The Father Richard J. Hauser, S.J. Scholarship

Through the generosity of benefactors of Creighton University, additional financial assistance is available for students preparing to teach religion in a K-12 Catholic school. Scholarships for 25% of the amount of full tuition will be awarded as funds allow by the scholarship selection committee based on the criteria given below. There is no guarantee that all applicants will receive aid in a given semester. MA THL/RE candidates will be given priority for funding per the wishes of the benefactors; however, religious education teacher candidates are also strongly encouraged to apply for the scholarship.

Qualifications: You must. . .

- *be accepted as a student in the Graduate School or University College
- *be preparing to teach religion in a K-12 Catholic school

Other taxable income (i.e., interest, dividend, alimony)

- *demonstrate financial need based on the information supplied on this application
- *be registered for courses totaling a minimum of three semester hours
