CANDIDE VILLARD

Being only a freshman, I decided early in my collegiate journey to get confirmed. With this decision I soon started to attend the Spring confirmation classes that Campus Ministry offers to Creighton Students. Through this new community, I met college students just like me continue reading...

MIKE ALBRIGHT

The constant activities and perpetual deadlines of college life can be overwhelming at times. These were definitely my highest priorities when I came to Creighton and, as a result, I lost sight of other important things in my life, including my faith. continue reading...

KARA HARVEY

The Silent Retreat has been the most life-giving experience I have had with Campus Ministry. I describe it to friends as three and a half days of adoration due to the sum of graces I received from God, one of which was the gift of curiosity. continue reading...

MICHAEL FRANCO

One of my most life-giving experiences within Campus ministry has been Freshmen Retreat. In going out on the retreat as a freshman, then coming back to help lead as a sophomore, I have found a place to both reconnect with my faith, and form intentional relationships. Interfaith Team reaches out on the mall for #BetterTogetherDay

April 10th was #BetterTogetherDay – a day to celebrate how the different faith traditions and spiritual identities in our Creighton community allow us to be a better community for each other!

The Interfaith Core Team organized a tabling event asking students to share why they think a diverse spiritual community makes us a better Creighton. Around 100 students stopped by our table on the Mall Tuesday afternoon to share their perspective!

Look for more events from the Interfaith Core Team next year, and contact Beth Samson if you're interested in getting involved in interfaith work.

VIA - the way

Recently, a group of juniors and seniors spent time at Fontenelle Forest on a faith filled, reflective hike. Look for more VIA opportunities next school year and you can take some time away from campus and let the team guide you through this outdoor, reflective experience!

THANK YOU!

The staff and student leaders in Campus Ministry were overwhelmed with gratitude at the incredible generosity we witnessed on Creighton's first-ever Giving Day on Wednesday, April 11th!

Nearly 100 donors made up of parents of students, alumni, faculty, staff and even current students gave a total of $11,739. We will be able to use every one of these dollars to make a direct and deep impact on the lives of the students we accompany in our ministry. Again, we want to give everyone who gave and who shared our message, a huge Thank You!
