

Creighton University's Christian Spirituality Program

Invites You . . .

. . . to contemplate, relax, revel, and enjoy God's working in your life
. . . to participate in a silent, eight day, directed retreat

Dates for the 2022 Retreat

May 26 - June 4

Creighton University Retreat Center, Griswold, Iowa

$800 includes room, meals, and daily spiritual direction

"The nature of this retreat is such that there is minimal scheduled time together for the retreatants. There are no group presentations or conferences. Our daily rhythm will consist of three meals taken together in the silent atmosphere of the retreat as well as daily liturgy, the Mass, in which persons of all faith traditions are invited to participate. Each retreatant will be matched with a spiritual director based on the information provided in the application process. The focus of the daily spiritual direction sessions will be the retreatant's prayer experience, their experience of God in the stuff of their daily life, what they are noticing about how God is present and so forth."

"Basically, the retreat is a time of being (rather than doing), a time of entering more deeply into one's relationship with God. The spiritual director might suggest some particular Scripture passages to assist retreatants in staying grounded in their own experience of life, what they might sense that God is calling them to focus on at this point in their lives."

"You may wonder why 'Ignatian' is in the title. Briefly, this implies a kind of underlying theme of the Spiritual Exercises, namely, that because we are loved by God unconditionally, we are invited to enter more fully - with our whole selves - into a relationship with Christ that results in our coming to view ourselves more consciously as participating in Christ's mission, in the Kingdom of God 'where the tire hits the road' in our lives."

Sr. Janice Bachman, O.P., Director of Practica, Graduate Program in Christian Spirituality, Creighton University
