Celebrating Mission at Creighton University

Anna Tyler Waite Leadership Program

Heider College of Business

The Program

- Provides students with the opportunity to learn about and develop their leadership skills through guest speakers, self-reflection, and service in the community.
- Four year leadership program open to all Heider students.
 - Level 1: Students learn how leaders create socially responsible organizations.
 - Level 2: Students begin to develop their strengths and identify limitations.
 - Level 3: Students work in the community to further hone their skills.
 - Level 4: Students take on a leadership role in an organization.
- Students serve community in Levels 2 and 3.
- Students reflect on the entire experience in Level 4.

Level 2 Projects

- In the spring semester, student groups are given a $100 budget to carry out a service project to benefit a local non-profit organization.
- Organizations
 - Hope Center for Kids
 - Siena Francis House
 - Big Brothers/Big Sisters
 - Northstar Foundation
- Outcomes
 - Raised over $1000
 - Over 500 clothing items
 - Big Brothers/Big Sisters Matches

Level 3 Projects

- Students work in Community Assistance Teams (CAT) to assist non-profits with business-related problems
- CAT Partners
 - Keep Omaha Beautiful
 - Heartland Family Services
 - Family, Inc.
 - Heartland Hope Mission
- Feedback from Organizations
 - “Love your program and I wish I would have had that when I was in college!”
 - “(The students) service is an ongoing positive reflection on Creighton and its outreach into the greater community.”

Mission Contributions

- With its focus on service and reflection, our program is consistent with the Creighton University Mission.
- Jesuit Values
 - Magis – Students develop and grow as leaders, striving to learn “more”.
 - Unity of Heart, Mind, & Soul – Students recognize that effective leadership requires an integration of their entire person.
 - Forming & Educating Agents of Change – A focus on the servant and ethical components of leadership.
 - Women & Men for and with Others – Throughout the program, students serve the community in a number of ways, often benefiting organizations that serve the most vulnerable among us.
