CREIGHTON UNIVERSITY
Teaching and Learning Center
Supporting Excellence in Learning and Innovative Pedagogy

"...we want educators who are alive and awake, who own and relish the most important work in the world, who understand what it means to 'teach with fire.' We need teachers and administrators who are listeners and learners, poets and storytellers, people who can draw out, lift up, lead and follow."

-Palmer & VanderArk (2003,p. xxiv)

Team TLC

[Instructional Designers, Exam Developers, Media Designer, and

Assessment and Faculty Development Specialists]

partners with faculty and staff to enhance Creighton's teaching and learning mission to serve students.

We support enacting the Jesuit charisms of Cura Personalis, Magis, Men and Women for and With Others, and Reflection and Discernment by:

Consulting and Collaborating with faculty to enhance Creighton's teaching and learning mission to education students

Engaging
faculty-led assessment process to enhance student's achievement of goals and outcomes established by Creighton's programs

Creating
innovative and integrated forms of teaching together with reflective practices
