

All Things Ignatian

Ignatian Values in Pharmacy Professional Development

Jenny Tilleman, Bill Hamilton, Diane Jorgensen, Marty Kalkowski, Kelli Coover, Rhonda Jones

Pharmacy Class of 2014 P1 Retreat

Background

When the Pharmacy Faculty began updating the educational outcomes for pharmacy graduates, the Ignatian Values were recognized as an important component of a Creighton Education. It was decided to explicitly include the Ignatian Values in Welcome Week, Professional Development Seminar (6 semester sequence) and Class Retreats.

Pharmacy Class of 2011 P3 Retreat

Welcome Week

- Introduction to St. Ignatius and the Ignatian Values
- Service Project in the Omaha Metro Area
- Group reflection on Service Project

Welcome Week Service Project

Pharmacy Class of 2014 P1 Retreat

Class Retreats

- Team building activities
- Group sharing and reflection
- Individual quiet time for reflection
- Small group activities
- Witness talks
 - Vocation/Calling
 - Balancing professional/personal lives

Welcome Week Service Project

Professional Development Seminar

- One to two reflection sessions a semester
 - Refresher on the life of St. Ignatius
 - Cura Personalis
 - Magis
 - Women and men for and with Others
 - Social Justice
 - Discernment/Vocation
 - Finding God in all things
- Service Learning

Sponsored by the Creighton University Jesuit Community, in association with the Deglman Center for Ignatian Spirituality.