

Common Ground

Common Ground is an interprofessional forum where students of the health sciences learn the principles of public health and health disparities in an interactive manner.

Each session is noon–1 p.m.
Join Zoom by scanning the QR code.

SPRING 2022 SCHEDULE:

DATE	GUEST SPEAKER	TOPIC/DISCUSSION
JAN. 21	Andrew Bodlack, M2	Aspirin Use in Cardiovascular Events and Migraine with Aura: A National Emergency Department Sample and National Inpatient Sample Study
	Daniella Hinchman-Dominguez, M2	Traveling Mercies on the Road to Health: Journey Mapping After Acute Care
JAN. 28	Tommy Young-Dennis	HIV 101: A Clients Journey at Nebraska AIDS Project
FEB. 4	Anthony Montegut, MD	Correctional Healthcare: How This Affects Communities of Color
FEB. 11	Jacqueline Font-Guzmán, PhD, JD, MHA	Critical Race Theory
FEB. 18	Richard Brown, PhD, FACHE	African American Contribution to U.S. Healthcare
FEB. 25	Sade Kosoko-Lasaki, MD, MSPH, MBA	IPE Case Studies: Cultural and Ethnic Approaches to Health
MARCH 4	Alan Wang, MD	Redlining in North Omaha: The Disparity of WiFi Connectivity
MARCH 11	Spring Recess	No Common Ground
MARCH 18	Wayne Tate, PharmD, MBA	340B Pharmacies and How They Contribute to the Federally Qualified Healthcare Centers
MARCH 25	Stacy Ring	Disparities Among the Omaha Homeless Population: A Look at Substance Abuse and Mental Health
APRIL 1	Anissa Zimmerman, M4	Obstetric and Gynecological Care of the Transgender and Gender Diverse Populations
APRIL 8	Jodi McQuillen, PhD, LICSW	Behavioral Health Disparities in Aging: Recent Trends and the Impact of COVID 19 on Geriatric Mental Health
APRIL 15	Easter Recess	No Common Ground
APRIL 22	Kelly Dineen, RN, JD, PhD	How We Treat People During Drug Treatment in the Healthcare System
APRIL 29	Olugbemiga Ekundayo, MD MPH, DrPH	Evaluation and Wrap-up of Common Ground

Common Ground is funded by National Institutes of Health Community Oriented Primary Care Endowment NIH #1S21MD001102-01