of society, and the ethical and values-issues involved in technological and social change. Includes an exploration of the impact of complicated technologies on less developed cultures. P: So. stdg.

ANT 340 Native American Cultures and Health (3) I (Same as AMS 340, NAS 340)
This course allows students to learn first hand about the culture and health care practices of Native Americans by participating in seminars offered by Native tribal and spiritual leaders, healers, and others who work with Native populations in promoting wellness and pride in culture. Students will participate in the course with SPAHP students enrolled in the elective course “Learning through Reflective Service: Native American Experience.” (PHA 341). Enrolled undergraduate students will engage with Omaha-based health agencies and attend group reflection sessions. P: Soph. stdg.

ANT 341 American Cultural Minorities (3) I (Same as AMS 341, BKS 341, SOC 341)
Determinants and consequences of prejudice and discrimination; race, ethnocentrism, religious conflict, and class structure. Consideration also given to proposed strategies for reducing inter-group tension. P: So. stdg.

ANT 342 Peoples and Cultures of Sub-Saharan Africa (3) II, ENY (Same as AFS 342, BKS 342)
An exploration of the people and places of Africa, south of the Sahara, from a variety of anthropological perspectives. It is an introduction to the cultures of Africa and a history of how those cultures have been perceived and interpreted. P: So. stdg.

ANT 343 Peoples and Cultures of Native North America (3) I, ENY (Same as AMS 343, NAS 343)
Historic and ethnographic survey of the Native cultures of North America. Includes an analysis of the ecological, social, and ideological adaptations and cultural changes brought by contact with Euro-American populations. P: So. stdg.
ANT 346  Peoples and Cultures of Latin America (3) I (Same as NAS 346)
A study of the cultures of Latin America. Includes an analysis of the culture history, ecological adaptations, social adaptations, ideological adaptations, and the nature of culture change for indigenous peoples and subsequent immigrants to the regions of the Americas where linguistically Spanish and Portuguese now predominate. P: So. stdg.

ANT 350  Social Change (3) I, ENY (Same as SOC 350)
Major social trends in America and the world social change processes and social movements. Special focus on the emergence of a global system of economic, political, and environmental relationships. P: So. stdg.

ANT 352  Witchcraft, Oracles and Magic: Anthropological Study of Religion (3) II, ONY (Same as THL 352)
This course studies the variety of ways in which anthropology describes and interprets religious phenomena. Its focus is on the phenomenon of religion within the context of specific human social groups. P: So. stdg.

ANT 355  Environment and Society: Sociological Perspectives (3) II (Same as AMS 355, EVS 355, SOC 355)
Human societies interact with the natural environments in which they are embedded. An examination of the driving economic, political, cultural, and demographic forces that cause human modification of the natural world, the resulting social and environmental problems and public controversies. A focus on movements and policies related to environmental issues, and the prospects for the emergence of more environmentally “sustainable” societies. P: So. stdg.

ANT 358  Critical Issues in the Study of Native American Religions (3) II, ONY (Same as AMS 358, NAS 358, THL 358)
This course utilizes anthropological perspectives in the study of Native American religion. The focus of the course is non-Western, non-proselytizing religions which are coterminous with local political or kinship based social groups. The course looks at the history of the study of Native religions, the nature of Native religions as understood by a variety of disciplines, and the contemporary critique of colonialism by Native peoples specifically in regard to intellectual colonialism of Native knowledge and the practical colonialism inherent in the imitation of Native religions by non-tribal members. P: Soph. stdg.

ANT 360  Gender, Society and Culture (3) II (Same as AMS 360, SOC 360, WGS 360)
Examines gender from a holistic perspective, including language, biology, cultural history, and socio-cultural variables. The course will examine gender in a wide variety of cultures. P: So. stdg.

ANT 363  Medical Anthropology (3) I, II
This course utilizes a variety of anthropological theories to explore human experiences of health, illness and healing. It examines how cultures both conceptualize illness and shape healing systems, studies adaptations between humans and pathogens, and considers how different social power relations affect disease patterns. The course also includes topics such as types of healers, diagnostic techniques, ritual and pharmacological therapies, spirit possession, and shamanism. P: Soph. stdg.

ANT 383  Cultural Epidemiology: Global Perspectives (3) II, ONY (Same as HAP 383)
Cultural epidemiology addresses the structural and cultural determinants of health, and integrates methods, theories, and debates in both epidemiology and medical anthropology responding to health needs on an international scale. The course introduces students to methods for health research, concepts of health and disease, and strategies to alleviate ill health.

ANT 385  Community Internship I, II (3) I, II, S
Omaha city government departments and other private and public agencies provide opportunities for semester-long participation in their regular operations. Academic coordination provided by a department faculty member. May be repeated for up to 6 hrs. 1C, 12L. P: Jr. stdg.; SOC major; IC; 2.5 GPA

ANT 411  Social Inequality and Stratification (3) II (Same as AMS 411, SOC 411)
Nature, causes, and consequences of social inequality and stratification, with particular attention directed to the interaction among class, race and ethnicity, and gender. P: Jr. stdg.
ANT 424  Sustainability and Rural America (3) II, ENY S (Same as EVS 424, NAS 424, SRP 424, SOC 424)

This interdisciplinary course studies sustainability and the diverse cultures of rural American peoples by looking at topics such as ethics, environmental resources, economic strategies, public policy and social inequality. This course offers off-campus field observation and ethical reflection assignments and involves students in active collaborative problem-solving research. P: PHL 250 or THL 250; Sr. stdg.

ANT 442  Cultural Communication (3) (Same as COM 442)

This course combines attention to cultural communication and the ethnography of communication with practical strategies for coming to terms with communication between people from varying national, ethnic, professional, religious, and regional backgrounds.

ANT 455  Food, Society, and Environment (3) II (Same as EVS 455, SOC 455, SRP 455)

Access to food is a universal, basic human need. This course considers the social and cultural significance of food, the ecological implications of producing it, and the social justice issues that surround its distribution from several disciplinary perspectives. P: Sr. stdg.

ANT 493  Directed Independent Readings (1-6) I, II, S

Student-initiated survey of the literature related to a broad topic in anthropology not covered in the student’s course work. Undertaken in close cooperation with a supervising faculty member. May be repeated to a limit of six hours. P: Jr. ANT major.

ANT 495  Directed Independent Study (1-6) I, II, S

Student-initiated project on a focused topic in anthropology, utilizing library materials and involving close cooperation with a supervising faculty member. May be repeated to a limit of six hours. P: IC.

ANT 497  Directed Independent Research (1-6) I, II, S

Student-initiated empirical project on a focused topic in anthropology, involving close coordination with a supervising faculty member. May be repeated to a limit of six hours. P: IC.

ANT 499  Globalization: Understanding by Applying the Social Sciences (3) II (Same as SOC 499)

Students will connect, integrate and elaborate prior learning and skills by studying and interpreting a selected aspect of the shared modern experience of globalization. Reading, research, discussion, writing, exercises and presentations will engage us in the topic and allow us to use our knowledge and skills developed by pursuing a sociology or anthropology major. The course provides both a completion of the undergraduate experience and engages student in program assessment. P: SOC/ANT/NAS final semester majors only.

ANT 525  Archaeological Fieldwork and Analysis (3) S (Same as CNE 525, THL 525)

The student learns the principles of stratigraphic archaeology (or underwater archaeology) by participating in an excavation for a minimum of four weeks. The student will learn stratigraphic theory and excavation strategy, basic archaeological techniques, and the basic analysis of archaeological materials recovered from the site. (Underwater archaeologists will learn basic underwater techniques in place of some terrestrial methods.) CO: ANT 525.

ANT 526  Archaeology of Roman Palestine (3) S (Same as CNE 526, THL 526)

This is a study of ancient Palestine from the rise of the Herodian dynasty in the first century B.C.E. to the aftermath of the Muslim conquest in the seventh century C.E. The material of the course is the physical remains of archaeological sites throughout modern Israel, along with movable cultural remains that issued from these sites. The major focus of the course will be the interaction between Classical Mediterranean civilization on the one hand, and the Jews and other Middle Eastern peoples on the other, in the age that yielded Rabbinic Judaism, Christianity and Islam. CO: ANT 525.

ANT 570(470) Introduction to Geographic Information Systems (4) II, ENY (Same as ANT 570, EVS 570, SOC 570)

An introduction to the design, development, and application of geographic information systems (GIS) and related technologies to conduct spatial analysis in applied research settings that require the integration of data from diverse sources. Students will complete individual projects focusing on a topical area of their choice in order to develop an understanding of the basic technologies, and to demonstrate their skill in using these technologies to analyze a research topic. Research topics may be drawn from any subject field for which data sets with geographic variables are available. These may include anthropology, criminal justice, demography, economics, environmental science, health care, marketing, political science, sociology and social work. P: SOC 312 or IC.
ARABIC

ARA 101  Elementary Modern Standard Arabic I (3) I
Elementary Arabic I is the first semester of the year-long sequence in first-year Modern Standard Arabic (MSA), with some exposure to Arabic dialects. The student will develop a strong foundation in understanding Arabic in both its written and spoken forms, and in reading and producing simple sentences. Active vocabulary learning, proper grammatical usage and developing the ability to use the language in diverse real-world situations will be emphasized. Not open to native speakers without the consent of the instructor.

ARA 102  Elementary Modern Standard Arabic II (3) II
Continuation of ARA 101. Doubled verbs, defective verbs; the subjunctive, passive and imperative; the passive voice; complex syntax; the masdar, active and passive participles; the adverb; conditional sentences; exclamations; oral and written exercises; reading. Open only to non-speakers of the language. P: ARA 101 or IC.

ARA 115  Intensive Beginning Arabic (6) S
Pronunciation and writing drills; the basic inflection of the regular and hollow verb, form I-X; inflection of nouns and adjectives; root and pattern system and basic use of the dictionary; basic syntax; oral and written exercises. Not open to native speakers of the language.

ARA 201  Intermediate Modern Standard Arabic (3) I
This course continues and builds on ARA 101 and 102. It is designed to help students make the transition to natural communication by furthering the development of speaking, listening, reading, and writing skills, with emphasis on the language of everyday conversation. P: ARA 102 or ARA 115.

ART
For the Studio Art Program of Study, please refer to page 141.

ART 104  Elementary School Art (3) II
Principles underlying the visual arts as exemplified in various forms and media laboratory work to develop basic skills required in elementary school art activities P: EDU DC.

ART 105  Art Fundamentals (3) I, II
Basic drawing and basic design. Use of pencil, charcoal, pen, brush, and collage. 6S.

ART 153  3D Foundations (3) II
Introductory course designed to enhance the student’s ability to draw on his/her instinctual ability in three dimensions in expressing ideas and using the cube as a basic form.

ART 154  Clay Modeling I (3)
This introductory 100 level course is designed for the non art major, art minor and art major alike. This course will encompass the sculptural process of clay modeling of the human form. This course will cover sculpture skills including life modeling, artistic anatomy, armature design, portraiture, and relief clay modeling. The elements and principles of three dimensional art will be woven into each project.

ART 155  Welded Metal Sculpture I (3)
This introductory 100 level course is designed for the non art major, art minor and art major alike. This course will encompass the sculptural process of welded metal sculpture. Students will explore abstract planar composition. This course will cover the technical processes of welding, metal finishing and steel sculpture creation. The elements and principles of three dimensional art will be woven into each project.

ART 156  Bronze Casting I (3)
This introductory 100 level course is designed for the non art major, art minor and art major alike. Students will explore both figurative and abstract sculptural forms in the ancient tradition of bronze casting. This course will cover the sculpture skills of wax modeling, mold making, and bronze casting. The elements and principles of three dimensional art will be woven into each project.

ART 157  Stone Carving I (3)
This introductory 100 level course is designed for the non art major, art minor and art major alike. This course will encompass basic sculptural processes involved in stone carving.
This course will cover the sculpture skills of maquette design, manual carving techniques, pneumatic and electric carving techniques, and stone finishing. The elements and principles of three dimensional art will be woven into each project.

ART 201
Arts and Civic Engagement: Empty Bowls (3)
This course explores artistic practice as social transformation through student involvement in the national program, Empty Bowls. Students work in a communal environment inside and outside the classroom through a partnership with the Siena Francis House. Students learn introductory ceramics skills in clay and glaze formulation, throwing, hand-building, glazing and kiln firing.

ART 211
Introductory Ceramics (3) I, II, S
Handbuilding, throwing, decorating, glazing, and firing of clay.
P or CO: ART 105 for majors; none for others.

ART 253
Sculpture II (3) I, II, S
Presentation of the traditional, classical approach to art by the experience of modeling in clay from live subjects. Opportunity for Art majors to sharpen perceptual, aesthetic, and functional skills and for non-Art majors to experience what art is and how it comes about in a sculpture studio.
P or CO: ART 105 and ART 106 for Art majors.

ART 254
Clay Modeling II (3)
This 200 level course is designed for the non art major, art minor and art major alike. This course will encompass the sculptural process of welded metal sculpture. Students will explore abstract planar composition. This course will cover the technical processes of welding, metal finishing and steel sculpture creation. A series of medium size sculptures will be created.
P: Any one of the following: ART 153, ART 154, 155, 156, 157.

Welded Metal Sculpture II (3)
This 200 level course is designed for the non art major, art minor and art major alike. This course will encompass the sculptural process of welded metal sculpture. Students will explore abstract planar composition. This course will cover the technical processes of welding, metal finishing and steel sculpture creation. A series of medium size sculptures will be created.
P: Any one of the following: ART 153, ART 154, 155, 156, 157.

ART 256
Bronze Casting II (3)
This 200 level course is designed for the non art major, art minor and art major alike. Students will explore both figurative and abstract sculptural forms in the ancient tradition of bronze casting. This course will cover the sculpture skills of wax modeling, mold making, and bronze casting. The elements and principles of three dimensional art will be woven into each project. A series of small scale cast bronze sculptures will be created.
P: Any one of the following: ART 153, ART 154, 155, 156, 157.

Stone Carving II (3)
This introductory 100 level course is designed for the non art major, art minor and art major alike. This course will encompass basic sculptural processes involved in stone carving. This course will cover the sculpture skills of maquette design, manual carving techniques, pneumatic and electric carving techniques, and stone finishing. The elements and principles of three dimensional art will be woven into each project.
P: Any one of the following: ART 153, ART 154, 155, 156, 157.

ART 271
Photography Studio I (3) I, II, S
Introduction to the process of producing a photograph—both the mechanical/chemical and the aesthetic judgmental processes. Review of the work of great photographers; critique and evaluation of student work.
2R, 1L; P: So. stdg.; P or CO: ART 105 for Art majors. Not open to students enrolling as auditors.

ART 295
Special Projects (1-6) I, II
For the non-Art Major. Requires a University sponsor and written DC and IC. Students may repeat this course up to a total of six semester hours.

ART 301
Arts and Civic Engagement: Empty Bowls (3)
This course explores artistic practice as social transformation through student involvement in the national program, Empty Bowls. Students work in a communal environment inside and outside the classroom through a partnership with the Siena Francis House. Students learn introductory ceramics skills in clay and glaze formulation, throwing, hand-building, glazing and kiln firing.
P: ART 201 or 211.
ART 306  Color: Acrylic and Chalk (3) I, II Basic functions of color and advanced design. Use of watercolor, chalk pastel and various color media. The search for personal themes through color. 6S. P: ART 105.

ART 311  Intermediate Ceramics I (3) I, II, S Refining of personal technique on the potter’s wheel and discovering new uses for clay as an expressive material. 6S. P: ART 211.

ART 312  Intermediate Ceramics II (3) I, II
Continuation of ART 311. 6S. P: ART 311.

ART 321  Life Drawing I (3) I, II
Drawing from undraped model in a variety of media; some anatomy theory. 6S. P: ART 105.

ART 322  Life Drawing II (3) I, II
Continuation of ART 321. 6S. P: ART 321.

ART 331  Painting I (3) I, II
Oil paint used on paper, board and canvas. A great variety of aesthetic attitudes and technical approaches. 6S. P: ART 105; Suggested P: ART 306 (for art majors).

ART 332  Painting II (3) I, II
Continuation of ART 331 with emphasis on independent research in areas of preference and need. 6S. P: ART 331.

ART 345  Relief Printing: Woodcut and Linoleum (3) I Exploration of the process of making color relief prints on paper from wood and linoleum. P:
ART 105.

ART 347  Etching I (3) I, II
Creating an image on a metal plate which will be printed on paper. 6S. P: ART 105.

ART 348  Etching II (3) I, II
Introduction to multiplate color printing. 6S. P: ART 347.

ART 353  Sculpture III (3) I, II, S
This 300-level course is designed for the non art major, art minor and major alike. Course projects will combine multiple material applications, processes and concepts. A series of medium to large sculptures will be produced in the student’s materials of choice. Emphasis will be placed on public exhibitions, installations, public and private commissions. P: Any one of the following: ART 253, ART 254, 255, 256, 257.

ART 359  Creativity, Problem Solving, Goal Reaching (3) Covers the nature of creativity, sources of creativity and keys to developing creativity. Introduces creative habits and disciplines by using problem solving methods. Not applicable toward Art major; may be taken for elective credit. P: Jr. stdg.

ART 370  Photography Studio II (3) II, S
Introduction to the zone system of black and white photography; study of great photographers’ work; critique and evaluation of student work. 2R, 1L. P: ART 271 or IC. Not open to students enrolling as auditors.

ART 371  Color Photography (3) II, S
Introduction to color theory and printing; critique sessions of student’s work. 2R, 1L. P: ART 271 or IC. Not open to students enrolling as auditors.

ART 373  Photographic Design and Non-Silver Process (3) OD
An extension of conventional photographic techniques using antiquated emulsions applied to papers and fabrics, hand coloring and toning, combination images, and optional mixed-media explorations. P: ART 271.

ART 374  Photographic Lighting and Studio Management (3) I
A laboratory course for fine arts students in effective use of artificial, natural, strobe, and interior studio lighting to create technically competent and aesthetically strong personal photographic images. Students meet during class for demonstrations and critique of their work and complete assignments in the studio during independent lab times. P: ART 271 or IC.

ART 376  The Photo Diary (3) II
Investigation of the diary form of reflection on personal themes such as family roots, displacement, death and loss, personal relationships, transcendence, etc. Students will use photographs along with words to record and communicate regular reflection pieces. Examples from various autobiographical and journal formats will be studied. Students are not expected to have prior knowledge of photography. Simple equipment is sufficient. No darkroom work required. P: Jr. stdg; consent of the Director of the Jesuit Humanities Program.

ART 380 History and Criticism of Cinema (3) I, S (Same as COM 380, ENG 380)
Motion pictures as a distinctive medium of communication and as an art form; film language; film history; film appreciation; critical assimilation of film content. P: ENG 120, 121, 150.

ART 390 Sculptural Glass Casting (3) OD
Class will take the student through the processes of creating sculpture in cast glass. The processes covered will be clay sculpture, mold making, casting of glass and the finishing of the glass sculpture.

ART 392 Seminar in Art Criticism (3) OD
Special topics in art criticism. Topics and focus of seminar changes each time the course is offered. P: ART 219.

ART 395 Summer Art Studio (1-3) S
Summer studio concentrating on a specific area of studio art not normally offered during the regular year. Area of concentration varies and is announced in the Summer Bulletin each year. May be repeated for credit to a limit of nine hours. P or CO: ART 105 for art majors; none for others.

ART 411 Advanced Ceramics I (3) I, II, S
Designed to promote individual development in the use of materials and processes of the ceramic artist. 6S. P: ART 312.

ART 412 Advanced Ceramics II (3) I, II
Continuation of ART 411. 6S. P: ART 411.

ART 421 Life Drawing III (3) I, II
Continuation of ART 322. 6S. P: ART 421.

ART 422 Life Drawing IV (3) I, II, S
Continuation of ART 421. P: ART 421.

ART 428 Film and the Fine Arts (3) OD (Same as SRP 428, THR 428)
Film as an art form and its relationship to art history, music, and theatre history; the history of styles of acting, design, music, and art in film in the 20th century. Criticism of film art. Course requirements include discussion, examinations and critical writing. Extensive use of the Internet. P: PHL/THL 250 and Sr. Stdg.

ART 431 Painting III (3) I, II, S
Continuation of ART 332. P: ART 332.

ART 432 Painting IV (3) I, II, S
Continuation of ART 431. P: ART 431.

ART 446 Glass Casting in the Kiln (3) OD
Students learn how to cast glass sculptures and relief forms with the aid of an electric kiln.

ART 447 Etching III (3) I, II
Research into new ways of creating and printing. 6S. P: ART 348. May be repeated to a limit of six hours. P: ART 348.

ART 448 Etching IV (3) I, II
Continuation of ART 447. P: ART 447.

ART 453 Sculpture IV (3) I, II, S
This 400-level course is designed as a mixed media course for the non art major, art minor and major alike. Course projects will combine multiple material applications, processes and concepts. A series of medium to large sculptures will be produced in the student's materials of choice. Emphasis will be placed on public exhibitions, installations, public and private commissions. P. ART 353.

ART 454 Sculpture V (3) OD
This course is designed to expand on ART 453. Students focus on their own ideas either in metal or other materials. Course goal is to produce a series of artworks based on a theme or subject of choice. Projects will range from figure busts to 6 ft. figure in the classroom studio. Students may elect to work on a large scale hypothetical commission. We will continue with the study of artistic anatomy of the body in motion translating this knowledge into form, structure and gesture. This course is for the major and non-major alike. P. ART 453.
ART 493  Directed Independent Readings (1-3) I, II
Subject matter and method to be worked out individually. May be repeated to a limit of six hours. P: IC.

ART 495  Directed Independent Projects (1-3) I, II
Directed research and study in Art to meet the individual needs of the student. May be repeated to a limit of six hours. P: IC.

ART 497  Directed Independent Research (1-2) I, II
Research work in student’s area of concentration. Permission granted following consultation with supervising instructor and consent of department chairperson. Credit dependent on project. May be repeated to a limit of six hours. P: DC; Sr. stdg; written IC.

ART 499  Senior Thesis (1-3) I, II
Open to all seniors. Required of B.F.A. candidates. After choosing a thesis advisor, the student registers for one credit in the first semester of the senior year and for two credits in the final semester. P: Sr. stdg.; DC; written IC.

ART HISTORY
For the Art History Program of Study, please refer to page 144.

ARH 210  History of Western Art I (3)
This course presents a survey of major works of sculpture, architecture, and painting made in the Near East and Europe from the prehistoric beginnings of art through the fourteenth century. In studying these monuments, we will place equal emphasis on formal analysis and on contextual history. Students will be asked to identify particular works, to describe their basic elements, to distinguish those elements that characterize different styles, and to begin to explain the formal and historical reasons for these differences.

ARH 211  History of Western Art II (3)
This course presents a survey of major works of sculpture, architecture, and painting made in the Near East and Europe from the fourteenth century to the modern day. In studying these monuments, we will place equal emphasis on formal analysis and on contextual history. Students will be asked to identify particular works, to describe their basic elements, to distinguish those elements that characterize different styles, and to begin to explain the formal and historical reasons for these differences.

ARH 219  History of Western Art and Architecture (3)
A survey of major works of sculpture, architecture, and painting made in the Near East, Europe, and North America from the prehistoric beginnings through the twentieth century. In studying these monuments, equal emphasis will be placed on formal analysis and on contextual history. Students will be asked to identify particular works, to describe their basic elements, to distinguish those elements that characterize different styles, and to begin to explain the formal and historical reasons for these differences.

ARH 301  Topics in the History of Art (3)
Topical focus in the area of art and/or architectural history. Course will be subtitled in the Schedule of Courses, and the class can be repeated as long as the subtitle is different.

ARH 319  Art International: The Art Culture of the Global Community (3) (Same as NAS 319)
A general survey of non-western art. The course will introduce African, Asian, and Native American art forms from ancient to contemporary. The painting, sculpture and architecture of each culture are selected to demonstrate the key values and concerns of those cultures. Two lectures will present Islamic and Oceanic art.

ARH 349  Egyptian Art and Archaeology (3) OD (Same as CNE 349, HIS 349, THL 349)
This course will explore the history, society, culture, and religion of ancient Egypt form the predynastic era through the Ptolemaic period, as revealed through its artistic and material remains. Attention will be given to how sculpture, painting, architecture, and other material remains provide a window on Egyptian life and thought. P: So. stdg.

ARH 350  Archaeology of Israel and Jordan (3) OD (Same as CNE 350, HIS 350, THL 350)
A chronological survey of the archaeology of Syria-Palestine in which material culture provides a window on the history of society, economy, and religion from the Neolithic to Hellenistic times. Special topics include the emergence of farming and pastoral societies, the formation and dissolution of Bronze Age city-states, and the rise and fall of Iron Age kingdoms such as Israel, Moab, and Edom. P: So. stdg.
ARH 354  Greek and Archaeology (campus) (3) II (Same as CNE 354)
Study of the sculpture, painting, architecture, and sites of ancient Greece with emphasis on their archaeological, historical, and geographical aspects.

ARH 357  Ancient Near Eastern Art and Archaeology (3) (Same as CNE 357)
History of painting, sculpture, architecture, and minor arts in the Ancient Near East from c. 3500 B.C. to the conquest of Achaemenid Persia by Alexander the Great in 331 B.C. Regionally, the course will survey the arts in Mesopotamia, in such peripheral areas as Anatolia and the Levant, and in ancient Iran.

ARH 362  Early Christian Art and Archaeology (3) OD (Same as CNE 362)
Study of the development of Early Christian architecture, painting, sculpture and industrial arts; archaeological excavation of early churches and catacombs with emphasis on problems of interpretation; Western and Byzantine iconography.

ARH 365  Greek Art (3) OD (Same as CNE 365)
Sculpture, painting and the minor arts of Greece.

ARH 366  Etruscan and Roman Art (3) OD (Same as CNE 366, ITA 366)
Sculpture, painting, and the minor arts of the Etrusco-Roman people.

ARH 369 (360) Medieval Art and Architecture (3) (Same as CNE 369)
The history of the Middle Ages studied through the material culture from approximately 300-1400 CE. An emphasis is placed on the painting, sculpture, and architecture from several key moments in the Middle Ages including the fall of Rome, the rise of Christianity, the Byzantine Empire, the Spread of Islam, the Vikings, Charlemagne, the Crusades, the Hundred Years War, and the Black Death.

ARH 372  History of Northern Renaissance Art and Architecture (3)
The Northern Renaissance studied through the material culture from 1400-1600 with an emphasis on the history of painting, sculpture, printing, and architecture. Important figures from this period include Jan van Eyck, Hieronymous Bosch, Albrecht Durer, and Pieter Brueghel.

ARH 375  History of Italian Renaissance Art and Architecture (3) (Same as ITA 375)
The Italian Renaissance studied through the material culture from 1200-1550 with an emphasis on the history of painting, sculpture and architecture. Important figures from the period include Giotto, Donatello, Leonardo da Vinci, Michelangelo, Raphael, and Titian.

ARH 377 (363) Seventeenth-Century Art and Architecture (3) (Same as ITA 377)
The Age of the Baroque was one of the most dynamic in Western history. Absolute monarchs such as Urban VIII, Louis XIV, and Peter the Great ruled over growing empires from sumptuous new capital cities. Contact with the New World, Galileo’s invention of the telescope, and Newton’s discovery of the laws of physics challenged conceptions of the universe and humanity’s place in it. A philosophical revolution unfolded led by Hobbes, Descartes, Spinoza, and Leibniz. Literature flourished with the works of Shakespeare and Cervantes, while Purcell and Bach wrote the century’s soundtrack.

ARH 380  History of the Art of the Eighteenth Century (3)
The Enlightenment in Europe and the United States studied through the material culture from 1667-1814 with an emphasis on the history of painting, sculpture, and architecture. Important figures from this period include Christopher Wren, Antoine Watteau, Balthazar Neumann, Giambattista Tiepolo, Thomas Jefferson, and Jacques-Louis David.

ARH 383  History and Aesthetics of Photography (3) I, II
Study of the history of photography: historical, scientific, philosophical foundations; connection with other forms of literary and visual, fine and performing arts; the impact of the photograph on society and media; the ethics of “taking” and “making” a photograph. Survey of the work of acclaimed masters of the medium as well as of the contemporary poets of photographic language.

ARH 384  History of American Architecture (3) (Same as AMS 384)
A survey of the most important works of major American architects from the Colonial period to the present. P: So. stdg.

ARH 385 (368) History of American Art and Architecture (3) (Same as AMS 385)
A history of the major works of sculpture, architecture, and painting made in the United States from the pre-Columbian period to the present day. In studying these monuments, equal emphasis will be placed on formal analysis and on contextual history. Students will be asked to identify particular works, to describe their basic elements, to distinguish those elements that characterize different styles, and to begin to explain the formal and historical reasons for these differences.

COURSE DESCRIPTIONS  303
ARH 386  The History and Aesthetics of Latin American Photography (3) (Same as NAS 386)
Examination of the history and aesthetics of photography as a medium of visual expression in the culture of Latin America. Study of the evolution of contemporary Latin American photography from its 19th century “colonial” roots through periods of 20th century revolution and independence to the contemporary post-modern idiom of Latin American image-making. Emphasis on the study of photographic themes that are specific to the Latin American cultural experience: colonialism, revolution and independence, native and tribal society, religion and cult, economic oppression and poverty, politics and self-determination, geography and natural resources, language and architecture.

ARH 387  Modern Hispanic Art History (3) (Same as AMS 387, NAS 387)
Modern Hispanic Art History will survey the painting, sculpture and architecture of Latin America along with some of its Spanish influences, from 1820 to the present. Native American and African influences on Latin American art will be surveyed. Key figures to be studied are: Rivera, Torres-Garcia, Lam, Matta, Kahlo, Varo, Chambi, Salgado, Barragan, Botero, Bravo, Jimenez, etc.

ARH 390 (367)  Nineteenth Century Art (3)
A history of the major works of sculpture, architecture, and painting made in the Europe from Napoleon to the First World War. In studying these monuments, equal emphasis will be placed on formal analysis and on contextual history. Students will be asked to identify particular works, to describe their basic elements, to distinguish those elements that characterize different styles, and to begin to explain the formal and historical reasons for these differences. Areas covered include Neoclassicism, Romanticism, Realism, Impressionism, and Post-Impressionism.

ARH 394 (369)  Modern European Art, 1900-1945 (3)
Survey of 20th-century painting, sculpture and architecture in Europe. Focus on Fauvism, Cubism, Expressionism, Dadaism and Surrealism.

ARH 401(391)  History and Methods of Art History (3) II
The course will examine the significant historiographic contributions of major figures in Art History, consider contemporary controversies facing modern art historians, and compare various interpretations of art-historical issues. An emphasis will be placed on research methods, bibliography, and the use and criticism of source materials. The course culminates in the completion of a research paper and public presentation that could be the foundation of a scholarly essay and professional lecture. Consent of instructor required. P: Art History major, Jr. or Sr. stdg.; IC

ARH 410  The Lives of Artists in Film (3)
This course considers the image of the artist through an examination of contemporary biographies and modern films, ranging in subject from the Italian Renaissance to the present day. In this examination we will consider such questions as: what were the goals of contemporary biographers? Were these goals the same as modern biographers? How were these goals achieved in the past? How are they achieved in modern movies? Was, for example, Michelangelo the same kind of artist as Frida Kahlo? Our examination will have three parts: first, we will read a selection of an artist's biography; second, we will watch a film adaptation of the artist's life; and third, we will have sustained in-class discussions of the film and biography.

ARH 414  The Jesuits and the Arts (3)
Willing to serve wherever the needs were greatest, the Jesuits in the early-modern period ministered across Europe and around the world, and their mission soon came to include use of the arts. This course examines the collaboration between the arts and Ignatian spirituality that produced an outpouring of work in painting, sculpture, architecture, urbanism, theater, and music created by the Jesuits around the world.

ARH 418  Jesus Through the Ages: Ideas and Images Toward a Coherent Christian Identity and Ethic (3) (Same as SRP 418, THL 418)
Employing methods of the fine and performing arts and theology (historical and systematic), this course will seek the “real” Jesus amidst a plethora of images and ideas used by Christians throughout the ages to depict Jesus Christ. It will critique the historical-cultural dependencies of these images and ideas to discern which of them, if any, remain normative for Christianity, which are time-bound, which still speak powerfully, which do not-and why.
In the process this course will not only inform students about the single most significant figure in human history but engage them in a personal search for an authentic Christian identity and ethic. P: Sr. stdg. and PHL 250 or THL 250.

ARH 430 Selected Topics in Ancient Art and Archaeology (3) OD (Same as CNE 430)
Topical or regional focus in the area of ancient art and/or archaeology. Course will be subtitled in the Schedule of Courses. Course is repeatable as long as subtitle is different.

ARH 435 Women, Art and Society (3) (Same as WGS 435)
This course is an exploration of women both as the subjects and the creators of art from antiquity to the present. In this class we will examine the creation, modification and persistence of images of women throughout history, while at the same time we will survey the history of women artists and their artistic contributions. In studying these works of art, we will place equal emphasis on formal analysis and on contextual history.

ARH 445 (364) History of Architecture and Urbanism (3) AY
This course presents a history of the major buildings and cities from around the world from the Neolithic period to the present day. In studying these monuments, equal emphasis will be placed on formal analysis and on contextual history. Emphasis will be placed on types of architecture, major architects, use and function of buildings, urban development, urban design theory, and the impact of architecture and urbanism on society.

ARH 450 The City (3)
An exploration of urban history, theory, design, and sociology through the study of a single city, such as Athens, Paris, London, Moscow, New York, Mexico City, or Tokyo. Alternately, the course could cover multiple cities across time and cultures, demonstrating the evolution of urbanism and urban theory. Course will be subtitled in the Schedule of Courses, and the class can be repeated as long as the subtitle is different.

ARH 461 The City of Rome in Antiquity (3) OD (Same as CNE 461, ITA 461)
An Architectural, Artistic, and Social Historical Survey of the city of Rome, concentrating on the ancient city but also tracing its development (as appropriate) through modern times. Political History will be covered to the extent needed to provide a framework for the course, but does not overlap with CNE/HIS 404.

ARH 465 The City of Rome since Antiquity (3) (Same as CNE 465, ITA 465)
An architectural, urban, and social historical survey of the city of Rome from the end of the Empire, through the Middle Ages and Renaissance, and ending with the modern city. The class will focus on urban history, theory and design, but will cover political history to the extent needed to provide a framework for the course.

ARH 467 History of The Art of Spain and Her Colonies (3) (Same as AMS 467)
A comprehensive survey of the major monuments of Spanish art from cave painting to the present, with emphasis on major artists (i.e., Montanes, El Greco, Zurbaran, Velasquez, Goya, Picasso, Rivera, and etc.).

ARH 468 Native American Art (3) OD (Same as AMS 468, NAS 468)
Survey of native American art from the 16th Century to the present with a concentration on the art of the continental United States. Includes Northwest, Southwest, and Plains cultures.

ARH 475 Michelangelo and the High Renaissance (3)
This course presents a survey of the career of Michelangelo, and study his art through an examination of earlier and contemporary artistic traditions, the literature of Dante, and developments in Italian humanism, Michelangelo's religious faith, and the general context of the High Renaissance. We will read primary documents, including Michelangelo's own poetry and personal letters, as well as biographical treatments published during his lifetime.

ARH 480 Management of Arts Organizations (3)
An overview of management concepts and theories as applied to arts organizations. Development of an understanding of the balance between the individual and the organization, the artist and the organization, and the community and the organization. P: IC.

ARH 481 Arts Management Internship (3)
Placement in area arts organizations on a part-time basis for one semester, witnessing first-hand the nature and business of these organizations. Placement in Omaha area arts organizations such as, the Creighton Art Gallery or Theatre Box Office, Omaha Symphony, Nebraska Shakespeare Festival, or Joslyn Museum. P: IC.

COURSE DESCRIPTIONS 305
ARH 489(397)
Summer Art History Seminar (1-3) S
Summer seminar concentrating on the history and issues of a specific area of art history not normally offered during the regular academic year. The area of concentration varies and is announced in the Summer Bulletin each year. May be repeated for credit to a limit of nine hours. P: ARH 219 or IC.

ARH 493
Directed Independent Readings (1-3) I, II
Subject matter and method to be worked out individually. May be repeated to a limit of six hours. P: 12 hours upper-division Art History/Theory courses; IC.

ARH 497
Directed Independent Research (1-2) I, II
Research work in student’s area of concentration. Permission granted following consultation with supervising instructor and consent of department chairperson. Credit dependent on project. May be repeated to a limit of six hours. P: DC; Sr. stdg; written IC.

ARH 499
Senior Thesis (1-3) I, II
Open only to seniors. After choosing a thesis advisor, the student registers for one credit in the first semester of the senior year and two credits in the next. P: Sr. stdg.; IC.

ASIAN STUDIES
For the Asian Studies Minor, please refer to page 105.

ASN 300
Introduction to Asian Studies (3)
Asian Studies is an interdisciplinary program designed to introduce students to the traditions, cultures and politics of Asia by examining the area stretching from Korea in the east to Pakistan in the west, and from the steppes north of China’s Great Wall to the southern tip of the Indian subcontinent.

ATMOSPHERIC SCIENCES
For the Atmospheric Sciences Program of Study, please refer to page 106.

ATS 113
Introduction to Atmospheric Sciences (3) I, II, S (Same as EVS 113)
Introduction to causes of the weather for science and nonscience majors. Topics covered include cloud identification; factors influencing the development of storm systems; effects of jet streams on storm development; the formation of thunderstorms, tornadoes, and hurricanes; climatic change, and human influence on climate and weather systems.

Introduction to Atmospheric Sciences Laboratory (1) I, II, S (Same as EVS 114)
Laboratory designed to familiarize students with analysis techniques in meteorology. Topics include weather observations; weather symbols and coding; map plotting and analysis; and basic forecasting techniques. Students will become familiar with the PCMcIDAS system. Accessing climate and forecast data from the internet is emphasized in select laboratory models. CO: EVS 113.

Surviving on Earth: Geologic Hazards and Society (3) OD
An introduction to the geologic processes causing floods, earthquakes, volcanoes, landslides and other natural hazards. The course includes discussion of major events in the geologic and historical record as well as future hazard potential. We will assess the risks humans face in different regions, including local hazards, our contribution to geologic hazards, and how we can minimize and cope with future events. This course is appropriate for both potential environmental sciences majors as well as students in all fields who would like to learn more about the Earth and its effects on our daily lives.

Weather Analysis and Forecasting (3) I
Designed for students majoring or minoring in ATS and non-majors interested in meteorology. ATS 211 investigates the basics of atmospheric circulation systems both descriptively and quantitatively. Emphasis will be placed on the display, interpretation and analysis of weather data. Students will also participate in weather forecasts using current data. P: ATS 113 and ATS 114.

ATS 231
Severe and Unusual Weather (3) OD
Discussion of the development and occurrence of severe and unusual atmospheric phenomena. Topics include severe thunderstorms, tornadoes, hurricanes, blizzards, droughts, and heat waves.
ATS 315  Computer Applications in Meteorology (3) II, AY, 2005
Computer methods used in both the operational and research environments in Atmospheric Sciences. Emphasis on the interaction between numerical and graphical techniques. Topics include floating point operations, computer display of meteorological information, software packages, and an introduction to parallel processing. P: ATS 113 or IC.

ATS 443  Environmental Geology (4) I, AY, 2008 (Same as EVS 443)
An introduction to physical geology designed for environmental science majors. Topics include an examination of rock types, evolution and geological times, soil development and processes, earthquakes and global tectonics. In-class laboratories will be devoted to identification of rock types, soil analysis, and determination of fossil types. P: So. stdg. or IC.

ATS 460  Terrestrial Remote Sensing (4) OD (Same as EVS 460)
This course is an introduction to the techniques of observing the Earth from air- and space-borne instruments. We will cover basic issues of geometry and scale associated with making these measurements, electromagnetic properties of Earth surface metals, the range of instruments used to observe the Earth, and applications of satellite remote sensing to geological and environmental questions. The course will involve an independent research project utilizing remote sensing data and software.

ATS 480  Military Weather Service Internship (1-6) I, II, S
Placement in a military weather service office on a part-time basis for one semester (or a comparable period during the year). Students are required to work at least 60 hours at the military weather service office. Students must apply for the internship program at least two months prior to their proposed starting date. Duties vary according to the office but may include work with forecasting, radar analysis, DHA operations, and providing information to military users. May be repeated to a limit of six semester hours, but only three hours are applicable to the major. P: DC.

ATS 481  National Weather Service Internship (1-6) I, II, S
Placement in a National Weather Service Office. Students are required to work at least 20 hours per semester hour of credit at the National Weather Service Office. Participation is limited to a maximum of two students per semester. Departmental and Government application forms (available from the ATS Departmental Office) are required; both sets of forms will be filed with the Department Chair at least two months prior to the proposed starting date of the Internship. Duties vary according to the office but may include work with forecasting, radar analysis, AWIPS operations, NOAA radio and providing information to the public. At the end of his/her study, the student will prepare a written report which highlights the activities and training received during the Internship. Government regulations stipulate that the internship be completed within 60 days of initiation of activities at the Weather Station. May be repeated to a limit of six semester hours, but only three hours are applicable to the major. P: ATS 113, 562, Chair approval of application package.

ATS 482  Atmospheric Sciences Internship with Industry (1-6) I, II, S
Placement with a local industry on a part-time basis for one semester (or a comparable period during the year). Students are to work at least 60 hours at the worksite identified by the particular company. This may be in conjunction with local city, state, or federal government contracts at the contract worksite associated with the atmospheric sciences data collection, processing, and display tasks of the date. Tasks to which the students may be assigned include such diverse activities as document development/review, testing new software on forecasting work stations, data analysis and assimilation studies, or participation at contract formal review meetings with the contracting client. May be repeated to a limit of six semester hours, but only three hours are applicable to the major. P: DC.

ATS 483  Topics in Mesoscale Meteorology (1) OD
Students will apply mesoscale analysis techniques that emphasize severe storm prediction, spotting and interception. Additional fees may be charged to cover expenses. This course is repeatable to a max of three credits. P: ATS 542 and ATS 545.

ATS 493  Directed Independent Readings (1-3) I, II, S
Credit by arrangement. May be repeated to a limit of six hours. P: DC.

ATS 495  Directed Independent Study (1-3) I, II, S
Credit by arrangement. May be repeated to a limit of six hours. P: DC.
ATS 497 Directed Independent Research (1-3) I, II, S
A research project under the personal direction of a member of the ATS faculty. At the end of the work a written report describing the project and its outcome will be prepared; the paper will form the basis for a seminar to be presented to the department. In this manner the student will be formally introduced to scientific research methods, and provided the opportunity to refine oral and written communication skills. P: Sr. stdg. or DC.

ATS 510 Introduction to Physical Meteorology (3) I
The purpose of this course is to introduce the student to the physics of atmospheric processes. Topics include the structure and composition of the atmosphere; thermodynamics of gases; vertical and horizontal transport of heat by radiative and turbulent processes; the structure and evolution of the atmospheric boundary layer; and cloud microphysical processes. This course is designed to meet the National Weather Service requirement for 3 semester hours of Physical Meteorology. P: ATS 113 and MTH 245.

ATS 516 Computer Methods in Atmospheric Sciences (3) II, AY, 2009
Intermediate computer techniques currently used in atmospheric science. Emphasis on graphic methods, fundamental techniques of numerical prediction, parallel processing, and artificial intelligence. Applications of these methods to short-term forecasting. P: ATS 315.

ATS 531 Operational Prediction Models (3) II, AY
Examination of the use of forecast models from the National Meteorological Center (ETA, GFS, WRF, NGM). Additional models from other sources will also be examined (UKMET, ECMWF, USAF, and USN). Study of model domain, resolution and formation with respect to physical processes. Model performance is described and scrutinized (with respect to systematic errors and to particular synoptic situations). Comparative diagnostics of forecast and observed fields employed to examine model behavior. P: ATS 562 or IC.

ATS 532 Objective Meteorological Analysis (3) OD
Application of techniques and principles for temporal and spatial computer analysis of atmospheric data based on dynamical concepts, with a focus on the structure, movement, and development of weather systems. Topics include data time series, statistical inference techniques, Fourier analysis, and map projections and grid systems used in meteorology. P: ATS 571 and computer programming.

ATS 533 Physical Climatology and Climate Change (3) II (Same as EVS 533)
This course stressed the theories and models of natural climate change and of that induced by human beings. The ethical issues of inadvertent and planned change of climate by humans will be raised. Major topics include effects of CO₂ warming (greenhouse effect), ozone depletion; human-induced desertification; acid rain; urban microclimates. Methods of monitoring these systems will be stressed relative to an increased world-wide need to limit or prevent human-induced climate changes.

ATS 542 Radar Remote Sensing (3) I
The theoretical and practical aspects of weather radar. Various examples of Nexrad Radar products are presented for winter storms, elevated convection and mesoscale systems. Stress placed on the capabilities and limitations for severe storm investigation. P: MTH 245, PHY 212 and ATS 113; or IC.

ATS 544 Hydrology (3) II, OD (Same as EVS 544)
Study of the waters of the earth, especially with relation to the effects of precipitation and evaporation upon the occurrence and character of water in streams, lakes, and on or below the land surface. In terms of hydrologic cycle, the scope of this course may be defined as that portion of the cycle from precipitation to reevaporation or return of the water to the seas. P: ATS 113 or 231.

ATS 545 Mesoscale Analysis (3) II
Examination of the theory of convection as related to models of squall lines and thunderstorms and the application of this theory to the forecasting and analysis of sub-synoptic scale systems. Comparative aspects of numerical model forecasts of severe weather are investigated. P: ATS 562 and 571.

ATS 552 Boundary Layer Meteorology (3) OD (Same as EVS 552)
ATS 553  Tropical Meteorology (3) I, AY 2008 (Same as EVS 553)
The tropical meteorology of West Africa is emphasized in this course. Weather systems and processes in the tropics are examined relative to the dynamics of the West African monsoon. Additional topics include monsoon meteorology of Africa, Asia and the Southwestern United States. A number of tropical oscillations are examined: MJO, QBO and ENSO. The climatology of North Atlantic tropical cyclones and their relationship to the West African monsoon are examined. P: ATS 113.

ATS 555  Meteorological Remote Sensing (3) II (Same as EVS 555)
First section of the course is devoted to meteorological interpretations of cloud fields as observed from weather satellites. Second section of the course devoted to examination of general and specific applications of remote sensing of the environment. Includes imagery from satellite, ground based, and airborne systems; data analysis and decision methods multispectral analysis and evaluation of water, terrain, mineral, forest, and soil resources. P: ATS 113 or IC.

ATS 556  Introduction to Physical Oceanography (3) I, AY, 2008 (Same as EVS 556)
Geomorphology of the ocean bottom; properties of sea water; salinity and temperature distributions; major ocean currents and circulations; equations of motion, horizontal wind-driven currents; thermohaline circulations; wind waves and swell.

ATS 561  Synoptic Meteorology I (3) I
Examination of weather code, plotting and map analysis. Includes a review of cyclone and frontal theory using case studies to develop diagnostic and forecasting techniques. Practical applications of air mass and frontal analysis are related to weather forecasting. P: ATS 113.

ATS 562  Synoptic Meteorology II (4) II
Detailed examination and use of fax charts, GEMPAK displays, and other tools employed in analysis and forecasting. Review of methods in short-term, medium and long-range forecasting. P: ATS 561 or IC.

ATS 564  Statistical Applications in the Atmospheric Sciences (3) OD
Study of the statistical distributions of scalars and vectors, sampling theory, regression, correlation, and time series. Applications to statistical forecasting and forecast verification. P: MTH 245.

ATS 565  Atmospheric Circulation Systems (3) OD
Examination of the general circulation of the atmosphere. Emphasis on seasonal variation in both hemispheres. Exploration of formation of anomalous circulation types with respect to anomalous boundary layer conditions. Detailed discussion of tropical-mid latitude interactions. P: ATS 562 or IC.

ATS 566  Climate Theory (3) OD (Same as EVS 566)
Theories of global climate and variability. Examination of climate models, including internal and external parameters and feedback mechanisms P: ATS 113, 561.

ATS 570  Quantitative Methods in the Atmospheric Sciences (3) II
Overview of mathematical and statistical methods employed by atmospheric scientists, including a review of key calculus concepts. Topics include coordinate systems, vector operators, finite difference approximations, vector calculus, regression, filtering, hypothesis testing and key theorems. P: MTH 246.

ATS 571  Dynamic Meteorology I (3) I
Equations of motion and thermodynamics will be vigorously derived and applied to the atmosphere. Topics include thermodynamics of dry and moist air, hydrostatic and hypsometric approximations, geostrophic and gradient wind balance, mass continuity, and vorticity. P: PHY 212 and MTH 246 and ATS 113; or IC.

ATS 572  Dynamic Meteorology II (3) II
Concepts presented in ATS 571 will be further developed and applied to the following topics: barotropic and baroclinic instability, atmospheric oscillations, quasi-geostrophic theory, and simple numerical modeling. P: ATS 571.

ATS 573  Cloud Physics and Dynamics (3) II (Same as EVS 573)
Thermodynamic processes which control the development and growth of clouds. Relationship between atmospheric properties and cloud structure. Distribution of condensation nuclei, water droplet spectra. Initiation and growth of cloud hydrometers. Structure of severe storms, radiative effects of clouds. P: ATS 571.

Graduate-level courses in Atmospheric Sciences are listed in the Graduate issue of the Bulletin.
Courses and Descriptions

BIOLOGY

For the Biology Program of Study, please refer to page 108.

BIO 141 Charles Darwin: Life and Impact (3) I, AY
The life and work of Darwin with emphasis on the importance of his ideas in modern biological science, the development of his evolutionary theories, and the reciprocal influence of Victorian society and his work. Study of Darwin's writings is used to exemplify the nature of scientific investigation and the role of the scientist in society. No formal biological background is required. 3R.

BIO 149 Human Biology (3) II
Survey course designed for nonmajors who have only a high school background in the sciences. Covers the major areas of human structure, function, nutrition and genetics. Examination of both the normal condition and examples of disorders in this condition. Discussion of related topics of current interest. 3R.

BIO 150 Biotechnology and Society (3) II, AY
Introduction to the basic principles and applications of recombinant DNA technology. Students can expect to learn about the implications of this technology on agriculture, medicine, and approaches to solving crimes and environmental problems. We will also explore the ethics, legal issues, and societal impacts of the implementation of this technology. 3R.

BIO 211 General Biology: Molecular and Cellular (4) I, S
Introduces the conceptual bases of biology and presents the molecular and cellular aspects of metabolism, genetics, and other selected systems. Course includes lecture and laboratory. Note: The prerequisite for BIO 211 is a one-year high-school chemistry course of sufficient depth and rigor to enable the student to participate in the study of the molecular aspects of biology. 3R, 3L.

BIO 212 General Biology: Organismal and Population (4) II, S
Organismal and population biology with emphasis on organismal diversity, structural and functional strategies of organisms, ecological and behavioral relationships, and evolutionary mechanisms. The diversity of adaptive specialization based on the fundamental unity of life is the theme of the course. Course includes lecture and laboratory. 3R. 3L.

BIO 317 Genetics (3) I, II, S
Science of heredity and variation. Basic principles of Mendelian genetics, cytogenetics, molecular genetics, human genetics and evolution are examined. 3R. P: BIO 211 and 212. P or CO: CHM 205 or CHM 285.

BIO 318 Genetics Laboratory (1) II
Laboratory projects designed to illustrate basic genetic principles will be conducted with the aid of bacteria, fungi, and Drosophila as experimental organisms. 3L. P or CO: BIO 317.

BIO 333 Vertebrate Comparative Anatomy (4) I, S
Lecture and laboratory study of the comparative morphology of representative members of the phylum Chordata. Lectures incorporate the developmental and evolutionary bases of anatomy. Useful background for pre-health majors and those enrolling in BIO 449 or BIO 461. This course by content and by instruction is designed to provide a useful foundation for students that go on to take BIO 449, Animal Physiology and/or BIO 467, Developmental Biology. For students who want a thorough background in vertebrate biology, it also serves as the compliment to BIO 483, Vertebrate Natural History. 3R, 3L. P: BIO 211 and 212.

BIO 335 Zoology (4) II (Same as EVS 335)
Biological concepts and principles exemplified by both invertebrates and vertebrates with emphasis on animal diversity, morphology, evolution, and ecological relationships. 3R, 3L. P: BIO 211 and 212.

BIO 341 Botany (4) II (Same as EVS 341)
Modern biological concepts and principles exemplified by the plant kingdom with emphasis on plant diversity, taxonomy, and evolution. 3R, 3L. P: BIO 211 and 212.
BIO 351  Microbiology (4) I (Same as EVS 351)
Microbiology is the study of organisms too small to be seen with the naked eye. Despite their small size, these organisms are ubiquitous and play important roles in human health, industry, and the functioning of ecosystems. This course is designed to cover a wide range of material in lecture and through laboratory exercises, introducing students to the breadth of microbial diversity and physiology, as well as the basic techniques used in microbiology. 3R, 3L. P: BIO 211 and 212.

BIO 362  Cell Structure and Function (3) I, II, S Emphasizes the fundamental importance and experimental underpinnings of knowledge in cell biology. The course consists of four segments; 1) common techniques in cell biology research, 2) basic principles of cell structure and function including membranes, vesicular transport, protein sorting, and the cytoskeleton, 3) how cells multiply, assemble into tissues, and interact with their environment, and 4) cell motility, the immune response, and cancer. 3R. P: BIO 211.

BIO 385  The Ecology, Geography and Health of Lakes (4) S, AY (Same as EVS 385)
A summer field course that examines lakes in the North Central and Rocky Mountains regions of the United States. This course is a combination of lectures and field and laboratory studies of the physical, chemical and biological properties of lakes in a landscape context. The effects of human impacts on lake ecology and ecosystem health are emphasized. The course includes field work at lakes and regional field stations in northern Iowa (Iowa Lakeside Laboratory on West Okoboji Lake), the Boundary Waters and Lake Superior in Minnesota, the hyperalkaline Western Nebraska Sandhills, and alpine lakes in the Colorado Rockies (University of Colorado's Mountain Research Station at Niwot Ridge). P: BIO 211 and 212 and 1C.

BIO 390  Environmental Science (3) II (Same as EVS 390)
Course presents a balanced, scientific approach to the study of the environment and stresses the application of ecological concepts within a systems perspective. Topics include ecological concepts, population principles, endangered species and habitats, resources, air and water pollution, environmental health, and global perspectives. 3R. P: BIO 211 and 212 or CHM 205/206 (or CHM 285/286).

BIO 401  Biostatistics (4) II, S (Same as EVS 401)
Introduction to measurement theory as applied to biological studies. Data acquisition, analysis, and display procedures. Introductory statistical methods emphasizing sampling procedures, frequency distributions, measure of central tendency, analysis of regression lines, log dose-response curves (graded and quantal), bioassay. Lectures supplemented by problem-solving sessions. (Qualifies as laboratory course). 3R, 3L. P: BIO 211 and 212.

BIO 419  Molecular Biology Laboratory (2) II
Laboratory activities using contemporary methods of genomic inquiry. Emphasis on fundamental aspects of gene structure and function. 3L. P: BIO 317 or 532.

BIO 425  Development of Biological Thought (3) S
This travel course will examine the development of the intellectual tools used in the natural sciences, particularly Biology, while visiting many of the institutions and locations in which the advances were made. The course will be held in London, UK, and will include both lectures and field trips. P: BIO 211 and 212.

BIO 432  Immunology (3) I
This lecture course is designed to present the basic principles and concepts of immunology. Topics such as organization of the immune system, evolution of the immune system, and cellular and molecular mechanisms used by the immune system to protect organisms from disease are discussed in detail. Additionally, course material examines the practical application of immunological experimental advances in basic and medical science. 3R. P: BIO 211 and 212 and one of the following: BIO 317 or BIO 362.
BIO 435 Coastal and Estuarine Ecology (4) S, AY (Same as EVS 435)
Coastal and Estuarine Ecology is a 3 ½ week, intensive travel course. Participants experience, first-hand, the great diversity of marine ecosystems of the Gulf of Mexico, Tropical Atlantic, and Southeastern Atlantic regions. The class will examine tropical coral reef, sea grass, and mangrove communities, barrier islands (salt marshes, beaches, mudflats), and diverse open water habitats (lagoons, bays, tidal creeks and rivers, and near-shore shelf waters). The course emphasizes physical, chemical, and biological concepts applied to coastal habitats, with an emphasis on adaptations of marine organisms to their environments, ecological relationships, sampling methods and site characterizations, and threats to coastal ecosystems. The class stays at nationally recognized oceanographic and coastal field stations in Florida, Georgia, and Mississippi. The Creighton 18’ Sundance Skiff and field station boats serve as work platforms and provide access to various habitats. P: One organismal-level or field course in biology or IC.

BIO 449 Animal Physiology (3) I, II
A study of the functions of animals from the cellular to the organ-systems level with emphasis on vertebrate systems physiology. 3R. P: BIO 211 and 212; Jr. stdg.

BIO 450 Animal Physiology Laboratory (1) I Laboratory exercises designed to illustrate several physiological processes in animals, including cellular and whole animal metabolism, heart and muscle function, osmoregulation and responses to thyroxine and cold acclimation. 3L. P or CO: BIO 449.

BIO 467 Developmental Biology (4) II
Animal development with emphasis on the higher vertebrates. Gametogenesis, cleavage patterns and basic body plans, organ system formation, embryo-maternal relationships. Control of growth, differentiation, and morphogenesis. 3R, 3L. P: BIO 211 and 212.

BIO 481 Terrestrial Ecology (4) I (Same as EVS 481)
Introduction to the interactions of organisms and the environment, especially the biology of populations, communities, and ecosystems. Individual adaptations, the nature of the environment, population dynamics, and community organization are stressed. Laboratory exercises include field trips to terrestrial habitats. 3R, 3L. P: BIO 211 and 212.

BIO 483 Vertebrate Natural History Lecture (3) II (Same as EVS 483)
Lecture series designed to provide students with a modern overview of vertebrate diversity. Lectures encompass ancestry, major adaptive shifts between classes of vertebrates, geographic distribution based on physiological limits, specialized feeding and locomotor modes, courtship patterns, reproductive strategies, and conservation issues. Recommended as useful prior to enrollment in BIO 440 (Field Biology of the Desert Southwest) and for students seeking a general understanding of vertebrate life, or those who are interested in teaching biological sciences. 3R. P: BIO 211 and 212.

BIO 484 Vertebrate Natural History Laboratory (1) II, S (OD) (Same as EVS 484)
Laboratory exercises that will provide experience in the following areas: dissection of representatives of each major vertebrate class with emphasis on the diagnostic differences between groups; identification and preservation of vertebrate specimens. Field trips are available on a limited basis. 3L. P or CO: BIO 483.

BIO 485 Marine and Freshwater Ecology (3) I (Same as EVS 485)
An introduction to the community structure, biological production, and physical and chemical properties of aquatic ecosystems. The major features of water columns, benthic substrates, and lotic zones will be reviewed and compared. 3R. P: BIO 211 and 212.

BIO 486 Freshwater Ecology Laboratory (1) I (Same as EVS 486)
Introduction to methods for analyzing lake, stream, and wetland habitats. Exercises will examine physical and chemical properties, biological production and food chains, and water quality of freshwater ecosystems. 3L. P: BIO 211 and 212; P or CO: BIO 485 or IC.

BIO 487 Marine Ecology Laboratory (2) II (Same as EVS 487)
Direct observation of marine coastal habitats (reefs, sea grass beds, mangrove forests, rocky intertidal zones, and offshore waters) at Roatan Island, Honduras. Exercises in the field and campus laboratory sessions will examine physical and chemical properties; marine organisms, and community structure and productivity of marine ecosystems. 3L. P: BIO 211 and 212; BIO 485 or IC.
BIO 490 Seminar in Undergraduate Biology Instruction (1)
Required of all undergraduate Teaching Assistants in those semesters in which they are teaching. Course provides instruction in both course content and its effective communication. Emphasis on laboratory and field skills, preparation of examinations, classroom supervision, and student evaluation. 1R. Course may be repeated up to a maximum of four times. P: IC.

BIO 493 Directed Independent Readings (1-3) I, II, S
Assigned readings in the student’s area of interest. Course is only an addition to and not a substitution for any portion of the major requirement. No more than 12 semester hours of credit may be accrued in any combination of BIO 493, 495, and 497. P: IC.

BIO 495 Directed Independent Study (1-3) I, II, S
A program of independent study with emphasis on activities other than laboratory or field research. (Examples include library research or special course attendance). Course is only an addition to and not a substitution for any portion of the major requirement. No more than 12 semester hours of credit may be accrued in any combination of BIO 493, 495, and 497. P: IC.

BIO 497 Directed Independent Research (1-3) I, II, S
A program of independent study with emphasis on laboratory or field research. Course is only an addition to and not a substitution for any portion of the major requirement. No more than 12 semester hours of credit may be accrued in any combination of BIO 493, 495, & 497. P: IC.

BIO 501 Bioinformatics: Genomics Approach (4)
Introduction to the field of bioinformatics and genome science. Lectures will discuss the pivotal role of bioinformatics in metabolizing the massive amounts of biological information generated from genome projects. Students will also have hands-on experiences of data mining, processing, and analysis, using computer software publicly available or hand-coded by students. P: BIO 317 or IC.

BIO 517 Current Topics in Genetics (3) I, II
A lecture/discussion course which examines contemporary issues in genetics. Topics include, but are not limited to molecular and genetic aspects of autoimmune disease, aging, behavior, cancer, development, evolution, genomics, and proteomics. In addition, methods which accompany such studies, such as bioinformatics and in silico biology, will also be examined. Both faculty and students are involved in presenting information. 3R. P: BIO 317.

BIO 520 Cytogenetics (4) I, AY
Cytogenetics is the science of the structure and behavior of chromosomes. We will examine chromosome transmission, rearrangements and structure, and the effects of these phenomena on speciation in plants and animals. 3R, 3L. P: BIO 317.

BIO 523 Environmental Toxicology (3) II, AY (Same as EVS 523)
Principles of environmental tolerance, bioenergetics and nutrition, homeostasis, and toxicology and disease will be developed and related to the organismal, population and community levels and to comparative responses to environmental disturbance. The course uses a reading/discussion format. 3R. P: BIO 211 and 212.

BIO 532 Current Topics in Cellular and Molecular Biology (3) II
Interactions between nucleic acids and proteins responsible for cell growth, division, and development. Assumes basic knowledge of biomolecules and gene expression. Topics include DNA and chromatin structure and modification, DNA cloning and sequencing, DNA replication and repair, DNA recombination and transposition, regulation of gene expression (transcription, RNA processing, translation, and protein modification), functions of non-coding RNAs, genomics, and analytical techniques of molecular/cellular biology. Original scientific literature study including student-facilitated discussions and a term paper. 3R. P: Any two of these courses: BIO 317, BIO 351, BIO 362, BMS 521, CHM 371, CHM 381 or IC.

BIO 539 Ecology of Zoonotic Diseases (3) I (Same as EVS 539)
Over the past few decades there has been a resurgence of zoonotic diseases such as SARS and Avian Influenza. Why do zoonotic diseases emerge, and what factors lead to epidemics? This course will address these questions, and apply an ecological approach to an understanding of epidemiology in wildlife populations. 3R. P: BIO 211 and 212 and one of the following: BIO 351, BIO 390, BIO 432, BIO 481.
BIO 549  Environmental Physiology (3) I, AY (Same as EVS 549)
Impact of environmental changes and environmental extremes on animals and their physiological mechanisms. Examines primarily vertebrates and their responses to variations in temperature, pressure, and salinity. Basic physiological principles associated with each adaptive response covered in lecture and reading assignments. 3R. P: BIO 333 or 335 or BIO 483 or BIO 449.

BIO 551  Current Topics in Microbiology (3) II
A lecture/discussion course focused on current issues in the field of microbiology. Topics may include but are not limited to the molecular and genetic aspects of host-microbe interactions, microbial ecology, microbial biotechnology, or bio-defense. We will focus on model microbial systems to illustrate the basic strategies bacteria use to accomplish specific requirements, and through paper discussions students will also be exposed to the latest research trends and some of the current techniques used in genetics and molecular biology. 3R. P: BIO 351, and one of the following: BIO 317, BIO 362, BIO 432, BIO 532, or IC.

BIO 559  Special Topics in Physiology (3) I
This course provides an in-depth examination of one or more physiological topics through a combination of lecture, discussion and student presentations. Reference materials will include textbooks, book chapters, review articles and the primary literature. Topics may include but are not limited to aspects of environmental, comparative and evolutionary physiology, as well as mammalian and human physiology. In most semesters the focus will be on current research, but historical aspects of some subjects may also be addressed. 3R P: BIO 449.

BIO 561  Entomology (4) I, AY (Same as EVS 561)
Introduction to insect biology with emphasis on the major insect groups. Anatomy, physiology, and behavior of insects and their ecological, agricultural, and medical importance. 3R, 3L. P: BIO 211 and 212.

BIO 562  Neurobiology (3) I
Introduction to the fundamental concepts of comparative neurobiology and the neural basis of behavior. Topics covered include the cell biology of the neuron, neural systems, sensory systems, motor systems, sensory-motor integration and higher brain functions, the interactions between hormones, brain and behavior, and human neurobiology. Lectures emphasize the comparative approach of studying the structure and function of nervous systems by using both invertebrate and vertebrate model systems to illustrate how the brain controls behavior. 3R. P: BIO 211 and BIO 212 and either BIO 333 or BIO 449.

BIO 563  Neurobiology Laboratory (2) I
Introduction to neurobiological and behavioral research methods using experimental techniques to understand functional aspects of neurophysiology and the neural basis of behavior. 3L. P or CO: BIO 562.

BIO 567  Current Topics in Neuroscience (3) II
This course will provide an introduction to processes regulating the development of the mammalian central nervous system. Attention will be given to how classic research findings in the field of developmental neuroscience have formed the modern understanding of the formation, functioning, and repair of the central nervous system. 3R. P: BIO 211 and 212 and one of the following: BIO 449, BIO 362, BIO 467.

BIO 571  Animal Behavior (3) I, S (Same as EVS 571)
Evolutionary aspects of animal behavior, including physiological bases of behavior, social behavior, behavioral ecology and genetics of behavior. 3R. P: BIO 211 and 212.

BIO 572  Animal Behavior Laboratory (2) II (Same as EVS 572)
Introduction to animal behavior research methods using structured observations and experiments in laboratory and field settings, 3L. P: BIO 571.

BIO 580  Current Topics in Ecology (3) II (Same as EVS 580)
The focus of this course will be advanced topics in ecology, with an emphasis on the concepts and current approaches in ecosystem ecology. Primary literature will serve as a key resource for students. The structure and function of several model ecosystems will be explored in detail, with particular attention to the concepts of biodiversity, productivity, decomposition and nutrient cycling. In addition, the degree of human alteration of ecosystem structure and function as well as consequences for global ecological processes will be presented. 3R P: BIO 390 or 481 or 485.
BIO 581  Evolution (4) I (Same as EVS 581)
Lectures and discussion designed to provide junior and senior students with a broad understanding of the science of evolutionary biology. Organized in three parts, each takes a chronological approach: (A) evolutionary theory, (B) mechanisms of evolution, (C) the implications and consequences of theory and mechanism. As part of both the lecture and laboratory experience in (C, above) topics in evolutionary medicine will be covered.
Laboratory sessions include computer modeling exercises to illustrate the mechanisms of evolutionary changes, an excellent film series, discussion opportunities designed to explore in more depth questions and topics associated with speciation, biodiversity and human evolution as well as a review session prior to each exam. 3R, 3L. P: One upper-division
BIO course or Jr. stdg.

BIOMEDICAL SCIENCES
Courses offered by the Department of Biomedical Sciences of the School of Medicine.

BMS 111  Basic Human Anatomy (4) I
Designed to provide nursing students with a basic knowledge of human anatomy. Lecture topics range from anatomical terminology to comprehensive overviews of the individual organ systems, including aspects of gross anatomy, histology, and neuroanatomy. 4R. P: Registration in Nursing Program or IC.

BMS 301  Biochemistry (4) I
An introductory course designed for students in the School of Pharmacy and Health Professions. Undergraduate majors from other disciplines are welcome. Topics concerning structure, function and metabolism of important biomolecules, biologically active peptides, detoxification and molecular biology will be surveyed. P: CHM 323 and 324 or equiv.

BMS 303  Physiology (4) II
Provides Nursing and other Health Profession students with a basic knowledge of human physiology. Presents an overview of the function of the major organ systems using lectures and demonstrations. 4R. P: NUR major or IC.

BMS 311  Basic Human Anatomy (4) I
Course designed to provide pre-professional students with an introduction to human gross anatomy, histology, and neuroanatomy. A systemic approach is used. Dissected cadaver specimens and anatomical models are available as learning aids. P: IC.

BMS 521  Principles of Biochemistry (4) II Fundamental principles of structural biochemistry, enzymology, metabolism and molecular biology. P: CHM 323 and 324 or equiv.; Sr. or Gr. stdg.; Jr. stdg. only with IC.

BLACK STUDIES
For the Black Studies Program of Study, please refer to page 110.

BKS 106  The African World (3) I, II (Same as AFS 106, HIS 106)
A survey of developments in Africa from the 15th century to the present emphasizing the decline and reemergence of African independence, the creation of the African diaspora, and

BKS 309  The Urban Social System (3) I (Same as SOC 309)
Examination of the process of urbanization as it affects the lives and institutions of local populations and incorporates them into much larger national and international systems. P:
So. stdg.

BKS 341  American Cultural Minorities (3) I (Same as AMS 341, ANT 341, SOC 341)
Determinants and consequences of prejudice and discrimination; race, ethnocentrism, religious conflict, class structure. Consideration also given to proposed strategies for reducing ter-group tension. P: So. stdg.

BKS 342  Peoples and Cultures of Sub-Saharan Africa (3) AY (Same as AFS 342, ANT 342)
An exploration of the people and places of Africa south of the Sahara from a variety of anthropological perspectives. It is an introduction to the cultures of Africa and a history of how those cultures have been perceived and interpreted. P: So. stdg.
Courses and Descriptions

BKS 347  Peoples and Cultures of North Africa and the Middle East (1) AY (Same as AFS 347, ANT 347)
A study of the cultures of North Africa and the Middle East. Includes an analysis of the culture history, environmental, social and ideological adaptations, and explores the cultural changes of these predominantly Islamic cultures. P: So. stdg.

BKS 353  Jazz in American Culture (3) OD (Same as AMS 353, MUS 353)
Examines the relationship between American society and the development of jazz in the course of the 20th century and beyond. Special attention will be given to those cultural, economic, and political factors which could influence jazz trends on a regional or national level.

BKS 356  Christianity in Africa (3) OD (Same as AFS 356, THL 356)
Introduction to religion among Africans and Africans in the diaspora. African religious concepts of time, creation, the place of humans in creation, initiation rites, marriage, procreation, death. The relationship between the ecclesial and non-ecclesial dimensions; development of the Black sacred cosmos, ritual, music, folk tradition and performance practice.

BKS 367  The African-American Experience (3) AY (Same as HIS 367)
Slavery, emancipation, "separate but equal", and the drive for full equality. P: So. stdg.

BKS 372  Equality, Minorities, and Public Policy (3) II, AY (Same as AMS 372, HIS 372, PLS 372)
Incorporates continuing dialogues between a historian and a political scientist. Exploration of political processes whereby minorities have influenced the formulation and implementation of policy and governmental responses to demands for equal treatment. P: So. stdg.

BKS 384  Black History Through Literature (3) OD (Same as HIS 384)
History of Americans of African descent as found in journals, novels, and "studies." P: So. stdg.

BKS 388  Origins of Modern Africa (3) AY (Same as AFS 388, HIS 388)
Examination of the European impact on Africans and their institutions. P: So. stdg.

BKS 390  Introduction to African Literature (3) OD (Same as AFS 390, ENG 390)
Contemporary African literature. Relationship between African literature and society, emergence of national and cross-African literatures, issues of cultural conflict, language and oral tradition, and other topics. P: ENG 120, 121, 150.

BKS 393  African-American Literature (3) II (Same as AMS 393, ENG 393)
A survey of representative African American literature from its inception to the present. The particular representative authors and genres and the historical focus of the course may differ each semester. P: ENG 120, 121, 150.

BKS 396  Seminar in Black Studies (3) OD
Topical seminar with topics changing in different semesters. Examination of particular ideas, developments, and issues of relevance to Africa and the African diaspora. Topics in different semesters might include detailed examination of justice and ethnicity, politics and ethnicity, comparative slave systems, slave narratives, or colonial rule in Africa and the Caribbean. P: So. stdg.

BKS 398  Literature of Francophone Africa (3) (Same as AFS 398, ENG 398)
Sample of representative Francophone African literature. Nature and functions of this literature, relation between it and society. Impact of non-Western cultural context on Western literary genres. P: ENG 120, 121, 150.

BKS 411(311)  Politics of Africa (3) I, AY (Same as AFS 411, PLS 411)
Introduction to politics of sub-Saharan Africa. Covers traditional African cultures, societies and polities; independence movements; and post-colonial politics. Discusses political parties, military interventionism, ethnic conflict, development policy and democratic reform. P: So. stdg.

BKS 428  Multicultural Issues in Psychology (3) I, II (Same as PSY 428)
Explores gender, ethnic, and cultural factors that influence the beliefs, values, behaviors, and experiences of individuals. Provides a fundamental understanding of one's own culture and behavior through exploration of a variety of cultures. P: PSY 111 or PSY 112.
BKS 470  Seminar in Film Studies: African and African American (3) (Same as AFS 470, ENG 470, COM 470)
Topical seminar with topics changing in different semesters. Examination of particular areas of film and popular culture. Topics in different semesters might include detailed examination of a film genre (e.g., the western, science fiction, detective films), or film and culture studies (e.g., women and film; film and developing nations). May be repeated for credit to a limit of six hours.

BKS 482  Race in America: Idea and Reality (3) (Same as AMS 482, HIS 482, PHL 482, PLS 482, SRP 482)
An examination of the idea and reality of race during key phases of U.S. history, with an emphasis on the contemporary situation. To understand the multiple meanings and experiences of race, the course draws on sources form science, literature, law, and philosophy. P: Sr. stdg.

BKS 484  Nationalist Movements in Colonial Africa (3) II (Same as AFS 484, HIS 484)
Examination of the social institutions of black Africa; the roles and meaning of the "tribe", ethnicity and the family. P: So. stdg.

BKS 485  Society and Belief Systems in Africa (3) II (Same as AFS 485, HIS 485)
History of Africa south of the Sahara and west of the Cameroons Highlands, African cultural traditions, contact with Islam and the West, the State building, the European invasions, the colonial period, and reemergent states. P: So. stdg.

BKS 487  History of West Africa (3) OD (Same as AFS 487, HIS 487)
History of Africa south of the Sahara and west of the Cameroons Highlands, African cultural traditions, contact with Islam and the West, the State building, the European invasions, the colonial period, and reemergent states. P: So. stdg.

BKS 489  Southern Africa: The Politics of Race (3) OD (Same as AFS 489, HIS 489)
Examination of the historical development of the social and political structures of modern Southern Africa. Primary focus on South Africa, Rhodesia-Zimbabwe, and Namibia. Analysis of the place of "race" in national policies. Includes apartheid, black nationalism, decolonization, guided democracy, and the interrelationship between economic developments and the social and political systems. P: So. stdg.

BKS 493  Directed Independent Readings (3) OD
Course designed to allow an individual student with an interest in a particular area to pursue it under the direction of a willing faculty member. P: BKS Coordinator's consent.

BKS 497  Directed Independent Research (1-3) OD
Independent research course. P: IC.

BUSINESS

Professors Goss, Kracher, Purcell; Associate Professors Duckworth, Gustafson, Hoh, Wells, and York; Assistant Professors Gallo, Knudsen and McNary; Professor Emeritus Gleason.

BUS 201  Legal Environment of Business (3) I, II
Focuses on laws that affect managerial action. Introduction to the traditional sources of law, the U.S. Constitution and its Amendments; the basic characteristics of the U.S. legal system, the law of contracts, torts, and property, and understanding of the various business entitlements, their creation, operation, and termination; a basic understanding of the administrative agency process, antitrust, employer-employee relations, laws against discrimination, consumer protection, environmental laws, and the myriad of other laws that affect business action and changing public policy regarding law. P: So. stdg.

BUS 229  Statistical Analysis (4) I, II, S
Use of descriptive and inferential statistical methods in the analysis of business and economic data. Topics include probability distributions, confidence intervals, tests of hypothesis, multiple regression and correlation, time series analysis and index numbers, and decision analysis. P: MTH 141 or 245; MTH 201.

BUS 301  Business Law (3) I, II
Detailed analysis of specific areas of law that most impact the operation and management of business enterprises. Course serves as an introduction to the study of law as a discipline and as a preparation for those students planning to sit for the CPA examination. P: BUS 201; Jr. stdg.
BUS 321  Mock Trial Lecture (2) I
Exploration and analysis of the presentation of a Mock Trial. Course content changes from year to year. In even-numbered years, the cases presented are civil cases. In odd-numbered years, the cases presented are criminal cases. Some travel required. This course cannot be repeated.

BUS 322  Mock Trial Practicum (1) II
Limited to students who want to develop a more in-depth knowledge of Mock Trial beyond the first course. Some travel required. P: BUS 321 or IC.

BUS 356  Business Ethics (3) I, II
Study of the principles and practice of good moral behavior by the business community. Lectures are supplemented by case discussion, community service, and other experiential activities that directly involve students in ethical and socially responsible behavior. P: PHL 250; Jr. stdg.

BUS 366  Business Internships (3) I, II, S
This course is designed to give credit to students for major-related significant practical business experience. The internship should allow the students to apply concepts and technical skills learned in the classroom to a real work setting. Students must work 150 hours during a semester; write a final paper describing the learning value of their internship; and participate in an end-of-semester synthesis session. The student’s internship employment must be secured before registering for the class. The course is graded satisfactory/unsatisfactory and only 3 hours of internship credit may be used to satisfy graduation requirements. P: 2nd Sem. Jr. or Higher stdg. in the College of Business Administration.

BUS 401  Legal Aspects of Life Insurance (3)
This class will focus on understanding of the legal aspects of Individual Life Insurance as a financial services contract and a key cornerstone of the financial planning and risk management processes. This course will cover concepts relating to the key contractual elements of life insurance and policy provisions. Covers life insurance contractual obligations relating to the company, as well as policy assignment and estate issues relating to beneficiary designations. Concludes with legal aspects of Agents/Brokers, marketing and advertising, illustration regulations and privacy laws. This course covers the materials required for educational credit towards the CLu professional designation. P: ECO 203, FIN 513, Junior stdg., elementary level skills in Microsoft Office Suite.

BUS 471  Strategic Management (3) I, II
Course utilizes a series of actual business cases concerning the major areas of strategic planning. Students analyze the cases to determine the current management style and organization strategy. The analyses are used to make recommendations for changes in managerial expertise, corporate and line-of-business strategy, and organization structure. P: Bus. Admin. Sr. stdg; FIN 301; MGT 301; MKT 319.

BUS 479  Seminar in Business (2-3) I or II
Exploration and analysis of selected problems, topics, and issues in today’s business environment. Course content changes from semester to semester. This course is repeatable as long as topic differs (12 credits). P: Jr. stdg.

BUS 493  Directed Independent Readings (1-3) OD
Limited to students who want to develop a more in-depth knowledge of a subject beyond the regular course coverage and who have a GPA of 3.0 or better. Sr. stdg.; DC & Dean’s approval. May be repeated for credit to a limit of six hours.

BUS 497  Directed Independent Research (1-3) OD
Supervised independent research on topics beyond the regular course coverage. Course is limited to students who have a GPA of 3.0 or better. May be repeated for credit to a limit of six hours. P: Sr. stdg; DC and Dean’s approval.
BUSINESS INTELLIGENCE AND ANALYTICS (BIA)

Professors Corritore, Nath (Chair) and Hendrickson; Associate Professors Chen, Duckworth and Marble; Associate Professor Govindarajulu; Professor Emeritus Gleason.

Requirements for Business Intelligence and Analytics as the field of concentration—see page 231.

BIA 253 Management Information Systems (3) I, II
An introduction to the field of management information systems and the role of information systems in today's organizations. The course focuses on key concepts including fundamental enabling technologies, database, software development, decision support and knowledge work-support systems as well as BIA systems for operations, control, and strategic planning. The organizational foundations of systems, their strategic role, and the technologies driving change in the business processes will be discussed. P: So. stdg.

BIA 354 Data Base Management (3) II
Course develops both skill and knowledge relative to data base design and management. P: BIA 253; CSC 221; Jr. stdg.

BIA 366 Internship (3) I, II, S
The course is designed to provide students with practical business intelligence & analytics (BI&A) experience by applying information technology/analytics concepts and technical skills learned in the classroom. It requires 150 hours with an employer, designated class meetings, written assignments, and oral presentations. Although the college will try to help a student obtain an internship, the responsibility for finding the internship lies with the student. Credit for this class is dependent upon a) an interview with the sponsoring employer, b) relevance of the internship to the students BI&A course work, and c) approval by the chair of the BIA department. The course is graded satisfactory/unsatisfactory and only 3 hours of internship credit may be used to satisfy graduation requirements. Enrollment is limited. P: Jr. or higher stdg; IC.

BIA 375 Business Application Development (3) II
This course provides students with an introduction to business application development using object-oriented programming. The key concepts covered by this course include algorithms and their relationship to basic object-oriented programming concepts, objects and classes, control structure, input and output, exception handling, expressions, and graphic interface design. P: Jr. stdg.

BIA 459 Information Systems Analysis and Design (3) I or II
An applied study of the process of information systems development. Lectures, discussions, readings and exercises will address the areas of information analysis, requirements determination, detailed logical design, physical design, implementation planning, computer technology and organizational behavior. Through regular deliverables associated with the cumulative project file of a running case, students will follow a widely used structured development methodology (the data flow diagramming approach) in conducting team-oriented systems analysis and design projects. P: BIA 253; Jr. stdg.

BIA 464 Decision Support and Expert Systems (3) I or II
Concepts needed to develop skills in designing and using decision support systems and expert systems in the context of business decision making. P: BIA 253; Sr. stdg.

BIA 470 Data Communications and Networks (3) I
This course provides an introduction to the concepts and terminology in data communication, networks, network design, and distributed information systems. These topics include equipment, protocols and architectures, transmission alternatives, the communication environment, regulatory issues, and network pricing and management. A combination of lectures, discussions, presentations, and student projects will be used to understand the dynamic field of data communications and issues surrounding it. P: BIA 354 or IC.

BIA 479 Seminar in Decision and Information Technology (3) I or II
The integration and application of current topics in management science, systems analysis and design, or computer and communication technology with a focus on improving decision-making effectiveness in a real-world environment. Past seminar topics include: Web Technologies, Java Programming, E-Business, Business Data Mining, Computer System Architecture and Organization, Neural Networks, Human Factors in IS, and Wireless Technologies. This course is repeatable as long as topic differs (12 credits). P: BIA 253; Sr. stdg.
BIA 481 Web Technologies (3)
As the interest in websites becomes more widespread, so have peoples' expectations. It is increasingly obvious that the functionality provided by HTML is insufficient. This is particularly true as more and more websites are used to interact with databases. Many scripting and actual programming languages and environments such as CGI, Javascript, Flash, and Flex are being turned to as they can provide the added functionality demanded by todays' commercial websites. This course will explore these and other technologies and use them to create websites. P: Sr. stdg. or IC.

BIA 482 Wireless Technology and Mobile Commerce (3)
The purpose of this course is to explore the impact of wireless and mobile e-commerce on the ways in which business is conducted in this electronic era, as well as the technologies involved in developing systems that will support this new way of doing business. This exploration is designed to give the student: a) an appreciation for the use of wireless technologies in achieving business objectives and changing the way business strategies are being implemented, b) an understanding of the various technologies used in mobile e-commerce, and c) technical skills for developing and deploying wireless and mobile e-commerce systems. This course aims to provide the student with a balanced coverage on both the managerial and technical issues relevant to wireless and mobile e-commerce. P: BIA 253, BIA 375.

BIA 483 Managing Information Resources (3)
This course focuses on the managerial issues faced by business and information systems (IS) managers in today's technology rich business environment. Special emphasis is placed on information as a critical resource and on its role in policy and strategic planning. The course discusses the issues and techniques relevant to the effective management of information resources. It will take a broad perspective by examining the internal, external, and strategic planning issues involved in IS resource management. The course will also use Harvard Business School cases and other cases to explore the managerial, technical, behavioral issues relevant to IS resource management. P: BIA 253 or equivalent.

BIA 484 Business Intelligence and Data Analytics (3)
The purpose of this course is to deal with the issue of extracting information and knowledge from large databases. The extracted knowledge is subsequently used to support human decision-making with respect to summarization, prediction, and the explanation of observed phenomena (e.g. patterns, trends, and customer behavior). Techniques such as visualization, statistical analysis, decision trees, and neural networks can be used to discover relationships and patterns that shed light on business problems. This course will examine methods for transforming massive amounts of data into new and useful information, uncovering factors that affect purchasing patterns, and identifying potential profitable investments and opportunities. P: BUS 229, BIA 253.

BIA 485 Applications of Artificial Intelligence (3)
The course will provide a survey of the theory and applications of artificial intelligence in the business decision environment, with an emphasis on artificial neural networks. Students will engage in reviews of current expository and research literature in the area and will attain hands-on experience with computer packages supporting the creation of these types of systems. Neural network design projects will be required of all students. P: MTH 245, BIA 253, BIA 375 and Sr. stdg.

BIA 486 Managerial Decision Making (3)
This course constitutes an introduction to several basic, widely applicable analytical problemsolving methods, including linear programming, network analysis, decision analysis and Monte Carlo simulation. Course coverage places emphasis on developing an ability to represent business problems in a formal framework, allowing for the application of analytical methods in support of decision-making, and on critical interpretation of the results of such decision analysis, in the context of business management. As part of this coverage, students work extensively on solving problems with MS Excel. P: BIA 253 and BUS 229.

BIA 493 Directed Independent Readings (1-3) OD
This is a directed readings course that investigates current developments in management information systems. The course permits individual students to pursue areas of interest within the field of management information systems in greater depth than is covered in the normal curriculum. It also permits a student to do independent research on a specialized topic not ordinarily treated in regular course offerings. May be repeated for credit to a limit of six hours. P: GPA of 3.0 or better; Sr. stdg.; DC and Dean's approval.
BIa 497  Directed Independent Research (1-3) OD
Supervised independent research on topics beyond the regular course coverage. Course is limited to students who have a GPA or 3.0 or better. May be repeated for credit to a limit of six hours. P: Sr. stdg; DC and Dean’s approval.

CHEMISTRY
For the Chemistry Program of Study, please refer to page III.

CHM 105  Introductory Chemistry (3) II, S
A one-semester introduction to the concepts and theories basic to the science of chemistry. Recommended as an entry-level course for those who have had no high school chemistry or who consider their high school preparation in chemistry weak. Topics covered include problem solving, scientific method, measurements, calculations, matter, energy, the periodic table, atomic theory, chemical nomenclature, chemical reactions, chemical composition, mole calculations, ionic and covalent bonding.

CHM 111  Fundamentals of General Chemistry (3) I
A one-semester survey of general chemistry for nursing students. Topics covered include electronic structure and periodicity, molecular structure, chemical reactions, states of matter, acid-base chemistry, and nuclear chemistry.

CHM 112  Fundamentals of Biological Chemistry (3) II
Survey of organic and biological chemistry for nursing students. Includes the study of organic functional groups and reactivity, plus the chemistry of biomolecules such as proteins, carbohydrates, lipids, and nucleic acids. P: CHM 111 or equivalent.

CHM 113  Fundamentals of Chemistry Laboratory (1) II
Laboratory course to be taken in conjunction with CHM 112 which demonstrates basic chemical tools and illustrates basic chemical principles. CO: CHM 112.

CHM 201  Chemistry of Consumer Products (3)
Course in chemistry of consumer products. Topics include basic concepts of chemistry, molecular structure and chemical properties as related to consumer products including foods, paints, cleaning products, lawn and garden products, preservatives, petroleum products, plastics and materials and cosmetics.

CHM 203  General Chemistry I (3) I, S
Course in introductory chemistry which includes basic concepts: atomic structure, the mole, stoichiometry, gas laws, bonding theories, molecular structure and properties, thermodynamics, and some common reactions. This is the first half of a two semester sequence. P: Entering first-year students must have a 24 on their Math ACT or equivalent. CO: CHM 204.

CHM 204  General Chemistry Laboratory I (1) I, S
Laboratory portion of Chemistry 203. Experiments relevant to the content of CHM 203 are performed. CO: CHM 203.

CHM 205  General Chemistry II (3) II, S
Continuation of CHM 203. Concepts and theories covered include thermodynamics, kinetics, chemical equilibria, and applications of thermodynamic theory to solubility, acids and bases, oxidation-reduction, and coordination chemistry. P: CHM 203 with a grade of "C" or better. CO: CHM 206.

CHM 206  General Chemistry Laboratory II (1) II, S
Laboratory portion of Chemistry 205. Experiments relevant to the content of CHM 205 are performed. P: CHM 203, CHM 204. CO: CHM 205.

CHM 215  Natural Sciences I (4) OD
Examination of fundamental concepts from the natural sciences with primary emphasis on conceptual understanding. Topics include: units of measure, scientific method, particle nature of matter, density, velocity/acceleration, force/work, Newton's Laws, energy, pressure, properties of gases, liquids and solids. Integrated laboratory involves basic investigations of these concepts. P: EDU 103.
CHM 216  Natural Sciences II (4) OD
Examination of fundamental concepts from the natural sciences with primary emphasis on conceptual understanding. Topics include: units of measure, scientific method, properties of solutions, chemical reactions, chemical analysis, pendulum motion, light, sound, electricity and magnetism. Integrated laboratory involves basic investigations of these concepts. P: EDU 103.

CHM 285  Advanced General Chemistry II (3) II
A second-semester general chemistry course designed for potential chemistry majors and for those students interested in the health sciences who want an advanced treatment of general chemistry topics. The course will focus on kinetics, thermodynamics, and expressions of solution equilibria with applications to quantitative chemical analysis. The approach will be from a conceptual understanding of solution chemistry leading into a quantitative treatment of solution phenomena. P: CHM 203 with a grade of "B" or better. CO: CHM 286.

CHM 286  Chemical Analysis Laboratory (2) II
A laboratory-based course covering the theories and methods used in classical chemical analysis. Topics include statistical methods for evaluating and interpreting data, theory of chemical analysis and sources of error, and experiments based upon the principles of stoichiometry and equilibrium as applied to titration, precipitation, electrochemistry, and spectroscopy. One hour of recitation and three hours of laboratory per week. P: CHM 203, CHM 204. CO: CHM 285.

CHM 297  Directed Research (1-2) I, II, S
Participation in a research project under the direction of a member of the faculty. This course can be repeated for a total of 3 credits. P: IC.

CHM 315  Quantitative Analysis (4) II
An integrated lecture and laboratory course that presents the theories and chemical methods for solving a variety of real problems in chemical analysis. Topics covered include: statistical methods for evaluating and interpreting data, sources of error in chemical analysis, principles of stoichiometry and equilibrium as applied to precipitation, acid-base, complexometric, electrochemical, and spectroscopic analysis. Three hours of lecture and three hours of laboratory per week. P: CHM 205; CHM 206.

CHM 321  Organic Chemistry I (3) I, S
Study of the structure and properties of organic compounds, as exemplified by alkenes, alkynes, alcohols, and alkyl halides. Stereochemistry, molecular structure, principles of reaction theory, and reaction mechanisms. P: CHM 205 or CHM 285 with a grade of "C" or better. CO: CHM 322.

CHM 322  Organic Chemistry Laboratory I (1) I, S
Fundamental techniques of experimental organic chemistry. Isolation, purification, and organic synthetic methods. P: CHM 205 or CHM 285 with a grade of "C" or better. CO: CHM 321.

CHM 323  Organic Chemistry Lecture II (3) II, S
Continuation of Chemistry 321. Further study of the principles of organic structure and reaction theory, including delocalized systems. Exploration of the chemistry of aromatic compounds, carbonyl compounds, and others, with additional emphasis on organic synthesis and structural analysis by spectroscopic methods. P: CHM 321 with a grade of "C" or better. CO: CHM 324.

CHM 324  Organic Chemistry Laboratory II (1) II, S
Further study of practical organic reactions, the use of spectroscopic methods (NMR and IR) to elucidate and confirm organic structures, and multistep organic synthesis. P: CHM 322. CO: CHM 323.

CHM 341  Physical Chemistry I (3) II
An introduction to physical chemistry. Topics covered include thermodynamics, equilibrium, quantum chemistry, and spectroscopy. A combination of macroscopic and microscopic emphasis will be used. Topics will be introduced with some historical background and developed with an appropriate level of physics and mathematical rigor. P: PHY 211, CHM 532; P or CO: PHY 212; CO: CHM 342.
CHM 342  Physical Chemistry I Laboratory (2) II
Experiments in thermodynamics, equilibrium and kinetics will be conducted in an introductory research format. The writing of manuscripts and the maintenance of a laboratory research journal will carry equal import with experimental work. CO: CHM 341.

CHM 351  Descriptive Inorganic Chemistry (2) II
A systematic study of the main group elements with an emphasis on chemicals and chemical reactions and processes important to society. Twelve sessions of a lecture/discussion and laboratory format. Each laboratory session will include 8-12 short experiments or activities. The purpose of the course is to extend the participant's knowledge of descriptive chemistry by first hand laboratory experience. P: CHM 205 or 285.

CHM 371  Biochemistry of Metabolism (3) I, II
A one-semester survey of biochemistry for pre-health professions. Topics covered include structure and function of biomolecules, metabolism and bioenergetics. An emphasis will be placed on medical/clinical examples. P: BIO 211, CHM 323.

CHM 381  Fundamentals of Biochemistry (3) I
A mechanistic approach to biochemistry for chemistry and biochemistry majors. Topics covered include a structural and mechanistic approach to studying the function of biomolecules, a mechanistic investigation of intermediary metabolism and nucleotide and protein synthesis, and bioenergetics. P: CHM 323; Open to chemistry/biochemistry majors or IC.

CHM 382  Biochemistry Laboratory (2) I, II
A one-semester laboratory course designed to support CHM 381. Introduction to methods and instrumentation for biochemical measurements: analysis and isolation of biologically-important compounds, strategies for assaying biological activity, cloning and purification techniques for DNA/RNA. P or CO: CHM 371 or CHM 381, IC.

CHM 421  Selected Topics in Organic Chemistry (3) OD
Study of classes of compounds and reactions of organic chemistry not covered in the regular two-semester sequence (CHM 321, 323). Possible topics include stereochemistry, natural products, computational methods in organic chemistry, physical organic chemistry, photochemistry and other topics of current interest. P: CHM 323.

CHM 445  Chemical Thermodynamics (2) OD
This course will provide a more extensive introduction to classical thermodynamic theory, including treatments of the laws of thermodynamics, conditions of equilibrium, thermodynamics of gases and solutions, and ideal and non-ideal behavior. P: CHM 341.

CHM 446  Statistical Mechanics (2) OD
The mathematical study of the connection between quantum mechanical behavior of individual atoms and molecules and their consequent macroscopic properties and phenomena. P: CHM 341.

CHM 447  Physical Chemistry of Macromolecules (2) OD
The study of the effect of molecular weight, molecular weight distributions, and chain configuration of large molecules on physical and chemical properties. P: CHM 341.

CHM 448  Group Theory (2) OD
This course will present an introduction to the theory of group representations. Topics will include the mathematical foundations of abstract group theory, including reducible and irreducible representations. Physical applications of group theory will include crystallographic point groups, group theoretical techniques in quantum mechanics, angular momentum, and vibrational spectroscopy. P: CHM 341.

CHM 451  Inorganic Chemistry I (3) I
Relation of atomic and molecular structure to chemical and physical properties. Periodicity and descriptive chemistry of inorganic classes and groups. Topics covered include group theory, MO theory, molecular and ionic structures, redox reactions, acid/base theories, and coordination compounds. P: CHM 341.

CHM 456  Instrumental Analysis (3) I
A senior level course on instrumental techniques used in analytical chemistry. Emphasis will be on modern instrumentation theory and applications in spectroscopy, electrochemistry, and chromatography. P: CHM 341; CO: CHM 466.
CHM 466 Instrumental Analysis Laboratory (2) I
A laboratory-based course covering the theories and methods used in modern instrumental analysis. Topics include the theory and practice of instrumental techniques, statistical methods for evaluating and interpreting data, sources of noise and error, and experimental methods in spectroscopy, electrochemistry, and chromatography. One hour of recitation and three hours of laboratory per week. P: CHM 286 or CHM 315; CO: CHM 456.

CHM 470 Chemical Literature (1) OD
Introduction to the literature of chemistry. Development of skills in chemical informatics through print and electronic resources. P: CHM 323.

CHM 491 Careers in Chemistry (1) OD
A seminar course in which students are introduced to some of the careers within chemistry by speakers who work in the areas represented. Open only to chemistry majors (both degree programs). (One meeting a week). P: CHM 321.

CHM 492 Industrial Internship (1-3) I, II
Each student will spend one day per week or its equivalent in an industrial plant or laboratory. Registration must be preceded by the student submitting a resume, a letter of application, and arranging for a personal interview with one or more industrial concerns prior to the registration date. Each student must be accepted by or have worked for an industrial employer prior to registration. The course is repeatable for a max of 3 credits. P: CHM 315 or CHM 285, CHM 286.

CHM 493 Directed Independent Readings (1-3) I, II, S
Assigned reading in a special area of interest. The course is repeatable for a max of 4 credits. P: CHM 341.

CHM 495 Directed Independent Study (1-3) I, II, S
P: CHM 341.

CHM 496 Directed Independent Research I (1-2) I, II, S
Initial participation in a pre-approved independent research project under the direction of a member of the department faculty. The course is repeatable for a max of 8 credits. P: CHM 324 or CHM 285, CHM 286; IC.

CHM 497 Directed Independent Research II (1-2) I, II, S
Continuation in a pre-approved independent research project under the direction of a member of the department faculty. Students register for this course in their final semester of research. They are required to give a public presentation of their work and submit a research report. Research projects in chemistry conducted outside the department may also be acceptable. The course is repeatable for a max of 2 credits. P: CHM 324 or CHM 285, CHM 286; IC.

CHM 498 Directed Independent Research - Special (1-2)
Participation in a pre-approved independent research project conducted outside the Creighton University Chemistry Department. The course is repeatable for a max of 6 credits. P: CHM 324 or CHM 285, CHM 286; IC.

CHM 502 Inorganic Chemistry II (3) II
Additional topics in inorganic chemistry. Emphasis on organometallic chemistry of transition metals, synthesis and chemical reactivities of inorganic and organometallic compounds. P: CHM 451.

CHM 506 Environmental Chemistry and Natural Resources (3) II (Same as EVS 506)
The nature, identification, and quantitative determination of air and water pollutants. Study of natural resources and energy production. Topics covered include the atmosphere, ozone, the troposphere, natural water, acid rain, drinking water, metals, organochlorine compounds and waste management. P: CHM 205 or CHM 285.

CHM 521 Advanced Organic Chemistry: Synthetic Organic Methods (3) OD
A contemporary survey of the analysis, design, and execution of new methods and innovative total syntheses in organic chemistry. Approaches and techniques for critical reading, discussion, and application of the literature of organic chemistry will be introduced and developed. P: CHM 323.
CHM 523 Bioorganic Chemistry (3) OD
A survey of current topics at the interface of organic chemistry and biology, with emphasis on a chemical understanding of biological infrastructure, the interactions of small organic molecules within biochemical systems, structure-activity relationship profiling of natural and synthetic drugs, and the relevance of small molecule therapeutics in modern society. P: CHM 381.

CHM 525 Organic Spectroscopic Analysis (3) OD
A study of infrared, nuclear magnetic resonance, and ultraviolet spectroscopy and mass spectrometry. Emphasis on both the theoretical basis of each method and the application of the methods to structure determination and other interesting chemical problems. P: CHM 324, CHM 341, or IC.

CHM 527 Polymer Chemistry (3) OD
The goal of this course is to expose students to the fundamentals of polymer chemistry. The course will focus on some of the key synthetic methods and physical properties of polymers. Practical applications of polymer chemistry in society will be a theme throughout the course. P: CHM 323 or IC.

CHM 528 Polymer Chemistry Laboratory (1)
The goal of this course is to expose students to the fundamentals of polymer syntheses and characterization. The course will focus on some of the key synthetic methods for making plastics and the characterization techniques for determining the physical properties of the polymers. Practical applications of polymer chemistry in society will be a theme throughout the course. P or CO: CHM 527.

CHM 532 Mathematical Concepts in Chemistry (3) I
Applications utilizing statistics, mathematical operators, vectors, determinants, group theory, series expansions, and basic differential equations in the modeling of chemical systems. P: MTH 246.

CHM 543 Selected Topics in Physical Chemistry (3) OD
Selected topics from physical chemistry that match the interests of faculty and students will be discussed. The course will begin with review of related material from CHM 341 and end with current research. P: CHM 341.

CHM 544 Quantum Chemistry (2) OD
This course is designed to teach the mathematical background of quantum chemistry. Topics covered include operator algebra, quantum mechanical postulates, rigid rotor and harmonic oscillator model systems, applications to chemical systems, and computational chemistry. P: CHM 341.

CHM 545 Advanced Kinetics (2) OD
This course is designed to teach the mathematical skills necessary for modeling kinetic systems in chemistry. Topics covered include differential equation techniques, elementary rate laws, composite rate laws, collision theory, transition state theory, reaction dynamics, and potential energy surfaces. P: CHM 341.

CHM 546 Use of Demonstrations in the Teaching of Chemistry I (2-3) S
This course concentrates on the use of demonstrations, activities, and other new ideas for use by the teacher in the presentation of chemical principles in the classroom. The theory behind each activity will be thoroughly discussed along with appropriate safety precautions.

CHM 548 Chemical Applications of Spectroscopy (2)
This is a laboratory course designed to illustrate the theory and applications of spectroscopic analysis to chemical research. Techniques investigated will include IR, UV-Visible, Fluorescence/Phosphorescence, Raman, and NMR spectroscopy. Both gas-phase and solution-phase problems will be studied. P: CHM 341.

CHM 549 Computational Chemistry (2)
This course is designed to introduce students to the applications of computational chemistry in chemical research. Students will learn about the variety of computational methods available including molecular mechanics, semi-empirical, Hartree-Fock, and density functional theory. Laboratory projects will include application of these methods to problems in organic, inorganic, and biological chemistry P: CHM 341.
CHM 551  Descriptive Inorganic Chemistry (3) OD
Descriptive inorganic chemistry and laboratory practicum. A systematic study of the main group elements with an emphasis on chemicals and chemical reactions and processes of importance to society. Includes ten seven-hour sessions consisting of a four-hour lecture/discussion and three-hour laboratory format. Each laboratory session includes 10-15 short experiments or activities. Many of the activities could be utilized at the high school level; however, the purpose of the course is to extend the participant’s depth of knowledge of descriptive chemistry by first-hand laboratory experience.

CHM 555  Microscale Gas Chemistry (1-3) S
Lecture/Laboratory course designed to present the use of gases to teach or experimentally discover important concepts of the high school and college chemistry curriculum. Environmental issues, reaction stoichiometry, intermolecular forces, catalysis, combustion, and molar mass are a few examples. High school teacher participants will learn to safely and conveniently generate over a dozen gases for classroom and use in the teaching laboratory. Each gas can be used in a variety of experiments or classroom demonstrations. Each experiment will be linked to one or more chemistry concepts with discussion of pedagogy as appropriate.

CHM 556  Electrochemical Methods (3)
This lecture course covers the fundamentals of electrochemistry and the application of electrochemical methods to chemical problems. It describes electrochemical terms, electrode potentials and processes, along with a historical perspective of electrochemical methods. It covers specific electrochemical techniques and the role of electrochemistry when applied to other fields of science.
P: CHM 456.

CHM 575  Nucleic Acid Biochemistry (3) OD
This course presents an in-depth investigation of the current research in nucleic acid biochemistry. The class will focus on the structure and function of nucleic acids, biochemical processes involving nucleic acids, interactions of nucleic acids with proteins and drug molecules, catalytic nucleic acids, and the genome and genetic engineering. The current literature will serve as source material for study and discussion.
P: CHM 371 or CHM 381.

CHM 576  Protein Biochemistry (3)
This course will introduce students to current views of protein structure and function. Students will become educated consumers of the wealth of information available in protein sequence and structure databases and will develop knowledge of techniques required to characterize their own proteins in the laboratory.
P: CHM 371 or CHM 381.

CHM 586  Elementary School Science Demonstrations and Classroom Activities (3) S
This course offers elementary teachers practical methods for doing science in the classroom. Demonstrations and classroom activities that use a hands-on, interactive approach with students will be presented. The current methodology for interfacing science with language arts will be presented.

CHINESE

CHN 101  Beginning Chinese I (3)

CNE 493 Directed Independent Readings (2-4) I, II, S Credit by arrangement. Designed to meet the special needs of qualified students. May be repeated to a limit of six hours. P: DC.

CNE 497 Directed Independent Research (1-3) OD
May be repeated to a limit of six hours. P: DC.

CNE 498 Senior Capstone Seminar (3) II (Same as GRK 498, LAT 498)
Directed research on a general topic; preparation and public presentation of a senior thesis.
CNE 498 open only to Classics majors.

CNE 520 The Dead Sea Scrolls (3) OD (Same as THL 520)
Introduction to the Dead Sea Scrolls and various theories about their origin. Exploration of the light they shed on the textual history of the Hebrew Bible, developments in ancient Judaism, and the early history of Christianity. P: THL 100 and a 200-level Scripture course and Jr. stdg.

CNE 523 Israelite Religions (3) (Same as THL 523)
This course will examine the manifold expressions of Israelite religions - biblical, archaeological, and epigraphic. Emphasis will be placed on the diversity of Israelite religions and the relationship of Israelite religions to the religions of her Near Eastern neighbors. P: Jr. stdg.

CNE 524 History of Ancient Israel (3) OD (Same as HIS 524, THL 524)
An examination and reconstruction of the history of ancient Israel from biblical and other ancient Near Eastern literary texts, and from archaeological and epigraphic materials. P:
THL 100 and a 200-level Scripture course and Jr. stdg.

CNE 525 Archaeological Fieldwork and Analysis (3) S (Same as ANT 525, THL 525)
The student learns the principles of stratigraphic archaeology (or underwater archaeology) by participating in an excavation for a minimum of four weeks. The student will learn stratigraphic theory and excavation strategy, basic archaeological techniques, and the basic analysis of archaeological materials recovered from the site. (Underwater archaeologists will learn basic underwater techniques in place of some terrestrial methods.) CO: CNE 526.

CNE 526 Archaeology of Roman Palestine (3) S (Same as ANT 526, THL 526)
This is a study of ancient Palestine from the rise of the Herodian dynasty in the first century BCE to the aftermath of the Muslim conquest in the seventh century CE. The material of the course is the physical remains of archaeological sites throughout modern Israel, along with movable cultural remains that issued from these sites. The major focus of the course will be the interaction between classical Mediterranean civilization on the one hand, and the Jews and other Middle Eastern peoples on the other, in the age that yielded Rabbinic Judaism, Christianity, and Islam. CO: CNE 525.

and a 200-level Scripture course and Jr. stdg.
COMMUNICATION STUDIES
For the Communication Studies Program of Study, please refer to page 121.

COM 111  Introduction to Communication Studies (3) I, II
Introduction to Communication Studies first explores the history of the communication discipline as well as theories and paradigms of and methods in Communication Studies and then outlines sub-disciplinary contexts including: Interpersonal Communication, Organizational Communication, Mass Communication, Rhetoric and Public Culture, Intercultural Communication, Health Communication, Group Communication, Nonverbal Communication, and Gender Communication.

COM 152  Civic Engagement through Public Communication (3) I, II, S
An introduction to the process by which informed, sound, and sensitive messages are formulated and delivered to influence decision-making. Emphasis on acquiring common analytic approaches to message preparation: the sources, credibility, and uses of evidence; patterns of inference; and the selection and presentation of judgments. Students apply critical thinking skills to solve problems and build consensus in interpersonal, small-group, and public settings.

COM 153  Design and Rapid Prototyping Lab I (1)
Communication studies component of an interdisciplinary course in engineering design and rapid prototyping. An introduction to the process by which messages are formulated and delivered to influence decision-making. Emphasis on acquiring common analytic approaches to message preparation, uses of evidence, patterns of inference and the selection and presentation of judgments. CO: ERG 211 and ENG 151.

COM 154  Design and Rapid Prototyping Lab III (1)

COM 155  Design and Rapid Prototyping Lab IV (1)

COM 200(204) Communication Practices (3) I
Considering "communication as practice" involves not only engaging in multiple communicative activities but also talking and thinking about those activities as theoretical, normative, and discursive (Craig, 2006). In this course, students will be able to articulate, enact (individually and in groups), and evaluate various forms of communicative practice-including oral, written, visual, and technological-in interpersonal, organizational and public realms of communication.

COM 201  Introduction to Debate and Forensics (1-3) I, II
Foundations of debate and forensics. May be repeated to a limit of three hours. P: IC.

COM 300(203) Communication Research Methods (3) II
Examination and practical application of research methods in Communication Studies. Includes rhetorical, cultural, interpretive, quantitative methods of analyzing communication artifacts such as content analysis, field research, ethnography, rhetorical criticism, among others. Applied to such areas as culture, group, interpersonal, family, organization, and media.

COM 301  Intermediate Debate and Forensics (1-3) I, II
Further studies in debate/forensics techniques and practice. May be repeated to a limit of three hours. P: IC.

COM 312  Mass Media and Modern Culture (3) OD (Same as AMS 312, ENG 312)
Examination of the role of film, television, and print media in American life. P: ENG 120, 121, 150; Jr. stdg.

COM 314  Managerial Communication (3) I, II, S
Theory and practice of advanced topics in managerial communication. Topics include organizational structure and lines of communication; interpersonal and group communication in organizational settings; problem solving; interviews; techniques for written and oral presentations. P: COM 152 and Jr. stdg.
COM 319  Language, Culture, and the Individual  (3) AY (Same as ANT 319)
The anthropological approach to the study of language examines the biological source and manner of human communication as well as the cultural processes that structure languages, their meanings, means of acquisition, and transformations. The course examines the inter-relationship of individuals, groups, and the wider culture through language. P: So. stdg.

COM 320  Leadership: Theories, Styles, and Skills  (3) OD (Same as EDU 320)
Course designed to offer participants an opportunity to gain a working knowledge of leadership theories and group dynamics. Designed to develop and improve leadership skills and to learn how to apply these skills in a practical setting.

COM 321  Persuasion  (3) OD
Theory and practice for the advanced student interested particularly in psychology and method of persuasion. Useful for professional fields which deal in persuasion, or for anyone interested in better understanding the world of persuasion in which he or she lives.

COM 359  Rhetoric and Public Culture  (3) I
This course provides an introduction to key theoretical concepts and perspectives in rhetoric and public culture (glossing the history of rhetoric and focusing on contemporary rhetorical theory). After considering how and why one might study rhetoric in contemporary public culture, emphasis is placed on how to critically analyze artifacts of public culture.

COM 360  Organizational Communication  (3) I
Introduction to the basic theories, research, and methods of effective communication needed in the organizational setting. Review of the strategies of spoken and written communication to increase understanding and to affect the actions of others. Topics may include theories of management, models of communication, formal and informal communication networks, the elements of superior-subordinate communication, and communication styles and problems.

COM 361  Interpersonal Communication  (3) II
Examination of person-to-person communication. Topics include perception, motivation, language and meaning, nonverbal communication, and listening.

COM 363  Family Communication  (3) OD
An introduction to the process by which students can use the principles of interpersonal and group communication to create and sustain healthy family relations. Course seeks to enable students to create and sustain cohesion and adaptability as two prerequisites for successful family relations. Topics covered include communication patterns and family meaning, the communication of intimacy, the communication of family roles, decision making in families, family conflict resolution, and communication strategies for reducing family stress.

COM 380  History and Criticism of Cinema  (3) I, S (Same as ART 380, ENG 380)
Motion pictures as a distinctive medium of communication and as an art form; film language; film history; film appreciation; critical assimilation of film content. 2R, 3L. P: ENG 120, 121, 150.

COM 390  Health Communication  (3) OD (Same as HAP 390)
This course investigates research and theories and permits students to demonstrate practical applications of communication within healthcare situations. The course emphasizes understanding communication variables such as verbal, nonverbal, conflict, listening, and self-disclosure in healthcare contexts. The course also examines issues of ethics and relationships between healthcare providers, patients, and families.

COM 401  Junior Varsity Debate and Forensics  (1-3) I, II
Competitive debate and forensics. May be repeated to a limit of three credits. P: IC.

COM 440  Gender Communication  (3) OD (Same as WGS 440)
Focuses on the similarities and differences in the communicative behaviors of women and men. Lectures, in-class experiential exercises, role-playing, and group discussions devoted to such topics as female-male roles and stereotypes; differences in verbal and nonverbal codes; partnership styles and alternatives; specific communication skills aimed at female-male relationships in a variety of settings (e.g., education, the workplace, the media, etc.); and special problem areas of female-male communication.
COM 441 Deliberation on Sustainability (3) OD
This course has the dual purpose of exposing students to a variety of local, national and international examples of deliberative process while affording an opportunity for students to engage in the creation and facilitation of a deliberative forum on an issue important to the Creighton campus. This course is primarily about deliberation. At the moment (during this decade, at least), sustainability is a topic worthy of consideration through deliberative, democratic means.

COM 442 Cultural Communication (3) OD (Same as ANT 442)
This course combines attention to cultural communication and the ethnography of communication with practical strategies for coming to terms with communication between people from varying national, ethnic, professional, religious, and regional backgrounds.

COM 450 Communicating Health Narratives (3) OD (Same as HAP 450)
This course examines communication in multiple health care contexts: individual (health beliefs and attitudes), interpersonal (patient-provider and provider-provider), organizational (hospital, and clinic), and societal (public health campaigns, public health campaigns, public health policy, and health politics). We will explore how narratives function to construct and communicate health beliefs in these contexts.

COM 460 Historical and Contemporary Perspectives on Organizational Communication (3) II
This course takes an advanced look at organizational communication by first covering the history and theoretical perspectives that underpin the study of organizations, and then by engaging significant areas of research in the field from a variety of methodological perspectives. P: COM 360 or IC.

COM 462 Gender, Work, and Organizing (3) OD (Same as WGS 462)
This course explores what it means to "work" and organize in a gendered world from a communicative perspective. Topics include how labor is valued differently whether performed in the public (i.e., business and government) or private realm (i.e., domestic work, childcare and eldercare) - and by whom such labor is performed.

COM 463 Communication Consulting (3) I (Same as EDU 463)
Workshop evaluating characteristics of organizations (including schools and service organizations). Practical training in assessing the effectiveness of such interventions as curriculum, training and development, and personnel. Special emphasis on planning, conducting, and interpreting surveys; developing questionnaires, interpreting results, and writing final reports. P: COM 203 or IC.

COM 470 Seminar in Film Studies (3) OD (Same as AFS 470, BKS 470, ENG 470)
Topical seminar with topics changing in different semesters. Examination of particular areas of film and popular culture. Topics in different semesters might include detailed examination of a film genre (e.g., the western; science fiction; detective films), or film and cultural studies (e.g., women and film; film and developing nations). May be repeated for credit to a limit of six hours.

COM 471 Discourse of the American Family (3) OD (Same as AMS 471)
With American culture, the concept of family has taken on "god term" status. Rather than studying communication within families, the course examines how the social construction of family (communication about family) has changed over time and examine the discourse, myths, problems/limitations, and power with how family has been culturally constructed.

COM 472 Communication in Close Relationships (3) OD
One of the unifying factors in human life is having close, personal relationships. These relationships cannot be formed or maintain closeness without communication. In this course, we will examine the role of communication in various close relationships (relationships which might be covered include family, friendships, and romantic relationships) as written and theorized about in the literature. Additionally, we will discuss and critique various methodological perspectives for the study of communication in close relationships.

COM 477 Gendered Health Communication Across the Lifespan (3) OD (Same as HAP 477, SRP 477, WGS 477)
A great human concern in our society is the gendered construction of health and how individuals are affected by health decisions. This interdisciplinary course will explore gendered health issues from a unique perspectives involving ethical, biocultural and psychosocial perspectives across the lifespan. The first part will lay the theoretical groundwork and identify policy and ethical concerns; the second part will examine gendered health issues across the lifespan. P: PHIL 250 or THL 250; Sr. stdg.
COM 478  Intersections of Working and Personal Life (3) OD  (Same as SRP 478)
This course explores the intersections between (paid) working life and personal/family life from a variety of disciplinary perspectives. Topics include "balancing" careers with volunteer work, caregiving and relationships as well as the ways in which individuals communicate about their personal and family lives while at work and their working lives at home.  P: PHIL 250 or THL 250; Sr. stdg.

COM 481  Rhetorical Dimensions of Persuasion and Social Movements (3) OD
This course will focus on the ethical dimensions of persuasion and social influence in public culture. Students will critically examine the role persuasion and social influence has historically had in the construction and evolution of social movements and their leaders.

COM 488  Personal and Spiritual Dimensions of Leadership (3) OD  (Same as EDU 488, SRP 488, THL 488)
The purpose of the course is to give students the opportunity to engage in introspection and examination of their personal belief and value systems as it relates to leadership. The course begins from the assumption that leadership is “a journey that begins within” and examines the relationship between leadership theory and Christian spirituality. Biographical examples will be analyzed; biographies will be drawn from diverse fields such as health, science, business, government, sports and education.  P: PHIL 250 or THL 250; Sr. stdg.

COM 489  Visual Construction of Modern Culture (3)
This course explores the idea that memorable visual messages have power to inform, educate, and persuade. It attempts to discover why some images are remembered while some are not. We will study visual communications to understand their rhetorical power. Topics could include: iconicity, verbal versus visual, public memory, and visual argumentation.

COM 490  Communication and Community (3) II
Communication and Community is the senior capstone course for majors in Communication Studies. It offers students an opportunity to channel the experiences they have had with communication research and theory over the past years in order to prepare for life as a professional and a member of society. Students revisit the concept that communication and rhetoric (symbolic action) create and define social reality and examine how that has manifested in differing worldviews, resulting in “isms” (racism, heterosexism, ethnocentrism, etc.) as well as “moral conflicts.” Students will discuss the importance of societal engagement and being a member of (multiple) communication communities. To supplement the “book” learning of the classroom, there will also be a community-based learning component where students take their new knowledge, in combination with their communication expertise, and engage with an unfamiliar or unknown Omaha community group.  P: COM major and Sr. stdg.

COM 493  Directed Independent Readings in Communication (1-3) I, II, S
In-depth survey of literature on a topic determined in consultation between a student and faculty supervisor. Requires extensive library work and a written analysis of readings. Subject matter and method constructed to meet the individual needs of students. May be repeated for credit to a limit of six hours.  P: IC and approval of major advisor.

COM 494  Directed Independent Study in Communication (1-3) I, II, S
Subject matter and method constructed to meet the individual needs of students. May be repeated for credit to a limit of three credits.  P: IC and approval of major advisor.

COM 495  Special Topics in Communication Studies (3) OD
Focus on developing practical application of communication concepts in a variety of contexts. Course will be subtitled in the Schedule of Courses. No more than six hours of COM 495 may be taken for credit toward a degree.  P: Major status or IC.

COM 496  Communication Internship and Professional Development (3) I, II, S
Students are placed in organizations for the purpose of applying the principles and theories learned in the classroom. Supervision provided both on site and on campus. May be repeated for credit to a limit of six semester hours.  P: Eighteen hours of COM courses or IC.

COM 497  Senior Research in Communication Studies (3) I
This course reinforces students’ knowledge of the communication research process by reviewing the methodical alternatives in the field, introducing students to exemplary scholarship in communication studies, and by guiding students through the completion of original research projects.  P: Sr. stdg.

COM 501  Varsity Debate and Forensics (1-3) I, II
Intercollegiate competitive debate and forensics. May be repeated for credit to a limit of three hours.  P: IC.
INFORMATICS AND COMPUTING SCIENCE
For the Informatics and Computing Science Program of Study, please refer to page 160.

CSC 121 Computers and Scientific Thinking (3) I, II
An overview of computing technology and its use in scientific disciplines. The scientific method will be studied, as students develop critical-thinking and problem solving skills with applications in computer science and the natural sciences. Topics include computer organization, the impact of technology on society, and interactive Web page development.

CSC 221 Introduction to Programming (3) I, II
A first course in computer programming and problem solving, with an emphasis on multimedia applications. Specific topics include algorithm development, basic control structures, simple data types and data structures, and image/sound processing.

CSC 222 Object-Oriented Programming (3) II
A second course in computer programming, emphasizing the object-oriented approach to software development. Specific topics include object-oriented design, classes and objects, encapsulation, list processing, and recursion. P: CSC 221.

CSC 221 Computers and Scientific Thinking (3) I, II
An overview of computing technology and its use in scientific disciplines. The scientific method will be studied, as students develop critical-thinking and problem solving skills with applications in computer science and the natural sciences. Topics include computer organization, the impact of technology on society, and interactive Web page development.

CSC 221 Introduction to Programming (3) I, II
A first course in computer programming and problem solving, with an emphasis on multimedia applications. Specific topics include algorithm development, basic control structures, simple data types and data structures, and image/sound processing.

CSC 321 Data Structures (3)
An introduction to fundamental data structures used in solving problems, including the programming and mathematical concepts required to implement and analyze data structures. Specific data structures include lists, stacks, queues, and linked structures. Supporting concepts include logic, proof techniques, and basic graph theory. P: CSC 221.

CSC 321 Data Structures (3)
An introduction to fundamental data structures used in solving problems, including the programming and mathematical concepts required to implement and analyze data structures. Specific data structures include lists, stacks, queues, and linked structures. Supporting concepts include logic, proof techniques, and basic graph theory. P: CSC 221.

CSC 414 Computer Organization (3) I
An introduction to the organization and design of modern computing devices. Topics include basic addressing modes, instruction formats and interpretation, I/O devices, memory organization, and microprogrammed control. P: CSC 221.

CSC 414 Computer Organization (3) I
An introduction to the organization and design of modern computing devices. Topics include basic addressing modes, instruction formats and interpretation, I/O devices, memory organization, and microprogrammed control. P: CSC 221.

CSC 421 Algorithm Design and Analysis (3)
An advanced problem-solving course that focuses on the design, implementation, and analysis of algorithms. Specific algorithmic approaches include divide-and-conquer, greedy, backtracking, and dynamic programming. The connections between algorithms and data structures, such as trees and hash tables, are highlighted. P: CSC 321.

CSC 421 Algorithm Design and Analysis (3)
An advanced problem-solving course that focuses on the design, implementation, and analysis of algorithms. Specific algorithmic approaches include divide-and-conquer, greedy, backtracking, and dynamic programming. The connections between algorithms and data structures, such as trees and hash tables, are highlighted. P: CSC 321.

CSC 444 Human Computer Interaction (3) II
A survey of topics and techniques related to the design of software and hardware interfaces. In studying systems that interact effectively with humans, the investigator must understand principles of human behavior, physiological and psychological characteristics of human cognition, ergonomics, information systems, and interface design.

CSC 444 Human Computer Interaction (3) II
A survey of topics and techniques related to the design of software and hardware interfaces. In studying systems that interact effectively with humans, the investigator must understand principles of human behavior, physiological and psychological characteristics of human cognition, ergonomics, information systems, and interface design.

CSC 448 Freedom and Security in a Digitally-Divided Society (3) (Same as SRP 448)
A Senior Perspective course in which students explore the concepts of Freedom and Security in the Cyber world. This course examines how power is gained and waged through computer technology, and how Freedom and Security are moral banners for the promulgation of this power. P: PHL 250 or THL 250 and Sr. stdg.

CSC 448 Freedom and Security in a Digitally-Divided Society (3) (Same as SRP 448)
A Senior Perspective course in which students explore the concepts of Freedom and Security in the Cyber world. This course examines how power is gained and waged through computer technology, and how Freedom and Security are moral banners for the promulgation of this power. P: PHL 250 or THL 250 and Sr. stdg.

CSC 493 Directed Independent Readings (Credit by arrangement)
A directed reading course investigating current topics in computer science. May be repeated for credit to a limit of six hours. P: IC.

CSC 493 Directed Independent Readings (Credit by arrangement)
A directed reading course investigating current topics in computer science. May be repeated for credit to a limit of six hours. P: IC.

CSC 495 Directed Independent Study (Credit by arrangement)
A directed study course investigating current topics in computer science. May be repeated for credit to a limit of six hours. P: IC.

CSC 495 Directed Independent Study (Credit by arrangement)
A directed study course investigating current topics in computer science. May be repeated for credit to a limit of six hours. P: IC.

CSC 497 Directed Independent Research (1-3)
A research project under the guidance of a member of the faculty. A student may complete up to three credit hours of CSC 497 and CSC 499 combined. P: IC.

CSC 497 Directed Independent Research (1-3)
A research project under the guidance of a member of the faculty. A student may complete up to three credit hours of CSC 497 and CSC 499 combined. P: IC.

CSC 499 Directed Internship (1-3)
Students gain professional experience by placement in a computing company or information technology department on a part-time basis for one semester. Students will work closely with a faculty advisor to define the project, identify its academic content, and report on its results. A student may complete up to three credit hours of CSC 497 and CSC 499 combined. P: IC.
CSC 515  Computer Architecture (3) OD
An advanced study of the architecture of computer systems. Specific topics include system components, microprogramming, parallel computers, pipeline and vector processing, and VLSI. P: CSC 414.

CSC 525  Theory of Computation (3) OD
A study of models of computing and the theoretical limitations of computation. Specific topics include formal grammars, finite state machines, Turing machines, and computability. P: CSC 421.

CSC 533  Programming Languages (3) II
A survey of modern languages, including their design and implementation. Specific topics include declarative programming, procedural programming, scripting, syntax and semantics, memory management, data types, and control structures. P: CSC 321.

CSC 538  Computer Networks (3) OD
A study of the foundational techniques of computer networking, with special emphasis on current technologies and architectures. Specific topics include local area networking, network topologies, file services, and security. P: CSC 414.

CSC 539  Operating Systems (3) OD
A study of the design and implementation of systems software for controlling the hardware and software components of computers. Specific topics include memory management, virtual memory, CPU scheduling, and file structures. P: CSC 321.

CSC 542  Relational Database Design (3) OD
A survey of techniques for designing and implementing databases using a relational model. Specific topics include relational algebra, SQL, normal forms, database design, concurrency control, and error recovery. P: CSC 321.

CSC 548  Software Engineering (3) II
A project-based course that utilizes industry-proven methodologies for the design, implementation, and management of software projects. Specific topics include team coordination, UML modeling, design specifications, version control, reusability, and testing. P: CSC 321.

CSC 550  Artificial Intelligence (3) OD
A survey of foundational concepts and current research in artificial intelligence. Specific topics include knowledge representation, search methods, expert systems, machine learning and perception, neural networks, and emergent systems. P: CSC 421.

CSC 551  Web Programming (3) I
An advanced study of Internet and Web protocols and the integration of programming techniques with a Web interface. Both client-side and server-side programming are covered, with topics including HTML, client-side scripting, server-side programming via the Common Gateway Interface, and current development technologies. P: CSC 222 or CSC 121 and 221.

CSC 555  Computer Graphics (3) OD
This course covers the algorithms and technology for developing and manipulating graphical images on a computer. Topics include graphics display devices, digital storage, interactive versus passive graphics, and the mathematics of 2-dimensional and 3-dimensional transformations. P: CSC 421.

CSC 581  Mobile App Development (3)
This project-based course presents the fundamental concepts and techniques of mobile application development. Specific topics include modern design methodologies, mobile resource limitations, development tools, and project management. P: CSC 221.

CSC 590  Special Topics (3)
This course provides an in-depth examination of one or more current topics in computer science, through a combination of lecture, discussion and student presentations. P: IC.

CSC 599  Senior Capstone (3)
A survey of foundational concepts and current research in artificial intelligence. Specific topics include knowledge representation, search methods, expert systems, machine learning and perception, neural networks, and emergent systems. P: Sr. stdg. or IC.
COUNSELOR EDUCATION

The Graduate Program in Counseling is in a major revision process. This revision will lead to application for accreditation by the Council for Accreditation of Counseling and Related Educational Programs (CACREP). Current program information may be obtained from the Director of the Counseling Program.

COU 390 Residence Halls Advising (3) I, II
Designed to give resident assistants (RA’s) knowledge of the role of residence halls in promoting the growth and development of college students and to provide them with the requisite knowledge and skills in helping, problem-solving, crisis management, community development, and programming to achieve this goal. P: Resident halls advisors only.

COU 540 Professional Orientation and Ethics in Counseling (3) I (Same as PSY 540)
A survey of the counseling process including the role of the counselor, characteristics of clients, helping and referral skills, and theories of counseling. The Code of Ethics supporting the profession is introduced. P: Sr. stdg.

COU 542 Seminar in Counseling (1) I

COU 544 Life Span Development (3) I, S
Focuses on a broad overview of physical, social, and psychological aspects of human development from conception to old age. P: Sr. stdg.

COU 573 Treatment Modalities in Marriage and Family Therapy (3) OD
The primary family systems modalities in marriage and family therapy are presented both in theory and in case study analysis. The presenting problem, history of the problem, family history, identification of dysfunctional dynamics, goals, plan of treatment, and outcome/evaluation are emphasized in each modality. P: IC.

COU 575 Introduction to Peer Education in Student Development Programming (3) OD
Introductory course in the conceptualization, development, and practical application of innovative outreach programming in student service settings. Emphasis on presentation development in such areas as interpersonal relationships, health and wellness issues, stress management, alcohol and drugs, career planning, and leadership development. P: Jr. stdg.

COU 580 Theory and Treatment of Addictive Disorders (3) OD
Presentation of substance abuse theory, various treatment approaches, and intervention strategies which are currently in use in chemical dependency treatment and prevention programs. Students will have the opportunity to explore several theoretical approaches, incorporate these approaches into their own on-going developmental body of knowledge, and develop an integration plan to utilize their own personal theory of counseling in a program of treatment for chemical dependency. P: Jr. stdg.

COU 582 Family Dynamics of Addictive Disorders (3) OD
Designed to provide students with an understanding of various ways in which the family is affected by the addiction of one or more of its members. Students will have the opportunity to explore several theoretical approaches to family work, become aware of current research in the area, gain an understanding of current intervention strategies used with the family, and explore the variety of ways in which the family is involved in the rehabilitation process. P: Jr. stdg.

COU 583 Case Planning and Clinical Treatment in Chemical Dependency (3) OD
Designed to provide students with an understanding of the need to serve those who live with substance abuse/dependence or related disorder. This course provides comprehensive problem definitions, treatment goals, objectives, interventions, and DSM IV TR diagnosis for 29 substance abuse related disorders. P: DC.

COU 584 Stress and Crisis Management (3) OD
An understanding of the nature and causes of personal stress and crisis situations, methods of intervention and management. Emphasis on practical application through simulation and practicum situations from both a personal and professional perspective. P: COU 540.
COU 586  Drug Use and Human Behavior (3) OD
Examination of the effects of drug use on society and the effects of society on drug and alcohol use with emphasis on substance abuse and addiction. Discussion of the history of legal restrictions on the possession and sale of drugs in the United States. The pharmacology of commonly abused drugs will be described in terms that can be understood by those who are not in the health professions. P: Jr. stdg.

COU 590  Counseling Significant Losses (3) I (Same as PSY 590)
An investigation of the counseling process as applied to life events that occur in the area of significant loss. An investigation of the role of the counselor, characteristics of clients, helping and referral skills, and theories of counseling as applied to significant loss events.

DANCE
For the Dance Program of Study, please refer to page 146.

DAN 101  Introduction to the Dance (3) I, II
Dance classes where the student will develop an appreciation of three techniques at the beginning level: ballet, modern and jazz. Practical classes, lectures, video tapes and attendance at dance performances with written responses to the concerts are all requirements.

DAN 110  Dance Studies I (3) I, II
This is a combination class of Modern and Ballet or Tap/Jazz and Ballet. Further development of techniques taught in DAN 101. P: Three years of dance study.

DAN 111  Dance Studies II (3) I, II
Continuation of DAN 110. P: Three years of dance study.

DAN 112  Dance Studies III (3) I, II
Continuation of DAN 111. P: Three years of dance study.

DAN 121  Modern Dance (1) I, II
Fundamentals of Modern movement experienced through qualities of space, time, energy and flow; emphasis on technique and improvisation. May be repeated to a total of three credits. P: Three years of dance study.

DAN 131  Tap/Jazz (1) I, II
The further study of Jazz technique and tap fundamentals. May be repeated to a total of three credits. P: Three years of dance study.

DAN 141  Ballet (1)
The study of ballet technique to include ballet vocabulary and fundamental ballet principles. May be repeated to a total of three credits. P: Three years of dance study.

DAN 153  Stagecraft (3) I (Same as THR 153)
Fundamentals of developing the scenic background for theatrical productions. Introduction to tools and equipment through theory, lecture, and demonstration. I R, 3L.

DAN 210  Intermediate Dance Studies I (3) I
A combination of Modern and Ballet or Jazz/Tap and Ballet. Intermediate level study of these dance forms with accent on technique and vocabulary.

DAN 211  Intermediate Dance Studies II (3) II
Continuation of DAN 210.

DAN 212  Intermediate Dance Studies III (3) II
Continuation of DAN 211. For students who wish to have a further semester at this level.

DAN 217  Movement for Actors (3) (Same as THR 217)
A study of dance forms relating to the theatre including warm-up, tap, jazz, musical theatre, ballet, African dance and improvisation. The course is designed to help achieve the widest range of physical and emotional expression through the body in relation to the space around us.

DAN 221  Intermediate Modern Dance (1)
A continuation of DAN 121 for the student who wants to continue Modern dance studies. May be repeated for a total of three credits

DAN 231  Intermediate Tap/Jazz (1)
A continuation of DAN 131 for the student who wants to continue Jazz/Tap studies only. May be repeated for a total of three credits.
DAN 241 Intermediate Ballet (1)
A continuation of DAN 141 for the student who wants to continue ballet studies. May be repeated for a total of three credit hours.

DAN 242 Dance Composition and Theory I (2) I, II
Improvisation and elements of composition in all of the classical and modern traditions. The choreographing of a solo work in any one of the dance genres to be performed in front of a panel.

DAN 243 Dance Composition and Theory II (2)
Continuation of DAN 242. The choreographing of a trio or larger company to be performed in front of a live audience.

DAN 283 Summer Session Workshop in Beginning Dance (1-3) S
Classical ballet, pointe, modern dance, jazz and character dance technique classes are supported by music for dance. Guest faculty and workshop emphasis vary from year to year.

DAN 293 Advanced Classical Ballet I (1-3) I, II
Advanced development of classical ballet studies. May be repeated to a total of six credit hours.

DAN 303 Theory of Teaching Dance to Children I (2) I, II
Approached through pre-ballet techniques and progressing through the first two grades of the Imperial Society of Teachers of Dance (London) children’s syllabus. P: DAN 212/ DAN 241 or IC.

DAN 304 Theory of Teaching Dancing to Children II (2) I, II
Continuation of DAN 303. Completing the Imperial Society of Teachers of Dance (London) children’s syllabus. P: DAN 303 or IC.

DAN 310 Advanced I Dance Studies I (3-4) I
Combination class at the advanced level of study in modern and ballet or tap/jazz and ballet. Ballet at this level would be advanced for three credits plus one credit for either modern or jazz/tap. P: DAN 212 or audition; IC.

DAN 311 Advanced I Dance Studies II (3-4) II
Continuation of DAN 310. P: DAN 310 or IC.

DAN 312 Advanced I Dance Studies III (3-4) II
Continuation of DAN 311. P: DAN 311 or IC.

DAN 321 Advanced I Modern Dance (1)
For the student who only wants to take Modern Dance at the very Advanced Level. May be repeated to a total of three credit hours. P: DAN 221 or IC.

DAN 331 Advanced I Tap/Jazz (1)
For the student who only wants to take Jazz/Tap at the very Advanced Level. May be repeated to a total of three credit hours. P: DAN 231 or IC.

DAN 341 Advanced I Ballet (1-3)
For the student who only wants to take Ballet at the very Advanced Level. May be repeated to a total of six credit hours. P: IC.

DAN 342 Individual Choreographic Project (1)
Students are expected to exhibit a high degree of initiative and independence in developing their unique methods, forms, and style of choreography. Project culminates in performance. May be repeated to a total of two credit hours. P: IC.

DAN 355 Lighting (3) II (Same as THR 355)
Fundamentals of electricity, color in light, tools, equipment and practical application of the elements. P: THR 131 or 153.

DAN 383 Summer Session Workshop in Advanced Dance I (1-3) S
Classical ballet, pointe, modern dance, jazz, and character dance technique classes are supported by music for dance. Guest faculty and workshop emphasis vary from year to year. P: IC or audition.

DAN 391(151) Production Practicum (1-2) I, II (Same as THR 391)
Course is divided into two segments. Course description for segment one, Technical Crew: Technical crew work in Creighton theatre and dance productions; may include set construction, properties, sound, lighting. Per credit hour, the course requires three hours of shop work. work weekly (time to be arranged to fit student’s schedule) and working one production as a crew member.

Course description for segment two, Costume Crew: Costume construction for Creighton theatre and dance productions. Per credit hour, the course requires three hours of costume shop work weekly (time to be arranged to fit student’s schedule) and working one production as a wardrobe crew member. This course may be repeated to a limit of eight semester hours.

DAN 393  Advanced I Classical Ballet (1-3) I, II
Advanced study of Classical ballet. May be repeated to a total of six credit hours. P: DAN 341 or IC.

DAN 395  Directed Independent Study (1-3) I, II
Course designed to allow the individual student with a particular interest in dance to pursue that interest under faculty direction. May be repeated to a limit of six hours. P: IC.

DAN 398  Performance — Third Year (1) II, S
(Required of Dance majors and minors). Student to perform dancing roles during the semester or year. One credit represents two semesters of work. (One of those semesters may be in technical support). Application must be made to the department. May be repeated to a total of two credit hours. P: DC.

DAN 403  Teaching Dance to Children — Practicum I (2) OD
Supervised teaching to selected children’s ballet classes and assigned observation of teaching techniques. P: DAN 303 and 304 or IC.

DAN 404  Teaching Dance — Practicum II (2) OD
Supervised teaching of selected dance classes and assigned observation of teaching techniques. P: DAN 403.

DAN 410  Advanced II Dance Studies I (3-4) I
The study of Modern and Ballet or Tap/Jazz and Ballet at the very advanced level. P: DAN 312 or IC.

DAN 411  Advanced II Dance Studies II (3-4) II
Continuation of DAN 410. P: DAN 410 or IC.

DAN 412  Advanced II Dance Studies III (3-4) II
Continuation of DAN 411. P: DAN 411 or IC.

DAN 421  Advanced II Modern Dance (1)
For the very advanced student taking Modern class. May be repeated to a total of three credit hours. P: Instructors consent or DAN 321.

DAN 431  Advanced II Tap/Jazz (1)
For the very advanced student taking Jazz/Tap class. May be repeated to a total of three credit hours. P: IC or DAN 331.

DAN 441  Advanced II Ballet (1-3)
For the very Advanced student taking ballet class. May be repeated to a total of six credit hours. P: IC or DAN 341.

DAN 483  Summer Session Workshop in Advanced Dance II (1-3) S
Classical ballet, pointe, modern dance, jazz, and character dance technique classes are supported by music for dance. Special classes in the study of the Royal Academy of Dance (London) syllabus will be offered if there is sufficient demand. Guest faculty and workshop emphasis vary from year to year. P: IC.

DAN 492  Advanced II Ballet (1-3) I, II
Advanced ballet. This course may be repeated for a total of six credits. P: DAN 412, 441, or IC.

DAN 493  Advanced II Ballet (1-3) I, II
Advanced ballet. This course may be repeated for a total of six credits. P: DAN 492 or IC.

DAN 498  Performance — Fourth Year (1) II, S
(Required of Dance major and minors). Student required to perform dancing roles in two public dance performances. One credit represents two semesters of work. Application must be made to the department during the first two weeks of the preceding semester. May be repeated to a total of two credit hours. P: DC
Courses and Descriptions

ECONOMICS

Professors Goss, Murthy and Wingender (Chair); Associate Professor Deskins; Assistant Professors Brayman, Briggs, and Knudsen; Professor Emeritus Nitsch; Instructor Bastian.

Requirements for Economics as the Field of Concentration - see page 232.

ECO 203  Introductory Microeconomics (3) I, II, S
Nature of economics and the economic problem. Principles and problems of resource allocation and income distribution in a market economy with special reference to the American economic system; basic microeconomics of the household, firm and product and factor markets. Open to all students who have completed a minimum of 15 semester hours of college credit.

ECO 205  Introductory Macroeconomics (3) I, II, S
Microeconomics versus macroeconomics; major macroeconomic problems in an open economy. Measurement, analysis, and control of the overall levels of income, production, employment, and prices with a focus on the modern U.S. economy; monetary, fiscal and related policies for economic growth and stability. P: ECO 203.

ECO 303  Intermediate Microeconomics (3) I
Further analysis of resource allocation and income distribution. The individual household and market demand; market supply and production/cost relationships. Price and output decisions of firms in different types of market structures; factor market relationships. General equilibrium analysis and welfare economics. P: ECO 205; MTH 141 or 245; Jr. stdg.

ECO 305  Intermediate Macroeconomics (3) II
Further analysis of the measurement, determination, and control of national income and product and the aggregate levels of employment and prices; problems of, and policies for, economic growth and stability. P: ECO 205; Jr. stdg.

ECO 315  Money and the Financial System (3) I
Analysis of the functions of money; U.S. monetary and banking system and the role of financial markets; monetary policy, price level, interest rates, national income, international finance, and integration with fiscal policy. P: ECO 205; Jr. stdg.

ECO 318  Economics of Public Finance (3) OD
Theoretical and applied aspects of public budgetary management. Public budgets and their relation to the overall level of economic activity, resource allocation, and income distribution. P: ECO 205; Jr. stdg.

ECO 353  Environmental Economics (3) OD (Same as EVS 353)
The application of economic analysis to environmental issues. Emphasis on global environmental problems and policies and environmental problems and policies that are common to all nations. This course is not open to Economics majors or students registered in the College of Business Administration. P: Jr. stdg.

ECO 408  Current Issues in Social Economics and Political Economy (3) OD
Selective examination of current socioeconomic problems confronting both developed and developing countries and the world at large in light of the major politico-economic philosophies of the day. P: ECO 205 or 301; Jr. stdg.

ECO 413  Market Power and Antitrust Policy (3) OD
Study of the economic and legal forces affecting the evolution and performance of large firms in concentrated markets in the United States. Focus on the structure, conduct, and performance of concentrated industries and the role of the antitrust laws in regulating behavior in these industries. P: ECO 205; Jr. stdg.

ECO 418  Econometrics (3) OD
Application of economics, mathematics, and statistics to the quantification of economic relationships. Intensive use of computer. P: Jr. stdg.; ECO 205; BUS 229 or equivalent.

ECO 423  Transportation Economics and Policy (3) OD
Relationship of transportation to the national economy and to the business sector. Focus on principles of transportation economics, government regulation, passenger and freight transport, and such urban policy issues as energy and environment. P: ECO 205; Jr. stdg.
ECO 433 Regional Economic Analysis (3) OD
Examination of regional economic problems and solutions as they relate to public policy initiatives. Course consists of theory development and empirical testing with statistical models. Emphasis on the use of the most recent advancements in computer hardware and software. P: ECO 205; BUS 229 or equiv.

ECO 443 Labor Economics (3) OD
The study of labor market theory and policy. The relevant theoretical analysis of labor demand and supply. Analysis of current labor market policies and institutions including discrimination, unemployment, immigration, minimum wages, and unions. P: ECO 205; Jr. stdg.

ECO 479 Seminar in Economics (3) I or II
Exploration and analysis of selected problems, topics, and issues in today’s economic environment. Course content changes from semester to semester. This course is repeatable as long as topic differs (12 credits). P: Jr. stdg.

ECO 493 Directed Independent Readings (1-3) I, II
Directed readings course investigating theory and problems in the field of economics. Limited to students who want to develop a more in-depth knowledge of a subject beyond the regular course coverage and who have a GPA of 3.0 or better. May be repeated for credit to a limit of six hours. P: Sr. stdg.; DC and Dean’s approval.

ECO 497 Directed Independent Research (1-3) OD
Supervised independent research on topics in theoretical/applied economics. Limited to students who want to develop a more in-depth knowledge of a subject beyond the regular course coverage and who have a GPA of 3.0 or better. May be repeated for credit to a limit of six hours. P: Sr. stdg.; DC and Dean’s approval.

ECO 508 Development of Political Economy (3) II
This course deals with the development of economics from its earlier scholars such as the Greek political economists, Mercantilists, Physiocrats, Classical economists, and the Marginalists including recent contributions of the Keynesians, Institutionalists, and the Monetarists. The course critically examines chronologically, the impact of changing social, political and economic conditions on evolution of economic thoughts. P: Jr. stdg.; ECO 205 or equivalent for Graduate students.

ECO 513 Health Economics (3) OD
Economic concepts and their application to the health services industry. Addresses demand, supply, distribution, utilization of resources, market theory and analytic techniques including cost-benefit and cost-effectiveness analysis. P: Jr. stdg. ECO 205 or equivalent for Graduate students.

ECO 518 Comparative Economic Systems (3) OD
Analysis of modern variants of capitalism and socialism in light of the basic problems and principles applicable to all social economies. Fulfills the College of Business Administration requirement for an international course. P: Jr. stdg.; ECO 205 or equivalent for Graduate students.

ECO 528 International Economic Development (3) II
Contemporary theories of economic development and their relationship to the continuing problems of unemployment, income distribution, population growth, urbanization, and economic growth in the Third World. Fulfills the College of Business Administration requirement for an international course. P: Jr. stdg; ECO 205 or equivalent for Graduate students.

ECO 538 International Economics (3) I
Basic theory of inter-regional and international trade; analysis of the international economy, including the institutions, procedures and policies of world trade and finance. Fulfills the College of Business Administration requirement for an international course. P: Jr. stdg.; ECO 205 or equiv. for Graduate students.
EDU 101  College Major Selection and Career Planning (3) I, II
This course will assist the student in understanding the essential elements of selecting a college major and how those various majors fit into specific careers. The course will also concentrate on career exploration and the developmental process. P: Limited to freshman and sophomore stdg. only.

EDU 102  Decision Making Strategies Through Self Assessment (1) I, II
EDU 102 is an abbreviated version of EDU 101 and focuses on comprehensive self assessment of values, personality, interests, skills and talents combined with decision making methodology for career and life choices.

EDU 103  American Education and the Interactive Process (3) I, II
Course, both lecture and laboratory oriented, provides an approach to teacher education that includes an opportunity for students to acquire a basic understanding of the history and philosophy of education and to become involved in interacting and role playing in problem-solving situations. Emphasis on cultural diversity and human relations characterize this course.

EMS 457  Paramedic Clinical Transition III (3-6)
This is an Advanced Clinical Course for Paramedics that have demonstrated proficiency in all psychomotor skills in hospital and field settings. Students will be assigned to field and hospital rotations with the intent of demonstrating clinical proficiency and team leadership capabilities in all areas of hospital and field clinical practices. P: EMS 456.

EMS 460  Paramedic Certification Course for Health Care Professionals (6)
Course designed to prepare the currently credentialed critical care health care professional for the assessment, care, transport, and communication requirements of the sick and injured in the out of hospital setting. While giving an active health care professional (R.N., M.D., D.O.) credit for their clinical and educational expertise, this course supplements and augments skills already gained to enable the participant to function as a valuable prehospital team member with both ground and air service programs. After successful completion, the participant will meet eligibility requirements to complete the National Registry credentialing examination for Paramedics. P: R.N., M.D. or D.O., EMT-Basic certification; two years critical care experience, ACLS provider; trauma and pediatric course certificate.

EMS 470  Management of Emergency Medical Systems (3)
Emphasis on knowledge, skills and abilities required of first-line managers of EMS systems including personnel, operations and equipment. P: EMS 101.

EMS 475  Critical Care Paramedic Preparatory (2)
This course is designed to introduce complex critical care concepts to prepare students for a comprehensive critical care paramedic course. Content will focus on laboratory diagnostics and analysis, principles of hemodynamic monitoring, and basic 12-Lead ECG interpretation. P: DC; currently licensed paramedic.

EMS 479  Special Topics in EMS (1-3) OD
Exploration and analysis of problems and topics in today’s EMS environment. May be repeated to a limit of 12 hours. P: IC.
EMS 480  Critical Care Paramedic (6)
This course is designed to prepare paramedics to provide advanced critical care during inter-facility transports, including performing advanced clinical patient assessments and providing invasive care beyond the standard scope of advanced prehospital care. Includes modes of transport, flight physiology, barophysiology and transfer considerations, including safety, patient packaging and practice in a closely confined space), airway and ventilation management including surgical airways and ventilators, CPAP and BiPAP, thoracostomy, and chest drainage maintenance, central venous lines, expanded pharmacologic formulary, interpretation of laboratory data, 12-lead ECG interpretation, monitoring and maintaining an IABP, and hemodynamic monitoring. Instruction is provided in both didactic and clinical settings. P: EMS 475 or DC; currently licensed paramedic with two years of active clinical experience or registered nurse with a minimum of one year critical care experience; current Healthcare Provider CPR and ACLS; Trauma course (PHTLS, BTLS, TNCC, OR TNaTC); Pediatric course (PALS, PEPP, PPC, OR ENPC); AMLS recommended.

EMS 493  Directed Independent Readings (1-3)
May be repeated to a limit of six hours. P: DC.

EMS 495  Directed Independent Study (1-3)
May be repeated to a limit of six hours. P: DC.

EMS 497  Directed Independent Research (1-3)
May be repeated to a limit of six hours. P: DC.

ENCUENTRO DOMINICANO
For the Encuentro Dominicano Program, please refer to page 127.

EDP 361  Social Justice in the Dominican Republic (6) I (Same as JPS 361, THL 361)
A multi-disciplinary study of the history, sociology, politics, economics and religion of the Dominican Republic and the Caribbean. Classroom work is integrated with service-learning and cultural immersion in a context of ethical analyses and reflection. P: DC only.

ENERGY TECHNOLOGY
For the Energy Technology Program of Study, please refer to page 128.

ERG 131  Installation and Maintenance of Photovoltaic Systems (3)
Design, installation and maintenance of commercial and residential solar arrays. May be taught in collaboration with Metropolitan Community College.

ERG 132  Convection and Passive Solar Energy Systems (3)
Design, installation and maintenance of convection and passive solar heating. May be taught in collaboration with Metropolitan Community College. This course provides a working knowledge of solar warm air systems. Topics will include collector design and placement, principles of heat transfer and air movement, ventilation and register placement, blower selection, controller function, and electrical safety.

ERG 211  Design and Rapid Prototyping Lab I (1)
Engineering design component of an interdisciplinary course in design and rapid prototyping. Introduction to the principles of green design. Computer aided design and rapid prototyping techniques in an applied setting. Introduction to user requirements documents and the design review process. CO: COM 153 and ENG 151; P or CO: MTH 245 or AP Calculus.

ERG 212  Design and Rapid Prototyping Lab II (1)
Engineering design component of an interdisciplinary course in design and rapid prototyping. Design skill enhancement using CAD software and presentation with digital media. Rapid prototyping applied to sustainable energy or related project. P: MTH 245; CO: JRM 202.

ERG 241  Introduction to Energy Transfer (3)
ERG 251  History and Technology in the Modern World (2)

ERG 301  Modeling Electrical Load and Yield (3)
This course is designed for students in the Energy Technology program. Basic principles associated with modeling and forecasting electrical load and potential yield will be explored through a series of project based laboratory exercises. These exercises will introduce students to the basic environmental parameters that determine electrical demand and the yield of solar panels. P: MTH 245 or AP Calculus.

ERG 311  Design and Rapid Prototyping Lab III (1)
Engineering design component of an interdisciplinary course in design and rapid prototyping. Design and prototyping project for technical users. P: ERG 211; CO: COM 154 and ENG 152.

ERG 312  Design and Rapid Prototyping Lab IV (1)

ERG 321  Introduction to Solar Energy (3)
This course develops a thorough understanding of the scientific principles involved in the production of electricity from solar radiation. Solar radiation, the function of solar cells, DC and AC circuits and the storage and transmission of electrical energy are covered. Economic and policy issues related to solar energy are introduced. P: ERG 241 or PHY 212 or PHY 221.

ERG 351  Energy Policy (3)
Tools for economic, social impact and political analyses will be considered. Student teams present cases for specific energy sources examining public policies in the US and abroad. The class will attempt to reach consensus on a policy proposal that will be reviewed by a panel of government and energy experts. P or CO: ERG 241.

ERG 361  Internship (3)
This is semester- or summer-long experience in professional energy- or sustainability- related setting. With the assistance of the internship supervisor students will identify their personal learning objectives. P: ERG 312 or IC.

ERG 481  Senior Project in Energy Studies I (3)
First semester of a formal year-long engineering, research or community service project done in under the guidance of a faculty member and course coordinator. Students may conduct advanced research, perform policy analysis, develop experimental prototypes, design new products, redesign existing products or engage the community in a significant sustainability effort. P: Sr. stdg. and ERG 312, ENG 153, COM 155.

ERG 482  Senior Project in Energy Studies II (3)
First semester of a formal year-long engineering, research or community service project done in under the guidance of a faculty member and course coordinator. Students may conduct advanced research, perform policy analysis, develop experimental prototypes, design new products, redesign existing products or engage the community in a significant sustainability effort. P: ERG 481.

ERG 493  Directed Independent Readings (1-3)
A readings project under the guidance of a member of the faculty. The project may be in the areas of design engineering, electronics engineering, architectural engineering or sustainable energy. P: IC.

ERG 495  Directed Independent Study (1-3)
A study project under the guidance of a member of the faculty. The project may be in the areas of design engineering, electrical engineering, architectural engineering or sustainable energy. P: IC.
ERG 497  Directed Independent Research (1-3)
A research project under the guidance of a member of the faculty. The project may be in the areas of design engineering, electronics engineering, architectural engineering or sustainable energy. P: IC.

ERG 521  Introduction to Photovoltaic Materials (3)
This course is designed as an introduction to photovoltaic materials including silicon, organic and other n- and p-type semiconductors. Sufficient scientific theory relating to the operating principles of photovoltaic devices is covered to give an appreciation of both the strengths and weaknesses of current solar cell technologies. P: ERG 321, PHY 222 and ERG 251 or IC.

ERG 551  Grants and Funding for Sustainable Technology (3)
P: Jr. stdg.

ERG 595  Special Topics in Energy Studies (3)
A course treating topics of special interest. This course will be subtitled in the Schedule of Courses and may be repeated under different subtitles. The course may be in the areas of design engineering, electronics engineering, architectural engineering or sustainable energy. P: IC.

ERG 597  Computer Models for Short Term Weather Forecasting (3)
Independent research and study course in Atmospheric Science and Energy Science. Students will work on computational models for weather short term weather forecasting. Students will work with advanced meteorological software and multi-node processors applied to projected wind and solar energy production and questions of peak electric utility demand. P: ERG 301 or IC.

ENGLISH
For the English Program of Study, please refer to page 131.

ENG 100  Introduction to Composition (3) I
Individualized approach to skills and strategies of expository writing. P: Placement only.

ENG 120  World Literature I (3) I, II (Same as CNE 120)
A chronological introduction to Western and non-Western literatures from the ancient world through the Renaissance. The course juxtaposes Greek literature, Roman literature, English literature from the Old English, Middle English, and Renaissance periods with contemporaneous literatures from Asia, the Middle East, and other non-Western cultures.

ENG 121  World Literature II (3) I, II
A chronological introduction to Western and non-Western literatures after the Renaissance to the present, with special units on 18th Century, 19th Century, 20th Century, and non-Western literatures. Works by and about women are incorporated throughout the course. The contemporary non-Western component places particular emphasis on African/African-American and Latin-American/Chicano literature.

ENG 150  Rhetoric and Composition (3) I, II
Emphasis on strategies of composition, including invention, organization and development, sentence and paragraph structuring. Individual sections will each be centered around specific thematic topics.

ENG 151  Design and Rapid Prototyping Lab I (1)
Communication studies component of an interdisciplinary course in engineering design and rapid prototyping. An introduction to the process by which messages are formulated and delivered to influence decision-making. Emphasis on acquiring common analytic approaches to message preparation, uses of evidence, patterns of inference and the selection and presentation of judgments. CO: ERG 211 and ENG 151.

ENG 152  Design and Rapid Prototyping Lab III (1)
Composition component of an interdisciplinary course in engineering design and rapid prototyping. Emphasis on strategies of composition, including invention, organization and development, sentence and paragraph structuring. Focus on technical writing. P: ENG 152. CO: ERG 311, and COM 154.
ENG 153  Design and Rapid Prototyping Lab IV (1)
Composition component of an interdisciplinary course in engineering design and rapid prototyping. Emphasis on strategies of composition, including invention, organization and development, sentence and paragraph structuring. Focus on writing for general audiences.
P: ENG 152. CO: ERG 312 and COM 155.

ENG 201  Interpreting Texts (3)
One of two foundational gateway courses required of all beginning English majors. “Interpreting Texts” stresses as course goals the ways in which literary and critical theory inform the understanding (reading and thinking) and creation (writing and thinking) of texts. P: ENG 120, ENG 121, ENG 150.

ENG 202  Entering a Professional Dialogue (3)
One of two foundational gateway courses required of all beginning English majors, “Entering a Professional Dialogue” stresses as course goals an introduction to the range of specialization areas within English Studies and their practices. In addition, students will enter the professional dialogue through formal research and writing in at least one of those specialization areas. P: ENG 120, ENG 121, ENG 150.

ENG 251  Advanced Composition (3) I, II
The ENG 251 course offers an intensive immersion into compositional areas that extend from, or are different than, those engaged in ENG 150, Rhetoric and Composition. Students will engage advanced rhetorical and compositional theory and practice, including but not limited to, multimediation, advanced research, and/or other critical textual concerns. P: ENG 150.

NOTE: ENG 120, 121 and 150 or equivalent are prerequisites for all ENG courses above ENG 295.

ENG 295  Special Projects (3) OD
For the non-English major. Usually a CHS course. Requires a university sponsor and written departmental approval.

ENG 300  Introduction to Creative Writing (3) I, II
Introductory practice in narrative and poetic writing.

ENG 301  Creative Writing: Narrative Forms (3) I
Theory and practice of narrative fiction. P: ENG 300 or consent of Director of Creative Writing.

ENG 302  Creative Writing: Poetic Forms (3) II
Theory and practice of the poem. P: ENG 300 or consent of Director of Creative Writing.

ENG 310  Writing Strategies for the Organization (3) II (Same as COM 310)
Presentation of written communication used in organizations. Topics include preparation of memos and letters, research skills, and the formal report.

ENG 311  Ethics and the Uses of Rhetoric (3) I (Same as COM 311)
Survey of the major works on rhetoric that treat ethics from the time of Plato to the Moderns. P: Jr. stdg.

ENG 312  Mass Media and Modern Culture (3) I, II (Same as AMS 312, COM 312)
Examination of the role of film, television, and print media in American life. P: Jr. stdg.

ENG 313  The Essay: Critical and Developmental Reading (3) OD
Critical reading of nonfictional prose concentrating on the logic, organization, style, and vocabulary of essays. Especially recommended for pre-law students.

ENG 314  Explorations of the Essay (3)
This course invites students to both study and practice the personal essay, examining this category often called “creative nonfiction” or the “fourth genre.” As both writers and readers, we will consider how identity is represented in our own and others’ texts.

ENG 315  Technical and Professional Writing (3) OD
Writing in and with technology; patterns of reports and correspondence; professional style and structure.
ENG 317 Composition Theory and Practice (3)
Composition is a field that approaches writing and its teaching as both a means and object of critical inquiry, something best learned by study and by practice. In this course, we will engage competing composition theories, examine and experience a range of writing practices and approaches, and explore problems and possibilities in literacy education. In this certified writing course, you will also have the opportunity to study your own writing process and development.

ENG 329 American Literature/American Identity (3) OD (Same as AMS 329)
Analysis of the treatment of the American identity as it is represented in American literature of the colonial period to the present.

ENG 340 English Literature I: Medieval/Early Renaissance (3) II
An historical survey of English literature to 1600.

ENG 341 English Literature II: Late Renaissance/Neo-Classical (3) I
An historical survey of English literature between 1600 and 1800.

ENG 342 English Literature III: Romantic/Victorian (3) II
An historical survey of English literature between 1800 and 1914.

ENG 350 American Literature I: Beginnings to Civil War (3) II (Same as AMS 350)
An historical survey of American Literature from its beginning to 1860.

ENG 351 American Literature II: 1860-1914 (3) I
An historical survey of American literature from 1860 to 1914.

ENG 352 English and American Literature: 1914 to the Present (3) I
An historical survey of English and American writers from 1914 to the present.

ENG 353 Introduction to Native American Literature (3) (Same as NAS 353)
The course focuses on several seminal literary texts in the Native American literary tradition as it emerged in the twentieth century. P: ENG 120, 121, 150.

ENG 371 American Literature: Vision and Reality (3) OD
Values and ideals in American literature from the Seventeenth Century to the present.

ENG 372 Western Literature of the United States (3)
This course focuses on seminal literary texts in the Western American literary tradition as it emerged in the late-nineteenth and early-twentieth centuries and continues to the present.

ENG 380 History and Criticism of Cinema (3) I (Same as ART 380, COM 380)
Motion pictures as a distinctive medium of communication and as an art form; film language; film history; film appreciation; critical assimilation of film content.

ENG 381 Literature and the Environment (3) OD
Explores English and American nature writing from the neoclassical era to the present. The course investigates the ways in which different authors have seen and have expressed their relationships to their environments and the human relationship to the natural world in general. The course examines nature writing in a variety of genres—poetry, novels, and non-fiction prose essays. It also covers relevant work from contemporary ecocriticism of literature.

ENG 382 History and Future of the Book (3)
Explores the history of the book, its impact on Human cultures and literacies, and its future in a digitally-mediated age. P: ENG 150, ENG 120 and ENG 121.

ENG 389 The Roaring Twenties (3) OD (Same as AMS 389)
Representative American authors and works from the 1920’s. P: Jr. stdg.

ENG 390 Introduction to African Literature (3) I (Same as AFS 390, BKS 390)
Contemporary African literature. Relationship between African literature and society, emergence of national and cross-African literatures, issues of cultural conflict, language and oral tradition, and other topics.

ENG 393 African-American Literature (3) II (Same as AMS 393, BKS 393)
A survey of representative African American literature from its inception to the present. The particular representative authors and genres and the historical focus of the course may differ each semester.
ENG 398 Literature of Francophone Africa (3) OD (Same as AFS 398, BKS 398)
Sample of representative Francophone African literature. Nature and functions of this literature, relation between it and society. Impact of non-Western cultural context on Western literary genres.

ENG 403 Seminar in Creative Writing (3) I, II
Small group or individualized attention and practice in the student’s chosen genre(s). Designed to allow the student extensive work on an advanced level, the course may be repeated a maximum of three times. P: ENG 301 or 302; consent of the Director of the Creative Writing Program.

ENG 404 Screenwriting (3) AY
Workshop in the writing of the feature-length screenplay. Designed to allow the student to do extensive work on an advanced level. P: ENG 300 or IC.

ENG 405 The Thirties (3) OD

ENG 408(510) Chaucer (3) OD
Artistic accomplishments of Geoffrey Chaucer, with particular emphasis on The Canterbury Tales. P: Jr. stdg. or IC.

ENG 409(509) Shakespeare (3) (2 on, 1 off)
Survey of Shakespeare’s background; dramatic analysis of Shakespearean plays. P: Jr. stdg. or IC.

ENG 410 Women in Literature (3) OD (Same as WGS 410)
Literary works by and about women. P: Jr. stdg.

ENG 411(511) Milton (3) OD
The mind, art, and historical significance of Milton as revealed in his major poetry and prose. P: Jr. stdg. or IC.

ENG 412(512) Studies in Major Authors (3) I, II
A study of a major author or group of authors. The particular authors studied will vary each semester. The course may be taken more than once. P: Jr. stdg. or IC.

ENG 420 Utopian Literature (3) OD
Examination of utopian models and ideals in selected literary classics, including anti-utopian literature. P: Jr. stdg.

ENG 421(520) History of the English Language (3) (2 on, 1 off)
Historical approach to the study of the English language from Old English to Modern English. P: Jr. stdg. or IC.

ENG 422(522) Introduction to Linguistic Studies (3) OD
Survey of the history of the English language and an examination of the structure of modern English grammars. P: Jr. stdg.

ENG 425 Popular Literature (3) OD
Examination of popular literary forms: detective fiction, science fiction, fantasy, best-sellers, gothic/contemporary romance, western, spy-thriller, horror/supernatural.

ENG 426(526) Canadian Literature (3) OD
Study of the fiction and poetry of major Canadian writers. P: Jr. stdg.

ENG 430(535) Studies in Irish Literature (3) SS in Ireland
A study of selected Irish writers and movements presented in historical sequence. Lectures by prominent Irish scholars will be followed by small seminars. P: ENG 330 or equiv.; Jr. stdg.

ENG 435 Literature, Philosophy and Economics: Critical Representations of Commercial Life (3) OD (Same as PHL 435, SRP 435)
This course will explore how literary, philosophical, and economic texts can reveal basic commercial forms such as the commodity, wage, labor, and capital, whose consequences for social justice we will consider. P: Sr. stdg.
ENG 438  Literacy and Community: Reading and Writing Toward Social Change (3) (Same as SRP 438)

This senior perspective course will allow us to examine literacy as an issue of human and social concern, as we pay particular attention to the relationship among literacy, socioeconomic and political power. Through interdisciplinary academic inquiry and community-based learning, we will examine competing conceptions of literacy and analyze the social ends each definition serves; reflect on our own literacy histories, assumptions, values, and beliefs; consider our responsibilities as citizens with access to culturally valued literacies; and strive to articulate a cogent personal position as literacy sponsors. Students should plan on completing 10 hours of on-site community-based learning. P: Sr. stdg.

ENG 439  Literacy and Technology: How Technology Shapes Cultural Literacy (3) OD (Same as SRP 439)

Students will explore the ways that literacy, technology, and humanity interact. Students will look at the ways that each of these entities affects the others. The course will begin with a historical look at human technological literacy, but the majority of the course will focus on present literacy and technology. P: Sr. stdg.

ENG 440  Introduction to Green Cultural Studies (3)

This course will introduce students to the field of cultural studies as it emerged in the U.S. and elsewhere, give students a working knowledge of cultural studies as a methodological approach, and facilitate the application of this methodology to environmental texts and issues.

ENG 442(542)  18th and/or 19th-Century British Novel (3) OD

Study of the British novel from Richardson and Defoe to Thomas Hardy. P: Jr. stdg.

ENG 443(543)  Modern British Novel (3) OD

A study of the British Novel from the First World War through the post Second World War period. Lawrence, Forster, Bowen, Woolf, Green, and others will be considered. P: Jr. stdg.

ENG 444(544)  Modern British Poetry (3) OD

A study of British poetry from 1900 to the present. Eliot, Hardy, Housman, Lawrence, and others will be considered. P: Jr. stdg.

ENG 450(550)  Contemporary British Literature (3) OD

A study of post World War II British Literature. P: Jr. stdg.

ENG 451(551)  Modern Novel (3) OD

Selected studies in modern long fiction. P: Jr. stdg.

ENG 452(552)  Modern Drama (3) OD

Study of modern dramatists and dramatic techniques from Ibsen to Ionesco. P: Jr. stdg.

ENG 453(553)  Modern Poetry (3) OD

Selected studies in modern poetry. P: Jr. stdg.

ENG 460(560)  Satire (3) OD

A study of various forms and techniques of satire with critical readings in the history and nature of the satirical genre(s); readings in satirical literature from the beginnings to the present; discussion of complex literary theories regarding satiric art. P: Jr. stdg. or IC.

ENG 461(561)  Comedy (3) OD

Comic theory; varieties of comedy; the comic spirit as an essentially artistic and moral viewpoint. P: Jr. stdg.

ENG 469(569)  Modern American Poetry (3) OD

A study of 20th century American poetry. P: Jr. stdg.

ENG 470  Seminar in Film Studies (3) OD (Same as AFS 470, BKS 470, COM 470)

Topical seminar with topics changing in different semesters. Examination of particular areas of film and popular culture. Topics in different semesters might include detailed examination of a film genre (e.g., the western; science fiction; detective films), or film and cultural studies (e.g., women and film; film and developing nations). May be repeated for credit to a limit of six hours.
ENG 471(570) Modern American Drama (3) OD
Study of modern American drama. P: Jr. stdg.

ENG 472 Alternative Discourse in the Academy (3)
We will engage a body of writing that works “within and against” academic discourse, asking how these texts appropriate and challenge academic conventions. We will study both the form and content of these texts, considering the cultural work they do-in and beyond the academy. P: ENG 120, 121, 150.

ENG 473(573) 19th-Century American Novel (3) OD
Study of selected American long fiction from Brown to James. P: Jr. stdg.

ENG 474(574) Modern American Novel (3) OD

ENG 475(575) Contemporary American Literature (3) OD

ENG 476 Writing and Working for Justice (3)
An examination of issues concerning social justice, community problems, and their role as citizens. In a variety of prose writing projects, students will be expected to articulate their sense of how family and community are interconnected and how they are part of the larger community. Students will write about how their assumptions regarding the correctional facility and the inmates match their experiences in the community-based learning. P: ENG 120, 121 and 150.

ENG 477(580) The Elements of Style: Form and Structure in Writing (3) OD
Study of the modes and strategies of contemporary prose discourse; includes practice in rhetorical analysis. P: Jr. stdg.

ENG 479 Creative Writing Internship (1-3) I, II
Students will gain professional experience in literary writing and/or editing through working in a supervised literary internship on campus or in the community. P: ENG 301 or 302 or IC.

ENG 480 History of Literary Criticism (3) OD
A consideration of critical theory and practice from the ancient Greeks to the present. P: ENG major; Sr. stdg.

ENG 481 Special Topics in British Literature (3) OD
A consideration of certain historical, aesthetic, and/or philosophical themes or ideas which serve as a means of forming an integrated view of British literature. P: ENG major; Sr. stdg.

ENG 482 Special Topics in American Literature (3) OD
A consideration of certain historical, aesthetic, and/or philosophical themes or ideas which serve as a means of forming an integrated view of American literature. P: ENG major; Sr. stdg.

ENG 483 Special Topics in Irish Literature (3) OD
A consideration of certain historical, aesthetic, and/or philosophical themes or ideas which serve as a means of forming an integrated view of Irish literature. P: ENG major; Sr. stdg.

ENG 484 Special Literary Topics (3) OD
A consideration of certain historical, aesthetic, and/or philosophical themes or ideas that cut across or fall outside the categories covered in Senior Seminars I-IV. P: ENG major; Sr. stdg.

ENG 489 American Prisons: Punish or Reform (3) (Same as SRP 489)
An examination of the philosophy of our social justice system and how members of the community can contribute to positive changes in the way inmates are regarded and treated. In a variety of prose writing projects, students will be expected to articulate their sense of how incarceration, punishment, and reform interrelate. Students will write about how their assumptions regarding prison and the inmates match the philosophy behind the way criminals are sentenced and the way they spend their time behind bars.

ENG 493 Directed Independent Readings (1-3) I, II, S
May be repeated for credit to a limit of six hours. P: Sr. stdg.; IC.
ENG 495  Special Literary Problems (3) OD
Study of specialized topics or problems that cut across or do not fit within traditional periods or genres.  P: Jr. stdg.

ENG 499(500)  Senior Project (3)
This course is designed for senior English majors to provide a capstone for work in the major and specialization (if any). Student’s will work on their own project - a senior thesis or creative writing project, as appropriate to the student’s individual course of study. The project will be directed by a faculty supervisor. Along with the final project, students will also submit a reflective essay examining how their project serves as a culmination to their course of study within the major  P: Sr. stdg. or IC.

Graduate-level courses (600-700-series courses, open only to graduate students) offered by the Department of English are listed in the Graduate issue of the Creighton Bulletin.

ENTREPRENEURSHIP

Professor Workman (Chair); Associate Professor York; Assistant Professor Gallo; Instructors Mizaur and Taylor.

Requirements for Entrepreneurship as the Field of Concentration — see page 235.

ENT 312  Innovation and Creativity (3) I, II
An outcome-based course in which participants learn to recognize, analyze, and support the key determinants of individual and group creativity and innovation within a social venture context. Social innovation refers to new strategies, concepts, ideas and organizations that meet social needs of all kinds - from working conditions and education to community development and health - and that extend and strengthen civil society. By examining theoretical models and contemporary articles and cases on innovation within a social entrepreneurship framework, the course seeks to help students develop creative business options for organizing and implementing solutions to difficult problems facing the world. This course begins the social entrepreneurship major and concentration sequence and is followed by Business Planning for Social Entrepreneurs.  P: Soph. stdg.

ENT 314  Business Planning for Social Entrepreneurs (3) I, II
An outcome-based course in which participants learn to create a workable social venture business plan for solving a problem facing the community, society or world. This plan will include a concept statement, market analysis, organization structure, financial budget, and time line for establishing a new venture to accomplish this social purpose. The plan can be for establishing either a profit or not-for-profit organization to accomplish the desired goal or to work with an existing social venture to initiate a new venture or growth. This course caps the social entrepreneurship major and concentration sequence.  P: ENT 312; Jr. Stdg.

ENT 316  Social Entrepreneurship Incubator (3) I, II
This course allows students who have completed ENT 312 (Innovation and Creativity) and ENT 314 (Business Planning for Social Entrepreneurs) to implement the plans devised in either ENT 314 or working in conjunction with a local social business venture, either for-profit or not-for-profit. Students develop an organization or will work with an existing organization to deliver the products or services spelled out in their plan. Students taking this course will be required to obtain any funding that is required to carry out their proposed projects.  P: ENT 312; ENT 314; Jr. Stdg.

ENT 366  Entrepreneurship Internship (3) I, II
This course is designed to give credit to students for major-related significant practical experience working in entrepreneurial businesses or nonprofits. The internship should allow the students to apply concepts and technical skills learned in the classroom to a real work setting. Students must work 150 hours during a semester; write a final paper describing the learning value of their internships; and participate in an end-of-semester synthesis session. The student's internship employment must be secured before registering for the class. The course is graded satisfactory/unsatisfactory and only 3 hours of internship credit may be used to satisfy graduation requirements.
ENT 479  Seminar in Entrepreneurship (3) I, II
Exploration and analysis of selected problems, topics and issues in today's entrepreneurial environment. Course content changes from semester to semester. This course is repeatable as long as topic differs.

ENT 497  Directed Independent Research (1-3) I, II
Supervised independent research on topics beyond the regular course coverage. Course is limited to students who have a QPA or 3.0 or better. P: Sr. stdg; DC and Dean's approval.

ENT 502  Finance for Entrepreneurial Ventures (3) II
This course is designed to provide students with an exposure to financial concepts in entrepreneurship from both a theoretical and managerial perspective. It is available to graduate students as well as undergraduate students majoring or minoring in social, bioscience, or general entrepreneurship. In the course, students will be introduced to the differences between cash budgeting and financial accounting and will learn to read and interpret financial statements, understand different methods of valuing a start-up company, and be trained to identify a variety of funding mechanisms that are relevant to financing startup and growth, including grants, debt, and equity. Differences in technology and not-for-profit from more traditional businesses will also be explored. P: So. Stdg.

ENT 518  Bioscience Technology Commercialization (3) II
This course is the first in a two course sequence designed to educate upper level undergraduate and graduate students in law, science, health science and business about commercializing technology in the biosciences. As such, it focuses on working in interdisciplinary teams to understand the invention and research process, public policy issues, market and demographic trends, commercialization channels, intellectual property protection, organizing to produce bioscience products, FDA and other regulation, insurance reimbursement policies, venture financing, and other topics relevant to this process. P: Jr. stdg.

ENT 520  Business Planning for Bioscience Ventures (3) I
This course is designed to allow law, science, health science and business students who have successfully completed ENT 518, Bioscience Technology Commercialization to continue to build on the technology commercialization skills learned in the first course of the Bioscience Entrepreneurship Program by working in interdisciplinary teams to research, create and present commercialization plans for research or inventions from Creighton University, the University of Nebraska Medical Center, and local Omaha-area inventors, including but not limited to students in the class. P: ENT 518.
ENVIRONMENTAL SCIENCES
For the Environmental Sciences Program of Study, please refer to page 136.

EVS 113 Introduction to Atmospheric Sciences (3) I, II, S (Same as ATS 113)
Introduction to causes of the weather for science and nonscience majors. Topics covered include cloud identification, factors influencing the development of storm systems; effects of jet streams on storm development; the formation of thunderstorms, tornadoes, and hurricanes; climatic change and human influence on climate and weather systems.

EVS 114 Introduction to Atmospheric Sciences Laboratory (1) I, II, S (Same as ATS 114)
Laboratory designed to familiarize students with analysis techniques in meteorology. Topics include weather observations; weather symbols and coding; map plotting and analysis; and basic forecasting techniques. Students will become familiar with the PCMcIDAS system. Accessing climate and forecast data from the internet is emphasized in select laboratory models. CO: EVS 113.

EVS 307 Demography: World Population Issues (3) II, ENY (Same as ANT 307, SOC 307)
This course will provide a sociological examination of the development and evolution of different models of population dynamics from several contemporary cultures. It will place particular emphasis on the assumptions and logical consequences of each of these models. Includes a survey of historical and contemporary trends in population growth, as well as a review of competing perspectives about natural limits to that growth. P: So. stdg.

EVS 333 Environmental Politics and Policy (3) I (Same as PLS 333)
An overview of the world’s environmental problems from a political perspective. Focuses on the political dynamics that shape environmental policy making. P: So. stdg.

EVS 335 Zoology (4) II (Same as BIO 335)
Biological concepts and principles exemplified by both invertebrates and vertebrates with emphasis on animal diversity, morphology, evolution, and ecological relationships. 3R, 3L. P: BIO 211 and 212.

EVS 341 General Botany (4) II (Same as BIO 341)
Modern biological concepts and principles exemplified by the plant kingdom with emphasis on plant diversity, taxonomy, and evolution. 3R, 3L. P: BIO 211 and 212.

EVS 351 Microbiology (4), I (Same as BIO 351)
Microbiology is the study of organisms too small to be seen with the naked eye. Despite their small size, these organisms are ubiquitous and play important roles in human health, industry, and the functioning of ecosystems. This course is designed to cover a wide range of material in lecture and through laboratory exercises, introducing students to the breadth of microbial diversity and physiology, as well as the basic techniques used in microbiology. 3R, 3L. P: BIO 211 and BIO 212.

EVS 353 Environmental Economics (3) OD (Same as ECO 353)
The application of economic analysis to environmental issues. Emphasis on global environmental problems and policies and environmental problems and policies that are common to all nations. This course is not open to students registered in the College of Business Administration. P: Jr. stdg.

EVS 354 Environmental Ethics (3) OD (Same as PHL 354)
Critical study of the anthropocentrism-nonanthropocentrism debate and the individualism-holism debate and how they affect each other in the context of the determination of ecological value. If anthropocentrism is in some ways defective, what implications do these defects have for our moral obligations to animals, plants, waters, soil, future generations, species, ecosystems, and the planet? P: Jr. stdg.; PHL 107 and PHL 250.

EVS 355 Environment and Society (3) II (Same as AMS 355, ANT 355, SOC 355)
Human societies interact with the natural environments in which they are embedded. An examination of the driving economic, political, cultural, and demographic forces that cause human modification of the natural world, the resulting social and environmental problems and public controversies. A focus on movements and policies related to environmental issues, and the prospects for the emergence of more environmentally “sustainable” societies. P: So. stdg.
EVS 374  Management of Environmental Risk (3) OD (Same as MGT 374)
Examination of environmental issues relevant to management decision making. Emphasis on risk analysis related to global/regional and workplace environmental issues. P: Jr. stdg.

EVS 385  The Ecology, Geography and Health of Lakes (4) (Same as BIO 385)
A summer field course that examines lakes in the North Central Rocky Mountains regions of the United States. This course is a combination of lectures and field and laboratory studies of the physical, chemical and biological properties of lakes in a landscape context. The effects of human impacts on lake ecology and ecosystem health are emphasized. The course includes field work at lakes and regional field stations in northern Iowa (Iowa Lakeside Laboratory on West Okoboji Lake), the Boundary Waters and Lake Superior in Minnesota, the hyperalkaline Western Nebraska Sandhills, and alpine lakes in the Colorado Rockies (University of Colorado's Mountain Research Station at Niwot Ridge). P: IC.

EVS 390  Environmental Science (3) II (Same as BIO 390)
Course presents a balanced, scientific approach to the study of the environment and stresses the application of ecological concepts within a systems perspective. Topics include ecological concepts, population principles, endangered species and habitats, resources, air and water pollution, environmental health, and global perspectives. P: BIO 211 and 212 or CHM 205/206.

EVS 401  Biometry (4) OD (Same as BIO 401)
Introduction to measurement theory as applied to biological studies. Data acquisition, analysis, and display procedures. Introductory statistical methods emphasizing sampling procedures, frequency distributions, measure of central tendency, analysis of regression lines, log dose-response curves (graded and quantal), bioassay. Lectures supplemented by problem-solving sessions. (Qualifies as laboratory course). 3R, 3L. P: BIO 211 and 212.

EVS 424  Sustainability and Rural America (3) (Same as ANT 424, NAS 424, SRP 424, SOC 424)
This interdisciplinary course studies sustainability and the diverse cultures of rural American peoples by looking at topics such as ethics, environmental resources, economic strategies, public policy and social inequality. This course offers off-campus field observation and ethical reflection assignments and involves students in active collaborative problem-solving research. P: PHL 250 or THL 250; Sr. stdg.

EVS 435  Coastal and Estuarine Ecology (4) S, AY (Same as BIO 435)
Coastal and Estuarine Ecology is a 3 ½ week, intensive travel course. Participants experience, first-hand, the great diversity of marine ecosystems of the Gulf of Mexico, Tropical Atlantic, and Southeastern Atlantic regions. The class will examine tropical coral reef, sea grass, and mangrove communities, barrier islands (salt marshes, beaches, mudflats), and diverse open water habitats (lagoons, bays, tidal creeks and rivers, and near-shore shelf waters). The course emphasizes physical, chemical, and biological concepts applied to coastal habitats, with an emphasis on adaptations of marine organisms to their environments, ecological relationships, sampling methods and site characterizations, and threats to coastal ecosystems. The class stays at nationally recognized oceanographic and coastal field stations in Florida, Georgia, and Mississippi. The Creighton 18' Sundance Skiff and field station boats serve as work platforms and provide access to various habitats. P: One organismal-level or field course in biology or IC.

EVS 440  Field Biology of the Desert Southwest (4) S (Same as BIO 440)
A field course designed to allow students to study faunal and floral desert adaptations. Students spend 3 weeks living at a field station in San Carlos, Mexico on the Sea of Cortez. Participants utilize field data to determine how small, ectothermic vertebrates utilize external heat sources in order to thermoregulate, culminating in a paper written while at the field station. Bioinventory activities include collecting, preserving and identifying museum quality specimens; trips to nearby Nacapule canyon, night time and day time visits to local tide pools, snorkeling trips including Isla San Pedro and its sea lion colonies. Participating students should be prepared for warm, sunny weather and time both in and out of the water, kayaking and sailing. P: BIO 212, and IC.

EVS 443  Environmental Geology (4) I, AY (Same as ATS 443)
An introduction to physical geology designed for environmental science majors. Topics include examination of rock types, evolution and geological times, soil development and processes, earthquakes and global tectonics. In-class laboratories will be devoted to identification of rock types, soil analysis, and determination of fossil types. P: So. stdg. or IC.
EVS 454  Environmental Philosophy (3) (Same as PHL 454)
Examination of a variety of theoretical approaches to philosophical issues concerning individual organisms, species, ecosystems, and the biosphere. Aesthetic, axiological, epistemological, and ontological issues may be addressed.  P: PHL 107, and one of the following: PHL 201, PHL 250, PHL 312, or PHL 320.

EVS 455  Food, Society and Environment (3) II (Same as ANT 455, SOC 455, SRP 455)
Access to food is a universal basic human need. This course considers the social and cultural significance of food, the ecological implications of producing it, and social justice issues that surround its distribution from several disciplinary perspectives. P: PHL 250 or THL 250; Sr. stdg.

EVS 460  Terrestrial Remote Sensing (4) II, OD (Same as ATS 460)
This course is an introduction to the techniques of observing the Earth from air- and space-borne instruments. We will cover basic issues of geometry and scale associated with making these measurements, electromagnetic properties of Earth surface metals, the range of instruments used to observe the Earth, and applications of satellite remote sensing to geological and environmental materials. The course will involve an independent research project utilizing remote sensing data and software.

EVS 480  Internship in Environmental Sciences (1-3) I, II, S An internship designed for students interested in working in an environmental setting in the public or private sector. Students may register for three hours credit for 60 hours of work.
Before registering for the internship, students should consult with the director of the EVS program. The internship may be taken for a maximum of six hours. Credit does not count toward a specialization area of the Environmental Science degree. P: DC.

EVS 481  Terrestrial Ecology (4) I (Same as BIO 481)
Introduction to the interactions of organisms and the environment, especially the biology of populations, communities, and ecosystems. Individual adaptations, the nature of the environment, population dynamics, and community organization are stressed. Laboratory exercises include field trips to terrestrial habitats. 3R, 3L. P: BIO 211 and 212.

EVS 483  Vertebrate Natural History Lecture (3) II, S (OD) (Same as BIO 483)
Lecture series designed to provide students with a modern overview of vertebrate diversity.
Lectures encompass ancestry, major adaptive shifts between classes of vertebrates, geographic distribution based on physiological limits, specialized feeding and locomotor modes, courtship patterns, reproductive strategies, and conservation issues. Recommended as useful prior to enrollment in EVS 440 (Field Biology of the Desert Southwest) and for students seeking a general understanding of vertebrate life, or those who are interested in teaching biological sciences. P: BIO 211 and 212.

EVS 484  Vertebrate Natural History Laboratory (1) II, S (OD) (Same as BIO 484) Laboratory exercises that will provide experience in the following areas: dissection of representatives of each major vertebrate class with emphasis on the diagnostic differences between groups; identification and preservation of vertebrate specimens. Field trips are available on a limited basis. P or CO: EVS 483.

EVS 485  Marine and Freshwater Ecology (3) II (Same as BIO 485)
An introduction to the community structure, biological production, and physical and chemical properties of aquatic ecosystems. The major features of water columns, benthic substrates, and lotic zones will be reviewed and compared. P: BIO 211 and 212.

EVS 486  Freshwater Ecology Laboratory (1) II (Same as BIO 486)
Introduction to methods for analyzing lake, stream, and wetland habitats. Exercises will examine physical and chemical properties, biological production and food chains, and water quality of freshwater ecosystems. P or CO: EVS 485.

EVS 487  Marine Ecology Laboratory (2) II (Same as BIO 487) Direct observation of marine coastal habitats (reefs, sea grass beds, mangrove forests, rocky intertidal zones, and offshore waters) at Roatan Island, Honduras. Exercises in the field and campus laboratory sessions will examine physical and chemical properties; marine organisms and community structure and productivity of marine ecosystems. CO: EVS 485 or IC; P:
BIO 211 and 212.
EVS 491  Senior Seminar  (1) I, II
All Environmental Science majors must take this course twice and must present a seminar on a topic agreed upon by the faculty seminar coordinator and the student's major advisor. Seminars will be presented by faculty and invited outside speakers. May be repeated to a limit of four credits. P: Jr. stdg.

EVS 493  Directed Independent Readings  (1-3) I, II, S
Assigned readings in the student’s area of interest. Course is only an addition to and not a substitution for any portion of the major requirement. May be repeated to a limit of six credits. P: Jr. stdg.; IC.

EVS 495  Directed Independent Study  (1-3) I, II, S
A program of independent study with emphasis on activities other than laboratory or field research. (Examples include library research or special course attendance). Course is only an addition to and not a substitution for any portion of the major requirement. May be repeated to a limit of six credits. P: Jr. stdg.; IC.

EVS 497  Directed Independent Research  (1-3) I, II, S
A program of independent study with emphasis on laboratory or field research. Course is only an addition to and not a substitution for any portion of the major requirement. May be repeated to a limit of six credits. P: Jr. stdg.; IC.

EVS 506  Environmental Chemistry and Natural Resources  (3) OD (Same as CHM 506)
The nature, identification, and quantitative determination of air and water pollutants. Study of natural resources and energy production. Topics covered include the atmosphere, ozone, the troposphere, natural water, acid rain, drinking water, metals, organochlorine compounds and waste management. P: CHM 205.

EVS 523  Environmental Toxicology  (3) II (Same as BIO 523)
Principles of environmental tolerance, bioenergetics and nutrition, homeostasis, and toxicology and disease will be developed and related to the organismal and population levels and to comparative responses to environmental disturbance. The course uses a reading/discussion format. 3R. P: BIO 211 and 212.

EVS 533  Physical Climatology and Climate Change  (3) I (Same as ATS 533)
This course stresses the theories and models of natural climate change and of that induced by human beings. The ethical issues of inadvertent and planned change of climate by humans are raised. Major topics include effects of CO₂ warming (greenhouse effect), ozone depletion; human-induced desertification; acid rain; urban microclimates. Methods of monitoring these systems are stressed relative to an increased world-wide need to limit or prevent human-induced climate changes.

EVS 539  Ecology of Zoonotic diseases  (3) (Same as BIO 539)
Over the past few decades there has been a resurgence of zoonotic diseases such as SARS and Avian Influenza. Why do zoonotic diseases emerge, and what factors lead to epidemics? This course will address these questions, and apply an ecological approach to an understanding of epidemiology in wildlife populations. P: BIO 211 and 212 and one of the following: BIO 351 or BIO 390 or BIO 432 or BIO 481.

EVS 544  Hydrology  (3) II, AY (Same as ATS 544)
Study of the waters of the earth, especially with relation to the effects of precipitation and evaporation upon the occurrence and character of water in streams, lakes, and on or below the land surface. In terms of hydrologic cycle, the scope of this course may be defined as that portion of the cycle from precipitation to reevaporation or return of the water to the seas. P: EVS 113 or ATS 231.

EVS 549  Environmental Physiology  (3) I (Same as BIO 549)
Impact of environmental changes and environmental extremes on animals and their physiological mechanisms. Examines primarily vertebrates and their responses to variations in temperature, pressure, and salinity. Basic physiological principles associated with each adaptive response covered in lecture and reading assignments. P: BIO 333 or EVS 335 or EVS 483 or EVS 449 or IC.
EVS 552  Boundary Layer Meteorology (3) OD (Same as ATS 552)
Structure of the boundary layer, surface energy budget, vertical profiles of temperature, humidity and wind, turbulence, Monin-Obukhov theory. Determination of surface heat and moisture fluxes. Some discussion of applications to diffusion and dispersion of substances in the atmosphere. P: ATS 572 or equiv.

EVS 553  Tropical Meteorology (3) I (Same as ATS 553)
Characteristics of the tropical atmosphere including convection, boundary layer processes, local and diurnal weather phenomena, meso-scale tropical systems, tropical storm structure, and energetics. This course relies heavily on satellite interpretation of tropical cloud systems. P: EVS 113.

EVS 555  Meteorological Remote Sensing (3) II (Same as ATS 555)
First section of the course is devoted to meteorological interpretations of cloud fields as observed from weather satellites. Second section of the course devoted to examination of general and specific applications of remote sensing of the environment. Includes imagery from satellite, ground based, and airborne systems; data analysis and decision methods; multispectral analysis and evaluation of water, terrain, mineral, forest, and soil resources. P: EVS 113 or IC.

EVS 556  Introduction to Physical Oceanography (3) I, AY (Same as ATS 556)
Geomorphology of the ocean bottom; properties of sea water; salinity and temperature distributions; major ocean currents and circulations; equations of motion, horizontal wind-driven currents; thermohaline circulations; wind waves and swell.

EVS 561  Entomology (4) I (Same as BIO 561)
Introduction to insect biology with emphasis on the major insect groups. Anatomy, physiology, and behavior of insects and their ecological, agricultural, and medical importance. 3R, 3L. P: BIO 211 and 212.

EVS 566  Climate Theory (3) OD (Same as ATS 566)
Theories of global climate and variability. Examination of climate models, including internal and external parameters and feedback mechanisms. P: EVS 113; EVS 561.

EVS 570  Introduction to Geographic Information Systems (4) II, ENY (Same as AMS 570, ANT 570, SOC 570)
An introduction to the design, development, and application of geographic information systems (GIS) and related technologies to conduct spatial analysis in applied research settings that require the integration of data from diverse sources. Students will complete individual projects focusing on a topical area of their choice in order to develop an understanding of the basic technologies, and to demonstrate their skill in using these technologies to analyze a research topic. Research topics may be drawn from any subject field for which data sets with geographic variables are available. These may include anthropology, criminal justice, demography, economics, environmental science, health care, marketing, political science, sociology and social work. P: SOC 312 or IC.

EVS 571  Animal Behavior (3) I, S (Same as BIO 571)
Evolutionary aspects of animal behavior, including physical and physiological bases of behavior, social behavior, behavioral ecology and genetics of behavior. 3R. P: BIO 211 and 212.

EVS 572  Animal Behavior Laboratory (2) II (Same as BIO 572)
Introduction to animal behavior research methods using structured observations and experiments in laboratory and field settings. 3L. P or CO: EVS 571.

EVS 573  Cloud Physics and Dynamics (3) OD (Same as ATS 573)
Thermodynamic processes which control the development and growth of clouds. Relationship between atmospheric properties and cloud structure. Distribution of condensation nuclei, water droplet spectra. Initiation and growth of cloud hydrometers. Structure of severe storms, radiative effects of clouds. P: ATS 571.

EVS 580  Current Topics in Ecology (3) (Same as BIO 580)
The focus of this course will be advanced topics in ecology, with an emphasis on the concepts and current approaches in ecosystem ecology. Primary literature will serve as a key resource for students. The structure and function of several model ecosystems will be explored in detail, with particular attention to the concepts of biodiversity, productivity, decomposition and nutrient cycling. In addition, the degree of human alteration of ecosystem structure and function as well as consequences for global ecological processes will be presented. P: EVS 390 or 481 or 485.
EVS 581 Evolution (4) I, S (Same as BIO 581)
Lectures and discussion designed to provide junior and senior students with a broad understanding of the science of evolutionary biology. Organized in three parts, each takes a chronological approach: (A) evolutionary theory, (B) mechanisms of evolution, (C) the implications and consequences of theory and mechanism; and as part of both the lecture and laboratory experience in (C, above) topics in evolutionary medicine will be covered. Laboratory sessions include computer modeling exercises to illustrate the mechanisms of evolutionary changes, an excellent film series, discussion opportunities designated to explore in more depth questions and topics associated with speciation, biodiversity and human evolution as well as a review session prior to each exam. 3R, 3L. P: One upper-division BIO course or Jr. stdg.

Graduate-level courses in Environmental Sciences are listed in the Graduate issue of the Creighton University Bulletin.

EXERCISE SCIENCE
For the Exercise Science Program of Study, please refer to page 140.

EXS 108 Scuba Diving (1) I, II
Instruction in various areas of scuba diving; opportunities to become certified. Students will earn an open-water certificate upon successful completion of the course. Students should expect to pay an additional fee.

EXS 125 First Aid (2) I, II, S
American Red Cross Responding to Emergencies, Cardiopulmonary Resuscitation and Automated External Defibrillator Certification may be earned. Emphasis on recognizing an emergency and providing care until professional medical help arrives. Students should expect to pay an additional fee for first aid supplies used.

EXS 142 Personalized Weight Training (1) I, II, S
Principles, techniques, and participation in weight-training activities for both men and women. Emphasis on improving muscular endurance, strength and flexibility.

EXS 144 Aerobics (2) I, II
Designed to increase cardiovascular fitness, flexibility, and muscular endurance. Includes instruction in high and low impact aerobic dance, step training, kick boxing, and circuit training. Lectures over essential fitness concepts are also included. Open to all.

EXS 151 Beginning Tennis (1) I, II
Instructional techniques, analysis, demonstration, and practice in the basic skills of tennis. Includes rules, selection and care of equipment, strategy on the court.

EXS 152 Intermediate Tennis (1) OD
Instructional techniques, analysis, demonstration, and practice in the intermediate skills of tennis. Some advanced strategies and skills. P: EXS 151 or IC.

EXS 156 Beginning Racquetball (1) I, II
Instruction in basic skills, strategies, and rules.

EXS 157 Intermediate Racquetball (1) OD
Instructional techniques, analysis, demonstration and practice in intermediate skills of racquetball. Some advanced skills and strategies; P: EXS 156 or IC.

EXS 161 Life Skills for Student Athletes (1) I, II
This course is designed to educate student-athletes in the dynamics of intercollegiate athletics through participation in all aspects of their respective sport, including conditioning, team drills and activities, academic enrichment, community service, and life skills training. Graded Satisfactory/Unsatisfactory.

EXS 195 Introduction to Athletic Training (3) I, II
Cognitive and practical experiences designed to introduce basic athletic training principles and skills to students entering the field of sports medicine and other health care careers.
EXS 240  Designing a Personalized Fitness Program (3) I, II
Assessment of individualized fitness level and the development of a personal fitness program. Lecture topics include physiological testing protocols, the explanation and evaluation of various forms of exercise, training guidelines for aerobic and anaerobic exercise programs, nutrition, prevention, exercise injuries and risk factors associated with cardiovascular disease. Two lectures and two activity sessions per week.

EXS 305  Therapeutic Modalities (3) OD
The purpose of this course is to educate the student pursuing a career in sports medicine in the basic principles of the use of therapeutic modalities as it relates to the athletic setting. An emphasis will be placed upon the practical use of these principles in the athletic training room setting in conjunction with associated program coursework. P: EXS 195, 331 or IC.

EXS 306  Therapeutic Exercise (3) OD
The purpose of this course is to educate the student pursuing a career in athletic training in the basic principles of rehabilitation and specific therapeutic exercise techniques as they relate to the care of the physically active. Special emphasis will be placed upon the practical use of these principles and techniques in laboratory settings and in the collegiate athletic training room setting in conjunction with practical experience. P: EXS 195, 331 or IC.

EXS 310  Practicum in Exercise Science (1) I, II
Depending upon area of interest, provides students with practical experience in areas such as athletic training, fitness testing, personal training, strength and conditioning, and wellness programming with professionals affiliated with Creighton University. May be repeated three times. P: EXS major, Jr. stdg. and dept. approval.

EXS 320  Human Physiology (4) I, II, S
An undergraduate human physiology course providing detailed coverage on the normal function of the human organ systems, while also incorporating discussion on physiological changes with physical activity and certain diseases. Information is presented from the cellular level to the entire organism. P: BIO 211 or 212; CHM 203/204 or 205/206; EXS major or IC.

EXS 331  Human Anatomy (4) I, II, S
Provides students with a basic knowledge of the structure and function of the human body. Lecture topics range from anatomical terminology to comprehensive overviews of the individual systems. Dissected cadaver specimens and anatomical models are used as learning aids. P: BIO 211 or 212; CHM 203/204 or 205/206; EXS major or IC.

EXS 334  Biomechanics (3) I, II
Introduction to the biomechanics of human movement. Study of the musculo-skeletal system with special emphasis on the application of physical laws and principles that govern movement of the body. P: EXS 331, EXS major, or IC.

EXS 335  Exercise Physiology (4) I, II
Study of the major physiological systems in the body and their response to acute and chronic exercise. Students will be introduced to laboratory techniques to assess body composition anaerobic power and cardiovascular fitness. P: BIO 211 or 212; CHM 203/204 or 205/206, EXS 240 and EXS 320 or IC; EXS major.

EXS 350  Nutrition for Health and Sports Performance (3) I, II
Considerable information is provided regarding the six classes of nutrients. Lectures focus on applying knowledge in nutrition into a framework upon which performance and conditioning strategies can be based or from which recommendations can be made for health enhancement. P: EXS 320; EXS 335; EXS major or IC.

EXS 395  Lower Body Evaluation (3) OD
The study of the evaluation, assessment, and recognition of athletic injuries involving the lower body. Uses knowledge of regional anatomy to assist with learning specific evaluation techniques. Special emphasis placed on emergency management. P: EXS 195, 331 or IC.

EXS 396  Upper Body Evaluation (3) OD
The study of the evaluation, assessment and recognition of athletic injuries involving the upper body. Uses knowledge of regional anatomy to assist with learning specific evaluation techniques. Special emphasis placed on emergency management. P: EXS 195, 331 or IC.
EXS 401  Exercise Prescription (3) I, II
Case study scenarios, preliminary health screening, risk stratification, fitness evaluations, and the design of exercise prescriptions for both general and special populations. Lecture topics include acute and chronic physiological responses to exercise, cardiorespiratory responses, resistance training, weight management, coronary heart disease and an introduction to metabolic equations and caloric expenditure. P: EXS 142, EXS 331, EXS 335; EXS Major or IC.

EXS 407  Basic Statistics and Research Design (3) I, II, OD
Designed to develop skills to read and interpret research reports effectively. Principles of experimental research design utilized in exercise science will be discussed. General statistical concepts will be introduced, including central tendency, variance, correlation, regression, and means comparison. Students will develop a research proposal and presentation based on a topic in exercise science or related field. P: EXS 335; EXS Major or IC.

EXS 420  Essentials of Strength and Conditioning (3) II
Theory and practice of designing and administering strength training and conditioning programs for athletes and non-athletes, including special populations. Course content from exercise physiology, anatomy, biomechanics, nutrition and exercise prescription is used in the formulation of programs; instruction of strength training exercises is provided. P: EXS 142, EXS 331, EXS 335, EXS 401; EXS major or IC.

EXS 489  Laboratory Methods and Procedures (4) I, II
Course designed to develop practical skills and knowledge in laboratory technique, procedures, protocols and exercise prescription in the areas of cardiorespiratory fitness, body composition, muscular fitness, flexibility and basic EKG interpretation. Additional laboratory testing will be required outside of regular class time. P: EXS 401, EXS major or IC, and current CPR/AED certification.

EXS 491  Exercise Leadership and Program Administration (3) I, II dynastic rivalry, and internal competition for sovereignty in Europe and the British Isles.

P: So. stdg.

HIS 415  19th Century Europe (3) II
The theme of this course is the transformation of Europe from the old regimes—torn by revolution—to modern, urban-industrial societies of the contemporary age. The focus will be on general trends and significant particulars in politics, in economic and social developments, and in cultural and intellectual life. The course will examine topics like: the postrevolutionary upheaval, the economic and social consequences of the first and second industrial revolutions; the spread of the culture of materialism; the triumph of political liberalism; and Europe’s fin de siecle. P: So. stdg.

HIS 416  For the Greater Glory: The Jesuits, their History and Spirituality (3) OD (Same as SRP 416, THL 416)
An examination of the Society of Jesus from its founding by Ignatius of Loyola during the pivotal 16th century, through suppression and recovery to the challenges of the modern, Post-Vatican II era, this course seeks to understand the Jesuits on two levels: through their controversial history, set within the context of their times and as represented by the lives of selected individuals; and through the development of their particular spirituality, Ignatian methods of prayer and discernment of spirits, as originated in the Spiritual Exercises and enhanced over time. Students will have an opportunity both to analyze Jesuit history and to experience Ignatian spirituality in their own interior lives. P: Sr. stdg. and PHL 250 or THL 250.

HIS 417  20th Century Europe (3) I, AY
Europe in the throes of change. A civilization caught up in a rapid succession of wars, revolutions, economic and social crises — and ultimate renewal under radically altered domestic and world conditions. Along with high politics and diplomacy, world wars, Communist and Fascist revolutions, the course focuses on everyday preoccupations of ordinary people and the increasing significance of their aspirations and values in Europe since 1945. P: So. stdg.

HIS 418  Great Empires of the Near East (3) (Same as CNE 418)
This course will examine the history, culture, and society of the peoples of Mesopotamia, including the Sumerians, Akkadians, Babylonians, Assyrians, Hitites, and Persians. Focus will be given to their distinctive institutions and world-views and how these are expressed through their cultural artifacts and social system.

HIS 419  Ancient Egypt: History, Society, and Culture (3) (Same as CNE 419)
This course will explore the history, society, economy, and religion of ancient Egypt from the predynastic era through the Ptolemaic period, as revealed through its artistic and material remains. Attention will be given to how sculpture, painting, architecture, and other material remains provide a window on Egyptian life and thought.
HIS 420  Selected Topics in Ancient History (3) OD (Same as CNE 420)
Topical approach to select problems or special periods in ancient history. Course will be subtitled in the Schedule of Courses. Course is repeatable as long as subtitle is different. P: So. stdg.

HIS 421  The Vikings (3)
Scandinavian history from settlement through c. 1300, focusing upon the age of Viking expansion from the late 8th through 11th centuries. P: So. stdg.

HIS 431  Mathematical History, Philosophy and Ethics (3) AY (Same as MTH 431, SRP 431)
An examination of mathematics and mathematical ideas and their relation to philosophical and ethical views from the ancient Babylonians and Pythagoreans to the present. Special attention will be given to non-Western mathematics, ethnomathematics, twentieth-century game theory, encryption, and ethical issues facing the mathematician and society in the past and today. The course assumes no mathematical background beyond the Core E requirements. P: Sr. stdg.

HIS 449  American Colonies (3) AY (Same as AMS 449)
Considers the Age of Exploration and the European discovery and America; the European colonization of North America; and the cultural, economic, political, and social development of the thirteen colonies which became the United States of America up to 1763. Emphasis on the transformation of Europeans into provincial Americans. P: So stdg.

HIS 450  Revolutionary America (3) AY
Considers the movement for independence and the struggle to establish and secure the new nation between 1763-1789. Emphasis is placed on factors which drove the colonists toward independence, the representation of their grievances and political philosophy in the Declaration of Independence, and the events surrounding the writing and adoption of the Constitution. P: So stdg.

HIS 451  The Early American Republic (3) AY
Explores implementation of the Constitution, creation of the Bill of Rights, formation of the first political parties, and roles of key figures such as George Washington, John Adams, Thomas Jefferson, and Andrew Jackson in the period between 1789 and 1850. Also considered are the democratization process, reform movements, nationalism, slavery, and that sectionalism which led to the Civil War. P: So stdg.

HIS 452  The Civil War and Reconstruction (3) AY
Development of the controversies resulting in the Civil War. The War, Political and economic reconstruction after the war. P: So stdg.

HIS 454  The Progressive Era in the United States, 1901-1920 (3) AY
The United States at the beginning of its imperial age. Topics include the Age of Big Business; protest and reform; the United States and the First World War; the Red Scare. P: So stdg.

HIS 455  The Republican Ascendancy: The United States 1920-1933 (3) I, AY
The cultural, economic, political, and social dimensions of the “Roaring Twenties”; the rise of isolationism; the stock market crash of 1929; the coming of the Great Depression. P: So stdg.

HIS 456  The Era of Franklin D. Roosevelt (3) OD
The economic, social, and political impacts of the Great Depression; reforms of the New Deal; from isolationism to participation in World War II. P: So stdg.

HIS 458  The Sixties (3) OD
A course on the social, economic, cultural, and political developments in the United States between 1960-1974. Topics include JFK and the New Frontier, LBJ and the Great Society, the Nixon presidency and Watergate, the war in Vietnam and the Movement, and the counterculture. P: So stdg.

HIS 459  Contemporary United States History (3) OD
A course on recent social, economic, cultural, and political events in the United States, 1974-present. Topics include the malaise of the 70s, the Reagan Revolutions, the end of the Cold War, and issues of the 90s in historical perspective. P: So stdg.
HIS 460  The History of Women in the United States (3) OD (Same as AMS 460, WGS 460)
The economic, social, and political status of women in the United States from colonial times to the present. Concentration on four major topics: the family, the work place, the community, and the feminists movements. An integral part is the examination of the traditional roles of women in society as well as changes in those roles. P: So. stdg.

HIS 463 Japan in the Twentieth Century: A History of Modern Culture (3)
This course examines the history of twentieth century Japan as depicted in literature, cinema, and popular music. Students will be asked to consider the importance of economic class and gender in addition to the larger ethical and moral questions concerning the rise of imperialism in East Asia; the prosecution of the Russo-Japanese, Sino-Japanese, and Pacific Wars; and the atomic bombings of Hiroshima and Nagasaki. P: So. stdg.

HIS 464 Gender and Sexuality: East Asia (3) II (Same as WGS 464)
Focus on the role and status of women in China and Japan since the 16th century, emphasizing how, why and by whom womanhood has been defined and redefined over time. P: So. stdg.

HIS 465 Japanese Popular Culture (3)
In this course, we will examine various aspects of Japanese popular culture from the Tokugawa period, through the imperial era (1868-1945), to the postwar/contemporary time (1945-present), though more emphasis is put on postwar Japan. Critical analysis of different forms of cultural production, from the theoretical and thematic perspectives of class, gender, globalization, modernity, national/racial/ethnic identity, sexuality, invented traditions, and war memory, will provide insight into Japanese history, culture, and society. P: So. stdg.

HIS 466 Narratives of East Asian Tradition (3) I
Survey of religions, philosophies, arts, theatres and sciences of both China and Japan. Course designed to provide students with an understanding of the traditional customs, assessing their unique thoughts and systems of values. Specific emphasis placed on how these customs have been practiced in both societies. Films, slides, discussions and collateral readings will provide the particular interest of the class. P: So. stdg.

HIS 467 Modern China (3) I
Course investigates how China has attempted to build a modern state in the face of its decline as the leading nation in East Asia during the nineteenth century. Central themes are the impact of Western civilization on China and the Chinese response to it as well as the search for a new identity in both the PRC and the ROC. P: So. stdg.

HIS 468 Modern Japan (3) AY
Few topics captivate historians more than Japan’s remarkably rapid and “successful” transformation from an isolated agrarian society to a modern world power. In the past 130 years, that small archipelago on Asia’s eastern fringe experienced political, economic, diplomatic, socio-cultural as well as intellectual change on a scale unprecedented in human history. This course pays particular attention to the ways in which ordinary people’s lives were affected (or unaffected) by the forces that underlay national change. P: So. stdg.

HIS 470 Conquest, Slavery and Piracy in the Atlantic World, 1492-1825 (3)
How did the indigenous of the New World interact with Europeans during their initial encounters? This course analyzes the colonial Atlantic world—the intertwined history of four continents connected by commercial, ecological and cultural exchanges. Themes explored include imperialism, identity, slavery, religion and the emergence of revolutionary politics. P: So. stdg.

HIS 471 Atlantic Revolutions and Empires (3)
Across the Americas between 1775 and 1825, revolutionary wars profoundly shaped the new nations, identities and cultures that replaced European Atlantic empires. This course will examine how Enlightenment ideas, slave rebellion and radical politics set the stage for revolutions from the U.S. to France, Haiti, Spain and Spanish America. P: Soph. stdg.

HIS 474 Heroes in Latin American History (3) OD
From Cortes to Castro, the development of government, society, and economy in Latin America as seen through the lives of its heroes and villains, its reformers and revolutionaries — the men and women who exemplified the cult of the personality as a primary force in shaping Latin American history. P: So. stdg.
HIS 478  Jerusalem in History (3)
Analyzes the Jewish, Christian, and Islamic histories of Jerusalem from biblical times until the present. Examines the ways each faith has made its claim upon the holy city. Topics include the Davidic city and the Temple of Solomon, the Byzantine interlude, the coming of Islam and the Dome of the Rock, the Crusades, and the place of Jerusalem in modern Jewish and Palestinian nationalisms. P: So. stdg.

HIS 479  The Making of Modern Egypt (3) II
This course focuses upon the political, social, and cultural history of modern Egypt from the early 19th century to the consolidation of the Nasser revolution in the 1960s. Topics include Napoleonic expedition; Mohammad Ali dynasty and the British occupation; Islamic reform; the “liberal era”; the Muslim Brotherhood; and free officers. P: So. stdg.

HIS 482  Race in America: Idea and Reality (3) OD (Same as AMS/BKS/PHL/PLS/SRP 482)
An examination of the idea and reality of race during key phases of U.S. history, with an emphasis on the contemporary situation. To understand the multiple meanings and experiences of race, the course draws on sources from science, literature, law, and philosophy. P: Sr. stdg.

HIS 484  Nationalist Movements in Colonial Africa (3) II (Same as AFS 484, BKS 484) Case studies of the development and course of selected nationalist movements in European-ruled Africa. P: So. stdg.

HIS 485  Society and Belief Systems in Africa (3) II (Same as AFS 485, BKS 485)
Examination of the social institutions of black Africa; the roles and meaning of the “tribe”, etnicity and the family. P: So. stdg.

HIS 487  History of West Africa (3) OD (Same as AFS 487, BKS 487) History of Africa south of the Sahara and west of the Cameroons Highlands, African cultural traditions, contact with Islam and the West, the State building, the European invasions, the colonial period, and reemerging states. P: So. stdg.

HIS 489  Southern Africa: The Politics of Race (3) OD (Same as AFS 489, BKS 489)
Examination of the historical development of the social and political structures of modern Southern Africa. Primary focus on South Africa, Rhodesia-Zimbabwe, and Namibia. Analysis of the place of “race” in national policies. Includes apartheid, black nationalism, decolonization, guided democracy, and the interrelationship between economic developments and the social and political systems. P: So. stdg.

HIS 493  Directed Independent Readings (1-3) I, II, S
May be repeated to a limit of six hours, P: DC.

HIS 497  Directed Independent Research (1-3) OD
May be repeated to a limit of six hours, P: DC.

HIS 498  History Practicum (1) OD
May be repeated to a limit of four hours. This course is graded Satisfactory/Unsatisfactory.
P: DC.

HIS 500  Senior Seminar (3) II
An integrative consideration of a major historical theme. Required of all senior history majors. P: Sr. HIS major.

HIS 524  History of Ancient Israel (3) OD (Same as CNE 524, THL 524)
An examination and reconstruction of the history of ancient Israel from biblical and other ancient near eastern literary texts, and from archaeological and epigraphic materials. P:
THL 100 and a 200-level Scripture course and Jr. stdg.

HIS 535  Modern Russian Cultural History (3) OD
History of Russia, its society and thought, as found in the chronicles, journals, novels, dramas, film, and music of Russian authors and artists. P: So. stdg.

HIS 542  The Rise of the Irish Free State (3)
Irish nationalism and independence movements, 1890-1923. Topics include the Irish Renaissance, Home Rule, the origins of Sinn Féin and the IRA, women’s political organizations, the Easter Rising of 1916, the Anglo-Irish War, Partition, and the Irish Civil War. Special attention will be given to Irish depictions of this pivotal era in literature, film, and music. P: So. stdg.
HIS 544 History of Ireland (3) AY
Course in the historical evolution of the Irish people and nation. Topics include the pre-Christian period, migrations and settlements of peoples into Ireland and abroad from Ireland to create the Irish diaspora, the Elizabethan Wars, and the Great Famine; Irish nationalism, the emergence of the Irish Republic, and recent developments in the Irish Republic and Northern Ireland. P: So. stdg.

HIS 545 Modern France (3) OD
France during the Restoration; modernization under the July Monarchy and Second Empire; the problems and instability of the Third Republic; the era of the two World Wars; DeGaulle and contemporary France. P: So. stdg.

HIS 546 Modern Germany (3) OD
Rise of Prussia and Austria; the impact of revolution and reaction; the Austro-Prussian dualism; Bismarck and the new nation-state; the Wilhelminian era and its crises; the republican experiment; Germany’s rise and fall under Hitler; postwar division and reunification as Federal Republic. P: So. stdg.

HIS 547 Postwar Europe (3) OD
Examination of Europe since 1945; the partition and reorganization of Europe under American and Russian auspices; political and economic reconstruction in East and West; the quest for unity in the West; social and cultural changes; successes and failures of the new society. Emphasis on Western Europe. P: So. stdg.

HIS 548 Russia’s Revolutions (3) I, AY
Revolution of 1905; World War I; Revolutions of 1917; Allied intervention; Civil War; NEP; Stalin-Trotsky rivalry; Stalin and the Second Revolution; World War II; relations with Eastern Europe, Asia, and the United States; internal political, economic, and literary movements from Khrushchev and Brezhnev through Gorbachev, Yeltsin, and Putin. P: So. stdg.

HIS 551 The Rise and Fall of Europe’s Empires (3)
This course will analyze the height of European imperialism from 1800 to 1960. Themes explored include how European nations came to dominate the globe and the rapid transition to decolonization after World War II. In addition, emphasis will be placed upon issues of nationalism, racism and economic development. P: So. stdg.

HIS 562 Foreign Relations of the United States, 1898-1945 (3) I, AY
Analysis of the domestic and international forces that confronted the United States between 1898 and 1945, and how these forces shaped American foreign policy from the Spanish-American War through World War II. P: So. stdg.

HIS 563 Foreign Relations of the United States Since 1945 (3) II, AY
Continuation of HIS 562. HIS 562 is not prerequisite for HIS 563. Analysis of the origins of the Cold War; development of the “containment” policy and the alliance system of the United States under Truman and Eisenhower; foreign policies of the Kennedy-Johnson administrations; the Nixon-Kissinger policy of “detente”; the Ford, Carter, Reagan, Bush, and Clinton administrations. P: So. stdg.

HIS 565 The United States and Canada: The Siamese Twins of North America (3) I
A phrase coined in the 1940s, are Canada and the United States still “the Siamese Twins of North America who cannot separate and live”? The U.S. and Canada are each other’s greatest trading partner, are jointly responsible for continental security, and are fiercely committed to their own independence. But the U.S.A. invaded Canada three times, called itself the “Army of Occupation” during World War II, and “lost” draft-dodgers to Canada during the Vietnam War. In an age of regional trading blocs and continental integration, explore the relationship between these neighbors that share the world’s longest undefended border. P: So. stdg.

HIS 566 United States and the Middle East Since World War II (3) AY
Survey of American foreign policy in the Middle East from World War II to the present. Topics include Truman’s Containment Policy in the Middle East; Truman and Israel; the Baghdad Pact; the Suez Crisis; the Eisenhower Doctrine; the Six-Day War of 1967; the effects of the Arab-Israeli War of 1973 and the oil embargo; Camp David Accords; the Carter Doctrine; Reagan and the Middle East. P: So. stdg.
HIS 567  Change and Revolution in the Modern Middle East (3) I
An examination of social, economic, and political change in the Arab Middle East in the twentieth century. Topics include Arab nationalism and the struggle against Western domination, the rise of authoritarian regimes in Egypt, Iraq, and Syria, the challenge of Islamic fundamentalism, and the prospects for democratic reform in the region. P: So. stdg.

HIS 570  History of Canada (3) OD
Founding of New France; Anglo-French rivalry; Canada and the American Revolution; War of 1812; evolutionary process to independence; Canadian Confederation, 1867; World War I; Statutes of Westminster, 1931; World War II; Canadian-American relations, 1775 to the present; Trudeau Era; relationship of contemporary Quebec to the Confederation. P: So. stdg.

HIS 577  Cuba Under Castro (3) OD
The roots of the revolution from the earliest days of Cuban independence through the frustrated movement of 1933, The emergence of Fidel Castro and his M-26 rebellion in the overthrow of Batista. Castro’s revolutionary domestic and international programs and the continuing controversies surrounding them. P: So. stdg.

HIS 583  Introduction to Historic Preservation (3) II, AY
An introduction to the theory and practice of historic preservation. The reasons for preservation; the history of the preservation movement; Federal, state, local, public and private preservation programs; case studies of preservation projects; a brief overview of American historical architecture. P: So. stdg.

HIS 585  Public History Internship (3-6) I, II, S
A supervised on-the-job experience at government or private agencies in applying historical knowledge and methods to cultural resources management, museum and/or archival work, historic preservation, and other areas of public and applied history. HIS 585 may be taken twice for a total of 6 credit hours, but only 3 of those hours may be used toward the history major. P: HIS major; Jr. stdg.; DC.

HIS 593  History of India: The Land of Bharata (3) AY
A comprehensive analysis of India from pre-Aryan times to the present. Topics include Indian religions; Mogul Empire, Emperor Asoka; the Sikhs; Westerners to India and British colonization; the Carnatic and the Anglo-Afghan Wars; 1857 Mutiny; Indian nationalism, Rabindranath Tagore, Congress party, Motilal and Pandit Nehru, and Mohandas Gandhi; Muslim League and Muhammad Ali Jinnah; the dilemma of Kashmir; relations with Pakistan and the United States, Indira Gandhi and the Sikhs, Rajiv Gandhi, contemporary politics. P: So. stdg.

HIS 595  Special Problems in History (3) I, II, S
Course will be subtitled in the Schedule of Courses. May be repeated to a limit of six hours.

Graduate-level courses (600-700-series courses, open only to graduate students) offered by the Department of History are listed in the Graduate issue of the Creighton University Bulletin.
HONORS PROGRAM

HRS 100 Honors Foundational Sequence I: Beginnings of the Christian Intellectual Tradition (3)
A study of the beginnings of the Christian intellectual tradition. Students acquire an ability to situate the Christian intellectual tradition within the complex cultural context of the ancient Mediterranean world and the Near East. P: Only open to students in the Honors Program.

HRS 101 Honors Foundational Sequence II: The Rise of the West (3)
A study of the development of Christianity from antiquity through the Reformation, and of its fundamental role in forming and fracturing the broad intellectual underpinnings of Western civilization. P: Only open to students in the Honors Program.

HRS 200 Honors Foundational Sequence III: The Modern World (3)
A study of the challenges posed by modernity to traditional Christian understandings of the world, and of Christianity’s responses to these challenges. P: Only open to students in the Honors Program.

HRS 301 Sources and Methods: The Epistemology of Political Science (3)
This course is an introduction to the study of politics. The focus will be on methods in the social sciences. That is, we are going to consider ways of knowing in political science. How do we know? The seminar will necessarily deal with paradigms, particularly how paradigms establish both ontological and epistemological bases for research and in so doing establish the boundaries of a discipline. P: Only open to students in the Honors Program.

HRS 303 Sources and Methods: Fuzzy Math Logic (3)
In the twenty-first century many mechanical devices have gained the ability to react to their environment: for example a clothes drier can sense the moisture content of its load and adjust the temperature and drying time to do a good job. The critical technology has turned out to be fuzzy controllers, which are used to dry clothes, steer cars, and fly space shuttles. This course covers the basic foundations of fuzzy set theory and fuzzy logic. The emphasis is on the modeling of linguistic systems. The second portion of the class will focus on the major applications of fuzzy set theory, fuzzy controllers. Additional topics may include similarity, pattern recognition and fuzzy linear programming. P: Only available to students in the Honors Program.

HRS 304 Sources and Methods: Non-Citizens in Democratic Athens (3)
This Sources and Methods course provides a detailed examination of issues pertaining to citizenship and social status in ancient Athens. By studying resident aliens (“metics”) and their role under the democracy of the 5th and 4th centuries B.C.E., you will be introduced to the study and practice of ancient history. P: Only open to students in the Honors Program.

HRS 305 Sources and Methods: Intelligence: Multiple Perspectives (3)
This Sources and Methods course explores the concept of intelligence from a variety of psychological perspectives. Students will be introduced to the science of psychology and its methodologies using the study of intelligence as the unifying theme. They will read scientific articles, books, and articles from the popular press. P: Only open to students in the Honors Program.

HRS 306 Sources and Methods: Organizational Learning: Finding Your Place in the World (3)
This Sources and Methods course focuses on organizational communication and narrative inquiry as a unique means for understanding the world and our places in it. Students draw upon the elements of human agency (Burke) to reflect on how organizational assimilation (socialization and individualization) occurs and how they, as individuals, learn about, interpret, influence, and create organizational change through continuous learning processes. P: Only open to students in the Honors Program.

HRS 307 Sources and Methods: Writing Our Lives: Identity and Cultures in Personal Writing (3)
This Sources and Methods course invites you to study and practice personal writing in forms ranging from essay to memoir to criticism. P: Only open to students in the Honors Program.

HRS 308 Sources and Methods: The Theology of Medieval Women (3)
This Sources and Methods course introduces students to the theology and spirituality of medieval women. P: Only open to students in the Honors Program.
HRS 309 Sources and Methods: Philosophy and Economics: Method and Horizon of Discourse (3)
This Sources and Methods course uses Veblen’s critique of the foundations of neoclassical economics as an approach to broader questions involving the philosophy of social science, the history of economic thought, the anthropology of economic life, critical social theory, political theory, the history of ethics, and economic history. P: Only open to students in the Honors Program.

HRS 310 Sources and Methods: Metaphysics of Film (3)
This Sources and Methods course in the Honors Program explores the multiple senses of “film” (long strip of plastic, cinematic art object, separated form, means of understanding the structure of the World) as an approach to the most basic branch of academic philosophy: metaphysics. The course involves a mixture of film viewing, critical reading, classroom discussion and lecture, and on-line activities. P: Only open to students in the Honors Program.

HRS 311 Sources and Methods: Graph Theory (3)
This Sources and Methods course in the Honors Program is an introduction to what is arguably the best modeling tool ever invented. Graph theory plays a very important role in many fields, including mathematics, computer science, game theory, and project management. Students will conduct research on graph theory to experience the very process of the research itself. P: Only open to students in the Honors Program.

HRS 312 Sources and Methods: Gödel, Escher, Bach (3)
This Sources and Methods course in the Honors Program uses an intensive study of Douglas Hofstadter’s Gödel, Escher, Bach as an introduction to human creativity and problem-solving ability. Problems like the Zeno Paradox, the Liar’s Paradox, and the Prisoner’s Dilemma originally seem insurmountable. Yet paradox really means that our assumptions are leading us to jump to unwarranted conclusions; the solution of such puzzles has historically led to some of the greatest discoveries in science and mathematics. P: Only open to students in the Honors Program.

HRS 313 Sources and Methods: European Literary Modernism (3)
This Sources and Methods course in the Honors Program concerns 20th century European writers of the Modernist movement who consciously broke with 19th century literary traditions in the effort to “make it new” through experimentation in poetry, fiction, and drama. P: Only open to students in the Honors Program.

HRS 314 Sources and Methods: This View of Life - Evolutionary Biology (3)
This “sources and methods” course in the Honors Program examines the fundamental concepts of modern evolutionary biology and how they are studied. Students examine the nature of science; the distinction between science and pseudoscience; types of explanation, modes of reasoning, and levels of analysis; and ways by which evolutionary hypotheses may be tested. P: Only open to students in the Honors Program.

HRS 315 Sources and Methods: Imagination to Invention (3)
This “sources and methods” course in the Honors Program examines the nature of chemistry as a discipline: what makes it unique, and what unites it to other disciplines? In particular, the course investigates the origin of ideas and concepts in chemistry, and seeks to relate them to basic principles of creative thought. P: Only open to students in the Honors Program.

HRS 316 Sources and Methods: American Identity in the World (3)
This “sources and methods” course in the Honors Program examines the ways in which Americans construct themselves and are constructed by others elsewhere in the world. The course explores the ideologies and rhetorical strategies, as well as the material realities and lived experiences, at work in defining what it means to “be” an American, both for those residing in the U.S. and for those who have never set foot on U.S. soil. P: Only open to students in the Honors Program.

HRS 317 Sources and Methods: European Metropolis 1900 (3)
This “sources and methods” course in the Honors Program is an introduction to the techniques of cultural history. It examines the creation and experience of European capital cities during the turn of the twentieth century, paying particular attention to the artistic and technological innovations that marked this critical period of urbanization. P: Only open to students in the Honors Program.
HRS 318 Sources and Methods: Animals, Persons, and Ethics (3)
This “sources and methods” course in the Honors Program introduces philosophical methods by way of the study of the nature of animals, the nature of persons, and the ethical dynamics between persons and animals. The course draws on literary and philosophical texts, ethological studies, and films to examine the complex ethical, social, and metaphysical relationships between persons and animals. P: Only open to students in the Honors Program.

HRS 319 Sources and Methods: The Psychology of Stereotyping, Prejudice, and Intergroup Conflict (3)
Students will develop a scientific understanding of the complex phenomena of stereotyping, prejudice and intergroup conflict by examining how stereotypes are developed and maintained as a result of basic social and cognitive processes and evaluating the various approaches and methods used to research stereotyping in psychology. P: Only open to students in the Honors Program.

HRS 320 Sources and Methods: Cosmology and our Evolving Understanding of the Universe (3)
This course is an exploration of humanity's ever-changing perception of the universe from the ancient Babylonians to today. We'll cover roughly 3000 years of evolving thought, examining four distinct eras of cosmology: the era of myth/philosophy, the era of enlightenment, the era of revolution, and the era of understanding. We will examine how paradigms shift and how our understanding of the universe has grown enormously in the last century. The course will culminate with a scientific yet non-technical description of the standard big bang model of cosmology along with the observational and theoretical evidence that supports it. P: Only open to students in the Honors Program.

HRS 322 Sources and Methods: The Catholic Church and Latin America (3)
The Roman Catholic Church has been present in Latin America for over 450 years. Initially an active participant in the conquest and domination by European powers, the Church has fundamentally changed its mission and doctrine over the past 50 years. Students will be introduced to Latin American history and Roman Catholic ecclesiology using the development of doctrine as the unifying theme. They will read primary sources in English and Spanish, books, articles, and scholarly journals. P: Only open to students in the Honors Program.

HRS 324 Sources and Methods: Classics of Social Theory: Positivism and its Discontents (3)
This course illuminates the common origin of the social sciences in the intellectual currents of the late 19th and early 20th centuries, focusing especially on the texts of Freud, Marx, Weber, Durkheim, Levi-Strauss, and Saussure. Students reflect on what we mean by “social,” “modernity,” “science,” “the family,” “language,” and “the psyche.” P: Only open to students in the Honors Program.

HRS 325 Sources and Methods: Evolution and Human Behavior (3)
Students will be introduced to the science of psychology and its methodologies using the theories of evolutionary psychology. They will read scientific articles, books, and articles from the popular press. The primary assumption is that the human mind and behavioral predispositions have been shaped by the process of natural selection throughout our evolutionary past. P: Only open to students in the Honors Program.

HRS 326 Sources and Methods: Gender in Classical Antiquity (3)
By reading and interpreting primary and secondary sources, students examine Greek and Roman ideas about gender including how gender roles governed men and women's lives; how the ancient Greeks and Romans defined and used gender categories in literature, politics, law, religion, and medicine; and how these ancient ideas inform contemporary ones. P: Only open to students in the Honors Program.

HRS 327 Sources and Methods: Greek Tragedy: Texts, Contexts, Subtexts (3)
This “sources and methods” course is an introduction to a crucial genre in Western literature. Students will: read the majority of extant Greek tragedies; understand the historical and material circumstances under which the plays were created and performed; and tackle the "macro" interpretive questions to which they give rise. P: Only open to students in the Honors Program.
HRS 328 Sources and Methods: Critical Perspectives of Disability and Society (3)
Disability is usually viewed as a condition of personal deficit, misfortune, and shame. This course will question practices and discourses through which these negative perceptions are generated and reinforced. Students will explore models of disability, reinterpretations of human variation, and narrative methods used to investigate the personal experience of disability. P: Only open to students in the Honors Program.

HRS 329 Sources and Methods: In Search of the Promised Land: Religion & Place in America (3)
This course will examine the quest for the Promised Land in diverse religious communities with a particular emphasis on religion and place. Issues for consideration include concepts of home and sacred space, religion and nature, the faith and practices of exile communities, and the influence of border culture on religion. P: Only open to students in the Honors Program.

HRS 330 Sources and Methods: Christian and Jewish Theology after the Holocaust (3)
In the decades following the Holocaust, the reality of evil, the power and benevolence of God, the nature of covenant, and other key theological concepts became points at which traditional Jewish and Christian theologies were challenged and defended. This course will investigate these challenges, focusing on the central concept of covenant. P: Only open to students in the Honors Program.

HRS 331 Sources and Methods: Representations of Piracy from 1600 to the Present (3)
This course examines representations of piracy from 1600 to the present. It considers the process by which pirates have become romanticized rather than censured figures as well as how the idea of piracy functions in terms of the illegal reproduction of various forms of media. P: Only open to students in the Honors Program.

HRS 332 Sources and Methods: “Thugs, Preps and Playas”: Critical Approaches to Masculinities (3)
This class will explore the concepts of manliness over time. Utilizing literature, poetry, film, popular media, and other genres, students in this course will interrogate the meaning behind being a man in contemporary society via multiple lenses such as through spirituality, sports, and different nationalities. P: Only open to students in the Honors Program.

HRS 333 Sources and Methods: The Renaissance Artist (3)
The artist and art historian Giorgio Vasari was the first to use the term "Renaissance" to describe the cultural movement that ran through Europe from approximately 1300-1550. Since then, countless historians in many fields have sought to make sense of the happenings in those centuries, many focusing on the era's chief protagonists: the Renaissance artist. In this class we will undertake a close study of the surviving documents of Renaissance art literature in an effort to understand better how the men and women of the Renaissance conceived of their time and their world. P: HRS 100; Only open to students in the Honors Program.

HRS 334 Sources and Methods: Green Chemistry and Sustainability (3)
Chemistry has had many positive impacts on society, such as the development of medicines and many items we take for granted. Many of these items have come at a cost to the environment. Green chemistry considers human beings, our surroundings, and the environment when designing a chemical reaction, experiment, or process. P: HRS 100; Only open to students in the Honors Program.

HRS 335 Sources and Methods: Not Lost in Translation (3)
This "sources and methods" course in the Honors Program looks at how the Bible has been translated from antiquity to the modern world. Students will situate selected versions and translators within their historical, social, cultural, political, and religious contexts. They will also learn how to identify and evaluate differing styles of translation. In addition, students will become familiar with the nuances of different contemporary English versions and will come to recognize how important these differences can be to discussions of topics such as the environment, sexuality, and war. It is not expected that students in this class will have knowledge of either of the major languages in which the Bible was composed, Hebrew and Greek. P: HRS 100; Only open to students in the Honors Program.

HRS 336 Sources and Methods: Theory, Method and Art of Autoethnography (3)
Autoethnography is both art and science, a reflexive research practice that uses the lens of the self (auto) to describe and write (graphy) about people and cultures (ethno). This course will introduce students to the methodological and theoretical roots of autoethnography, and then guide them in becoming autoethnographic researchers. P: HRS 100; Only open to students in the Honors Program.
HRS 337  Sources and Methods: Women in Music (3)
This course will explore numerous issues concerning women in music. These may include, but are not limited to: 1) The contributions and roles of women as composers, patrons and performers in Western art music, non-Western art music and popular music, 2) The portrayal of women in opera and Broadway, and 3) Feminist perspectives in musical criticism. P: Only open to students in the Honors Program.

HRS 338  Sources and Methods: Research in the Writing of Poetry (3)
This course will explore the role of research in the inspiration and composition of imaginative writing, specifically poetry. Students will practice various methods used in the process of creating poetry that is inspired and informed by research and learning in areas other than literature. Our central questions will be: How do poets write poems based on research into history, biography, science? What part does research play in the inspiration of poems? How do facts drawn from research and the poetic imagination interact? How do poets - how will you - choose areas to research? Can subject matter be drawn from and expand on, for example, daily interests and activities, such as other courses one is taking? In addition, students will explore the various elements of poetic form and craft. P: Only open to students in the Honors Program.

HRS 339  Sources and Methods: The Age of Augustus (3)
This course provides an interdisciplinary introduction to one of the most important eras in history. We will study how a nineteen-year-old youth, Gaius Octavius, became the first Roman emperor Augustus, and explore the ways the Western world was transformed during his fifty-eight years of power (44 BCE-14 CE). P: Only open to students in the Honors Program.

HRS 340  Sources and Methods: Introduction to Green Cultural Studies (3)
This course will introduce students to the field of cultural studies as it emerged in the U.S. and elsewhere, give students a working knowledge of cultural studies as a methodological approach, and facilitate the application of this methodology to environmental texts and issues. P: Only open to students in the Honors Program.

HRS 341  Sources and Methods: The History and Future of the Book (3)
History of the book as a literate, literary, and cultural artifact; Examination of important trends in text production from ancient times to the present; examination of contemporary directions, including digital venues, in traditional and multimediated bibliotechnology. P: Only open to students in the Honors Program.

HRS 342  Sources and Methods: Modeling Global Issues (3)
Students will be introduced to issues concerning comparative politics, nuclear stability, economic stability, economic freedom, creative economy, smart power, hard of hearing and deaf children, and the application of mathematical modeling to these and other issues. P: Only open to students in the Honors Program.

HRS 344  Sources and Methods: The Literature of Mysticism (3)
This course will focus on mysticism, East and West. Jean Gerson, the great 15th-century theologian and churchman, once defined mysticism as "the experiential knowledge of God that comes through the embrace of unitive love. In this course, we will explore the lives and writings of some of the great mystics, those remarkable individuals who claim to have tasted first-hand this "experiential knowledge of God." P: Only open to students in the Honors Program.

HRS 345  Sources and Methods: The World and Writings of St. Augustine (3)
St. Augustine (354-430) is among the greatest and most influential of Christian theologians. This course offers in-depth examination of both his career and his theology, exploring his major works (Confessions, On the Trinity, and On the City of God) his doctrine-shaping controversies with Donatists and Pelagians, and his influence on Christian views of creation, Church, sacraments, and grace. P: Only open to students in the Honors Program.

HRS 346  Sources and Methods: Philosophy as Therapy (3)
We will study the ways philosophers of various eras have employed philosophical therapies (e.g., against emotional turmoil or distorted outlooks on the world). We will explore the strengths and limitations of philosophical therapy and compare its techniques with those of psychological, sociological, and spiritual therapies. P: Only open to students in the Honors Program.
HRS 347 Sources and Methods: Stoics in Film and Literature (3)
Study of the idea of the stoic as presented in various literary genres, philosophical texts, and films. Examination of the stoic life as portrayed in poems, short stories, novels, treatises, letters, and video media. P: Only open to students in the Honors Program.

HRS 348 Sources and Methods: Pictures and Words: The Visual Book (3)
“Pictures and Words” will introduce the student to the history and fine art of photographic materials in books and visual design, as well as present the student with an introductory studio arts course in the hands-on creation of visual books with photographic materials and written text. P: Only open to students in the Honors Program.

HRS 497 Directed Independent Research (1-3)
Course undertaken in the department of one’s major. Students may not register for this course until research has been approved by the departmental research director. May be repeated twice. P: IC.

INTERDISCIPLINARY COURSES
IDC 491 Women in Science (1) II
Course designed to provide an historical overview of women in science while focusing on current practices. Discussion will emphasize barriers that women have faced in the past and strategies for coping, presently, in what is no longer a "man’s field." Class meets once a week.

INTERPROFESSIONAL EDUCATION (IPE)
Various health sciences professionals are involved in teaching this course.

IPE 410 Foundation in Patient Safety (2-4)
This course is designed to educate health professions students about the fundamental core knowledge of patient safety. Faculties representing various disciplines teach the content from a patient-centered focus within an inter-professional framework. Concepts of safe systems will serve as an over arching principle to patient safety. By engaging in a series of modules complimented by case-based exercises, participants will learn the scope of the problem of patient safety, and acquire the skills to foster a culture of continuous learning and incorporation of patient safety best practices and improvements in their own individual professional practices.

JUSTICE AND PEACE STUDIES
For the Justice and Peace Studies Program of Study, please refer to page 164.

JPS 265 Cortina Seminar (1) II
JPS 265 is a one-credit seminar addressing the four pillars of the Cortina Community: community, service, faith, and justice and the general theme of privilege and poverty. Eight sections of approximately 14 students each will be offered, each taught by a different instructor, within that instructor’s academic discipline but meeting the same requirements and engaging in cross-disciplinary conversation. P: Open to students in the Cortina community only.

JPS 343 Ecclesiology in Global Context (3) S (Same as THL 343)
The global Catholic Church is a worthy object of study and understanding and this is best done through direct immersion with a travel course. Each area of the world provides a unique cultural embodiment of the call of the Second Vatican Council to read the signs of the times and interpret them in the light of the Gospel (Guadium et Spes no. 4).

JPS 361 Social Justice in the Dominican Republic (6) I, II (Same as EDP 361, THL 361)
A multi-disciplinary study of the history, sociology, politics, economics and religion of the Dominican Republic and the Caribbean. Classroom work is integrated with service-learning and cultural immersion in a context of ethical analyses and reflection. P: DC only.

JPS 365 Faith and Moral Development (1) I, II (Same as THL 365)
A series of three one-credit-hour mini-seminars taken over three consecutive semesters. Each seminar will examine a theory of faith or moral development and a biography of a social activist such as Dorothy Day or Martin Luther King, Jr. May be repeated for a maximum of 4 credits. P: PHL/THL 250 and Jr. stdg.

JPS 465 Faith and Political Action (3) AY (Same as PLS 465, SRP 465)
Challenges students to understand theological and political science perspectives on social policy issues and the work of religious-based organizations in politics. Course includes 20 hours of work with a community partner during the semester. P: Sr. stdg.

JPS 470 Poverty in America (3) (Same as EDU 470, SRP 470)
The intent of this course is to provide students with an understanding of the cultural, economic and political structures of an impoverished society, to understand the dilemmas inherent in poverty and to develop an attitude of sensitivity and connectedness with those in this plight.

JPS 495 Directed Independent Study (1-4) OD
Offered especially for JAS majors but open to any interested student. May be repeated to a limit of 6 hours. P: IC.

JPS 499 Senior Seminar (3) II
Exploration and appraisal of the diverse ways individuals and organizations work for social change. Readings, interviews, and guest speakers from the campus and the community. Required for Justice and Peace Studies minors and Justice and Society majors, the seminar also explores career opportunities in the field and vocational discernment in the Ignation tradition. P: Sr. Stdg.

JPS 565 Catholic Social Teaching (3) II (Same as THL 565)
Historical development of Catholic social teaching from the 1891 publication of “The Condition of Labor” to the present. Students are encouraged to apply the core insights of the tradition to contemporary issues. Required of JPS minors and JAS majors. P: Two previous THL courses; Jr. stdg.

JPS 588 Christian Ethics of War and Peace (3) I (Same as THL 588)
Introduction to the development and application of Christian ethical perspectives on the use of lethal force from the biblical period to the present day. Just war theory, pacifism, and nonviolence in both Catholic and Protestant traditions. Special attention given to the formation of personal conscience in reflection on public policy and world events, both historical and current. P: PHL or THL 250, Jr. stdg.

LAT 407 Post-Augustan/late Latin Themes and Genres (3)
Students will pursue thematically-tied or genre-related readings of various authors of the Post-Augustan and late period (such as the Latin Church Fathers or historical topics). This course may be repeated to a max of 6 credits. P: LAT 201 or equiv.

LAT 408 Medieval Latin Authors (3)
Students will read various authors of the Medieval period (such as Notker, Einhard, or Aquinas). This course may be repeated to a max of 6 credits. P: LAT 201 or equiv.

LAT 409 Medieval Latin Themes and Genres (3)
Students will pursue thematically-tied or genre-related readings of various authors of the Medieval period (such as a focus on history, Carolingian biography, etc.). This course may be repeated to a max of 6 credits. P: LAT 201 or equiv.

LAT 410 Diachronic Readings in Latin (3)
Students will read works by Latin authors from different periods. They will be linked in any number of ways, e.g., by genre, theme, or subject matter. This course may be repeated to a max of 6 credits. P: LAT 201 or equiv.

LAT 411 Readings in Greek and Latin (3) (Same as GRK 411)
Students will pursue thematically-linked reading of the works of Greek and Latin authors from different periods (such as comparative readings in drama, or philosophy, or historiography). This course may be repeated to a max of 6 credits. P: LAT 201 or equiv. and GRK 201 or equiv.

LAT 493 Directed Independent Readings (2-4) I, II, S
Designed to meet the special needs of qualified students. Credit by arrangement. This course may be repeated to a max of 6 credits. P: DC.

LAT 498 Senior Capstone Seminar (3) II (Same as CNE 498, GRK 498)
Directed research on a general topic; preparation and public presentation of a senior thesis. LAT 498 open only to Latin majors.
MANAGEMENT

Professors Moorman and Workman (Chair); Associate Professors Govindarajulu, Hoh, Wells, and York; Assistant Professors Darnold, Gallo; Instructor Mizaur.

Requirements for Management as the field of concentration—see page 235.

MGT 301 Managerial Process and Organizational Behavior (3) I, II, S
An integrated approach to organization processes and behavior focusing on both individual and organization variables. Covers the behavioral science and the managerial perspective. Micro-oriented individual variables/concepts include personality, stress, perception, motivation, and learning. Interpersonal and group behavior variables/concepts include communication, power, politics, leadership processes and styles. Macro variables deal with organization structure, decision-making, control, and development/change. P: Jr. stdg.

MGT 341 Advanced Organizational Behavior (3) OD
Development of an in-depth understanding of behavioral concepts, methods, and skills which underlie managerial competence in preventing and solving problems within and between individuals and groups. Theoretical review of motivation, group dynamics, leadership behaviors, and organizational change. Various laboratory exercises and cases are used to highlight the concepts and furnish practice in applying them to management problems. P: MGT 301.

MGT 351 Personnel/Human Resources Management (3) OD
Management’s approach to and the principles for handling the human factor in an enterprise to maximize the productive efficiency of the firm through sound procurement, development, utilization, and maintenance of its human resources. Emphasis placed on personnel theory. Findings of the behavioral and social sciences as they relate to work are integrated with personnel philosophy, policy, and practice. P: MGT 301; Jr. stdg.

MGT 373 International Management (3) I
A global perspective of the practice of management. Topics include issues of social responsibility, corporate strategy, communication, and human resource management. P: MGT 301.

MGT 374 Management of Environmental Risk (3) OD (Same as EVS 374)
Examination of environmental issues relevant to management decision making. Emphasis on risk analysis related to global/regional and workplace environmental issues. P: Jr. stdg.

MGT 385 Production and Operations Management (3) I, II
Course treats production and operations as a major function area of business and stresses the management of the production and operations function. Where appropriate, quantitative topics are presented and solution techniques introduced to achieve a balanced view. P: BUS 229; Jr. stdg.

MGT 479 Seminar in Management (3) I or II
Exploration and analysis of selected problems and issues in today’s business environment. Course content necessarily changes each semester as selected issues are discussed. This course is repeatable as long as topic differs (12 credits). P: MGT 301 or equivalent.

MGT 493 Directed Independent Readings (1-3) OD
Limited to students who want to develop a more in-depth knowledge of a management subject beyond the regular course coverage and who have a GPA of 3.0 or better. May be repeated for credit to a limit of six hours. P: Sr. stdg. and Dean’s approval.

MGT 497 Directed Independent Research (1-3) OD
Supervised independent research on topics beyond the regular course coverage. Course is limited to students who have a GPA or 3.0 or better. May be repeated for credit to a limit of six hours. P: Sr. stdg; DC and Dean’s approval.

Graduate-level courses (MBA courses open only to graduate students) offered by the Department of Marketing and Management are listed in the Graduate issue of the Creighton University Bulletin under the heading Business Administration (MBA).
MARKETING
Professor Workman (Chair); Associate Professor Seevers; Assistant Professors Johnson and Wachner.

Requirements for Marketing as the Field of Concentration — see page 235.

MKT 319 Principles of Marketing (3) I, II, S
Managerial approach to the study of the fundamental concepts and principles of marketing with emphasis on understanding the marketing concept and appropriate marketing strategy. P: ECO 203 or 301; Jr. stdg.

MKT 325 Franchising and Small Business Marketing (3) OD
Application of the marketing concept with specific strategies and tactics to the small business enterprise. P: MKT 319; Jr. stdg.

MKT 333 Consumer and Market Behavior (3) I, II
Study of acts of individuals involved in obtaining and using economic goods and services, including the decision processes that precede and determine those acts; consideration of the sociological, psychological, and economic aspects of purchase behavior. P: MKT 319; Jr. stdg.

MKT 335 Sales Management (3) I
Role of the sales administrator as a professional marketing executive, Problems of organization, planning and control of sales; formulation of sales policies and management of the sales force. P: MKT 319; Jr. stdg.

MKT 343 Marketing Research (3) I
Basic research concepts and techniques; application of research findings to the formulation of marketing policies. P: MKT 319; BUS 229; Jr. stdg.

MKT 353 Advertising and Promotion (3) II
The formulation and implementation of marketing communication policies and strategies relative to the total internal and external communication systems. Includes advertising, personal selling, sales promotion, and other marketing communications. P: MKT 319; Jr. stdg.

MKT 355 Services Marketing (3) I
Strategies for marketing services. Emphasis on the distinctive challenges and approaches that make marketing of services different from marketing of manufactured goods. P: MKT 319; Jr. stdg.

MKT 363 Global Marketing (3) I, II
Strategic management of international marketing activities of the firm. Planning, organizing, and implementing international marketing programs for industrial and consumer goods. Emphasis on the influence of environmental differences on marketing decisions in various countries. Lecture and case method utilized. P: MKT 319; Jr. stdg.

MKT 366 Marketing Internship (3) I, II, S
This course is designed to provide students with practical marketing experience by applying marketing concepts and technical skills learned in the classroom. It requires 150 hours with an employer, designated class meetings, written assignments, and oral presentations. Credit for this class is dependent upon a) an interview with the sponsoring employer, b) relevance of the internship to the students marketing course work, and c) approval by the coordinator of Marketing internships in the Department of Marketing and Management. The course is graded satisfactory/unsatisfactory and only 3 hours of internship credit may be used to satisfy graduation requirements. P: MKT 319; Second Semester Junior or Higher Standing; I.C.

MKT 453 Sports and Special Event Marketing (3) II
This course is designed to help students develop an understanding of strategic marketing concepts and activities as they apply to the sports and special events contexts. Marketing concepts and activities will be examined as they relate to the marketing of sports and marketing through sports. P: MKT 319; Jr. stdg.

MKT 473 Marketing Management: Policy and Strategy (3) II
Formulation and application of marketing strategies and policies by the analysis and solution of industrial and consumer goods cases dealing with the market, product, channels, selling, legislation, and the total marketing program. P: MKT 319; MGT 301; FIN 301; Sr. stdg.; marketing majors only.
MKT 479  Seminar in Marketing  (3) I or II  Exploration and analysis of selected problems and issues in the marketing area of today’s business environment. Course content changes from semester to semester. This course is repeatable as long as topic differs (12 credits).  P: MKT 319.

MKT 493  Directed Independent Readings  (1-3) OD  Limited to students who want to develop in-depth knowledge of a marketing subject beyond regular course coverage or to investigate current developments in marketing theory and practice. Course is limited to students who have a 3.0 or better. May be repeated for credit to a limit of six hours.  P: COBA students only; Sr. stdg; DC and Dean’s approval.

MKT 497  Directed Independent Research  (1-3) OD  Supervised independent research on topics beyond the regular course coverage. Course is limited to students who have a GPA of 3.0 or better. May be repeated for credit to a limit of six hours.  P: Sr. stdg; DC; Dean’s approval.

Graduate-level courses (MBA courses open only to graduate students) offered by the Department of Marketing and Management are listed in the Graduate issue of the Creighton University Bulletin under the heading Business Administration (MBA).

MATHEMATICS

For the Mathematics Program of Study, please refer to page 166.

MTH 103  Intermediate Algebra  (3) I, II, S  Topics from second-year algebra to form an introduction to college algebra.

MTH 105  Math for Elementary Teachers  (3)  Typical elementary school topics will be reviewed and extended to related topics of exponential notation, significant figures, measures of change, economic principles and the normal distribution. In so doing, all applicable NCTM Standards will be covered.

MTH 125  Practical Math  (3)  To present common situations requiring quantitative analysis or calculations, to prepare the student to think logically through these situations, to model them mathematically, and to reach an accurate conclusion. Two years of high school algebra is expected. This course is repeatable to a max of 9 credits.

MTH 131  Earth Algebra  (3) I, OD  College Algebra material; environmental issues; functions; atmospheric carbon dioxide concentration; composite functions and inverses; global temperature and ocean level; quadratic functions; systems of linear equations and matrices; carbon dioxide emission.  P: four semesters of high school algebra.

MTH 135  College Algebra  (3) I, II, S  Topics covered include linear and quadratic functions and inequalities, systems of linear equations and inequalities, exponential and logarithmic functions, polynomials and rational functions, and equations of second degree and their graphs.  P: Four semesters of high school algebra.

MTH 137  Trigonometry  (3) I, II  Course covers both analytic and right triangle trigonometry. Topics covered include circular functions, trigonometric functions, rotations and angles, trigonometric identities and equations, inverse functions, triangles, vectors, and applications.

MTH 139  Precalculus  (3) I, II  This course will cover the basic concepts that are required for further study of mathematics including a course in calculus. The course topics include solving linear, quadratic, exponential and logarithmic equations; linear and quadratic inequalities; properties and graphs of polynomial, rational, exponential, logarithmic, trigonometric and inverse trigonometric functions; angles; right triangles; trigonometric identities and equations.

MTH 141  Applied Calculus  (3) I, II, S  Main topic is differential and integral calculus and applications. Includes sections on partial derivatives. Course designed primarily for students in the College of Business Administration.
MTH 201  Applied Mathematics (3) I, II, S
Foundations of quantitative reasoning, applications of systems of equations, optimization techniques, probability, and statistics.

MTH 245  Calculus I (4) I, II, S
Differential and integral calculus of algebraic and transcendental functions.

MTH 246  Calculus II (4) I, II, S
Techniques of integration, infinite series, and other topics. P: MTH 245.

MTH 249  Modeling the Physical World I (3)
First semester in the sequence on mathematical modeling using calculus. Course is taught jointly with PHY 221. Topics include elementary differential equations, techniques of integration, sequences and series, vector analysis, and applications. P: MTH 245. CO: PHY 221.

MTH 310  Fundamentals of Mathematics (3) I, II
A systematic study of the basic concepts in mathematics, including set theory, logic, proof techniques, basic properties of integers, relations, functions, congruences, introduction to groups, sequences and series, and basic properties of a topological space. P or CO: MTH 245.

MTH 347  Calculus III (3) I, II
This course covers vector algebra and calculus in two- and three-dimensional space. P: MTH 246.

MTH 349  Modeling the Physical World II (3)
Second semester in the sequence on mathematical modeling using calculus. Course is taught jointly with PHY 222. Topics include multivariable functions and calculus, series integration (Green's, Stokes', and Divergence theorems) and applications. P: MTH 249 and PHY 221. CO: PHY 222.

MTH 355  Essentials of Epidemiology (3) (Same as HAP 355, STA 355)
This course introduces the concepts and includes exercises related to epidemiology, the discipline that serves as the basic science of public health, or population health, by providing evidence for defining the public health problem, assessing causation, and evaluating effectiveness of potential interventions.

MTH 363  Elementary Probability and Statistics (3) II
Non-calculus approach with emphasis on measures of central tendency and variability, distributions and testing of hypotheses. Designed for students in natural and social sciences, or business.

MTH 431  Mathematical History, Philosophy, and Ethics (3) OD (Same as HIS 431, SRP 431).
An examination of mathematics and mathematical ideas and their relation to philosophical and ethical views from the ancient Babylonians and Pythagoreans to the present. Special attention will be given to non-Western mathematics, ethnomathematics, twentieth-century game theory, encryption, and ethical issues facing the mathematician and society in the past and today. The course assumes no mathematical background beyond the Core E requirements. P: Sr. stdg; PHL 250 or THL 250.

MTH 493  Directed Independent Readings (1-3) I, II
May be repeated to a limit of six hours, P: DC.

MTH 495  Directed Independent Study (1-3) I, II
May be repeated to a limit of six hours, P: DC.

MTH 497  Directed Independent Research (1-3) I, II
May be repeated to a limit of six hours, P: DC.

MTH 513  Probability and Statistics in the Health Sciences (3) I (Same as STA 513)
This course covers topics in probability and statistics considered useful to those students planning on a career in the health sciences. The topics covered include probability principles and distributions in health sciences, types of epidemiologic study designs, estimation of medical parameters in defined patient populations, test of hypothesis, measures and analysis of treatment of the sick, analysis of variance, methods of medical outcome prediction, and prospective, retrospective and cross-sectional studies of disease occurrence. P: MTH 201 or MTH 245.
MTH 521  Euclidean and Non-Euclidean Geometry (3) OD Basic geometric concepts and applications. P: MTH 246.

MTH 525  Automata, Computability, and Formal Languages (3) OD
Finite state concepts; acceptors; formal grammars; computability; Turing machines. P: MTH 246.

MTH 529  Linear Algebra (3) II
Vector spaces and subspaces; linear transformations; matrices; eigenvalues and eigenvectors. P: MTH 246.

MTH 543  Numerical Analysis (3) OD
Numerical differentiation and integration; solutions of equations and systems of equations; polynomial approximation; error analysis and eigenvectors; applications to digital computers. P: MTH 246.

MTH 545  Differential Equations (3) I, S
This course examines qualitative, analytic, and numerical techniques for studying differential equations. Course begins with single differential equations, then covers systems of equations, n-th order linear differential equations, forcing, nonlinear differential equations, difference equations, and Laplace transforms. P: MTH 246.

MTH 546  Partial Differential Equations (3)
Integral curves and surfaces of vector fields; the Cauchy-Kovalesky theorem; general linear PDEs, their characteristics and classification; solutions to, and applications of, linear and quasi-linear first order and second order PDEs; Laplace's equation, the heat equation and the wave equation. P: MTH 545.

MTH 547  Mathematics in Medicine and the Life Sciences (3) II
This course is intended to be an overview of a variety of mathematical topics considered useful to those students intending to pursue a career in medicine or the life sciences. The topics covered include mathematics of populations, growth of bacterial cultures, inheritance, bacterial genetics, plasmids, theory of epidemics, biography, the growth of bacteria on plates, heart and circulation, gas exchange in the lungs, electrical properties of cell membranes, and muscle mechanics. P: MTH 246.

MTH 551  Differential Geometry (3) OD
Calculus of curves, surfaces and manifolds; topics will include hyperbolic geometry, vectors and tensors, fundamental forms, curvature, covariant derivatives, with applications to special and general relativity. P: MTH 347.

MTH 555  Chaotic Dynamical Systems (3)
This course will study discrete dynamical systems. Topics covered will include one-dimensional and higher - dimensional dynamical systems, fixed points, stability theory, linearization, phase spaces, bifurcation theory, index theory, limit cycles and periodicity, chaos, and attractors. Applications to Biology, Physics, Chemistry, and other areas will be studied. P: MTH 347 and MTH 529.

MTH 559  Topology (3) OD
Set theory; metric spaces; topological spaces; connectedness; compactness. P: MTH 246.

MTH 561  Mathematical Statistics I (3) I, S (Same as STA 561)
Introduction to probability and probability distributions including techniques for finding expected values and variance of discrete and continuous variables. These distributions and their properties are examined to establish their application to applied statistical methods. P: MTH 246.

MTH 562  Mathematical Statistics II (3) II (Same as STA 562)
Using probability distributions as a foundation and random sampling, methods for estimating distribution parameters are developed with applications to hypothesis testing. The course also includes an introduction to linear models, regression analysis, analysis of variance and design of experiments. P: MTH 561.

MTH 563  Mathematical Statistics III (3) OD (Same as STA 563)
Optimal decision procedures, further normal distribution theory, noncentral chi-square and F distributions, introduction to the theoretical basis for analysis of variance, nonparametric methods. P: MTH 562.
MTH 571  Operations Research  (3) OD (Same as STA 571)
Introductory course in operations research. Linear models and solutions using the simplex

MTH 572(471) Fuzzy Logic  (3)
Overview of classical logic; multivalued logics; fuzzy propositions; linguistic hedges; inference from conditional propositions; inference from conditional and qualified propositions; inference from quantified propositions; evidence theory; rough set theory; applications to law.  P: MTH 201 or 245.

MTH 573  Probabilistic Models  (3) OD
Queueing theory, inventory theory, Markov processes, simulation and nonlinear program-
ing.  P: MTH 561.

MTH 575  Introductory Stochastic Process  (3) OD
Random walk, normal processes and covariance stationary processes, counting processes and Poisson processes, renewal counting processes, discrete and continuous parameter

MTH 581  Modern Algebra I  (3) I
Groups; rings; fields; applications to coding theory.  P: MTH 310.

MTH 582  Modern Algebra II  (3) OD
Rings; ideals; field extensions; Galois theory; applications to coding theory.  P: MTH 581.

MTH 583  Fuzzy Mathematics: Applications in Health Sciences  (3) II
Crisp sets; fuzzy sets; classical logic; fuzzy logic; fuzzy complement; fuzzy union; fuzzy intersection; crisp and fuzzy relations; similarity relations; compatibility relations; order-ings; morphisms; fuzzy relational equations applications to the health sciences.  P: MTH 201 or MTH 245.

MTH 591  Analysis I  (3) II

MTH 592  Analysis II  (3) OD
Continuation of MTH 591; functions in metric spaces.  P: MTH 591.

MTH 593  Complex Analysis  (3) OD Complex arithmetic, polar representations, functions of a complex variable, analyticity and the Cauchy-Riemann equations, complex integration, Cauchy Integral Formula, series, poles and residues, applications to real integration, conformal mappings.  P: MTH 347.

MTH 599  Seminar  (1-3) OD
Topics in advanced mathematics selected by the instructor.  P: IC.

MEDICAL MICROBIOLOGY AND IMMUNOLOGY
Offered by the Department of Medical Microbiology and Immunology of the School of Medicine.

MIC 141  Microbiology  (4) I
Introductory course, consisting of lectures, study groups, and computerized self-instruction, designed to provide nursing students with a basic knowledge of medical microbiology and immunology.  P: None.

MIC 541  Microbiology and Immunology  (4) I
Introductory course focusing on foundations of general bacteriology and virology, antibacterial therapy and mechanisms of antibacterial resistance, infectious diseases caused by bacteria, viruses, fungi, and parasites, and the host defenses against these microorganisms.
R, L.  P: Second year Pharm.D. student or degree seeking graduate student. Upper level undergraduate or other students require approval from course director.

MIC 543  Essentials of Immunology  (3) II
Lecture course covering the major areas of contemporary immunology including host resistance to infection, the chemistry of antigens and physiology of the immune system, immunogenetics and transplantation immunology, immunological techniques, tumor immunology, and immunopathology.  P: MIC 541, or IC.
MILITARY SCIENCE
For the Military Science Program of Study, please refer to page 168.

MIL 100  Leadership Laboratory  (0) I, II
Leadership Laboratory provides initial and advanced military leadership instruction in military courtesy, first aid, and practical field training exercises. Functions and responsibilities of leadership positions are developed through cadet command and staff positions. Required with enrollment in MIL 101, MIL 102, and MIL 103. May be repeated one time.

MIL 101  Introduction to Officer Professionalism I  (1) I Examination of the role of the commissioned officer in the United States Army. Discussion focuses upon officer career opportunities, role of the officer, responsibilities of and basis for the armed forces, and sources of officer commissioning.

MIL 102  Introduction to Officer Professionalism II  (1) II
Continuation of MIL 101. Further examines the role of the commissioned officer in the U.S. Army. Focuses on customs of the service; role of the Army, Army Reserve, and Army National Guard; organization of the Army; branches of the Army; and leadership principles for the junior officer.

MIL 103  Foundation of Officership and Basic Leadership  (2) I
This course is an introduction for nursing students to issues and competencies that are central to a commissioned officer’s responsibilities. These initial lessons establish a framework for understanding officership, leadership, and Army values. Additionally, the semester addresses “life skills” including fitness and time management. This course is designed to give accurate insight into the Army Profession and the officer’s role within the Army. P: Nursing students or DC.

MIL 200  Leadership Laboratory II  (0) I, II
This second-year leadership laboratory parallels MIL 211/212 classroom instruction, reinforcing concepts learned in class with practical hands-on training exercises and activities. Training is focused on more advanced individual and collective small unit skills such as small unit leadership and tactics doctrine, land navigation, basic rifle marksmanship, and drill and ceremonies. Required with enrollment in MIL 211, MIL 212, and MIL 213. May be repeated one time.

MIL 205  ROTC Leadership Training Course  (3) S
Four weeks of preparatory training at Fort Knox, Kentucky. Travel pay and salary stipend provided through the Military Science Department. The student is not obligated to any military service as a result of attending Leadership Training Course. Course graduates are eligible to enroll in Advanced Military Science courses. Students are also eligible to compete for full-tuition two-year scholarships. P: DC.

MIL 207  Fundamentals of Army Ranger Training  (2) I
Course designed to challenge the individual in leadership, physical endurance, special operations and small-unit tactics. Competitive area success would lead to regional championship participation at Fort Lewis, Washington.

MIL 208  Advanced Army Ranger Training  (2) II
Continuation of MIL 207.

MIL 211  Basic Individual Leadership Techniques  (1) I
Course designed to develop student leadership and critical individual skills. Training is basic in nature and includes leadership techniques, written and oral communication, rifle marksmanship, fundamentals of land navigation, and physical fitness. P: MIL 101, 102 or DC.

MIL 212  Advanced Individual Leadership Techniques  (1) II
Continues the development of student leadership and critical individual military skills. Training focuses on advanced military skills and includes orienteering, field survival skills, operations and training. P: MIL 211.

NAS 346  Peoples and Cultures of Latin America (3) I (Same as ANT 346)
A study of the cultures of Latin America. Includes an analysis of the culture history, ecological adaptations, social adaptations, ideological adaptations, and the nature of culture change for indigenous peoples and subsequent immigrants to the regions of the Americas where linguistically Spanish and Portuguese now predominate.  P: So. stdg.

NAS 353  Introduction to Native American Literature (3) (Same as ENG 353)
The course focuses on several seminal literary texts in the Native American literary tradition as it emerged in the twentieth century.  P: ENG 120, 121, 150.
NAS 358 Critical Issues in the Study of Native American Religions (3) II, ONY (Same as AMS 358, ANT 358, THL 358)
This course utilizes anthropological perspectives in the study of Native American religion. The focus of the course is non-Western, non-proselytizing religions which are coterminous with local political or kinship based social groups. The course looks at the history of the study of Native religions, the nature of Native religions as understood by a variety of disciplines, and the contemporary critique of colonialism by Native peoples specifically in regard to intellectual colonialism of Native knowledge and the practical colonialism inherent in the imitation of Native religions by non-tribal members.

NAS 365 Issues of the Native American Experience (3) I (Same as AMS 365, SWK 365)
Examination of Native American culture and values, social institutions and social systems. Presentation of issues emanating from being Native American. Consideration is given to understanding the Native American experience from an historical perspective as well as the contemporary viewpoint. P: So. stdg.

NAS 386 The History and Aesthetics of Latin American Photography (3) (Same as ARH 386)
Examination of the history and aesthetics of photography as a medium of visual expression in the culture of Latin America. Study of the evolution of contemporary Latin American photography from its 19th century “colonial” roots through periods of 20th century revolution and independence to the contemporary post-modern idiom of Latin American image-making. Emphasis on the study of photographic themes that are specific to the Latin American cultural experience: colonialism, revolution and independence, native and tribal society, religion and cult, economic oppression and poverty, politics and self-determination, geography and natural resources, language and architecture.

NAS 387 Modern Hispanic Art History (3) (Same as AMS 387, ARH 387)
Modern Hispanic Art History will survey the painting, sculpture and architecture of Latin America along with some of its Spanish influences, from 1820 to the present. Native American and African influences on Latin American art will be surveyed. Key figures to be studied are: Rivera, Torres-Garcia, Lam, Matta, Kahl, Varo, Chambi, Salgado, Barragan, Botero, Bravo, Jimenez, etc.

NAS 424 Sustainability and Rural America (3) II (Same as EVS 424, SRP 424, SOC 424)
This interdisciplinary course studies sustainability and the diverse cultures of rural American peoples by looking at topics such as ethics, environmental resources, economic strategies, public policy and social inequality. This course offers off-campus field observation and ethical reflection assignments and involves students in active collaborative problem-solving research. P: PHL 250 or THL 250; Sr. stdg.

NAS 468 Native American Art (3) OD (Same as AMS 468, ARH 468)
Survey of Native American art from the 16th century to the present with a concentration on the art of the continental United States. Includes Northwest, Southwest, and Plains cultures.

NAS 493 Directed Independent Reading (1-6) I, II, S
Student-initiated survey of the literature related to a broad topic in anthropology not covered in the student’s course work. Undertaken in close cooperation with a supervising faculty member. May be repeated to a limit of six hours. P: IC.

NAS 495 Directed Independent Study (1-6) I, II, S
This course provides for a student-initiated project on a focused topic in Native American studies, utilizing library materials and/or field research and involving close cooperation with a supervising faculty member. The course may be repeated to a limit of six hours. P: IC.

NAS 497 Directed Independent Research (1-6) I, II, S
Student-initiated empirical project on a focused topic in Native American Studies, involving close coordination with a supervising faculty member. May be repeated to a limit of six hours. P: IC.

NAS 499 Native American Studies Senior Capstone (3)
The capstone course in Native American Studies allows a student to focus on a research topic or service learning experience utilizing all the knowledge and experience gained throughout his/her course of study within the major. Each student meets weekly with his/her mentor and writes a major research paper rooted in a single disciplinary perspective and covering selected program learning goals and objectives. P: Sr. stdg. and IC.
NURSING

TRADITIONAL PROGRAM — PREREQUISITES AND COREQUISITES
BMS 111, CHM 111, CHM 112/113, BMS 303, PSY 111, and SOC 101 or ANT 111 or SOC 223 are prerequisite to admission to the sophomore level. The support course MIC 141 is prerequisite to NUR 252.

A nursing practicum course is taken in conjunction with the companion theory course (e.g. NUR 352 is corequisite for NUR 351). Unsatisfactory performance is any practicum course or its companion theory course prohibits advancement to the next level of practicum courses.

NUR 116 Opportunities in Professional Nursing (1) II
NUR 116 explores the nursing profession and the career opportunities a major in nursing provides. The course incorporates information related to the evolution of nursing, current, and future nursing roles and specialties, and advanced practice areas. An introduction to basic responsibilities for the nursing professional is provided. Graded Satisfactory/Unsatisfactory.

NUR 223 Nutrition (2) I
NUR 223 provides an overview of the principles and science of nutrition from a personal, consumer, prevention and medical nutrition therapy standpoint. P: So stdg.

NUR 224 Health Assessment Across the Lifespan (2) II
NUR 224 is designed to introduce students to the knowledge, principles, and skills necessary to assess the physical, psychosocial, and functional status of persons at various stages of lifespan development. Emphasis is placed on the nurse's role in assessing, identifying and describing normal and abnormal findings using a systems approach. P: BMS 111, BMS 303; CO: NUR 226. P or CO: NUR 252.

NUR 226 Health Assessment Practicum (1) II
NUR 226 provides opportunities for students to apply concepts learned in NUR 224 to the physical, psychosocial, and functional assessment of persons at various stages of lifespan development. Emphasis is placed on developing basic skills and techniques necessary to conduct a comprehensive health assessment and physical examination. Students will apply physiological and pathophysiological concepts to the normal and abnormal findings of health assessment, physical examination and common health alterations. Graded Satisfactory/Unsatisfactory. CO: NUR 224.

NUR 228 Lifespan Development (3) I
NUR 228 is a broad overview of normal human development from the prenatal stage through older adulthood. Emphasis will be placed on understanding the individual in the context of the psychological, social, behavioral, cultural and spiritual environment. P: PSY 111 and SOC 101 or ANT 111 or SOC 102.

NUR 252 Human Pathophysiology (4) II
NUR 252 provides an overview of pathophysiological concepts across the lifespan. The course will address basic principles, processes, and concepts associated with common pathologies as well as the pathophysiological alterations related to body systems. It is designed for students with limited or no clinical experience. P: BMS 111, BMS 303, CHM 111, MIC 141. P or CO: NUR 224, NUR 226, CHM 112/113.

NUR 341 Nursing Management of Pharmacotherapy (3) I
NUR 341 provides students with a sound basis for clinical application of pharmacology. It addresses pharmacodynamic and pharmacokinetic properties, therapeutic uses, adverse effects and nursing implications for selected drug classifications used in various health care settings. P: NUR 252, Jr. stdg. or IC.
NUR 351 Care Management Concepts for Health Promotion, Protection, Maintenance, and Restoration (5)
NUR 351 is an introduction to the care management process in promoting, protecting, restoring and maintaining health. Content includes transcultural concepts across the lifespan and with diverse populations. P: Jr. stdg.; NUR 223, 224, 226, 228, 252; CO: NUR 352, 377. P or CO: NUR 341, 361, 362.

NUR 352 Care Management Practicum I (4)
NUR 352 provides practicum opportunities for students to apply concepts of care management in the health promotion, protection, restoration and maintenance for diverse populations across the lifespan. Proficiency with fundamental care management skills and technologies is acquired. Learning experiences will take place in a variety of acute, long-term, and community based settings. Graded Satisfactory/Unsatisfactory. CO: NUR 351.

NUR 353 Principles of Population-Based Health Care (3)
NUR 353 is designed to provide students with theoretical perspectives, skills and knowledge associated with the primary functions of public health. Students will use principles of epidemiology and demographic measurement of populations and groups to examine the distributive factors of health needs in populations. Students will apply concepts of community/population as client to analyze the assessment, planning, implementation, and evaluation used in select populations. Students will identify how the care management process is incorporated in the community/population health planning process. P: NUR 361, 362, 351, 352, 377.

NUR 354 Power, Politics, and Policy in Health Care (2)
NUR 354 focuses on the understanding of the interplay and synthesis of power, politics, and policy in health care. It emphasizes the importance of nursing participation in the many spheres of political influence, including the workplace, government, professional organizations, and the community. P: Jr. stdg or IC.

NUR 361 Informatics in Health Care (2)
NUR 361 introduces the student to the use of computer-based information management in health care. Emphasis is on applications that provide resources for clinical practice, education, communication, and research. P: Jr. stdg or IC; CO: NUR 362.

NUR 362 Informatics in Health Care Practicum (1)
NUR 362 provides practice in using a variety of computer applications in education, communication, research and clinical practice. Graded Satisfactory/Unsatisfactory. CO: NUR 361. P: Jr. stdg.

NUR 371 Care Management Processes for Episodic and Chronic Health Alterations I (5)
NUR 371 focuses on the care management of diverse populations experiencing health alterations or diseases which may include those that are highly prevalent; have a significant effect on morbidity and quality of life; are highly preventable and/or create a financial burden for the individual, the health care system, and society. Emphasis is placed on using the disease management model to understand the common trajectory of selected diseases and the major cost drivers of selected diseases. P: NUR 341, 351, 352, 361, 362 Jr. stdg; CO: NUR 372. P or CO: NUR 353, 354.

NUR 372 Care Management Practicum II (5)
NUR 372 provides practicum experiences in care management in a variety of settings for clients with selected episodic and chronic alterations in health states. It applies concepts learned in NUR 371. Emphasis is placed on an interprofessional collaborative approach to disease management in order to achieve optimal outcomes. Graded Satisfactory/Unsatisfactory. CO: NUR 371.

NUR 377 Research for Health Professionals (3)
NUR 377 addresses the development of beginning level skills in research utilization and critiquing health care research for purposes of quality and quality improvement. Students are introduced to ways of knowing and critical thinking as frameworks for understanding and contributing to evidence-based practice in nursing. P: Jr. stdg. P or CO: NUR 361, 362. CO: NUR 351, 352.
NUR 471 Care Management Processes for Episodic and Chronic Health Alterations II (5) I
NUR 471 focuses on the care management of clients with multiple, complex problems associated with selected diseases of high risk, high prevalence, and high cost. Multiple needs of clients at various levels of illness acuity and chronicity are examined. P: Sr. stdg; P: NUR: 353, 354, 371, 372, 377; CO: NUR 472. P or CO: NUR 473, 474.

NUR 472 Care Management Practicum III (5) I
NUR 472 incorporates practicum experiences in a variety of setting with clients experiencing multiple, complex problems associated with episodic and chronic illnesses. Emphasis is placed on development of the nurse as a leader of the interdisciplinary care management team. Graded Satisfactory/Unsatisfactory. CO: NUR 471.

NUR 473 Leadership for Care Management (2) I
NUR 473 focuses on the investigation, analysis and application of principles and practices of leadership and management in health care delivery systems. It emphasizes concepts foundational to resource allocation and utilization in managing the delivery of care, and integrates these concepts in the context of leadership roles in care management, clinical outcome improvement, and interprofessional collaboration. P: Sr. stdg. or IC.

NUR 474 Applied Nursing Ethics (3) I
NUR 474 identifies ethical issues in health care and distinguishes carefully among salient features of these problems' moral, social, legal, and political dimensions. Emphasis is placed on the development of skill in conceptual analysis, critical thinking, moral reasoning, argumentation, and developing an ability to consider and articulate objections to a range of views. P: Sr. stdg. or IC.

NUR 481 Senior Seminar in Professional Nursing (2) II
NUR 481 is designed to facilitate transition from student to professional nurse. Students are provided opportunities to explore political, legal, economic, ethical, social, cultural, and technologic influences on trends and issues related to nursing, care management and health care. Content focuses on reciprocal relationships among society, health care organizations, and the nursing profession. P: NUR 471, 472, 473, 474. CO: NUR 482.

NUR 482 Senior Preceptorship (10) II
NUR 482 provides students with opportunities to synthesize professional nursing concepts and skills in a selected clinical setting with an emphasis on care management and clinical outcome improvement. The course emphasizes the ability to develop sound clinical decision-making skills and work effectively with the multidisciplinary team. Emphasis is also placed on the use of research in total quality improvement and evidence-based practice. Learning is facilitated by an experienced baccalaureate-prepared registered nurse who serves as a preceptor for the student. P: NUR 471, 472, 473, 474; CO: NUR 481.

NUR 491 Spanish for Health Care (2) I, S
NUR 491 is an elective course offering a concise introduction to Spanish grammar, vocabulary and culture for students whose personal or professional goals include a working knowledge of Spanish. In addition to emphasizing basic communication, this course will give special attention to the vocabulary needs of individuals involved in the profession of nursing. This course is graded Satisfactory/Unsatisfactory.

NUR 495 Directed Independent Study (1-3) I, II
Supervised study related to specific areas of nursing concern. Learning experiences include directed readings, seminar, presentations, field trips and other activities designed to enhance the students' knowledge and skill base in care management of diverse populations.

NUR 500 Genetics Across the Lifespan (3) I, II
NUR 500 is an elective course focusing on the application of genetic principles across the lifespan through a variety of perspectives. Content focuses on the basic mechanisms of genetic inheritance and the genetic contribution to rare and common disorders. The impact of genetics on health promotion, disease prevention and treatment and nursing responsibilities is discussed. Emphasis placed on critical examination of the psychological, social, ethical, legal, cultural, policy and professional implications of the integration of genetics into healthcare. Undergraduate P: NUR 223, 224, 226, 228, 252.
ACELERATED CURRICULUM

Prerequisites and Corequisites: Students must have a minimum of a previous baccalaureate degree in another field. The prerequisites for the Accelerated program are: 36 semester hour of general education, 3 semester hours of sociology or cultural anthropology, 3 semester hours of general psychology, 3 semester hours of lifespan development or developmental psychology (lifespan), 3 semester hours of ethics or bioethics, 2 semester hours of nutrition, 8 semester hours of chemistry, 4 semester hours of anatomy and 4 semester hours of physiology.

NUR 252 Pathophysiology (3)
NUR 252 provides an overview of pathophysiological concepts across the lifespan. The course will address basic concepts, principles, and processes associated with common pathologies as well as the pathophysiological alterations related to body systems. P: Admission into the ANC program.

NUR 288 Health Assessment (2)
NUR 288 is designed to introduce students to the knowledge, principles and skills necessary to assess the physical, psychosocial, and functional status of persons at various stages of lifespan development. Emphasis is placed on the nurse's role in assessing, identifying and describing normal and abnormal findings using a systems approach. P: Admission into the ANC program; CO: NUR 289.

NUR 289 Health Assessment Practicum (1)
NUR 289 provides opportunities for students to apply knowledge gained in previous courses to the process of physical, psychosocial and functional assessment of persons at various stages of lifespan development. A hands-on approach is used to enable students to acquire the knowledge and skills necessary to perform a comprehensive health assessment on individuals at various stages of lifespan development and to describe normal findings. Graded Satisfactory/Unsatisfactory. CO: NUR 288.

NUR 290 Care Management Concepts for Health Promotion and Outcomes Improvement (5)
NUR 290 emphasizes health concepts, health changes, and fundamental interventions for health restoration. The course focuses on health promotion and wellness, chronicity and quality of life, basic human needs, and care management and outcomes improvement for diverse populations. P: NUR 288, 289; CO: NUR 252, 291, 341.

NUR 291 Care Management for Health Promotion and Outcomes Improvement Practicum (5)
NUR 291 provides practicum learning experiences necessary for students to apply concepts and principles of human development, culture, ethnicity and socioeconomic status in their understanding of health promotion for clients across the lifespan. Opportunities for health assessment and goal-directed communication are provided so that students increase their competence in the use of these skills. Proficiency with fundamental technologies/skills is acquired at this level. Graded Satisfactory/Unsatisfactory. CO: NUR 290.

NUR 341 Nursing Management of Pharmacotherapy (3)
NUR 341 provides students with a sound basis for clinical application of pharmacology. It addresses pharmacodynamic and pharmacokinetic properties, therapeutic uses, adverse effects and nursing implications for selected drug classifications used in various health care settings. P: Admission to the ANC program. P or CO: NUR 252.

NUR 381 Care Management of Populations (2)

NUR 382 Care Management of Populations Practicum (1)
NUR 382 provides opportunities to acquire skills for assessing a group or population and planning, implementing, and evaluating health promotion and protection interventions. Graded Satisfactory/Unsatisfactory. CO: NUR 381.

NUR 386 Research and Evidence-Based Knowledge for Care Management (3)
NUR 386 introduces students to research and research utilization processes as they apply to evidence-based practice. The steps of the research process and research utilization process are applied to clinical problems. Ethical issues related to the research process are discussed. Students critique both qualitative and quantitative research literature. Emphasis is placed on the use of theory, research, and practice to improve the quality of care. Advances in computer technology and application to education, communication, research and clinical practice are introduced. P: NUR 252, 288, 289, 290, 291, 341; CO: NUR 381, 382, 390, 391.
NUR 390  Care Management and Outcomes Improvement for Altered Health States (6)
NUR 390 introduces the concepts of health alteration/disease management and outcomes improvement for the major episodic and acute illnesses that occur in diverse populations. The focus is on the care management of those health alterations/diseases that are highly prevalent; have a significant effect on morbidity, mortality, and quality of life in the general population; are highly preventable; and/or create a financial burden for the individual, the health care system, and society as a whole. P: NUR 252, 288, 289, 290, 291, 341. CO: NUR 381, 382, 386, 391, 394.

NUR 391  Care Management and Outcomes Improvement for Altered Health States Practicum (6)
NUR 391 provides practicum learning opportunities that emphasize outcome improvement, disease management, and interprofessional collaboration. Learning experiences will take place in a variety of acute care and community-based settings for diverse populations with selected episodic and chronic alterations in health states. Graded Satisfactory/Unsatisfactory. CO: NUR 390.

NUR 394  Health Care Management and Leadership (2)
NUR 394 focuses on the investigation, analysis, and application of the principles and practices of leadership and management in health care delivery systems. It emphasizes concepts foundational to resource allocation and utilization in managing the delivery of care and integrates these concepts in the context of leadership and management roles in care management, clinical outcome improvements and interdiscipinary teamwork along the continuum of care. CO: NUR 390, 391.

NUR 493  Dissemination of Research and Evidence Based Knowledge (1)
NUR 493 allows students to synthesize concepts from NUR 386 by developing and disseminating the results of an evidence-based project. P: NUR 386.

NUR 494  Seminar in Professional Nursing (4)
NUR 494 is designed to facilitate transition from the student role to the professional nursing role. The content focuses on the reciprocal relationships among society, health care organizations, and the nursing profession. This course provides opportunities for students to explore trends and issues related to nursing, care management, and health care. Political, legal, economical, ethical, social, cultural, and technologic influences on health care and nursing practice are addressed. P: NUR 394. CO: NUR 493, 496, 497, 498.

NUR 496  Care Management and Outcomes Improvement for Complex Altered Health States (4)
NUR 496 emphasizes the care of clients with complex health problems. Students apply knowledge of systems, dysfunction, pathophysiology, laboratory data, pharmacology, and intervention protocols in the process of providing, analyzing, and evaluating the care given to diverse populations. Emphasis is placed on the promotion, maintenance, and restoration of health and the prevention of complications in clients with complex health problems. P: NUR 381, 382, 386, 390, 391, 394; CO: NUR 493, 494, 497.

NUR 497  Care Management and Outcomes Improvement for Complex Altered Health States Practicum (4)
NUR 497 provides students with practicum opportunities to care manage a variety of complex clients including those with unstable/ life threatening diseases or trauma in the acute care and community health settings. This practicum experience is structured to foster the refinement of clinical skills, organization in client care activities, the development of sound clinical activities, the development of sound clinical decision-making skills, and the ability to work effectively as a team member. Proficiency with advanced skills is acquired at this level. Graded Satisfactory/Unsatisfactory. CO: NUR 496.

NUR 498  Senior Preceptorship (6)
NUR 498 provides an opportunity for students to manage care for clients in a selected clinical environment under the supervision of a baccalaureate-prepared registered nurse preceptor. This clinical experience is structured to foster the synthesis of professional nursing concepts, the refinement of clinical skills, the organization of client care activities, the development of sound clinical decision-making skills, and the ability to work effectively as a team member. Graded Satisfactory/Unsatisfactory. P: NUR 496, 497; CO: NUR 493, 494.
OCCUPATIONAL THERAPY
Offered by the School of Pharmacy and Health Professions.

OTD 215  Medical Terminology (1)
Medical Terminology is a critical part of language and communication used by health care practitioners. This self-directed course is designed for students planning a career in the health services and related fields. Course content includes a study of basic medical terminology. Students will construct and decipher terms using prefixes, suffixes, word roots, combining forms, special endings, plural forms, and abbreviations related to body systems, cavities, planes, and positions. Competency is evaluated throughout the semester through online testing.

PHARMACOLOGY
Offered by the Department of Pharmacology of the School of Medicine

PHR 241  Pharmacology I (5) on campus
This course can be offered on campus or web-based. A comprehensive coverage of the major drug groups and their mechanisms. The emphasis is on human pharmacology and the rational basis for therapeutics. Specific drug classes will be discussed with emphasis on mechanism of action, organ systems affected by the drugs, their pharmacokinetics, therapeutic indications, untoward effects, contraindications and drug-drug interactions. P: DC.

PHR 242  Pharmacology II (5) on campus
The pharmacy pharmacology course provides a comprehensive coverage of the major drug groups and their mechanisms. The emphasis is on the pharmacological basis for the therapeutic use of drugs. Specific drug classes will be discussed with emphasis on mechanism of action, organ systems affected by drugs, adverse effects, contraindications, pharmacokinetics, therapeutic indications and drug-drug interactions. P: PHR 241.
PHR 350  Introduction to Pharmacology (3)
This course is designed for undergraduates with concentrations in a range of majors and professional interests including biology, chemistry, biochemistry, psychology, pre-pharmacy and pre-medicine. Pharmacology is more than the study of the mode of action of drugs. It is a science which uses the basic concepts of biology and chemistry to determine how drugs affect the organism; it gives a unique perspective in understanding how cells, organ systems, and organisms function. Unlike other basic science fields, pharmacology is a special field in which one can systematically investigate the mechanism for a biological event—from the molecular level to the whole animal. Pharmacology also allows us to study how biological systems fail to function, providing information on the etiology of disease. Pharmacologic research is essential for the development, testing and clinical use of drugs to treat disease. P: BIO 211, 212 and CHM 203, 321 or IC.

PHR 531  Chemical Basis of Drug Action I (3) I
The chemical basis for drug action in vivo and in vitro. General chemical principles, physiochemical properties and drug-receptor interactions are used to derive structure-activity relationships for important drug classes permitting the understanding of the pharmacological and biopharmaceutical profiles of currently available drug products. Provides a basis for predicting biological properties and activities of future products. P: DC.

PHR 532  Chemical Basis of Drug Action II (3) II
Continuation of PHR 531. P: DC.

PHR 537  Rational Drug Design and Discovery (2) I, OD
Scientific basis for the rational design and development of new drug molecules. Discussion of drug-receptor theory, structure activity relationships, and specific examples of the design of new drugs. P: DC.

PHR 595  Directed Independent Study (1-5) I, II, S (OD)
Supervised independent projects that may include laboratory work, assigned readings, research papers, etc. Available in autonomic pharmacology, cardiovascular pharmacology, exocrine pharmacology, and neuropharmacology. P: Undergraduate or Gr. stdg. and DC.

PHR 597  Directed Independent Research (1-4) I, II, S (OD)
Supervised independent research for motivated students to become involved in ongoing original research projects of the pharmacology faculty. P: Undergraduate or Gr. stdg. and DC.

PHARMACY
Offered by the School of Pharmacy and Health Professions.

PHA 213  Human Anatomy for Pre-Pharmacy Students (3)
Pre-pharmacy students will learn cellular, tissue, organ and system level anatomical structures, with emphasis on using anatomical knowledge as a foundation for pharmacist-provided patient care. P: BIO 211 and BIO 212 or equivalent.
PHILOSOPHY

For the Philosophy Program of Study, please refer to page 180.

PHL 107  Critical and Historical Introduction to Philosophy (3) I, II, S
Introduction to Western Philosophy through reading and critical discussion of classic texts selected from each of Ancient, Medieval, Modern, and Contemporary periods of philosophy, and relation of problems raised by these texts to the current human condition. Study of the nature of philosophy, the nature of knowledge, and the nature of reality. Introduction to basic principles of logic and concepts of critical thinking, including recognition of fallacies and construction and evaluation of arguments. Required of all students in Arts and Sciences, Business Administration, and Nursing.

PHL 201  Introduction to Logic (3)
A formal study of reasoning and argument encountered in writing. Topics include: schematization of arguments, categorical logic, Venn diagrams, propositional logic, truth tables, inductive logic, validity, soundness, and forms of inference. P: PHL 107.

PHL 202  Informal Logic (3)
A practical study of argument and critical thinking, including an examination of how to recognize and evaluate arguments encountered in everyday media, and how to construct one’s own arguments. Topics include: deduction, induction, validity, soundness, criticizing premises, clarifying meaning, uses of language, definition, conceptual theories, informal fallacies, conceptual analysis, causal arguments, analogical arguments, and normative arguments.

PHL 250  Philosophical Foundations for Ethical Understanding (3) I, II, S
Consideration of the foundations of morality; theories of virtue and of moral obligation; principles and rules; application of theories to specific contemporary moral problems, including issues of domestic diversity. P: PHL 107.

PHL 255  Energy, Ethics and Environment (3)
Study of the ethical issues associated with different types of energy technologies and their impacts on the environment. P: PHL 107.

PHL 311  Utopian Thought (3)
Examination of some of the classical and contemporary utopian authors: Plato, More, Bellamy, Orwell, and Wright. Some attention to the history of American communal experiments, especially the Hutterite Society. Examination of the philosophical underpinnings of utopianism: questions of class structure, liberty, property, labor, privacy, and implications for a theory of the person and society. P: PHL 107, and one of the following: PHL 201, PHL 250, PHL 312, or PHL 320.

PHL 312  Symbolic Logic (3)
Study of the historical development of logic; the nature of formal systems; truth tables; the method of deduction; propositional calculus; monadic and polyadic predicate logic and first order general predicate logic; axiomatics; introduction to set theory; metalogical problems. P: PHL 107.

PHL 317  Philosophy of Sport (3) (Same as AMS 317)
Philosophical examination of the nature, meaning, and significance of sport, with special emphasis on the relationships among sport, play, and game. Investigation of ethical issues in sport, including sportsmanship, cheating, drug-testing, sexual equality, competition, and winning. Treatment of the relation of sport to social-political and aesthetic issues. P: PHL 107, and one of the following: PHL 201, PHL 250, PHL 312, or PHL 320.

PHL 320  God and Persons: Philosophical Reflections (3) I, II, S
This course examines, from the viewpoint of rational inquiry, questions concerning God (classic and contemporary arguments on the existence of God and contemporary atheism and agnosticism, the nature of God, approaches toward God, the problem of evil in the light of belief in God) and human personhood (freedom and determinism, human destiny, the meaning of human life). P: PHL 107; So. stdg.

PHL 321  Epistemology (3)
Advanced study of human knowledge. Examination of the sources of knowing in reason and sense, grounds for establishing the validity of claims to know, the relationships between various sciences and other methods and ways of knowing. P: PHL 107, and one of the following: PHL 201, PHL 250, PHL 312, or PHL 320.
PHL 324  Native American World View, Culture and Values (3) (Same as ANT 324, NAS 324)
This course takes a multidisciplinary approach to formulating the varieties of worldviews among Native groups with an emphasis on commonalities and uniqueness among different groups during different historical eras. The course begins by critically looking at reconstructions of Native worldviews in the pre-European contact era as constructed by later Natives, anthropologists and ethno-historians based on a variety of sources. The course focuses on the many media through which Native cosmologies are expressed as well as the historical circumstances that have continued to transform Native cosmologies. P: PHL 107, and one of the following: PHL 201, PHL 250, PHL 312, or PHL 320.

PHL 328  Philosophy of History (3)
Examination of some speculative theories about the direction of history from Plato to contemporary authors. Examination of the critical philosophy of history that considers the nature and status of historical knowledge and methods. P: PHL 107, and one of the following: PHL 201, PHL 250, PHL 312, or PHL 320.

PHL 331  Moral Philosophy (3)
Advanced study of contemporary ethical theories, significant features of the moral life, and applications of both to contemporary moral problems. P: PHL 107, PHL 250.

PHL 332  World Philosophy (3)
This course offers a comparison of different global philosophical perspectives, including, but not limited to, African Philosophy, Native American Philosophy, Buddhism, Chinese Philosophy and Indian Philosophy. The emphasis is on philosophy as a guide to life, and will encompass discussion of some of the most significant texts in these diverse philosophical traditions. We also consider the application of these different philosophical viewpoints to contemporary social and ethical issues. P: PHL 107, and one of the following: PHL 201, PHL 250, PHL 312, or PHL 320.

PHL 333  Philosophy of the Human Sciences (3)
Examination of the methodology of the human sciences (e.g., psychology, sociology, political science) and comparison of this methodology with that of the natural sciences. Examination of Continental and Anglo-American criticisms, phenomenological social sciences, hermeneutics, and critical theory. P: PHL 107, and one of the following: PHL 201, PHL 250, PHL 312, or PHL 320.

PHL 334  Philosophy of the Natural Sciences (3)
Investigation of basic concepts in natural science and of the elements of scientific inquiry — law, theory, causality, probability, confirmation and disconfirmation, proof, and scientific change. The history of the natural sciences, especially of the scientific revolution of the 16th and 17th centuries, is used as the context for analyzing these concepts. P: PHL 107, and one of the following: PHL 201, PHL 250, PHL 312, or PHL 320.

PHL 342  Metaphysics (3)
Advanced study of the philosophy of being, the most general study of reality and its constitutive parts; examination of traditional and contemporary positions on the existence and nature of God, the ultimate character of matter and mind, the nature of being and becoming. P: PHL 107, and one of the following: PHL 201, PHL 250, PHL 312, or PHL 320.

PHL 343  Ethics and the Professions (3)
Examination of the moral dimensions of the role of the professional in contemporary society with emphasis on the professional-client relationship and the professional’s social obligations. Specific moral problems in the various professions will be covered, especially in medicine and law. P: PHL 107, and one of the following: PHL 201, PHL 250, PHL 312, or PHL 320.

PHL 345  Philosophy for Children (3) (Same as EDU 345)
This course introduces a curriculum aimed at fostering creative and critical thinking for children. Philosophy begins in wonder. This course seeks to reawaken the sense of wonder and protects children’s capacity of questioning. A careful examination on the issue from both the theory and practice of doing philosophy with children will be involved. P: PHL 107, and one of the following: PHL 201, PHL 250, PHL 312, or PHL 320.
PHL 348 Philosophy of Feminism (3) (Same as WGS 348)
An examination of a number of philosophical approaches, such as those rooted in existentialism, liberalism, and Marxism, to issues concerning gender. Topics from fields such as ethics, politics, philosophy of law, epistemology, and philosophy of science will be addressed. P: PHL 107, and one of the following: PHL 201, PHL 250, PHL 312, or PHL 320.

PHL 351 Introduction to Chinese Philosophy (3) (Same as THL 351)
Origin and development of Chinese philosophy. The basic doctrines and moral principles that the Chinese tradition holds. Different schools of Chinese philosophy, such as Confucianism, Daoism, and Moism. How Chinese philosophy has been practiced in daily life. The conflicts between Chinese tradition and modern China. P: PHL 107, and one of the following: PHL 201, PHL 250, PHL 312, or PHL 320.

PHL 353 Introduction to Buddhism (3) (Same as THL 353)
Origin and development of Buddhism’s basic doctrines and beliefs. The different schools of Buddhist traditions, and the changes as Buddhism spread from India through China and Japan to the West. How Buddhist teachings are practiced in daily life. P: PHL 107, and one of the following: PHL 201, PHL 250, PHL 312, or PHL 320.

PHL 354 Environmental Ethics (3) (Same as EVS 354)
Critical study of the anthropocentrism-nonanthropocentrism debate and the individualism-holism debate and how they affect each other in the context of the determination of ecological value. If anthropocentrism is in some ways defective, what implications do these defects have for our moral obligations to animals, plants, waters, soil, future generations, species, ecosystems, and the planet? P: PHL 107 and PHL 250.

PHL 355 Science, Technology, and Values (3)
Investigation of ethical issues raised by science and technology in such areas as change of the environment, governmental control of population, restrictions on scientific research, technology assessment, work in a technological society, and genetic manipulation. Also, consideration of science and technology themselves as values, their dominance in our culture and some of the effects of that dominance on other values. P: PHL 107, and one of the following: PHL 201, PHL 250, PHL 312, or PHL 320.

PHL 356 Philosophy of Peace and War (3)
Examination of philosophical issues related to peace and war. Emphasis on an analysis of the traditional just war theory and on the more extreme alternatives of pacifism and the “war is hell” doctrine. P: PHL 107, and one of the following: PHL 201, PHL 250, PHL 312, or PHL 320.

PHL 357 Bioethics (3)
An examination of various moral problems raised by new scientific and medical knowledge and power. Emphasis is placed on developing an ethical framework to help resolve moral issues related to the doctor-patient relationship, research with human subjects, suicide, euthanasia, abortion, new genetic technologies, allocation of scarce medical resources, etc. P: PHL 107, and one of the following: PHL 201, PHL 250, PHL 312, or PHL 320.

PHL 358 Social and Political Philosophy (3)
Critical study of classical and contemporary theories concerning the nature and value of social and political institutions such as the state, the family, and civil society. Examination of the nature and application of political ideals such as justice, freedom, equality, and community. P: PHL 107, and one of the following: PHL 201, PHL 250, PHL 312, or PHL 320.

PHL 359 History of Ethics (3)
Examination of the history of Western ethical theory from ancients to contemporary philosophers. Emphasis on primary sources. P: PHL 107, and one of the following: PHL 201, PHL 250, PHL 312, or PHL 320.

PHL 360 History of Mediaeval Ethics (3) (Same as CNE 360)
An investigation of mediaeval ethics, tracing its roots in classical antiquity and religious tradition, outlining its innovations, and outlining the ways in which it lays the foundations of modern ethics. P: PHL 107 and either PHL 250 or THL 250.

PHL 365 Classics of Political Thought (3) (Same as PLS 365)
Critical readings of Plato, Aristotle, Machiavelli, Hobbes, Locke, and Marx, with emphasis on their contributions to contemporary political understanding. P: So. stdg.
PHL 366  St. Thomas and Thomism (3)
Study of the philosophy of St. Thomas Aquinas and the subsequent history of Thomistic philosophy, especially in 20th century scholarship. Special emphasis on Thomistic metaphysics, anthropology, ethics, and political thought. P: PHIL 107, and one of the following:
PHL 201, PHL 250, PHL 312, or PHL 320.

PHL 367  American Philosophy (3) (Same as AMS 367) Surveys some of the works of significant figures in philosophy in America, both past and present. Includes classical American philosophy as well as important individuals outside that tradition. Focuses primarily on metaphysical and epistemological themes. P: PHIL 107, and one of the following: PHL 201, PHL 250, PHL 312, or PHL 320.

PHL 368  Moral Psychology (3)
Moral psychology studies issues at the junction of psychology and moral philosophy. This course investigates the nature of motives, intentions, emotions, and choices and their role in explaining our acts. It also explores states of mind (such as negligence, love, and anger) that might render an agent more or less responsible for an act. Other topics for discussion include self-deception, ignorance, and omissions. P: PHIL 107, and one of the following:
PHL 201, PHL 250, PHL 312, or PHL 320.

PHL 370  History of Classical Greek Philosophy (3) (Same as CNE 370) Examination of the origins and development of Western philosophy during the Classical period in ancient Greece; the pre-Socratics; Socrates and the Sophists; substantial study of the works of Plato and Aristotle. P: PHIL 107, and one of the following: PHL 201, PHL
250, PHL 312, or PHL 320.

PHL 371  History of Hellenistic Philosophy (3) (Same as CNE 371)
Examination of the development of Western philosophy after Aristotle during the Hellenistic period in ancient Greece and imperial Rome. The study of Epicureanism (pleasure is the highest good), Stoicism (living in agreement with nature is the highest good), Skepticism (peace of mind is gained by suspending one’s judgment on all dogmatic claims to truth), and Neo-Platonism. P: PHIL 107, and one of the following: PHL 201, PHL 250, PHL 312, or PHL 320.

PHL 372  History of Medieval Philosophy (3) (Same as CNE 372) Study of St. Augustine and the development of Scholasticism; the Arab commentators; the achievements of St. Thomas Aquinas; Duns Scotus; William of Ockham and the rise of nominalism. P: PHIL 107, and one of the following: PHL 201, PHL 250, PHL 312, or
PHL 320.

PHL 373  History of Modern Philosophy (3)
Study of the development of Western philosophy from Descartes through Kant (1600-1800); examination of the central figures of Continental rationalism and British Empiricism, and the critical philosophy of Kant. P: PHIL 107, and one of the following: PHL 201, PHL
250, PHL 312, or PHL 320.

PHL 374  History of 19th-Century Philosophy (3) (Same as GER 374)
Study of important nineteenth-century philosophers such as Hegel, Feuerbach, Marx, Comte, Kierkegaard, Nietzsche, and Mill; themes include idealism, existentialism, Marxism, and utilitarianism. P: PHIL 107, and one of the following: PHL 201, PHL 250, PHL 312, or PHL 320.

PHL 401  Themes in Contemporary Philosophy (3)
Examination of topics in philosophy as selected by the professor. Themes are chosen to highlight new developments in philosophy, contemporary expressions of traditional philosophical movements, or recent trends in specific philosophical traditions. Course will be subtitled in the Schedule of Courses. May be repeated to a limit of six hours. P: PHIL 107, and one of the following: PHL 201, PHL 250, PHL 312, or PHL 320.

PHL 410  Stoicism (3) (Same as CNE 410)
Study of the philosophy originated by Zeno of Citium in the Stoa Poikile in Athens around 300 BCE and the influence of Stoicism in the history of Western philosophy. Investigation of the Stoic system of physics, logic, and ethics; the doctrines of naturalism, rationalism, fatalism, providence, cosmopolitanism, autarky, apatheia, and suicide. Possible topics include philosophy of mind, philosophy of language, freedom and determinism, and political philosophy. P:
PHIL 107, and one of the following: PHL 201, PHL 250, PHL 312, or PHL 320.
PHL 413 Philosophy and Literature (3)
Examination of philosophical concepts and issues crucial to understanding and appreciating works of great literature. Examination of philosophical themes within great literary works and/or literary aspects of important philosophical works. P: PHL 107, and one of the following: PHL 201, PHL 250, PHL 312, or PHL 320.

PHL 415 Thoreau's Walden: Fiction, Poetry, Truth (3) (Same as AMS 415)
This course is a philosophical exploration of the relations among fiction, poetry and truth, in the context of reading one of the greatest classics of American literature, Henry David Thoreau's Walden. P: PHL 107 or So. stdg.

PHL 420 Science and Religion (3) (Same as SRP 420, THL 420)
This course explores the relationship between science and religion from three perspectives: philosophy of science, scientific theories, and theology. Issues to be studied include: reductionism vs. emergentism, the relationship between God and world (including creation and evolution), the Galileo affair, and Darwin and design. P: PHL 250 or THL 250; Sr. stdg.

PHL 422 Aesthetics (3)
Examination of fundamental questions concerning art: the origins of art; the aims and purposes of art; the evaluation of art; the notion of beauty; truth in art; censorship, pornography, and art; the value of art. P: PHL 107, and one of the following: PHL 201, PHL 250, PHL 312, or PHL 320.

PHL 424 Philosophy of Mind (3)
Advanced study of philosophical writings on the relation between mental states and concomitant brain states. Examination of this problem in terms of its history and cultural significance, the metaphysical and methodological assumptions of proposed solutions, and attempts to adjudicate meta-theoretic conflict among said proposals. P: PHL 107, and one of the following: PHL 201, PHL 250, PHL 312, or PHL 320.

PHL 430 Rationality and Religious Belief (3)
An advanced study of central issues in the philosophy of religion, with special emphasis on contemporary discussions of traditional issues, including extended treatment of the faith-reason controversy in light of recent developments in epistemology. P: PHL 107, and one of the following: PHL 201, PHL 250, PHL 312, or PHL 320.

PHL 434 Philosophy of East Asian Literature and Film (3) (Same as SRP 434)
This course is a philosophical investigation into the moral values expressed in East Asian literature and film. Study of a wide range of masterworks will ground an examination of how Buddhism, Confucianism, and Daoism function in the lives of the peoples of eastern Asia. P: PHL 250 or THL 250; Sr. Stdg.

PHL 435 Literature, Philosophy, and Economics: Critical Representations of Commercial Life (3) (Same as ENG 435, SRP 435)
This course will explore how literary, philosophical, and economic texts can reveal basic commercial forms such as the commodity, wage, labor, and capital, whose consequences for social justice we will consider. P: PHL 250 or THL 250; Sr. Stdg.

PHL 440 Legal Philosophy (3)
Examination of classical and contemporary views on the nature of law. Examination of the functions of law, ways it is created and changed by emerging social conditions, and concepts of justice and punishment. P: PHL 107, and one of the following: PHL 201, PHL 250, PHL 312, or PHL 320.

PHL 451 Social Justice: Theory and Practice (3)
Examination of various principles of social justice in conjunction with direct social involvement through community services. P: PHL 107, and one of the following: PHL 201, PHL 250, PHL 312, or PHL 320.

PHL 453 Ethics and Public Policy (3)
Examination of value-laden issues that underlie the formation and implementation of public policy. Exploration of the relationship between abstract ethical principles and concrete public policy problems in the context of currently troubled environmental, biomedical, education, and social policies. P: PHL 107, and one of the following: PHL 201, PHL 250, PHL 312, or PHL 320.
PHL 454  Environmental Philosophy (3) (Same as EVS 454)
Examination of a variety of theoretical approaches to philosophical issues concerning individual organisms, species, ecosystems, and the biosphere. Aesthetic, axiological, epistemological, and ontological issues may be addressed. P: PHIL 107, and one of the following: PHIL 201, PHIL 250, PHIL 312, or PHIL 320.

PHL 455  Health Care, Society and Values (3)
Philosophical examination of moral issues in medicine with emphasis on the social dimensions of health care and its delivery. Consideration of questions of justice, rights to health care, the social nature of health and disease, etc. P: PHIL 107, and one of the following: PHIL 201, PHIL 250, PHIL 312, or PHIL 320.

PHL 456  Public Health Ethics (3) (Same as HAP 456, SRP 456)
Lectures and small group discussions focus on ethical theory and current ethical issues in public health and health policy, including resource allocation, the use of summary measures of health, the right to health care, and conflicts between autonomy and health promotion efforts. Student evaluation based on class participation, a group project, and a paper evaluating ethical issues in the student's area of public health specialization. P: PHIL 250 or THL 250; Sr. stdg.

PHL 457  Biomedical Ethics: Philosophical and Theological Approaches (3) I, II, S (Same as HAP 457, SRP 457, THL 457)
An exploration of relations between philosophical and theological conceptions of ethics and moral methodologies, together with an application of the latter to select issues in biomedicine and healthcare policy. P: PHIL 250 or THL 250; Sr. stdg.

PHL 459  Marxism (3) (Same as GER 459, PLS 459)
In-depth study of the philosophical and political writing of Karl Marx, the historical evolution of Marxism, and its impact on contemporary thought. P: PHIL 107, and one of the following: PHIL 201, PHIL 250, PHIL 312, or PHIL 320.

PHL 460  Humanity and the Concept of the Future (3) (Same as SRP 460)
This course examines the philosophical concept of time in relation to how one understands oneself as a member of a community that reaches back into the distant past and forward into the distant future, and the intergenerational ethical relations and obligations which emerge from the temporal and historical self-understanding. P: PHIL 250 or THL 250; Sr. stdg.

PHL 461  The Role of Philosophy in Theology (3) (Same as THL 461)
Examination of the relation between philosophy and theology; their different ways of thinking about God and Revelation; the role that philosophy has played and can play in the development of theological thought; the impact that theological ideas have had on philosophical thought; and the interplay between faith and reason. P: PHIL 107, and one of the following: PHIL 201, PHIL 250, PHIL 312, or PHIL 320.

PHL 463  Phenomenology (3)
Examination of the central themes of phenomenology as a method and a movement, including the ideal of a presuppositionless philosophy, the thesis of the natural standpoint and phenomenological reduction, the method of imaginative or eidetic variation, the intuition of essences, and the concepts of intentionality, constitution, and the life-world. Emphasis on the major figures of phenomenology, including Husserl, Heidegger, Sartre, and Merleau-Ponty. P: PHIL 107, and one of the following: PHIL 201, PHIL 250, PHIL 312, or PHIL 320.

PHL 465  American Pragmatism (3) (Same as AMS 465)
Examination and critical evaluation of the major works and themes of the American pragmatists: C. S. Peirce, William James, and John Dewey. Includes an examination of their relation to other philosophers. P: PHIL 107, and one of the following: PHIL 201, PHIL 250, PHIL 312, or PHIL 320.

PHL 467  Existentialism (3)
Examination of major existentialist philosophies and themes including the works of Kierkegaard and Nietzsche; the development of twentieth-century existentialism; examination of the works of authors such as Heidegger, Jaspers, Marcel, Sartre, Buber, Camus, Unamuno. P: PHIL 107, and one of the following: PHIL 201, PHIL 250, PHIL 312, or PHIL 320.
PHL 469 Contemporary Analytic Philosophy (3)
Survey of the 20th century analytic movement including the thought of Russell, Moore, and Wittgenstein; logical positivism and logical atomism; recent Anglo-American philosophical analysis. P: PHL 107, and one of the following: PHL 201, PHL 250, PHL 312, or PHL 320.

PHL 475 Multiculturalism: History, Philosophy, Literature, and Education (3) (Same as SRP 475)
An intensive examination of the theory (and practice) of multiculturalism, this course will consider historical, philosophical, literary, and educational perspectives on the encounter between different cultures, and their relevance for the contemporary world. P: PHL 250 or THL 250; Sr. stdg.

PHL 479 The Philosophy of Love and Sex (3) (Same as WGS 479)
A philosophical investigation of the nature of love, the different kinds of love, the relationship between love and beauty, and between love and sex. P: PHL 107, and one of the following: PHL 201, PHL 250, PHL 312, or PHL 320.

PHL 480 Philosophical Classics (3)
An intensive examination and comparison of two major texts in the history of philosophy—for example, Aristotle’s Nicomachean Ethics and Spinoza’s Ethics; or Plato’s Republic and Rousseau’s political writings. May be repeated to a limit of six hours. P: PHL 107, and one of the following: PHL 201, PHL 250, PHL 312, or PHL 320.

PHL 481 A Major Philosopher (3)
An intensive examination of the work of one major philosopher. Examples might include Aristotle, Hume, Spinoza, or Kant. May be repeated to a limit of six hours. P: PHL 107, and one of the following: PHL 201, PHL 250, PHL 312, or PHL 320.

PHL 482 Race in America: Idea and Reality (3) (Same as AMS/BKS/HIS/PLS/SRP 482)
An examination of the idea and reality of race during key phases of U.S. history, with an emphasis on the contemporary situation. To understand the multiple meanings and experiences of race, the course draws on sources from science, literature, law, and philosophy.
P: PHL 250 or THL 250; Sr. stdg.

PHL 492 Senior Seminar for Majors (3) II
Required seminar for all graduating philosophy majors. Examination of a variety of significant topics and texts in contemporary philosophy. Emphasis on discussion, short writing assignments and seminar presentations on authors such as James Moore, Heidegger, Maritain Wittgenstein, Quine, Foucault, Nagel, McDowell, and Korsgaard. P: Sr. PHL major or IC.

PHL 493 Directed Independent Readings (1–4)
Subject matter and method to be worked out individually. May be repeated to a limit of six hours. P: PHL 107, IC, and one of the following: PHL 201, PHL 250, PHL 312, or PHL 320.

PHL 495 Directed Independent Study (1–4)
Projects on philosophical issues or problems that are not primarily carried out through directed readings. May be repeated to a limit of six hours. P: PHL 107, IC, and one of the following: PHL 201, PHL 250, PHL 312, or PHL 320.

PHL 593 Advanced Readings in Philosophy (1–4)
Independent readings course worked out individually for the student. May be repeated to a limit of six hours. P: PHL major and IC
PHYSICS

For the Physics Program of Study, please refer to page 184.

PHY 107 Introductory Astronomy (3) I, II, S
Information about the solar system, stars, galaxies, and the universe; main methods by which this information has been acquired; how basic laws of physics have led to theories about cosmic processes, structure, and history. Some history of astronomy for better understanding modern views and demonstrating cultural impact of astronomical ideas. No formal science or mathematics prerequisites.

PHY 108 Astronomy Laboratory (1) I, II, S
Laboratory sessions to acquaint the student with basic phenomena, methods, and instrumentation important in astronomy. CO: PHY 107

PHY 127 Sound and Music (3) OD
Basic course on the nature of sound, covering the generation, propagation and detection of sound, with particular applications to music. P: MTH 135 or 137 or IC.

PHY 137 Light, Color, and Lasers (3) OD
A basic course on the nature of light and its applications; sources of light; wave-particle duality; lasers and holography; images and illusions; special effects; color variables and color vision. The subject of light is used as a basis to explore a wide range of physical phenomena and to examine the goals, methods and limitations of science. Since its essential characteristics are embodied in the postulates of relativity and quantum theory, light is seen to lie at the foundation of modern scientific thought. Course features many classroom demonstrations. No formal science or mathematics prerequisites.

PHY 147 Einstein and Modern Physics (3) OD
Historical and philosophical study of the reciprocal influences between Albert Einstein and the social and scientific communities of his time, including his changing attitude toward pacifism, his relationship to the Zionist movement, his philosophy of knowledge, his relationship with other scientists, and his basic contributions to science. No formal science or mathematics prerequisites.

PHY 157 Energy in Modern Society (3) OD
This course uses fundamental physical principles to develop an understanding of energy and the various sources of energy available for our use. We investigate historical trends in the production, transportation and consumption of energy as well as projections for future energy use. The effects of energy policy are considered. No formal science or mathematics prerequisites.

PHY 187 Introduction to Physics (3) I
Basic physics concepts and principles in areas of motion, force and energy, liquids and gases, thermodynamics, electricity and magnetism, light, sound, and x-ray and nuclear radiations, with examples from daily life as illustrations. Includes practice in numerical solution of simple physics problems. No formal science prerequisites. P: MTH 135 or 137 or IC.

PHY 188 Physics in the Everyday World (1) I
Experimental investigation of physical concepts as applied to geology, astronomy, motion, fluids, electricity, magnetism, waves, and quantum physics. This course may be taken by itself or in combination with PHY 127, 137, 147, 157, or 187. No formal science or mathematics prerequisites.

PHY 191 Exploring the Frontiers of Physics (1) I, II
Survey of the current research frontier in the physical sciences Each week, faculty will introduce and lead a discussion on a contemporary research field, focusing on the scientific and social significance. No formal math or science pre-requisites, intended for students interested in pursuing careers in the physical sciences. May be repeated to a maximum of four credits.

PHY 195 Selected Topics in Physics (1-6) OD
A physics project or special study in physics outside the normal curricular boundaries.
PHY 211  General Physics I (4) I, II, S
First semester of the general physics sequence. Lecture, discussion, laboratory. Topics include kinematics, Newton's laws of motion, conservation of momentum and energy, rotational dynamics, thermodynamics, and fluids. Basic calculus used. Background of HS Physics or PHY 187 strongly recommended. CO: MTH 245 or 141 or IC.

PHY 212  General Physics II (4) I, II, S
Continuation of PHY 211. Topics include oscillations, waves, optics, electricity and magnetism, DC and AC circuits, modern physics. Basic calculus used. CO: MTH 245 or 141 or IC. P: PHY 211; MTH 245 or 141 or IC.

PHY 221  Mathematical Modeling of the Physical World I (3) I
First semester in the physics sequence with a particular emphasis on mathematical modeling. Course is taught jointly with MTH 249. Topics include kinematics, Newton's laws of motion, conservation of momentum and energy, rotational dynamics, and fluids. P: MTH 245; CO: MTH 249.

PHY 222  Mathematical Modeling of the Physical World II (3) II
Second semester in the physics sequence with a particular emphasis on mathematical modeling. Course is taught jointly with MTH 249. Topics include oscillations, waves, optics, electricity and magnetism, and modern physics. P: PHY 221; MTH 249 and PHY 221; CO: MTH 349.

PHY 301  Modern Physics (3) I
An introduction to relativity and quantum physics. Special theory of relativity; quantization of electrical charge, energy and light; Bohr model of the atom; wave aspect of particles; wave-particle duality; Schroedinger equation in one dimension; applications of relativity and quantum theory in atomic, nuclear, and elementary particle physics. P: PHY 212 or PHY 222.; MTH 246.

PHY 303  Electronics Laboratory (1) I
Basic course in electronics. Laboratory experiments include an introduction to measuring instruments, and applications of solid state components, and analog and digital integrated circuits. 3L. P: PHY 212 or PHY 222.

PHY 311  Physical Optics (3) II
Mathematical representation of waves; interference, diffraction and polarization; coherence and incoherence; lasers; Fourier analysis and synthesis. P: PHY 212 or PHY 222; MTH 246.

PHY 332  Optics Laboratory (1) II
Experiments in geometrical and physical optics: interferometry; lasers and holography; analytical methods based on optical principles. 3L. CO: PHY 331.

PHY 351  Physics in Medicine (3) I, AY
A review of basic physics as it applies to radiation and the human body followed by an overview of major topics in the field of medical physics: x-rays and their uses in medical imaging, physics of nuclear medicine imaging, ultrasound imaging, magnetic resonance imaging, radiation therapy for cancer, and radiation biology. P: PHY 212 or PHY 222.

PHY 353  Introduction to Biological Physics (3) I, AY
An introduction to the application of physics to the microscopic world of the living cell. Topics include: Diffusion, fluid dynamics at low Reynolds-number, thermodynamics of microscopic systems, chemical and entropic forces, self-assembly of ordered structures, mechanical and nerve impulses. P: PHY 212 or PHY 222, MTH 246.
PHY 471  Classical Mechanics (3) II
Review of particle dynamics, the harmonic oscillator, rigid body mechanics, generalized coordinates; introduction to Lagrange’s and Hamilton’s equations. P: PHY 212 or PHY 222; CO: MTH 347 or IC.

PHY 481  Electricity and Magnetism (3) I
Development of Maxwell’s equations; Laplace’s and Poisson’s equations and boundary value problems; electromagnetic waves. P: PHY 212 or PHY 222; MTH 347.

PHY 491  Seminar (1) I, II
Undergraduate seminar. Training in the organization and presentation of papers on advanced topics in physics. May be repeated to a maximum of three credits. P: IC.

PHY 493  Directed Independent Readings (1-3) I, II, S
A readings project under the guidance of a member of the faculty. Credit by arrangement. May be repeated to a maximum of six credits. P: IC.

PHY 495  Directed Independent Study (1-3) I, II, S
A study project under the guidance of a member of the faculty. Credit by arrangement. May be repeated to a maximum of six credits. P: IC.

PHY 497  Directed Independent Research (1-3) I, II, S
A research project under the guidance of a member of the faculty. Credit by arrangement. May be repeated to a maximum of six credits. P: IC.

PHY 521  Electronics for Scientists (3) I, OD
Basic course in electronics. Laboratory experiments include an introduction to measuring instruments, solid state components, and digital and logic circuits. Lecture closely follows the experiments. 1R, 5L; P: PHY 212 or PHY 222.

PHY 522  Electric Circuits (3) I, OD

PHY 531  Quantum Mechanics (3) I
Development of the formalism of non-relativistic quantum mechanics; applications to the harmonic oscillator, the hydrogen atom, square-well potential, and scattering. P: PHY 301 and 471.

PHY 541  Thermodynamics and Statistical Mechanics (3) II
Laws of thermodynamics, thermodynamic variables, thermodynamic potentials; kinetic theory, distribution functions, classical and quantum statistics. P: PHY 212 or CHM 341 or PHY 222; MTH 246.

PHY 547  Albert Einstein: Foundation of 20th Century Physics (3) OD
A study of the scientific ideas of Albert Einstein and their influence on twentieth-century physics. Treatment of the evolution of these ideas along with his involvement in movements such as pacifism and Zionism. P: IC.

PHY 551  Mathematical Physics (3) I
Mathematical methods for the representation of physical processes in space and time. Fourier and other complete representations; vector calculus; tensors and matrices. Selection and emphasis on topics keyed to needs of students enrolled. P: PHY 212 or PHY 222; MTH 347.

PHY 553  Computational Physics (3) OD
An introduction to the computational methods most often employed within applied and theoretical physics. Each computational method is introduced in the context of a specific type of physics problem. Examples are drawn from a variety of subfields of physics including: classical, atomic, nuclear and thermodynamics. Topics include: Taylor series expansions and error estimation, numerical solutions of differential equations, solving systems of linear and/or non-linear equations, numerical solutions to partial differential equations, numerical integration techniques, Monte Carlo methods, and the Metropolis algorithm. P: PHY 301 or IC.

PHY 557  Scientific Works of Einstein (3) OD
The scientific ideas of Albert Einstein and their role in the revolution of scientific thought in the early twentieth century. Topics covered include the basics of quantum mechanics, special theory of relativity, and general theory of relativity. P: PHY 212 or PHY 222; MTH 246 or IC.
PHY 558  Relativity: The Special and General Theories (3) S (OD)
Review of classical relativity (frames of reference); Einstein’s special theory of relativity (length contraction, time dilation, mass dependence on speed, $E = mc^2$; Einstein’s general theory of relativity (gravity, equivalence of gravitation and acceleration, deflection of light, time effects). P: PHY 212 or PHY 222; MTH 246.

PHY 559  Gravitation and Cosmology (3) OD
An introduction to standard big bang cosmology utilizing Einstein’s general theory of relativity. Topics in relativity will include tensor analysis, Reimannian geometry, and the Einstein Equation. Topics in cosmology will include the Friedman-Robertson-Walker metric, the age of the universe, dark matter and dark energy, and early universe thermodynamics. P: PHY 301.

PHY 561  Nuclear Physics (3) II, AY
Application of elementary quantum mechanical theory and relativity to the study of nuclear structure, radioactive decay and nuclear models. P: PHY 531.

PHY 562  Nuclear Instruments and Methods (2) I, AY
Laboratory work in nuclear physics designed to teach the methods and procedures of experimental nuclear physics at an advanced level and to familiarize the student with modern research equipment and its use. 3L. P: PHY 301 and 302.

PHY 563  High Energy Nuclear Physics (1) Od
Students will read and discuss original journal articles related to the historical development of high energy physics. P: PHY 212 or PHY 222; MTH 246; or IC.

PHY 571  Condensed Matter Physics (3) II, AY
An introduction to the structure and dynamics of solids and liquids including solid state physics. Topics include the structure of crystalline, amorphous and self-similar (fractal) matter as conveyed by scattering techniques, the vibrational properties of crystals, the dynamics of liquids, electron dynamics in crystals (including band theory), response functions, percolation theory, and phase transitions (with an emphasis on critical phenomena, scaling and renormalization). P: PHY 301 or CHM 341 or IC.

PHY 572  Condensed Matter Laboratory (1) II, AY
Laboratory work designed to acquaint the student with spectroscopy techniques used in condensed matter and material science, including: static and dynamic light scattering, Raman spectroscopy, X-ray diffraction, scanning tunneling microscopy, and dielectric spectroscopy. 3L. CO: PHY 571 or IC.

PHY 585  Teaching of Physics (3) I
Objectives and functions of the teaching of science in terms of secondary-school learning experiences. Attention is directed to the selection, organization, and presentation of meaningful materials; selection, use and evaluation of textbooks and related aids. Specific application of course material to physics through independent projects. Meets concurrently with EDU 445. Students are expected to complete all of the course work of EDU 445 and complete an additional independent project. CO: EDU 341 and 342.

PHY 587  Laser Physics (3) OD
A thorough review of the essential optical and physical principles needed for understanding laser characteristics, operation and design. Topics include the principle of detailed balance, absorption, stimulated emission, gain, obtaining population inversions, pumping requirements, laser cavity modes, Gaussian beams, laser resonators, Q-switching, mode-locking, and an overview of specific laser systems including gas-tube and solid-state lasers. P: PHY 331 or IC.

PHY 591  Seminar in Engineering (3) OD
A series of lectures, discussions and engineering speakers to assist pre-engineers to define more clearly their professional goals by acquainting them with diversified career options available to engineers. Topics include: engineering career exploration and development; cooperative education and internships; and job search, resume writing and interviewing techniques. P: IC.

PHY 595  Special Topics (1-3) OD
A course treating physics topics of special interest. This course will be subtitled in the Schedule of Courses and may be repeated under different subtitles. P: IC.

Graduate-level courses offered by the Department of Physics are listed in the Graduate issue of the Creighton University Bulletin.
POLITICAL SCIENCE
For the Political Science Program of Study, please refer to page 188.

PLS 101  Introduction to Politics (3) I, II
Introduction to the ways that human beings make collective decisions, both in governments and in other settings. Course surveys some of the perennial problems of political life, and introduces students to the ways that political scientists approach them. P: Fr. or So. stdg. only.

PLS 105  Introduction to World Politics (3) I, II
Surveys the international political system, problems of conflict and cooperation, political geography, major forms of government, and cultural and economic sources of politics and policy. Case studies based on contemporary events using relevant political concepts. P: Fr. or So. stdg. only.

PLS 121  American Government and Politics (3) I, II, S (Same as AMS 121)
A critical overview of American political institutions and processes, showing how these are shaped by and shape public opinion, the constitution, interest groups, elections, and the media. Required of all majors.

PLS 215  Comparative Political Systems (3) I, II
Introduction to the concepts, techniques, and theories used by political scientists in understanding political systems. Comparative exploration of major processes, problems and institutions. Selected case studies of Western and non-Western states. Required of all majors. P: So. stdg.

PLS 235  Interest Group Politics (3) OD
Examines the origins, structures, and functions of interest groups in the United States. Also evaluates the role and effectiveness of interest groups in American democracy. P: So. stdg.

PLS 301  Western European Political Systems (3) I, AY
Introduction to party and parliamentary systems, political behavior, and policy-making processes in major West European nations. Special emphasis on the United Kingdom, France, Germany, and Italy. Contemporary policy issues such as European integration, financing of social services, economic growth and environmental regulation. P: So. stdg.

PLS 302  Studies in Contemporary British Politics (3)
Study of the contemporary British political system including such matters as parliament, the evolving constitution, the role of the prime minister, the party system, etc. P: So. stdg.

PLS 303  Politics of Russia and the USSR Successor States (3) OD
Course explores the emerging Russian Federation, the origins of the collapse of the Soviet Union, and the current problems of reform and reorganization. Some comparisons are made with other former Soviet Republics. P: So. stdg.

PLS 305  Eastern European Political Systems (3) OD
Course surveys the post-communist political systems of East Europe, including Albania, Bulgaria, the Czech Republic, Hungary, Poland, Romania the Slovak Republic, and the former Yugoslavia. Topics include the collapse of communist regimes, economic and political reform, democratization, ethnic conflict, and East-West relations. P: So. stdg.

PLS 310  Political Science Research Methods (4) II
Introduction to qualitative and quantitative methods used to test political hypotheses. Topics include research design, data collection, basic statistics, and computer-assisted data analysis. Required of all majors. P: PLS 215.

PLS 313  Politics of the Middle East (3) II, AY
Comparative analysis of political systems in the Middle East. Focused on the processes of political development and transformation from traditional to modern political entities. Analysis of such issues as the Arab-Israeli conflict, Islamic fundamentalism, U.S. involvement in the area, and geopolitical issues. P: So. stdg.

PLS 315  Politics of Asia (3) I, AY
Introduction to the politics of selected Asian countries from a comparative perspective. Topics include political change and development; ethnic and other conflicts; domestic and regional problems; economic development; authority; and democratization. P: So. stdg.
PLS 316 Government and Politics of the People’s Republic of China (3) II, AY
The nature of China’s political culture, the distribution of power, key institutions and decision-making, political participation, and how people are mobilized for collective purposes. China’s contemporary experiments in modernization. P: So. Stdg.

PLS 317 Latin American Government and Politics (3) II, AY
Overview of political systems of Latin America. Emphasis on impact of social institutions on political process and culture. Review of colonial legacies, governmental systems, political parties and interest groups, and issues of socio-economic development and democratization. P: So. stdg.

PLS 319 Politics of the Developing Areas (3) OD
Introduction to political and social issues underlying and forming developing areas’ politics. Theories of political development, the military, patron-client systems of politics, ethnic conflict, democracy, and institutional development, statism and economic underdevelopment. P: So. stdg.

PLS 320 Judicial Process (3) II
Organization, functioning and political role of the courts and the legal process in the United States. Detailed attention given to theories of adjudication, staffing, judicial decision-making, and judicial review. P: So. stdg.

PLS 321 American Indian Tribal Government and Politics (3) (Same as NAS 321)
This course will provide students with an overview of the development of modern tribal governments, their powers, and the problems they face. Students will examine contemporary tribal governments and the issues currently facing tribes including economic development and intergovernmental relations. P: So. stdg.

PLS 322 American Presidency (3) II, AY
Examines the evolution of the presidency and its role in contemporary America and in international politics. How the office is shaped by the constitution, historical precedent, public opinion, and presidential character. P: So. stdg.

PLS 323 Campaign Management (3) I, AY
Examines the practical side of running for political office. Topics include campaign strategy, campaign organization, door-to-door campaigning, fund-raising, voter registration drives, polling, and volunteer recruitment. Students are required to work at least 50 hours on a political campaign. P: So. stdg.

PLS 324 Congress and The Legislative Process (3) I, AY
An overview of the role of Congress in the American political system. Analyzes theories of representation, legislative processes, legislative behavior, and congressional elections. P: So. stdg.

PLS 325 American States and Regions (3) OD (Same as AMS 325)
Description and evaluation of American state governments and regional organizations. Examination of the theory of federalism and its current status; comparative analysis of state-level political actors and institutions. P: So. stdg.

PLS 326 Governing Metropolitan Areas (3) OD
Course examines politics and policy questions involving the governance of complex urban areas. Course covers historical shifts in urban politics and contemporary debates over metropolitan government structure, the appropriate role of the federal government, and the financing and delivery of local services. P: So. stdg.

PLS 327 Minority Politics in America (3) OD (Same as AMS 327)
Explores the political experience of American racial and ethnic minorities with particular attention to the experience of black Americans. Reviews roots and patterns of unequal treatment of minorities, tactics and strategies used to attack these patterns, contemporary situations, and the tension between integrationist and self-determination strategies. P: So. stdg.

PLS 328 Mass Media in American Politics (3) AY (Same as AMS 328)
Analyzes the role of the media in contemporary American politics, focusing on its impact on public opinion, elections and day-to-day government. P: So. stdg.

PLS 329 Gender and Politics (3) II, AY (Same as WGS 329)
Examines issues of gender and politics from political theory, political behavior and public policy perspectives. Students critique democratic theory, analyze gender differences in voting and in officials’ behavior, and develop proposals to address policy problems. P: So. stdg.
PLS 331 Managing the Public and Non-profit Sectors (3) I (Same as HAP 331)
Examines administrative processes and politics in government and non-profit settings. The course emphasizes application of material to case study examples of public and non-profit organizational challenges. Course covers local, state, and national bureaucratic politics. P: So. stdg.

PLS 333 Environmental Politics and Policy (3) I (Same as EVS 333)
An overview of the world’s environmental problems from a political perspective. Focuses on the political dynamics that shape environmental policy making. P: So. stdg.

PLS 334 Public Policy and Healthcare (3) II (Same as HAP 334)
Review of government policies and programs as they affect healthcare in the United States and other countries. Various systems of health insurance, the private medical market, governmental provision, development and evolution of managed care systems, current U.S. federal programs. P: So. stdg.

PLS 335 Federal Indian Policy and Law (3) II (Same as AMS 335, NAS 335, SWK 335)
Investigates the relationships between Native American and Euro-Americans in terms of how the Natives were perceived and the impact this has had on Colonial and Federal policies relating to Native populations. Emphasis is on the historical, political and cultural aspects of the relationship. P: So. stdg.

PLS 337 Constitutional Law (3) I
The U.S. Supreme Court’s interpretation of the constitutional issues, including its role in the political process, separation of powers, American federalism, and political accountability. P: So. stdg.

PLS 339 Public Policy and Poverty in the United States (3) AY (Same as AMS 339)
Government policies and programs affecting the poor in the United States. Issues include various elements of welfare programs and policies, entitlement programs such as Medicare and Social Security, problems of intergovernmental activity in administrating social welfare. Examination of various critiques of social welfare policy and a review of reform proposals. Role of organized interests and public support relative to programs affecting the poor. Skill development includes policy formulation and analysis. P: So. stdg.

PLS 340 International Politics (3) I
Course investigates the assumptions, purposes, and preferred actions of state and non-state actors. It explores patterns of global conflict and cooperation, power, interdependence, geopolitics, political economy, war, terrorism, diplomacy, international law, and peacemaking. P: So. stdg.

PLS 341 Issues and Challenges in American Foreign Policy (3) AY
Key problems of contemporary American foreign policy: terrorism, weapons proliferation, weak states, regional and global economic crisis, human rights, trade, relations with the Middle East, security in Europe and Asia. Course reviews major institutions in the U.S. foreign policy process. P: So. Stdg.

PLS 342 Foreign Policy and Diplomacy of Major Powers (3) OD
Course explores and analyzes comparatively the formulation and substance of the foreign policies of selected major powers: the United States, Russia, People’s Republic of China and Japan. May be repeated if country of emphasis differs. P: So. stdg.

PLS 343 National Security and Strategic Studies (3) OD
Course examines domestic and international roots of security policies; the evolution and impact of military threat, setting strategic goals, and policies such as deterrence, arms control, crisis management, nuclear proliferation, and alliances. P: So. stdg.

PLS 345 International Political Economy (3) I, AY
Overview of political problems and issues associated with world economic relationships and development. Political aspects of international trade, monetary and debt relations, aid relationships, technology transfer and migration. Importance of national and multinational actors and a review of various ideological perspectives. P: So. stdg.

PLS 347 International Regimes (3) I, AY
Course considers major theories in international relations that begin with the assumption that the world is dominated by webs of formal and informal agreements that facilitate cooperation and limit the sovereignty of nation-states. The course considers the possibilities these relational webs (regimes) hold for the global community. P: So. stdg.
PLS 356  Constitutional Issues (3) (Same as HIS 356)
This course links both the Constitutional History of the United States with the Constitutional Law cases that laid the foundation for the living Constitution that exists today. The historical context and the judicial actions of the courts, from the Founding Fathers to the present, will be examined and debated. P: So. stdg.

PLS 357  Alternative Political Futures (3) OD
Explores speculations about interaction of humans and their natural and social environments illustrating leadership, individual liberty, global population, ecology, outer space, economics, social cohesion, and conflicts of values: Read Asimov, Heinlein, LeGuin, Simak, Ellison, Dickson, Niven, Pohl and others. P: So. stdg.

PLS 360  Liberal Democracy and Its Critics (3) OD
Development of classical liberalism and its influence on American conservatives and liberals. Readings include Hobbes, Locke, and Mill, classical economists, utilitarians, and American pluralist writers, as well as their critics. P: So. stdg.

PLS 362  Conservative Political Thought (3) OD
Major works of Burke, deTocqueville, Montesquieu and other major classical conservative authors. Twentieth Century conservatism and its diverse philosophical currents. P: So. stdg.

PLS 365  Classics of Political Thought (3) II, AY (Same as PHL 365)
Critical readings of Plato, Aristotle, Machiavelli, Hobbes, Locke, and Marx, with emphasis on their contributions to contemporary political understanding. P: So. stdg.

PLS 366  Theory of Law (3) II
Using narratives, judicial decisions, and scholarly articles, course examines such topics as responsibility, duty, liberty, rights, punishment, justice, and the nature of law itself. P: So. stdg.

PLS 372  Equality, Minorities, and Public Policy (3) II, AY (Same as AMS 372, BKS 372, HIS 372)
Incorporates continuing dialogues between a historian and a political scientist. Exploration of political processes whereby minorities have influenced the formulation and implementation of policy and governmental responses to demands for equal treatment. P: So. stdg.

PLS 401  The European Union (3) I, AY (Same as GER 401)
Review of European co-operation and integration from the Treaty of Rome in 1958 to the present. Analysis of institutions and politics of the European Union. Issues such as currency integration, international trade, environmental and social regulation, admission of new members and movements of people. P: So. stdg.

PLS 405  Ethnicity, Nationalism and Democracy (3) AY (Same as AFS 405)
Course explores historical and contemporary patterns of democratization and ethnic conflict. Emphasis is on contemporary case studies and theories. P: So. stdg.

PLS 407  Revolutions and Revolutionary Movements (3)
Survey of major political revolutions. Case studies include France, Russia, China, Iran. Coverage of major theories regarding the causes and consequences of major revolutions as well as incomplete and failed revolutionary movements. P: Jr. stdg.

PLS 410  Seminar on Comparative Politics (1-3) OD
Each semester focuses on one problem or issue such as reforms in Eastern Europe, rebellion and repression in China, revolutions, the future of Israel, etc. May be repeated under different subtitles. P: So. stdg.

PLS 411  Politics of Africa (3) I, AY (Same as AFS 411, BKS 411)
Introduction to politics of sub-Saharan Africa. Covers traditional African cultures, societies and polities; independence movements; and post-colonial politics. Discusses political parties, military interventionism, ethnic conflict, development policy and democratic reform. P: So. stdg.

PLS 420  Seminar on American Government and Politics (3) OD
Each seminar focuses on one problem or issue such as corruption in government, environmental politics, restructuring and reforming American government; etc. May be repeated under different subtitles. P: So. stdg.
PLS 421  Public Opinion, Political Behavior and Survey Research (3) OD
Course explores how public attitudes and opinions about contemporary issues are formed and evolve. Opinion trends regarding key issues are explored, as well as techniques used to research these topics: questionnaire construction, sampling, and PC-based statistical analysis using SPSS. P: PLS 310 or SOC 314.

PLS 432  Democratic Theory (3) OD (Same as AMS 432)
Major themes and thinkers on the role of government and the nature of a democratic political culture. Issues such as popular control, public participation, local autonomy, individualism, political liberty, authority, and variations in democratic political ideology are explored. P: Jr. stdg.

PLS 433  Public Policy Analysis (3) AY (Same as HAP 433)
Examination of approaches to public problem solving and public policy analysis. Key theories of power and policy, strategies for analyzing public problems and developing policy proposals, and policy in specific areas. P: Jr. stdg.

PLS 435  Global Poverty and Development (3) AY
Theories and strategies of political, social and economic development of the least developed countries. Topics include: alternative models of development, problems of rural poverty, the roles of international organizations, political-economy of underdevelopment, international capital, and multi-national corporations. P: So. stdg.

PLS 436  Politics and Ethics of Science and Technology (3) AY (Same as SRP 436)
Study of the interrelationship of politics, ethics and science in contemporary societies. The course examines the role of government in encouraging and regulating science and technological development in American and international settings. P: Sr. stdg.

PLS 437  Religion and Public Life in the United States (3) OD (Same as AMS 437)
Survey of American religious experiences and their impact on politics. Includes the guarantees of religious liberty, religion and political activism, and religion as a source of conflict and consensus. P: So. stdg.

PLS 438  Contemporary Issues in Civil Liberties (3) AY
Supreme Court’s role in interpreting constitutional rights, including the freedom of expression and religion, privacy and autonomy, and equal protection of law. P: PLS 337.

PLS 439  Dangerous Words: The First Amendment to the Constitution (3) AY
Course confronts the distinction between words and actions that underlies much of our understanding of the First Amendment’s guarantees of freedom of speech and press. Uses constitutional decisions regarding the First Amendment to explore the nature of language and its effects. P: Jr. stdg.

PLS 440  Seminar on International Relations (1-3) OD
Each seminar focuses on one problem or issue such as disarmament, the future of the Atlantic Alliance, terrorism, Third World debt, Russian-American relations, Islamic fundamentalism, etc. May be repeated under different subtitles. P: So. stdg.

PLS 444  Non-Violence and Peaceful Resolution of Conflict: Cross-Cultural and Political Perspectives (3) I (Same as ANT 444, JPS 444, SRP 444)
Peace is more than the absence of war. Course seeks to understand differing views of peace, violence, war, non-violence, and peaceful resolution of conflict. Students assess their views on alternatives to violence and apply differing modes of conflict resolution. P: Jr. stdg.

PLS 459  Marxism (3) OD (Same as GER 459, PHL 459)
In-depth study of the philosophical and political writing of Karl Marx, the historical evolution of Marxism, and its impact on contemporary thought. P: PHL 107, and one of the following: (a) PHL 201, (b) PHL 250, (c) PHL 312, or (d) PHL 320.

PLS 461  Contemporary Political Theory (3) OD
How political scientists conceptualize and interpret key issues of contemporary political life. Issues such as the expansion and centralization of legitimate power, logic of organizational behavior, rational-choice theories of individual and group behavior and others. Authors include Dahl, Lowi, Huntington, Downs, Lindblom, Olson, Ostrom, Simon, etc. P: Jr. stdg.

PLS 463  Game Theory and Social Choice (3) OD
Introduction to economic modeling of political interactions and social choice processes. Covers a set of analytic tools that are used to explain and predict political and economic behavior. P: Jr. stdg.
PLS 465  Faith and Political Action (3) AY (Same as JPS 465, SRP 465)
Challenges students to understand theological and political science perspectives on social policy issues and the work of religious-based organizations in politics. Course includes 20 hours of work with a community partner during the semester. P: Sr. stdg.

PLS 472  International Conflict (3) II
Patterns and possible causes of international terrorism, legitimacy, ethnic conflict, and interstate war. Examines political culture, social context, economic interests, interplay of nationalism and political change. Explores contemporary theories including realism and neo-realism, liberalism and neo-liberalism, bargaining, and game theory. P: So. stdg.

PLS 481  Poverty, Development, and Public Policy (3) S (Same as SRP 481)
Course explores in an international and comparative way the multi-dimensional nature of poverty, including such factors as political powerlessness, physical and social isolation, racial and gender discrimination and economic systems. Ethical issues regarding these are explored. P: Sr. stdg.

PLS 482  Race in America: Idea and Reality (3) OD (Same as AMS/BKS/HIS/SRP 482)
An examination of the idea and reality of race during key phases of U.S. history, with an emphasis on the contemporary situation. To understand the multiple meanings and experiences of race, the course draws on sources from science, literature, law, and philosophy. P: Sr. stdg.

PLS 483  Public Affairs Internship (1-6) I, II, S
Students work as entry-level professionals in selected offices of government or government-related agencies and organizations. May normally be repeated to a limit of six hours unless a departmental waiver is granted. Normally, junior standing and a 3.0 grade-point average are required for internship placement. P: IC.

PLS 485  Practicum in the United Nations (1-3) II
Research and supervised simulation of the diplomatic roles of actors in the United Nations System. P: IC.

PLS 487  Practicum in Selected National Policy Issues (1-6) I, II, S
Students participate in seminars, workshops, and projects on selected policy issues in Washington, D.C. P: IC.

PLS 488  Senior Colloquium in Political Science (3) OD
Intensive survey of selected seminal authors in political science. P: Jr. Stdg.

PLS 490  Advanced Research Practicum (3) OD
Intense exploration of a research project to include the study of advanced methods, the development of the research question, compilation of the literature review, explication of the hypothesis(es) and theory, acquisition and testing of the data, and formation of conclusions and implications. Goal is an article of publication quality. P: IC.

PLS 493  Directed Independent Readings (1-3) I, II, S
Program of readings arranged by the student in cooperation with a consenting instructor in the department. May be repeated to a limit of six hours unless departmental waiver is granted. P: IC.

PLS 497  Directed Independent Research (1-3) I, II, S
Individual research and writing under the direction of a consenting instructor in the department. May be repeated to a limit of six hours unless departmental waiver is granted. P: IC.

PLS 510  The New Institutionalism (3)
The New Institutionalism is the reigning paradigm of comparative politics. It applies rational choice theories and perspectives to the analysis of differing domestic institutional designs in an effort to determine their impact on political outcomes given the preferences of the relevant political actors in the system. Among the institutions which the course will consider are regime type, committee systems, parliamentary coalitions, bicameralism, vetoes, electoral systems, and constitutional courts. P: IC.
PLS 520  Statistical Methods for Public Administration and Policy Analysis (3) OD (Same as HAP 520)
Application of research methods and statistical tools to public management tasks and questions.  P: PLS 310 or SOC 312.

PLS 530  Advanced Statistics for Political Science (3)
This course is designed to acquaint students with advanced research tools used by political scientists. We will build on basic bivariate models to include an array of multivariate techniques, including those that incorporate time series and cross sectional data. By the end of the semester, students will be able to produce a sophisticated data analysis project that could be publicly presented. P and CO: PLS 215 and PLS 310.

PLS 537  International Law (3) II
Contemporary states and international law. Course engages controversies over who is subject to this law, who creates and enforces it, and how international law and international politics interact. Didactic and case-study approach, including case briefs and research presentations. P: Jr. stdg.

PLS 591  Senior Research Seminar in Political Science (3) I
Students work in seminar environment on original research project and prepare individual senior theses required for graduation. Required of all majors. P: PLS 215, PLS 310; Sr. stdg.

Washington Internships: College students can combine a work and learning experience for credit. Participants can intern in Congressional offices, executive agencies, and with groups in many other areas such as the environment, consumer affairs, journalism, communications, legal affairs, labor relations, health policy, arts, education, science, public relations, urban affairs and women’s issues. Students also attend seminars taught by representatives of Washington D.C.’s major governmental agencies, interest groups, and corporations. Contact Dr. Graham Ramsden for further information.

PSY 473  The Psychology of Gender (3) (Same as WGS 473) OD
This course will examine the topic of gender - the behaviors and attitudes that relate to (but are not entirely congruent with) biological sex. A critical review of gender research is at the center of this class. We will review empirical articles on sex, gender-related behaviors taken from the areas of psychology, sociology, biology, biochemistry, neurology, evolution, and anthropology to generate an overall picture of gender from a psychological perspective. P: IC.
PSY 474 Undergraduate Internship In Industrial/Organizational Psychology (3-4) OD
Field experience in industrial-organizational psychology for upper-level students. Students are placed in Omaha-based organizations. Past placements have offered experience in employee selection, performance appraisal, training, compensation, affirmative action, test construction and validation, and various legal aspects of industrial-organizational psychology. May be repeated to a limit of eight hours. P: PSY major, Jr. stdg., IC, PSY 353.

PSY 480 Advanced Statistics (3) OD
An exploration of various regression and analysis of variance techniques. Other topics such as metaanalysis and factor analysis will be considered. Students will become familiar with a common statistical package for data analysis. This course is designed for those interested in gaining an in-depth understanding of various statistical procedures for a greater ability to analyze data and to understand research results. Students interested in attending graduate school should consider this course. P: PSY 315 or PSY 211 or IC.

PSY 481 Drugs and Behavior (3) I
This course will provide an overview of psychotropic drugs, both legal and illegal. Topics will include basic psychopharmacology, physiological brain effects, historical and current drug and drug-war American culture, social impacts and controversial issues related to drug use and abuse. P: PSY 111.

PSY 491 Honors Seminar (3) I
Selected senior students, under the direction of the faculty member, will address some topic that has current prominence in the field of psychology. Students will do an extensive reading of the literature, discuss their findings with the group, and then produce a quality paper on the topic. Participants will be selected by the faculty of the Department of Psychology. P: IC; Sr. stdg.

PSY 495 Directed Independent Study (1-3) I, II, S
Provides the student an opportunity to design a course of study in a particular area of interest in psychology. The content may be applied or academic in nature, and the student is required to work with a faculty member in the design and implementation of this course of study. May be repeated to a limit of six hours. P: PSY major; Jr. stdg.; IC.

PSY 497 Directed Independent Research (1-3) I, II, S
Provides the student an opportunity to explore a particular area of interest. This exploration might be in the form of empirical research or library research. The content will be agreed upon by the student and a faculty member in the Department of Psychology. May be repeated to a limit of six hours. P: PSY major; Jr. stdg.; IC.

PSY 540 Professional Orientation and Ethics in Counseling (3) I, S (Same as COu 540)
A survey of the counseling process including the role of the counselor, characteristics of clients, helping and referral skills, and theories of counseling. The Code of Ethics supporting the profession is introduced. P: Sr. stdg.

PSY 590 Counseling Significant Losses (3) I (Same as COU 590)
An investigation of the counseling process as applied to life events that occur in the area of significant loss. An investigation of the role of the counselor, characteristics of clients, helping and referral skills, and theories of counseling as applied to significant loss events.
RATIO STUDIORUM PROGRAM

For the Ratio Studiorum Program of Study, please refer to page 84.

Note: The Ratio Studiorum Program offers to all incoming students, both first-time students and transfers, a one-semester-hour, 100-level Fall course. Although each of the following five 100-level RSP courses includes material particular to the College, status, or program of the registered student, all of them also cover many of the same topics. A partial description common to each of them reads: This course in Creighton’s Ratio Studiorum Program introduces new students to college life in general and life at Creighton University in particular. It examines key elements of collegiate life, including the meaning and value of a liberal arts education; the University’s Jesuit, Catholic history and Ignatian values; and the vocational aspirations and challenges common to all college students. Students also learn about the culture of scholarship and its basis in the standards of academic integrity. Assignments include discussion of a series of essays written especially for the Ratio Studiorum Program.

RSP 101 The Introduction to the Culture of Collegiate Life for College of Arts and Sciences Students (1) I
This course introduces first-year students in the College of Arts and Sciences (CCAS) to life at Creighton University. In addition to the topics common to all 100-level RSP courses (see above Note), students learn about the CCAS Ratio Studiorum, or plan of study, including the College’s six learning objectives and degree requirements (major and minor). Assignments include class discussion of a selected book that addresses aspects of self-exploration and self-discovery. The course is taught by a Faculty Preceptor, supported by a Decurion (a junior or senior personally invited by the Preceptor).

RSP 102 The Introduction to the Culture of Collegiate Life for School of Nursing Students (1) I
This course introduces first-year students in the School of Nursing to life at Creighton University. In addition to the topics common to all 100-level RSP courses (see above Note), students learn about Nursing’s Ratio Studiorum, or plan of study, including the School’s Program Objectives and degree requirements. Assignments include class discussion of a selected book, read during the summer, that addresses aspects of self-exploration and self-discovery. The course is taught by a Faculty Preceptor, supported by a Decurion (usually a senior Nursing student personally invited by the Preceptor).

RSP 103 The Introduction to the Culture of Collegiate Life for College of Business Administration Students (1) I
This course introduces first-year students in the College of Business Administration to life at Creighton University. In addition to the topics common to all 100-level RSP courses (see above Note), students learn about CoBA’s Ratio Studiorum, or plan of study, including the College’s six learning goals and degree requirements (major and minor). Course readings and class discussions focus on concepts of leadership and the College’s leadership development program. The course is taught by a Faculty Preceptor, supported by a Decurion (an upperclassman personally invited by the Preceptor).

RSP 104 Introduction to the Culture of Collegiate Life for Honors Students (1) I
This course introduces first-year students in the Honors Program of the College of Arts and Sciences to life at Creighton University. In addition to the topics common to all 100-level RSP courses (see above Note), Honors students learn about the CCAS Ratio Studiorum, or plan of study, including the College’s six learning objectives and degree requirements (major and Honors Program). Assignments include class discussion of a selected book that addresses aspects of self-exploration and self-discovery. The course is taught by a Faculty Preceptor, supported by a Decurion (a junior or senior personally invited by the Preceptor).
RSP 105 Making the Transition: The Introduction to the Culture of Collegiate Life for Transfer Students (1) I, II
This course introduces transfer students from the College of Arts and Sciences and the College of Business Administration to life at Creighton University. In addition to the topics common to all 100-level RSP courses (see above Note), transfer students learn about their respective College’s Ratio Studiorum, or plan of study, including its learning objectives or goals and its degree requirements. Assignments include class discussion of a selected book that addresses aspects of self-exploration and self-discovery. The course is taught by a Faculty Preceptor, supported by a Decurion (usually a former transfer student personally invited by the Preceptor).

RSP 120 Strategies for Academic Success (2) I
Part of Creighton’s Ratio Studiorum Program, this course is designed to provide comprehensive college-level study skills critical to academic and career success. Strategies, assignments, and techniques work to enhance motivation, goal setting and confidence. P: Dean’s Office Placement

RSP 130 Strategies for Student Success (2) II
RSP 130 is designed to inform and educate students about the concepts of personal motivation as well as introduce them academic strategies that will directly impact their individual success and retention. The presentation of motivational theory and practical study skills is supported by self-assessment and group interaction. P: Dean’s Office Placement

RSP 213 Ratio Studiorum Leadership for Business Administration Students (1) I
RSP leaders assist a faculty preceptor/advisor in the direction of the RSP section. The student leader joins with the faculty preceptor in socializing new freshmen to the academic environment through mentoring, modeling and problem solving. P: Approval of the Program Director.

RUSSIAN

RUS 101 Beginning Russian I (3) II
Course designed to focus on the essential elements of basic communication and develop all four language skills (listening, speaking, reading and writing), as well as provide insight into Russian life and culture.

RUS 102 Beginning Russian II (3) I
Continuation of RUS 101. P: RUS 101 or equivalent.

RUS 201 Intermediate Russian I (3) II
Course designed to help students make the transition to natural communication and to develop further all four language skills (listening, speaking, reading and writing), by using literary/cultural readings and grammatical exercises. P: RUS 102 or equivalent.

RUS 202 Intermediate Russian II (3) I
Continuation of RUS 201. This advanced course further develops students' proficiency in the four languages skills through reading of cultural and literary texts, engagement in meaningful discussions, writing and composition, completion of grammar exercises, and review of audio-visual materials. Students build a solid basis and competency for handling conversations, translations, and presentations. P: RUS 201 or equivalent.
SENIOR PERSPECTIVE
For the Senior Perspective Program of Study, please refer to page 196.

Prereq: Sr. stdg. and completion of “Foundations for Ethical Understanding” (PHL 250 or THL 250).

SRP 401 Science and Uncertainty in a Pluralistic World (3) OD
This course examines how scientific knowledge is obtained and understood. The social impact of the formulation and acceptance of scientific models will be discussed. Topics to be considered include uncertainty in measurement, the impact of the observer on the phenomenon observed, and the effect of our need for certainty in our beliefs, judgments, and relationships. The course will provide the opportunity for reflection on the Creighton undergraduate experience and the commitment required after graduation.

SRP 409 Race and Gender Relations: Moral and Ethical Dilemmas (3) OD (Same as ANT 409, SWK 409, WGS 409)
This course explores the multiple-faceted experience of being a person of color, a specific gender, and an immigrant in the United States. This course examines institutional forces (economic, educational, familial, political, and social welfare) that influence the structure and status of persons of color, immigrants, and women and men. Emphasis is placed on understanding the diversity of the United States and the connections between and among race, gender, and class in their complexity. Ways to better understand and interact are presented, in addition to ways to foster social change.

SRP 412 Sickness, Disability, and Healing in the Biblical and Modern Worlds (3) OD
This course studies biblical texts dealing with sickness, disability, and healing in order to critically reflect on health care issues. Topics are addressed under broad headings: The Body, Sickness and Health: Cultural Definitions and Social Meanings; The Illness Experience; Health Care System, Ancient and Modern; Access and Quality Care; The Experience of Disability; Ritual and Health Care. Readings include both biblical and modern texts and incorporate the methods and perspectives of various disciplines: biblical studies, anthropology, sociology, literature, and ancient history.

SRP 415 Stories that Shape Lives (3) OD (Same as THL 415)
This course examines both classic stories and the implicit stories embedded in contemporary cultures. By “classic stories” is meant fables, biblical parables, and stories of holy people. By “implicit stories embedded in contemporary culture” is meant the “lived stories” embodied in the cultures from which our students come and in which they live. We address story (as human activity) and stories (as concrete cultural artifacts) from a variety of perspectives especially those of literary criticism, biblical exegesis, and the cross-cultural and historical study of spirituality.

SRP 416 For the Greater Glory: The Jesuits, Their History and Spirituality (3) OD (Same as HIS 416, THL 416)
An examination of the Society of Jesus from its founding by Ignatius of Loyola during the pivotal 16th century, through suppression and recovery to the challenges of the modern, Post-Vatican II era, this course seeks to understand the Jesuits on two levels: through their controversial history, set within the context of their times and as represented by the lives of selected individuals; and through the development of their particular spirituality, Ignatian methods of prayer and discernment of spirits, as originated in the Spiritual Exercises and enhanced over time. Students will have an opportunity both to analyze Jesuit history and to experience Ignatian spirituality in their own interior lives.

SRP 418 Jesus Through the Ages: Ideas and Images Toward a Coherent Christian Identity and Ethic (3) (Same as ARH 418, THL 418)
Employing methods of the fine and performing arts and theology (historical and systematic), this course will seek the “real” Jesus amidst a plethora of images and ideas used by Christians throughout the ages to depict Jesus Christ. It will critique the historical-cultural dependencies of these images and ideas to discern which of them, if any, remain normative for Christianity, which are time-bound, which still speak powerfully, which do not-and why. In the process this course will not only inform students about the single most significant figure in human history but engage them in a personal search for an authentic Christian identity and ethic.

SRP 437  The Environment and Race, Class, and Gender (3) OD
This course investigates whether and to what extent human interaction with the natural environment has a bearing upon ethical interactions among individuals of different races, classes, and genders within an increasingly global social environment. The course will draw from a variety of disciplines, including philosophy, literature, science and public policy to explore questions of environmental justice.

SRP 438  Literacy and Community: Reading and Writing Toward Social Change (3) (Same as ENG 438)
This senior perspective course will allow us to examine literacy as an issue of human and social concern, as we pay particular attention to the relationship among literacy, socioeconomic and political power. Through interdisciplinary academic inquiry and community-based learning, we will: examine competing conceptions of literacy and analyze the social ends each definition serves; reflect on our own literacy histories, assumptions, values, and beliefs; consider our responsibilities as citizens with access to culturally valued literacies; and strive to articulate a cogent personal position as literacy sponsors. Students should plan on completing 10 hours of on-site community-based learning.

SRP 439  Literacy and Technology: How Technology Shapes Cultural Literacy (3) OD (Same as ENG 439)
Students will explore the ways that literacy, technology, and humanity interact. Students will look at the ways that each of these entities affects the others. The course will begin with a historical look at human technological literacy, but the majority of the course will focus on present literacy and technology.

SRP 440  Liturgy, Music, and the Transformed Life (3) OD (Same as MUS 440, THL 440)
A study of the historical development of the relationship between the Eucharist and liturgical music. The class will study how the liturgy (Eucharist, scripture reading, music, and architecture) intends the transformation of the assembly into a moral, virtuous, and just community.

SRP 441  Education, Vocation and Discernment Through Writing (3)
Drawing from education, critical pedagogy, and writing studies, this course allow students to consider how American schooling has privileged efficiency and productivity over authenticity and self-knowledge. Students will study and contribute to current debates on education and vocation and will use writing to contemplate their educational histories and futures vocations.

SRP 444  Non-Violence and Peaceful Resolution of Conflict: Cross-Cultural and Political Perspectives (3) OD (Same as ANT 444, JPS 444, PLS 444)
Peace is more than the absence of war. Course seeks to understand differing views of peace, violence, war, non-violence, and peaceful resolution of conflict. Students assess their views on alternatives to violence and apply differing modes of conflict resolution.

SRP 448  Freedom and Security in a Digitally-Divided Society (3) (Same as CSC 448)
A Senior Perspective course in which students explore the concepts of Freedom and Security in the Cyber world. This course examines how power is gained and waged through computer technology, and how Freedom and Security are moral banners for the promulgation of this power.

SRP 450  Violence in America: Nature, Consequences and Personal Responses (3) (Same as EDU 450)
This course explores some of the many forms of violence in America and the nature of violence as a social, cultural, and legal construct. The nature and consequences of American violence will be studied with an emphasis on understanding the dynamics and then formulating ethically appropriate personal responses.

SRP 451  Science and Values (3)
The design and implementation of interdisciplinary projects allowing students from the performing arts, philosophy, education and physics to examine ethical questions in detail and develop tools that are effective in engaging an external group of students in the associated issues.
SRP 455  Food, Society, and Environment (3) OD (Same as ANT 455, EVS 455, SOC 455)
Access to food is a universal, basic human need. This course considers, from several disciplinary perspectives, the social and cultural significance of food, the ecological implications of producing it, and the social justice issues that surround its distribution.

SRP 456  Public Health Ethics (3) (Same as HAP 456, PHL 456)
Lectures and small group discussions focus on ethical theory and current ethical issues in public health and health policy, including resource allocation, the use of summary measures of health, the right to health care, and conflicts between autonomy and health promotion efforts. Student evaluation based on class participation, a group project, and a paper evaluating ethical issues in the student's area of public health specialization.

SRP 457  Biomedical Ethics: Philosophical and Theological Approaches (3) OD (Same as HAP 457, PHL 457, THL 457)
An exploration of relations between philosophical and theological conceptions of ethics and moral methodologies, together with an application of the latter to select issues in biomedicine and healthcare policy.

SRP 458  Theology and the Vocation to Health Care (3) (Same as THL 458)
Health care in the United States is both big money and arguably the most important social justice issue in contemporary society. This course will offer an opportunity for students at Creighton to discern whether or not they are called to the vocation of caring for others through medicine, dentistry, pharmacy, physical and occupational therapy, nursing or emergency medical services.

SRP 460  Humanity and the Concept of the Future (3) (Same as PHL 460)
This course examines the philosophical concept of time in relation to how one understands oneself as a member of a community that reaches back into the distant past and forward into the distant future, and the intergenerational ethical relations and obligations which emerge from the temporal and historical self-understanding.

SRP 465  Faith and Political Action (3) OD (Same as JPS 465, PLS 465)
Challenges students to understand theological and political science perspectives on social policy issues and the work of religious-based organizations in politics. Course includes 20 hours of work with a community partner during the semester.

SRP 468  Christianity and Power: A Russian Case Study (3) OD (Same as PLS 468, THL 468)
Challenges students to consider the link between religion and politics. Starting from the assumption that politics is fundamentally about the competition of ideas, it considers the ideals of Russian Orthodoxy and measures them against the goals and actions of the Russian state.

SRP 469  Psychological and Theological Approaches to Vocation (3) (Same as THL 469)
This course examines the concept of vocation from an interdisciplinary perspective using insights from psychology and theology. Research and theory from the fields of personality, motivation, and social psychology are complimented with the theology of the Incarnation, Ignatian spirituality, and relevant texts from four historical periods of Christianity.

SRP 470  Poverty in America (3) (Same as EDU 470, JPS 470)
The intent of this course is to provide students with an understanding of the cultural, economic and political structures of an impoverished society, to understand the dilemmas inherent in poverty and to develop an attitude of sensitivity and connectedness with those in this plight.

SRP 475  Multiculturalism: History, Philosophy, Literature, and Education (3) OD (Same as PHL 475)
An intensive examination of the theory (and practice) of multiculturalism, this course will consider historical, philosophical, literary, and educational perspectives on the encounter between different cultures, and their relevance for the contemporary world.

SRP 477  Gendered Health Across the Lifespan (3) (Same as COM 477, HAP 477, WGS 477)
A great human concern in our society is the gendered construction of health and how individuals are affected by health decisions. This interdisciplinary course will explore gendered health issues from a unique perspectives involving ethical, biocultural and psychosocial perspectives across the lifespan. The first part will lay the theoretical groundwork and identify policy and ethical concerns; the second part will examine gendered health issues across the lifespan.
SRP 478  Intersections of Working and Personal Life (3) (Same as COM 478)
This course explores the intersections between (paid) working life and personal/family life from a variety of disciplinary perspectives. Topics include "balancing" careers with volunteer work, caregiving and relationships as well as the ways in which individuals communicate about their personal and family lives while at work and their working lives at home.

SRP 481  Poverty, Development and Public Policy (3) AY (Same as PLS 481)
Course explores in an international and comparative way the multi-dimensional nature of poverty, including such factors as political powerlessness, physical and social isolation, racial and gender discrimination and economic systems. Ethical issues regarding these are explored.

SRP 482  Race in America: Idea and Reality (3) OD (Same as AMS/BKS/HIS/PHL/PLS 482)
An examination of the idea and reality of race during key phases of U.S. history, with an emphasis on the contemporary situation. To understand the multiple meanings and experiences of race, the course draws on sources from science, literature, law, and philosophy.

SRP 487  The Bible and the Holocaust (3)
It is an unfortunate fact that the Bible was more often abused to support Nazism than used to oppose it. This course looks at how the Bible (Old Testament and New Testament) was interpreted so as to provide support for those who carried out or acquiesced in the Holocaust as well as for those who resisted it. We investigate the religious, historical, and cultural contexts that allowed for these phenomena. We also explore trends in more recent biblical exegesis that reflect on the experience of the Holocaust.

SRP 488  Personal and Spiritual Dimensions of Leadership (3) OD (Same as COM 488, EDU 488, THL 488)
The purpose of the course is to give students the opportunity to engage in introspection and examination of their personal belief and value systems related to leadership. The course begins from the assumption that leadership is "a journey that begins within" and examines the relationship between leadership theory and Christian spirituality. Biographical examples will be analyzed; biographies will be drawn from diverse fields such as health, science, business, government, sports, and education.

SRP 489  American Prisons: Punish or Reform (3) (Same as ENG 489)
An examination of the philosophy of our social justice system and how members of the community can contribute to positive changes in the way inmates are regarded and treated. In a variety of prose writing projects, students will be expected to articulate their sense of how incarceration, punishment, and reform interrelate. Students will write about how their assumptions regarding prison and the inmates match the philosophy behind the way criminals are sentenced and the way they spend their time behind bars.
SOCIAL WORK
For the Social Work Program of Study, please refer to page 197.

SWK 261  Introduction to Social Welfare (3) I, II

SWK 460 Field Practicum Seminar I (2) I, II
Seminar designed to integrate theories and skills learned in the classroom with their application in field experience. P: SWK 345; Sr. stdg. CO: SWK 359, 461; SWK Major.
SWK 461  Field Practicum I (4) I, II
Students are placed in community agencies delivering social welfare services for practical application of the theory and skills acquired in the classroom. On-site supervision provided by the agency and group supervision provided on campus. P: SWK 345, Sr. stdg. CO: SWK 359, 460; SWK Major.

SWK 480  Field Practicum Seminar II (2) I, II
Seminar designed to integrate theories and skills learned in the classroom with their application in field experience. P: SWK 460, 461; Sr. stdg. CO: SWK 481; SWK Major.

SWK 481  Field Practicum II (4) I, II
Students are placed in agencies delivering social welfare services for practical application of the theory acquired in the classroom. On-site supervision provided by the agency and group supervision provided on campus. P: SWK 460, 461; Sr. stdg. CO: SWK 480; SWK major.

SWK 493  Directed Independent Readings (1-6) I, II, S
Survey of literature related to a topic in social work not covered in student’s course work. Undertaken in close cooperation with a supervising faculty member. May be repeated to a limit of six hours. P: Sr. stdg.; SWK Major; DC.

SWK 495  Directed Independent Study (1-6) I, II, S
Student-initiated project on a focused topic in social work, utilizing library materials and involving close cooperation with a supervising faculty member. May be repeated to a limit of six hours. P: Sr. stdg.; SWK Major; DC.

SWK 497  Directed Independent Research (1-6) I, II, S
Student-initiated empirical project on a focused topic in social work, involving close coordination with a supervising faculty member. May be repeated to a limit of six hours. P: Sr. stdg.; SWK Major; SOC 312; DC.
Sociology

For the Sociology Program of Study, please refer to page 198.

SOC 101 Introduction to Sociology: Self and Society (3) I, II, S
Human beings live out their lives in a multitude of social relationships ranging from personal relationships to citizenship in the global community. In a very real sense, persons are fully human only within the context of their connectedness to others. This course explores the meaning of this connectedness by considering four basic questions: (1) How is social life organized? (2) What consequences does this social organization produce? (3) How does this social organization change over time? (4) What does this organization, its consequences and changing nature, have to do with the lives of individuals?

SOC 102 (223) Introduction to Sociology: Social Problems (3) I (Same as AMS 102)
Social problems in contemporary American society. Focus on public issues, controversies, and policy alternatives.

SOC 301 Social and Cultural Theory (3) I (Same as ANT 301, AMS 301)
An exploration of the ideas central to sociology and anthropology from the perspective of their historical and contemporary theories. Special attention is given to the implications of these ideas for understanding human social values. P: So. stdg.

SOC 307 Demography: World Population Issues (3) I (Same as AFS 307, ANT 307, EVS 307)
This course will provide a sociological examination of the development and evolution of different models of population dynamics from several contemporary cultures. It will place particular emphasis on the assumptions and logical consequences of each of these models. Includes a survey of historical and contemporary trends in population growth, as well as a review of competing perspectives about natural limits to that growth. P: So. stdg.

SOC 309 The Urban Social System (3) I, ENY (Same as BKS 309)
Examination of the process of urbanization as it affects the lives and institutions of local populations and incorporates them into much larger national and international systems. P: So. stdg.

SOC 312 (212) Quantitative Methods in the Social Sciences (3) I, II (Same as ANT 312, HAP 312)
Introduction to quantitative research methods within the social sciences. Attention is directed to the basic logic and research techniques involved in studying the social world scientifically. Specific topics considered include research design, measurement, alternative data collection procedures, and ethical concerns involved in studying social life.

SOC 314 (214) Statistics for the Social Sciences (4) I, II (Same as HAP 314, ANT 314)
Broad introduction to the statistical techniques used by social scientists to analyze their data, including computer usage. Attention is directed to the basic procedures for organizing and describing data, for assessing relationships among social variables, and for using that information to make inferences about the population. 3R, 1L. CO: SOC 312.

SOC 315 (215) Healthcare, Society and Culture (3) I (Same as ANT 315, HAP 315)
Study of the relationship between society and healthcare systems. The sociology of healthcare organization, including patient-practitioner relationships, concepts of health and disease, healthcare personnel, and systems of delivery. P: So. stdg.

SOC 316 (209) Qualitative Methods in the Social Sciences (3) II, S (Same as AMS 316, ANT 316, NAS 316)
Introduction to qualitative research methods within the social sciences. Includes research design, strategies for collecting ethnographic data with a particular focus on participant observation and field work, comparative research, theory building, and ethical issues involved with human research.

SOC 317 Global Health Issues (3) II, ONY (Same as AFS 317, ANT 317, HAP 317)
This course will examine the social production of health and disease from a global perspective. Related to these issues, is the topic of health and well being in developing countries. P: So. stdg.
SOC 318  Gender in American Society (3) II, ENY (Same as AMS 318, WGS 318)
Comprehensive examination of the forces shaping the position and behavior of women and men in modern American society. How and why do these positions and behavior differ? What are the consequences of these differences? Emphasis on gender as enacted across the spectrum of multicultural diversity in American society, with some comparison to other societies. P: So. stdg.

SOC 320  Sociology of Deviant Behavior (3) I
A sociological examination of the conditions under which societal definitions of deviance emerge, develop, and change over time. Special attention will be paid to the process of societal reaction to deviant behavior. P: So. stdg.

SOC 321  Sociology of the Criminal Justice System (3) I
A survey of the development, modification, and enforcement of criminal law. Special attention will be given to the courts, corrections, and enforcement agencies, and the role of competing values in the decision-making process. In addition to the western legal heritage that has been the principle influence in U.S. criminal law, the perspective of nonwestern traditions of criminal justice will be addressed. P: So. stdg.

SOC 335  Technology and Human Values (3) II, ONY (Same as ANT 335)
We often fail to recognize how the unanticipated (and often unintended) consequences of technologies change our social systems, including the way we relate to each other. This course will examine how different social systems attempt to control and manage the development of technology, the differential impact of emerging technologies on identifiable segments of society, and the ethical and values-issues involved in technological and social change. Includes an exploration of the impact of complicated technologies on less developed cultures. P: So. stdg.

SOC 341  American Cultural Minorities (3) I (Same as AMS 341, ANT 341, BKS 341)
Determinants and consequences of prejudice and discrimination; race, ethnocentrism, religious conflict, class structure. Consideration also given to proposed strategies for reducing inter-group tension. P: So. stdg.

SOC 350  Social Change (3) I, ENY (Same as ANT 350)
Major social trends in America and the world; social change processes and social movements. Special focus on the emergence of a global system of economic, political, and environmental relationships. P: So. stdg.

SOC 355  Environment and Society: Sociological Perspectives (3) II (Same as AMS 355, ANT 355, EVS 355)
Human societies interact with the natural environments in which they are embedded. An examination of the driving economic, political, cultural, and demographic forces that cause human modification of the natural world, the resulting social and environmental problems and public controversies. A focus on movements and policies related to environmental issues, and the prospects for the emergence of more environmentally “sustainable” societies. P: So. stdg.

SOC 360  Gender, Society and Culture (3) II (Same as AMS 360, ANT 360, WGS 360)
Examines gender from a holistic perspective, including language, biology, cultural history, and socio-cultural variables. The course will examine gender in a wide variety of cultures. P: So. stdg.

SOC 385  Community Internship I, II (3) I, II, S
Omaha city government departments and other private and public agencies provide opportunities for semester-long participation in their regular operations. Academic coordination provided by a department faculty member. May be repeated for up to 6 hrs. 1C. 12L. P: Jr. stdg.; SOC major; 1C; 2.5 GPA

SOC 411  Social Inequality and Stratification (3) II (Same as AMS 411, ANT 411)
Nature, causes, and consequences of social inequality and stratification, with particular attention directed to the interaction among class, race and ethnicity, and gender. P: Jr. stdg.
SOC 423  Law and Society (3) II
A sociological examination of the development and evolution of models of legal systems from several contemporary cultures, with particular emphasis on the way each of the different models functions, either as a mechanism of social stability or as a mechanism of social change. This will include a survey of civil, criminal, administrative, and commercial issues, and their relationship to other social institutions, as well as a review of efforts to develop legal systems that transcend competing cultures, either by treaty, or by international organizations. P: Jr. stdg.

SOC 424  Sustainability and Rural America (3) II, ENY, S (Same as EVS 424, NAS 424, SRP 424, SOC 424)
This interdisciplinary course studies sustainability and the diverse cultures of rural American peoples by looking at topics such as ethics, environmental resources, economic strategies, public policy and social inequality. This course offers off-campus field observation and ethical reflection assignments and involves students in active collaborative problem-solving research. P: PHIL 250 or THIL 250; Sr. stdg.

SOC 455  Food, Society, and Environment (3) II (Same as ANT 455, EVS 455, SRP 455)
Access to food is a universal, basic human need. This course considers the social and cultural significance of food, the ecological implications of producing it, and the social justice issues that surround its distribution from several disciplinary perspectives. P: Sr. stdg.

SOC 493  Directed Independent Readings (1-6) I, II, S
Student-initiated survey of the literature related to a broad topic in anthropology not covered in the student’s course work. Undertaken in close cooperation with a supervising faculty member. May be repeated to a limit of six hours. P: Jr. SOC major.

SOC 495  Directed Independent Study (1-6) I, II, S
Student-initiated project on a focused topic in sociology, utilizing library materials and involving close coordination with a supervising faculty member. May be repeated to a limit of six hours. P: IC.

SOC 497  Directed Independent Research (1-6) I, II, S
Student-initiated empirical project on a focused topic in sociology, involving close coordination with a supervising faculty member. May be repeated to a limit of six hours. P: IC.

SOC 499  Globalization: Understanding by Applying the Social Sciences (3) II (Same as ANT 499)
Students will connect, integrate and elaborate prior learning and skills by studying and interpreting a selected aspect of the shared modern experience of globalization. Reading, research, discussion, writing, exercises and presentations will engage us in the topic and allow us to use our knowledge and skills developed by pursuing a sociology or anthropology major. The course provides both a completion of the undergraduate experience and engages student in program assessment. P: SOC/ANT/NAS final semester majors only.

SOC 570 (470)  Introduction to Geographic Information Systems (4) II, ENY (Same as AMS 570, ANT 570, EVS 570)
An introduction to the design, development, and application of geographic information systems (GIS) and related technologies to conduct spatial analysis in applied research settings that require the integration of data from diverse sources. Students will complete individual projects focusing on a topical area of their choice in order to develop an understanding of the basic technologies, and to demonstrate their skill in using these technologies to analyze a research topic. Research topics may be drawn from any subject field for which data sets with geographic variables are available. These may include anthropology, criminal justice, demography, economics, environmental science, health care, marketing, political science, sociology and social work. P: SOC 312 or IC.

Exploration of Spanish culture through city tours, visits to museums, concerts, theater, and cinema in Spain. P: Six credits at the 300-level.

SPN 425  Introduction to Literary Analysis (3) I, II
An introduction to literary analysis with readings from Spanish and Latin-American literature. P: Three credits at the 400-level.

SPN 426  Survey of Latin-American Literature (3) I
Latin-American literature is studied from the Colonial Period to the present, incorporating some of the most influential writers in Spanish America. Readings include texts from Cristóbal Colón, Sor Juana Inés de la Cruz, Esteban Echeverría, Rubén Darío, Gabriela Mistral, Octavio Paz, García Márquez, Rosario Ferré, Jorge Luis Borges and Luisa Valenzuela. P: Six credits at the 401-425 level.

SPN 427  Survey of Peninsular Literature (3) II
Through the reading of selections from Spain’s major literary works, this course introduces some of the most important issues in Peninsular social history and analyzes the different perspectives that have evolved with every new literary movement. P: Six credits at the 401-425 level.

SPN 430 (315)  Communicating in Business II (3)
Continuation of Communicating in Business I - Oral and written practice in business communication, developing a business vocabulary, reading of documents and essays relating to business situations, interviewing and translating. P: Six credits at the 401-425 level.
Courses and Descriptions

SPN 431 (332) Medical Spanish II (3) II
Continuation of SPN 331. P: Six credits at the 401-425 level.

SPN 496 Independent Study in the Dominican Republic (3) S
This course offers the students the opportunity to work with faculty guidance on a topic or topics chosen in consultation between the faculty member and the student. It is limited to students studying in the Dominican Republic. Maximum of three semester hours. P: Six credits at the 401-425 level.

SPN 502 (402) Advanced Spanish Translation (3) II
Focused on the translation of short texts: literature, media, technical, medial or diplomatic, contemporary situations. Through intensive study of techniques behind the exercise of translation, students will learn how to recognize and adapt the socio-linguistic parameters of Spanish and English to the context and the needs of the translation. P: Six credits at the 401-425 level.

SPN 525 Encuentro Español II (3) S

SPN 547 Nineteenth-Century Spanish Novel (3)
This course explores the last three decades of 19th Century in Spain where the novel becomes a new approach to observe social domains. It will be concentrated on the work of five major authors: Juan Valera, Benito Perez Leopold Alas (Clarin), Emilia Pardo Bazan and Vicente Blasco Ibáñez. P: Six credits at the 401-425 level.

SPN 550 Literature of the Colonial Period (3)
Study of the major works from Columbus to Juana Inés de la Cruz. P: Six credits at the 401-425 level.
Courses and Descriptions

SPN 551 Latin-American Novel (3)
An introduction to the Latin-American novel, literary movements and techniques focusing on major writers such as García Márquez, Vargas Llosa, Luisa Valenzuela, Isabel Allende and others. P: Six credits at the 401-425 level.

SPN 552 The Latin-American Short Story (3)
Study of the Latin-American short narrative from the 19th century to the present. Selected stories by Echeverría, García Márquez, Rosario Ferré, Elena Poniatowska, Julio Cortázar, Jorge Luis Borges and others. P: Six credits at the 401-425 level.

SPN 554 Twentieth-Century Latin-American Poetry (3)
A study of Latin-American poetry from the Vanguardista period to the contemporary scene. P: Six credits at the 401-425 level.

SPN 555 Twentieth-Century Latin-American Theater (3)
A study of Latin-American theater from the end of the 19th century to the present. P: Six credits at the 401-425 level.

SPN 556 Understanding the Latin American Boom (3)
Analysis and reflection on works by authors known as the Latin-American “Boom” writers who elevated Latin-American Literature to the stature of international recognition and prestige. The course will include, but will not be limited to, the following authors: Alejo Carpentier, Jorge Luis Borges, Julio Cortázar, Juan Rulfo, Carlos Fuentes, Gabriel Garcia Marquez, José Donoso and Mario Vargas Llosa. P: Six credits at the 401-425 level.

SPN 559 Contemporary Peninsular Spanish Literature (3)
This course will give students the opportunity to approach Contemporary Peninsular Spanish Literature through a close reading of key works in narrative, poetry and theater. It will cover the era of the transition from the Francoist regime to today’s multiregional democracy (1950-2000). Students will read a selection of works from authors most representative of this time period. P: Six credits at the 401-425 level.

SPN 560 Contemporary Latino(a) Literature (3)
Analysis of works by contemporary authors of Hispanic descent born or residing in the United States. It will include, but will not be limited to: Richard Rodriguez, Julia Alvarez, Cristina Garcia, Sandra Cisneros, Roberto Fernandez, Sandra Benitez and Esmeralda Santiago. P: Six credits at the 401-425 level.

SPN 561 From the Generation of 1898 to the Avant-Garde (3)
Reading and analysis of the major works of the following novelists and nonfiction writers: Unamuno, Valle-Inclán, Baroja and Azorín. P: Six credits at the 401-425 level.

SPN 563 Feminine Voices from Latin America and Spain (3)
This course focuses on the writings by some of the most representative female writers from Latin America and Spain. Particular attention will be paid to women's roles in society and to the specific themes chosen and their social political significance. P: Six credits at the 401-425 level.

SPN 564 History of the Spanish Language (3)
This course will present the development of the Spanish language, using linguistic methodology and representative texts. P: SPN 312.

SPN 565 Nineteenth-Century Latin-American Novel (3)
This course studies the evolution of the Latin American novel from the period immediately before the independence from Spain to Modernism at the end of the century. It will examine the main literary movements from Romanticism to Modernism and their relationship with the historical evolution and development of Latin American nationalisms. P: Six credits at the 401-425 level.

SPN 568 Multicultural Spain Through Letters, Politics, Theater and Film (3)
This course offers an in-depth examination of the cultural plurality of Spain. Through a variety of texts including short stories, plays, essays, poetry, music, and film, students will explore how different art forms contribute to the concept of national identity. The focus will be on 20th Century works. P: Six credits at the 401-425 level.
SPN 570  Contemporary Peninsular Film (3)
This course focuses on the analysis of cinematographic production in Spain in the post-Franco era. Nuevo Cine Espanol echoes the cultural and artistic preoccupations of the transition years. Students will view and discuss seven significant films by key directors such as Julio Medem, Pedro Almodovar, Bigas Luna and Alejandro Amenabar.
P: Six credits at the 401-425 level.

SPN 571  Latin-American Film (3)
This course offers a panoramic view of contemporary films from and about the Latino/a world. Through the viewing of movies and the reading of contextual and theoretical information, students will explore how film can be considered a legitimate art form that contributes to an ongoing cultural dialogue.
P: Six credits at the 401-425 level.

SPN 595(493) Directed Independent Readings (1-3)
Designed to meet the special needs of majors in Spanish. Limit of three semester hours.
P: Six credits at the 401-425 level.

SPN 599  Senior Seminar (3) I, II
A senior capstone course integrating knowledge and skills acquired within the major. All language skills are refined, as depth and nuance are added to the understanding of Hispanic literatures and cultures. Students will submit an individual research project and a reflective essay examining how their project serves as the culmination of their Spanish studies.
P: Six credits at the 401-425 level.

STATISTICS

STA 355  Essentials of Epidemiology (3) (Same as HAP 355, MTH 355)
This course introduces the concepts and includes exercises related to epidemiology, the discipline that serves as the basic science of public health, or population health, by providing evidence for defining the public health problem, assessing causation, and evaluating effectiveness of potential interventions.

STA 493  Directed Independent Readings (Credit by Arrangement)
May be repeated to a limit of six hours.

STA 495  Directed Independent Study (Credit by Arrangement)
May be repeated to a limit of six hours.

STA 497  Directed Independent Research (Credit by Arrangement)
May be repeated to a limit of six hours.

STA 499  Senior Thesis: Supervised Consulting (Credit by Arrangement)
May be repeated to a limit of six hours.
P: DC.

STA 513  Probability and Statistics in the Health Sciences (3) I (Same as MTH 513)
This course covers topics in probability and statistics considered useful to those students planning on a career in the health sciences. The topics covered include probability principles and distributions in health sciences, types of epidemiologic study designs, estimation of medical parameters in defined patient populations, test of hypothesis, measures and analysis of treatment of the sick, analysis of variance, methods of medical outcome prediction, and prospective, retrospective and cross-sectional studies of disease occurrence.
P: MTH 201 or MTH 245.

STA 521  Computational Methods in Statistics (3) OD
Use of packages of statistical programs, calculation of statistical tables, Monte Carlo methods.
P: A course in statistics; CSC 221.

STA 525  Nonparametric Methods (3) OD
Applications of nonparametric estimates, confidence, intervals, tests, and multiple comparison procedures.
P: A course in statistics.

THEATRE

For the Theatre Program of Study, please refer to page 150.

THR 121 Oral Interpretation of Literature (3) I, AY
Study of prose, poetry and drama, including analysis and preparation for performance before an audience. Selections are to be acted, interpreted, and produced.

THR 131 Acting I (3) I, II
Stage deportment, pantomime, voice, and methods of character development. Includes performance of scenes in laboratory sessions. Students encouraged to try out for roles in University Theatre productions. No previous acting experience required. Required of all THR majors.

THR 153 Stagecraft I (3) I (Same as DAN 153)
Fundamentals of developing the scenic background for theatrical productions. Introduction to tools and equipment through theory, lecture, and demonstration. This class includes a lab component. 1 R, 3 L. Required of all Theatre majors.

THR 154 Costume Construction (3)
Fundamentals of developing the costumes and accessories for theatre production. Introduction to equipment and supplies of the costumer's craft through lecture and application. Includes lab hours.

THR 161 Theatre Appreciation (3) I or II, AY
Investigation of the nature of the theatrical experience and the ways in which the other arts contribute to the composite art of theatre. Includes attendance at theatrical productions.

THR 215 Makeup Design (3)
An introduction to the methods of theatrical makeup design and application. Conducted in both a lecture and lab format.

THR 217 Movement for Actors (3) (Same as DAN 217)
A study of dance forms relating to the theatre including warm-up, tap, jazz, musical theatre, ballet, African dance and improvisation. The course is designed to help achieve the widest range of physical and emotional expression through the body in relation to the space around us.

THR 223 Basic Television Studio Production (3) I
Concentration on the basic directing and producing process involved in creating a television production. "Live" studio experiences will be used to develop these skills and knowledge.

THR 253 Drafting I (3) OD

THR 271 Voice Class (3) I, II, S (Same as MUS 271)
The techniques of singing, including voice placement, tone production, breathing, and English diction. Individual attainment in a class setting will be emphasized. May be repeated for credit to a limit of six hours. No prerequisite required.

THR 295 Special Projects (1-6) I, II
For the non-Theatre major. Requires a University sponsor and written DC and IC.

THR 323 Classical Greek Drama (3) I (Same as CNE 323)
Selected works of Greek Tragedians. The influence of Greek drama on English literature and on modern drama.

THR 328 Acting for the Camera (3) OD
Methodology and application of acting scenework before a camera rather than a live audience. Course will investigate the mediums of television, film and video acting. P: THR 131 or IC.

THR 330 Acting II (3) I, II, AY
This course will refine the student’s awareness of the fundamental skills of acting and aid the student in developing a personal acting approach. It will introduce students to method acting and advanced scenework with an emphasis on action and characterization. Students will continue advanced scenework in audition preparation and in dialogue scenes. P: THR 131.
THR 331  Acting Styles (3) II, AY
Study of styles of acting from historical periods, Greek to modern, including individual projects in characterization. P: THR 131 and 153 or IC.

THR 333  Improvisational Theatre (3) I or II AY
Training to develop the student’s creativity and spontaneity. Ensemble creation of theatre performance pieces. P: THR 131 or IC.

THR 335  Audition Technique (3)
Instruction on the art of auditioning for the stage. Students will build a repertoire of audition selections and create acting resumes and portfolios.

THR 341  Play Direction and Script Analysis I (3) I
Theory and practice of play direction utilizing lecture, outside reading, discussion and experimentation with production of scenes in class. Course necessary for any production of plays in the one-act festival; also recommended for secondary teachers who may be required to produce plays. Required of all Theatre majors. P: THR 131, 153 or IC.

THR 342  The Art of Television Directing (3) II
It is no easy task to pay equal attention to both the creative and the technical sides of television production. The person that must accomplish this task is the TV director. This course will help students learn to think, plan and evaluate the TV directing process. Scenarios will focus on “live” directing experiences, which will develop this knowledge.

THR 350  Stagecraft II (3) OD
Introduction and uses of new materials in stagecraft, mechanical and perspective drawing, scene painting, special effects and problems in advanced technical application. Lecture and laboratory. P: THR 153.

THR 351  Scene Design I (3) OD
Principles of scenic art through practical application of the elements. Required of Theatre majors with a concentration in Technical Theatre. P: THR 153 or IC.

THR 355  Lighting Design I (3) (Same as DAN 355)
An introduction to the fundamentals of lighting theory, electricity, color in light, tools, equipment and paperwork through lecture and practical application. Lecture and laboratory. P: THR 131 or 153.

THR 357  Costume Design I (3) OD
Principles of costume design, color, rendering techniques and dramatic analysis. P: IC.

THR 391(151)  Production Practicum (1-2) I, II (Same as DAN 391)
Course is divided into two segments. Course description for segment one, Technical Crew: Technical crew work in Creighton theatre and dance productions; may include set construction, properties, sound, lighting. Per credit hour, course requires four hours of shop work weekly (time scheduled with permission of instructor) or working one production as a crew member. Course description for segment two, Costume Crew: Costume construction for Creighton theatre and dance productions. Per credit hour, the course requires four hours of costume shop work weekly (time scheduled with permission of instructor) or working one production as a wardrobe crew member. This course may be repeated to a limit of eight semester hours.

THR 428  Film and the Fine Arts (3) OD (Same as SRP 428)
Film as an art form and its relationship to art history, music, and theatre history; the history of styles of acting, design, music, and art in film in the 20th century. Criticism of film art. Course requirements include discussion, examinations and critical writing. Extensive use of the Internet. P: PHL/THL 250 and Sr. stdg.

THR 432  Actor’s Lab (3)
Special studies in acting technique. Could include pantomime, voice and dialects, Shakespearean or other acting styles. Topics to be announced in the Schedule of Courses. May be repeated to a limit of six hours.

THR 441  Play Direction and Script Analysis II (3) I, AY
Advanced problems in play direction and comparative study of the methods and achievements of major modern directors. Students will direct a one-act play or comparable project for public performance. P: THR 341 or IC.
THR 451  Scenic Design II (3)
Advanced projects in scene design with an emphasis on analysis and concept development. Advanced rendering and model building techniques and presentation of the design will also be stressed. P: THR 351.

THR 453  Drafting II (3)
Advanced techniques in hand drafting and computer aided drafting. Three-dimensional renderings, section and alternate views, production organization, details, and construction views will be covered in the class. P: THR 253 or IC.

THR 455  Lighting Design II (3)
Study of advanced lighting techniques. Students will develop lighting designs, light plots and cue sheets for a variety of theatre and dance productions. P: THR 355 or IC.

THR 457  Costume Design II (3)
Advanced projects in designing for drama, musical theatre, opera and dance with an emphasis on character development through costume and support of production concept. Advanced rendering techniques and portfolio preparation will be stressed. P: THR 357 or IC.

THR 458  Performance, Directing and Production Lab (3)
The focus of this course is to offer upper level students the opportunity to continue to develop and improve their techniques and knowledge in television performance, directing and production. This will be accomplished by having the students develop and produce TV programs on a regular schedule. May be repeated to a limit of six hours.

THR 461  American Theatre History (3) OD
Development of theatre in the United States from the colonial period to the present. Consideration of all aspects of theatre, playwriting, architecture, set design, acting and directing. Readings assigned in plays representative of professional theatre in each era.

THR 465  Theatre History (5th Century, B.C.-1700) (3) I, AY
Introduction to the study of theatre history and its application for theatre artists. Includes awareness of patterns of history and the relationship between theatre and society. Origins of theatre: Greek and Roman theatre; theatre in the Middle Ages; the Italian, English, Spanish, and French theatre up to 1700. Required of Theatre Majors. P: THR 131 or IC.

THR 466  World Theatre History (1700-present) (3) II, AY
Continuation of THR 465. Required of Theatre majors. P: THR 465 or IC.

THR 491  Production for Majors (1-2)
All THR majors are required to enroll in THR 491 during their junior and senior years. Enrollment in this course requires the student to contribute a minimum of 180 hours per academic year toward Creighton productions. All areas of theatre, dance and music directly related to a Creighton production are counted toward the total involvement hours. Performance majors must be involved in an area of technical theatre for at least one show per academic year. Must be repeated for a total of four credits. P: THR 131, 153 and two more core courses.

THR 493  Internship in Theatre (1-3) S, OD
Practical experience in a student’s chosen field of production. The internship will be done in conjunction with an organization approved by the theatre faculty. The student will be required to submit an internship proposal to be approved by their theatre advisor prior to enrolling for this course. P: DC.

THR 495  Directed Independent Study (1-3) I, II
Directed study in theatre to meet the individual needs of the student. No more than six hours of Theatre 495 may be taken for credit toward a degree. May be repeated to a limit of six hours. P: Jr. stdg.; Six hours 200-level theatre courses; IC.

THR 499  Senior Thesis (1-3) I, II
Students are expected to initiate and develop a project in one of the following areas: acting, directing, design or research. Application must be made to the thesis advisor and the department within the first two weeks of preceding semester. Required for B.F.A., Major in Theatre with both Performance and Technical Track. P: Sr. stdg.; IC; DC.

THR 510  Television Production Workshop (3) S
This course is designed to give the participants an overview of the various types of television production. Production “experiences” from multi-camera situations, single camera Electronic Field Production, to basic video editing with i Movie II will be covered.
THEOLOGY

For the Theology Program of Study, please refer to page 206.

THL 100  Christianity in Context (3) I, II
The study of religion as a universal human phenomenon and of Christianity within that context. Within that framework, students will be challenged to situate their own appropriation of faith.

THL 101  Theology, Cosmology, and the Environment (3) I
As the first in the Theology core curriculum, THL 100 introduces students to the Christian religion within the context of global religious diversity. Although labeled THL 101, this course meets the same learning objectives as THL 100. However, THL 101 has been designed especially for the Energy Major. As such it places extra emphasis on the emergence of scientific reasoning and on the relationship between humans and the natural environment.

THL 201  Reading the Old Testament (3) I, II
Survey of the literature, history, and religion of the Old Testament. P: THL 100; So. stdg.

THL 202  Creation and the Environment in the Bible (3) I, II
The comparative examination of biblical creation myths and their appropriation in historical, cultic, and prophetic settings P: THL 100; So. stdg.

THL 203  Biblical Ancestors and Heroes (3) I, II
Examination of the story of ancient Israel through the lens of its major figures. Emphasis on their role as literary and social figures. P: THL 100; So. stdg.

THL 205  Sickness, Disability, and Healing in the Bible (3) I, II
Introduction to critical interpretation of the Bible through a focus on select texts of the Hebrew Bible/Old Testament and the New Testament; exploration, in cultural context, of the experience and understanding of sickness, disability, and healing in ancient Israel and early Christian communities; attention to the theological problem of sickness and disability and to the role of healing and exorcism in the diverse christologies of the Gospels. Only open to students in the College of Arts and Sciences and School of Nursing. P: THL 100 and So. stdg.

THL 207  Reading the New Testament (3) I, II
A survey of selected writings from the early Christian communities, understood in their cultural and literary contexts. P: THL 100; So. stdg.

THL 208  New Testament Communities and Their Stories (3) I, II
By using a selection of New Testament texts, students will examine early Christian rhetorical and story telling styles, issues that shaped their emerging identity, and their understanding of the Jesus story. P: THL 100; So. stdg.

THL 209  The Synoptic Gospels: The Life of Jesus (3) I, II
Describing and understanding Jesus and the Jesus movement group (the “historical Jesus”) from ca. 30 A.D. by means of traditions set down in writings a generation or more later. P: THL 100; So. stdg.

THL 210  Applying the Memory of Jesus: The Community of John (3) I or II
Study of the unique witness to the meaning of Jesus in the Johannine writings. P: THL 100; So. stdg.

THL 212  Paul and His Legacy (3) I, II
The correspondence of Paul and others following and adapting his tradition is examined for both their style and their message concerning what God has done in Jesus that affects their communities’ lives and identities. P: THL 100; So. stdg.

THL 250  Theological Foundations for Ethical Understanding (3) I, S
Study of traditional and contemporary frameworks for determining moral values and making moral decisions in a Christian context. The application of traditional moral understandings to contemporary moral problems. P: THL 100; So. stdg.
THL 324 Scripture and Theology: The Birth of Christian Doctrine (3)
This course explores the emergence of the Christian religion from ancient Judaism. It studies the Christian community's successful effort to articulate a coherent understanding of God, of Jesus, and of the church. The course also considers the enduring significance of these ancient doctrines for the modern world. P: THL 100 and a 200-level Scripture course; Jr. stdg.

THL 325 Catholicism: Creed and Question (3) II
This course explores the basic beliefs and teachings of the Roman Catholic Church within the context of current theological debate. P: 200-level Scripture course; Jr. stdg.

THL 326 Defending the Christian Faith (3) I
How the Christian church has defended its core doctrines and beliefs against critics both ancient and modern. P: THL 100; a 200-level Scripture course; Jr. stdg.

THL 327 Christianity and the Holocaust (3) I Christianity has been grappling for over sixty years with the enormity of the Holocaust. This course will investigate the history of Jewish-Christian relations, the New Testament foundations and the articulation of central Christian doctrines that encouraged Anti-Judaism, and the efforts being made by Christians to re-think identity and doctrine vis-à-vis Judaism.

THL 330 Jesus Christ and the Salvation of the World (3)
Exploration through historical analysis and contemporary theory of a fundamental Christian d Doctrine: “Jesus Christ is Savior of the World.” Study of some of the fundamental questions related to this doctrine. P: 200-level Scripture course; Jr. stdg.

THL 331 Jesus Christ: Liberator (3) (Same as JPS 331)
The powerful and almost irresistible aspiration that people have for liberation constitutes one of the principal signs of the times which the church has to examine and interpret in light of the gospel. Christology from the perspective of liberation asks concretely "What do we need to be liberated from in order to know and love Jesus Christ?" P: THL 100; a 200-level Scripture course; Jr. stdg.

THL 415 Stories that Shape Lives (3) OD (Same as SRP 415)
This course examines both classic stories and the implicit stories embedded in contemporary cultures. By “classic stories” is meant fables, biblical parables, and stories of holy people. By “implicit stories embedded in contemporary culture” is meant the “lived stories” emboldred in the cultures from which our students come and in which they live. We address story (as human activity) and stories (as concrete cultural artifacts) from a variety of perspectives especially those of literary criticism, biblical exegesis, and the cross-cultural and historical study of spirituality. P: Sr. stdg. and PHL 250 or THL 250.

THL 416 For the Greater Glory: The Jesuits, their History and Spirituality (3) OD (Same as HIS 416, SRP 416)
An examination of the Society of Jesus from its founding by Ignatius of Loyola during the pivotal 16th century, through suppression and recovery to the challenges of the modern, Post-Vatican II era, this course seeks to understand the Jesuits on two levels: through their controversial history, set within the context of their times and as represented by the lives of selected individuals; and through the development of their particular spirituality, Ignatian methods of prayer and discernment of spirits, as originated in the Spiritual Exercises and enhanced over time. Students will have an opportunity both to analyze Jesuit history and to experience Ignatian spirituality in their own interior lives. P: Sr. stdg. and PHL 250 or THL 250.

THL 418 Jesus Through the Ages: Ideas and Images Toward a Coherent Christian Identity and Ethic (3) (Same as ARH 418, SRP 418)
Employing methods of the fine and performing arts and theology (historical and systematic), this course will seek the “real” Jesus amidst a plethora of images and ideas used by Christians throughout the ages to depict Jesus Christ. It will critique the historical-cultural dependencies of these images and ideas to discern which of them, if any, remain normative for Christianity, which are time-bound, which still speak powerfully, which do not and why. In the process this course will not only inform students about the single most significant figure in human history but engage them in a personal search for an authentic Christian identity and ethic. P: Sr. stdg. and PHL 250 or THL 250.

THL 420 Science and Religion (3) OD (Same as PHL 420, SRP 420)

WOMEN’S AND GENDER STUDIES

For the Women’s and Gender Studies Program of Study, please refer to page 214.

WGS 300(200) Introduction to Women’s and Gender Studies (3) OD
This introduction to the interdisciplinary fields of Women’s and Gender Studies presents a historical, sociological, cultural, and theoretical overview of how gender has been lived and understood over the past two hundred years. In addition to providing the basic vocabularies and concepts central to women’s, feminist, and gender studies, the course will enable students to analyze the ways in which conceptions of "womanhood" and "manhood" intersect with class, race, ethnicity, sexuality, ability, and age to define social categories, shape identities, and form (or re-form) systems of power, privilege, and oppression.

WGS 316 Women in Ancient Greece and Hellenistic Egypt (3) OD (Same as CNE 316)
Survey of aspects of women’s lives in Greek and Greco-Egyptian antiquity incorporating the evidence of art, literature, and archaeology: study of the constructs of the female and the feminine. Readings from ancient and modern sources. P: So. stdg. or IC.

WGS 317 Women in Ancient Rome and Roman Egypt (3) OD (Same as CNE 317)
Survey of aspects of women’s lives in Roman and Roman-Egyptian antiquity incorporating the evidence of art, literature, and archaeology; study of the constructs of gender and gender roles. Readings from ancient and modern sources. P: So. stdg.

WGS 318 Gender in American Society (3) I (Same as AMS 318, SOC 318)
Comprehensive examination of the forces shaping the position and behavior of women and men in modern American society. How and why do these positions and behavior differ? What are the consequences of these differences? Emphasis on gender as enacted across the spectrum of multicultural diversity in American society, with some comparison to other societies. P: So. stdg.

WGS 329 Gender and Politics (3) OD (Same as PLS 329)
Examines issues of gender and politics from political theory, political behavior and public policy perspectives. Students critique democratic theory, analyze gender differences in voting and in officials’ behavior, and develop proposals to address policy problems. P: So. stdg.

WGS 348 Philosophy of Feminism (3) OD (Same as PHL 348)
An examination of a number of philosophical approaches, such as those rooted in existentialism, liberalism, and Marxism, to issues concerning gender. Topics from fields such as ethics, politics, philosophy of law, epistemology, and philosophy of science will be addressed. P: PHL 107, and one of the following: (a) PHL 201, (b) PHL 250, (c) PHL 312, or (d) PHL 320.

WGS 360 Gender, Society and Culture (3) II (Same as AMS 360, ANT 360, SOC 360)
Examines gender from a holistic perspective, including language, biology, cultural history, and socio-cultural variables. The course will examine gender in a wide variety of cultures. P: So. stdg.

WGS 409 Race and Gender Relations: Moral and Ethical Dilemmas (3) S (Same as ANT/SRP/SWK 409)
This course explores the multiple faceted experience of being a person of color, a specific gender and immigrants in the United States. Institutional forces (economic, educational, familial, political and social welfare) are examined that influence the structure and status of persons of color, immigrants and women and men. Emphasis is understanding the diversity of the United States and the connections between and among race, gender and class and their complexity. Ways to better understand and interact are presented in addition to ways to foster social change. P: Sr. stdg.

WGS 410 Women in Literature (3) OD (Same as ENG 410)
Literary works by and about women. P: Jr. stdg.

WGS 435 Women, Art and Society (3) (Same as ARH 435)
This course is an exploration of women both as the subjects and the creators of art from antiquity to the present. In this class we will examine the creation, modification and persistence of images of women throughout history, while at the same time we will survey the history of women artists and their artistic contributions. In studying these works of art, we will place equal emphasis on formal analysis and on contextual history.
WGS 440  Gender Communication (3) II (Same as COM 440)
Focuses on the similarities and differences in the communicative behaviors of women and men. Lectures, in-class experiential exercises, role-playing, and group discussions devoted to such topics as female-male roles and stereotypes; differences in verbal and nonverbal codes; partnership styles and alternatives; specific communication skills aimed at female-male relationships in a variety of settings (e.g., education, the workplace, the media, etc.); and special problem areas of female-male communication.

WGS 460  The History of Women in the United States (3) OD (Same as AMS 460, HIS 460)
The economic, social, and political status of women in the United States from colonial times to the present. Concentration on four major topics: the family, the work place, the community, and the feminists movements. An integral part is the examination of the traditional roles of women in society as well as changes in those roles. P: So. stdg.

WGS 462  Gender, Work, and Organizing (3) OD (Same as COM 462)
This course explores what it means to "work" and organize in a gendered world from a communicative perspective. Topics include how labor is valued differently whether performed in the public (i.e., business and government) or private realm (i.e., domestic work, childcare and eldercare) - and by whom such labor is performed.

WGS 464  Gender and Sexuality in East Asia (3) II (Same as HIS 464)
Focus on the role and status of women in China and Japan since the 16th century, emphasizing how, why and by whom womanhood has been defined and redefined over time. P: So. stdg.

WGS 473  The Psychology of Gender (3) OD (Same as PSY 473)
This course will examine the topic of gender - the behaviors and attitudes that relate to (but are not entirely congruent with) biological sex. A critical review of gender research is going to be at the center of this class. We will review empirical articles on sex, gender-related behaviors taken from the areas of psychology, sociology, biology, biochemistry, neurology, evolution, and anthropology to generate an overall picture of gender from a psychological perspective. P: IC.

WGS 477  Gendered Health Across the Lifespan (3) (Same as COM 477, HAP 477, SRP 477)
A great human concern in our society is the gendered construction of health and how individuals are affected by health decisions. This interdisciplinary course will explore gendered health issues from a unique perspectives involving ethical, biocultural and psychosocial perspectives across the lifespan. The first part will lay the theoretical groundwork and identify policy and ethical concerns; the second part will examine gendered health issues across the lifespan. P: Sr. stdg. and pHL 250/THL 250.

WGS 479  The Philosophy of Love and Sex (3) OD (Same as PHL 479)
A philosophical investigation of the nature of love, the different kinds of love, the relationship between love and beauty, and between love and sex. P: PHL 107, and one of the following: PHL 201, PHL 250, PHL 312, or PHL 320.

WGS 495  Directed Independent Study (1-3) OD
May be repeated to a limit of six hours. P: DC.

WGS 518  Women and the Bible (1-3) OD (Same as THL 518)
Study of the representations of women in biblical narratives; attention to the construction of gender in the ancient world. Introduction to the various approaches contemporary women are taking to these biblical texts. P: THL 100 and a 200-level Scripture course and Jr. stdg.

WGS 551  Women Writers in French and Francophone Literature (3) OD (Same as FRN 551)
This course offers students the opportunity to read a wide variety of texts written by women in French across the centuries as well as to consider the notion of “écriture féminine” (feminin writing). Students will explore how women have represented women and gender in French and Francophone literature through the specific lens of French feminist theory. P: One 300-level FRN course or IC.

WGS 568  Women in the Christian Tradition (3) OD (Same as THL 568)
Study of the outlook on man, woman, and divinity in the Bible, the Christian churches past and present, and “post-Christian” feminism. Examination of the Judeo-Christian tradition, both the pervasiveness of its patriarchal assumptions, and the liberating resources it can contribute to a healthy understanding of maleness and femaleness today. P: 200-level Scripture course; Jr. stdg.
