

The National Institutes of Health (NIH) has issued new requirements biographical sketches (biosketches) submitted on or after January 25, 2022.

General
Follow the format and instructions outlined in NIH guidance https://grants.nih.gov/grants/forms/biosketch.htm	Required
Section A: Personal Statement
Brief description of why investigator is well-suited for the role on the proposed project. Can include ongoing and completed research projects from the past three years that you want to draw attention to (previously captured under Section D. Research Support).	Required
Citation of up to four (4) publications or research products that highlight the investigator's experience and qualifications for the proposed project. Use of hyperlinks and URLs to cite these items is not allowed.	Allowed
Section B: Positions, Scientific Appointments, and Honors
List in reverse chronological order all current positions and scientific appointments both domestic and foreign. Include: <ul style="list-style-type: none"> <li>All affiliations with foreign entities or governments</li> <li>All titled academic, professional, or institutional appointments</li> </ul> For both categories, indicate whether remuneration is received and whether the position is full-time, part-time, or voluntary (including adjunct, visiting, or honorary)	Required
Section C: Contribution to Science
No updates or changes to instructions	Required
Section D: Research Support
	Removed for research applications (some information can still be included in Section A) Scholastic Performance still required for Fellowship applications

For more Biosketch Format Pages, Instructions and Samples <https://grants.nih.gov/grants/forms/biosketch.htm>