

Red Lines Between War and Peace: From Russia's Invasion of Ukraine to Taiwan's Defense of Democracy
An East-West Philosophical Inquiry in Search of World Peace

April 17-23, 2023

All events are free and open to the public

Events Include:

April 17 - 22, 2023 Week-long Photo Show: Fight the Good Fight, Finish the Race, Keep Good Faith
Art Gallery at Skutt Student Center

April 17, 11:30 am to 12:30 pm - Photo Show Reception: Cherishing Hope with the Ukraine Refugee students in Warsaw, Poland
Location: Art Gallery at Skutt Student Center

April 17, 5:30 pm to 7:00 pm - Eppley Building Room 309
Asian World Center Creighton Faculty Lecture - Topic: What Is Behind Russia's War in Ukraine, and Why: A Historical and Realistic Analysis
Terry D. Clark, PhD. Professor of Political Science, Creighton University
Location: Eppley Building Room 309

April 18, 12:30 to 2:00 pm - Skutt Student Center Room 105
Asian World Center Guest Luncheon Roundtable Discussion
Speakers: Dr. Yuliia Kravchenko, Head of Critical Thinking Development Lab, Kyiv, Ukraine. Fulbright Visiting Scholar at Columbia University.
Mr. Scott Jordan: Speech Writer and Advisor to The Prime Minister of Malaysia
Mr. Tadashi Nomura, Former Coordinator of the Japan Foundation Outreach Initiative at the Asian World Center
Moderator: Mr. Andy Schilling, Honorary Consul for Japan to Nebraska, and Former US Diplomat, US State Department

April 19, 11:30 pm to 1:00 pm - Skutt Student Center Room 105
Asian World Center Creighton Distinguished Guest Lecture
Topic: Careful What You Wish For: Ukraine, Taiwan, and the Lessons of War
Dr. Matthew Crosston, Professor of National Security and Director of Academic Transformation, Bowie State University.

April 19, 5:30 pm to 7:30 pm - Skutt Student Center Room 105
Roundtable Discussion: Voices from Everyone: A Dialogue between Different Generations on Philosophy of Peace

April 20, 6:00 pm to 7:30 pm - Harper Center 2057 and 2058
Keynote Dinner Lecture
Topic: Doing Business, Promoting Peace
Distinguished Speaker: Beverley Kracher, PhD.,
Heider College of Business, Creighton University

April 21, 6:30 to 8:30 pm - Harper Center 2057 and 2058
P4C Keynote Lecture
Topic: The Power of Primal Wonder in Philosophy,
Education and a Good life
Speaker: Thomas Jackson, PhD., Professor of Philosophy,
University of Hawaii at Manoa

