This responsibility includes insuring that only those of legal drinking age possess and/or consume alcoholic beverages, refusing to serve people who appear, act, or behave in an intoxicated manner; providing sufficient quantities of non-alcoholic beverages as dictated by the event and the crowd; and, finally, providing sufficient quantities of food throughout the event. In addition, the group has the responsibility of restricting alcohol to the designated area.

5. Public advertising or open access to social events where alcoholic beverages are being served may not be in the best interest of the sponsoring group or of Creighton University. Therefore, any event open to the general public will be scrutinized very carefully.
6. For those on-campus social events where students are present and alcoholic beverages are being served, Public Safety personnel shall be notified of the event to determine whether or not an officer should be present. The sponsoring group is responsible for any Public Safety expenses that may result.
7. Consuming or possessing open containers of alcoholic beverages is prohibited in hallways, bathrooms, stairwells, general lounges, lobbies, study rooms, and all public areas unless the area is specified as part of an event coordinated by the Centralized Reservations Office.
