TRAINING REQUIREMENTS

All Authorized Users of radioactive material must meet the required training and experience indicated in the following flowchart:

4–8 hours of radiation safety orientation at Creighton University covering the Radiation Safety Manual and Review of Lab Set-Up and Procedures → Approved → Radiation Worker (uCi. quantities)

Yes → Documented formal training as per Section 7.3.1 of the Radiation Safety Manual

No → Complete program documentation review. Submit problem set or pass test.

Yes → College degree or equivalent experience → Approved → Radiation Worker (mCi. quantities)

Yes → 160 hours of experience in safe handling of radioactive materials → Approved → Authorized User

Yes → Additional training and experience as specified in the Nebraska Regulations for the Control of Radiation—Ionizing, Section 15 → Approved → Authorized User (human use)