

Fraternity and Sorority Checklist

- SLIC Semester Report
This form provides an overview of your organization's activity, including information about service hours completed, funds raised, who's in your organization and how students have developed.
- SLIC Re-registration Form
This form provides information regarding leadership roles within your organization and notifies the University that your club would like to be active on campus.
- CU Involved New Officer Information
This keeps your CU Involved page current for students who are interested in learning more about your club.
- Moderator Training
This online training needs to be completed every three years by your club's moderator for your club to remain in good standing with the University.
- CSU Fall Conference
This required training provides information on policies, applying for funding, ordering catering and running a student club.
- Event Form
To host events on or off campus, your club will need to submit this form to provide necessary information about the event.
- Children and Vulnerable Adults Training
If your club interacts with children through service or activities, members will need to complete this training to learn the policies and procedures.
- Travel Form
If your club travels, this form (which is part of the event form) will need to be filled out to share who is traveling and why they are traveling. This form provides necessary information for travelers' safety.
- FSL Measure
An annual accreditation tool that assists with telling the FSL story of development and living values.
- FSL Leaders Retreat (December 1, 2018)
Leaders within the community are required to attend the FSL Retreat to learn about their roles, Creighton's policies and procedures and being a leader within the Creighton FSL community.
- New Member Retreat (February 2, 2019)
All new members to the FSL community are required to attend a training to learn about the community, policies and procedures and what it means to be a fraternity man or sorority woman at Creighton.
