This partner program is our way to provide your company with access to special discounts and features exclusive to enrolled members who buy online from us. These are our benefit we offer in return for your willingness to communicate to your employees about The Amazing Pizza Machine.

Convenience AND savings. The Promo Codes gets you our best year-round deal prices. But you also get to speed through the cashier transaction in the store. You will have already paid for your group, so we can have you processed and on your way to play in under two minutes.

What does use of the Promo Code get me?

Savings! While any guest of The Amazing Pizza Machine may make advance purchases, Amazing Employee Rewards members who use a Promo Code always save even more!

What items can I buy online? Everything?

Offers are updated throughout the year and include buffet & play combo admission packages, buffet-only admissions, and a la carte arcade play cards. What if I lost my confirmation number or couldn't print out the confirmation email?

The best way is to check in with your confirmation email in hand. If you received the email to your smart phone, that will work as well. Presenting your confirmation email with its confirmation code and order barcode is always your fastest way to check in and be on your way to fun!
