Learning for today's healthcare teams.

In fiscal year 2025, continuing education offerings supported clinical teams across a wide range of specialties, including:

- Primary care, cardiology, neurology, pulmonology, infectious disease, emergency and trauma care
- Specialty conferences in burn care, lung transplant, pelvic health and orthopedics
- Ongoing Grand Rounds and journal clubs across medicine, surgery, psychiatry, radiology, OB/GYN and subspecialties

This breadth of CME and CE programming ensures that clinical excellence, quality improvement and patient-centered care remain central to professional development.

“With the growing cost of education, we are deeply grateful for this employee benefit. Having three sons at Creighton was an incredible joy, and this benefit allowed them to focus on their education and prepare for what comes next. This partnership reflects CommonSpirit’s commitment to its employees.”
